The Daily News.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 29

Gold in New York 100⅜.

GRASS, eighteen inches in length, was cut on the Penitentiary slopes on Saturday last.

MR PATTERSON, late of the Mail, was a passenger by the Sarmatian, which arrived at Quebec yesterday.

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.—The Directors for the present week are the Mayor, and Messrs D. Fraser and G. M. Macdonnell.

DR. CROZIER, of Belleville, has been presented with a complimentary address and a purse containing over a hundred dollars, by the Oddfellows of Belleville.

THE FEDERAL BANK opened to-day for business in the Golden Lion Block. We have no doubt that the branch will be successful under the management of Messrs. Mair and Coxworthy.

CITY COUNCIL.—There will be no meeting of the Council to-night. There is no business of a very pressing character to come up, so that it can easily lie over until the regular meeting night.

THE POTATO BUG.—A gentleman digging in his garden on Saturday last turned up a number of potato bugs, which appeared quite lively, and nothing the worse of their confinement during the winter.

MR BOWERMAN, late in the insurance business, has resumed his occupation as a teacher, for which he is well qualified. He has been appointed head teacher in one of the Whitby Public Schools.

INDUCTIONS.—The induction of the Rev. R. J. Craig to the Presbyterian Church at Mill Point will take place on Wednesday next, and that of Rev. H. Gracey to the Church at Gananoque on Thursday next.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.—The attention of school teachers and others is directed to the advertisement of Dr. Agnew in another column, showing the dates for holding the July examinations for Public School teachers.

PERSONAL.—The Hon. Oliver Mowat was in the city on Friday and Saturday on private business.—Prof. Fenwick, of Montreal, is in town on a visit.—Principal Grant was expected to preach at Lansdowne yesterday.

MR RINE.—On Saturday evening, Mr D. I. K. Rine received an enthusiastic greeting at an meeting of the Central Rine Total Abstience Club of Toronto. A congratulating resolution was passed at the result of his trial.

THE BERGER FAMILY will appear at the City Hall this evening, and we hope they will have a crowded house upon the occasion, it being their first visit to Kingston, and the company being one of first-class merit.

THE DOG TAX.—The City Commissioner announces by advertisement that the dog tax is now due, and must be paid at once. Those animals which are not decorated with the new medal will be dogged, and their owners prosecuted.

THE WEATHER.—The weather during the last few days has been remarkably fine, genial showers falling in the evenings, which have a remarkably good effect on the seed which has just been put in the ground. The rain of to-day was of great benefit.

Y. M. C. A.—The Rev. R. McKay, with Messrs. G. B. Meadows, S. Ranton, D. McAllister and John Trenaman are delegates to the conference at Brockville. Daily and nightly services are held, and the work of the meeting is progressing smoothly and rapidly.

FURNITURE SALE.—We call attention to the great furniture sale by Mr Drennan, which will take place to-morrow, beginning at one o'clock. The sale is one of the most important which has taken place for some time, and ought to attract the attention of buyers.

INQUEST.—An inquest was held on Saturday afternoon by Coroner Shaw on the body of Christopher McDonald, who was accidentally killed by a horse trampling on him. The jury returned a verdict of "accidental death," and exonerated George Dick, the driver of the waggon.

LACROSSE.—Owing to the ground being so soft on Saturday afternoon there was no game played, but it is hoped that there will be some play this week. We hear that there is a probability of the Napanee Lacrosse Club giving the Maple Leafs a challenge. If that is the case our men had better practise hard.

Bajus' Lager in wood and bottle at Harback's, Agent for Kingston.

Marine Notes.

The steamer St. Alban's called at Swift's Dock yesterday.

A 1,400 ton ship named the New City was launched at Black River on Saturday.

The schooner Charlotte Rash, Acorn and Mary McVea are chartered for deals from Muskegon to Kingston at $3.75 per 1,000 feet.

Grain freights at Milwaukee on Tuesday were quiet and 1½c lower. The schooner Mary Lyon and brig C. G. Breed take wheat to Buffalo at 3½c.

ST. LAWRENCE & CHICAGO FORWARDING Co.—Arrivals—Schrs. Garibaldi, 6,820 bush peas and wheat, from Port Hope; Garibaldi, 10,000 bush wheat, from Whitby; Caledonia, 7,000 bush wheat, from Cobourg; H. B. Rathbun, 8,383 bush wheat, from Whitby; Flora Carveth, 13,400 bush wheat, from Port Hope. The tug Jessie Hall arrived with the rigged barges Mohawk and Seneca, with about 1,100 tons of iron from Hamilton. This tug made excellent towing, making the passage against a strong head wind in 33 hours.

The schrs. Vienna and Gold Hunter have been chartered to carry wheat to Kingston from Toronto at 1½ cents.

Short Notes.

Beautiful afternoon, the rain having stopped.

The tuneful mosquito will soon be "to the fore."

The Berger family at the City Hall this evening.

The weather is just splendid for the growing crops.

The steamer Peruvian arrived at Liverpool on Saturday.

The Belleville Ontario is still silent regarding the "Wesleyan minister."

There was a beautiful double rainbow on Saturday night during the rain storm.

"Legal Grubbings" by Mr R. V. Rogers, jr., at the Y.M.C.A. rooms this evening.

The Rev. R. McKay preached in the Baptist Church, Brockville, yesterday morning.

The Recorder says that 189 horses and 340 cattle have crossed to Morristown from Brockville in twenty-four days.

The last number of Queen's College Journal for the session has been received. It contains a full report of Convocation.

Margaret Ockley was the only victim before the Court this morning. She was dismissed and ordered to leave the city at once.

The amount contributed by Chalmers' Church to Knox College, Toronto, was yesterday announced to be $300, and the Home Mission Fund over $200.

Y.M.C.A. Conference at Brockville.

The Conference of Y.M.C.A. delegates met in the Lecture-room of the Canada Methodist Church, Brockville, on Friday at four o'clock. After half an hour spent in devotional exercises Mr P. E. Campbell, of Cornwall, read a paper on "How to make prayer meetings more interesting." At 8 o'clock a session was held in the First Presbyterian Church, when Messrs G. W. Meadows, Mackay and Ranton, of Kingston; Rolph, of Ottawa, and others spoke on the Association and its work. On Saturday morning discussions were held on "Association Bible Classes" introduced by Mr Rolph; "The distinct work of Y.M.C.A.'s," by Mr Meadows; and "What amusements can we afford young men" by Mr Ranton? At the afternoon session the devotional meeting was led by Mr McIrvine, of Lancaster, the Rev. Dr. Elliott delivering a very able address on "The office and work of the Holy Spirit." Mr A. Macalister, of Kingston, led off in the discussion on finances. Rev. R. MacKay read a paper on "How to engage young converts in our work," and Mr Soper, of Ogdensburg, N.Y., on "How to conduct Associations in small towns." A public meeting was to be held on Saturday evening in the Congregational Church.

THE REV. JAMES CARMICHAEL.—The great popularity of the Rev. James Carmichael, of Montreal, was demonstrated a few days ago by his receiving a presentation from the Irish Catholics of the city. And now the Irish Protestants have subscribed to a testimonial to the reverend gentleman, which was to have been presented to-day. On Friday evening last Mr Carmichael delivered an eloquent lecture on "O'Connell" at St. George's Church Schoolroom, which was much admired. Yesterday he was to preach a farewell sermon to the Prince of Wales' Rifles, of which he was chaplain.

YACHTING.—Mr Greene launched the Zephyr yesterday. She will be brought to her moorings in the harbour on Monday or Tuesday.——Cuthbert is building a five-ton boat at Trenton. She is already well advanced. There will be a decided improvement in this class of craft in the bay district this season, and Mr Cunningham's (of Kingston) Mystery will meet some smarter opponents than she had last year.——It is probable that the Cricket Club will offer prizes for the second and third class yachts at their regetta on the 24th.—Intelligencer.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.—The Church of England in this diocese has hitherto had as much as it could attend to with its Domestic or Home Missions, but a breathing space has been reached when some thought can be given to Foreign Missions as well. The meeting to be held at St. George's Hall to-morrow evening, under the presidency of the Bishop of the Diocese, will be a starting point for those who consider that more attention should be given to the subject of Foreign Missions, and we hope it will be well attended.

FIRE.—About five o'clock this morning fire was discovered in an empty house on Charles street, belonging to Mr Charles Rappe. The alarm being given the Fire Brigade turned out, but before they could reach the spot the fire had entirely consumed the building. The house was worth about $300, and there was no insurance on it. It is supposed to have been set on fire by bush-whackers, who have been in the habit of sleeping in empty houses around that quarter during the past winter.

Confirmation Services.

ST. GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL.—The sacred rite of Confirmation was administered at St. George's Cathedral yesterday morning by His Lordship the Bishop of Ontario. Morning prayer was read by the Rev. Henry Wilson and the lessons by the Very Reverend the Dean. After the third Collect the 354th hymn (Hymns A. & M.) was sung, after which the Rev. Dr. Boswell read the preface to the Confirmation Service. The candidates were presented to the Bishop by the Rev. Mr Wilson, who seated in a chair at the entrance to the chancel laid his hands upon them. The 181st Hymn was then sung, "Soldiers of Christ Arise," after which the Bishop delivered a brief but earnest address to the newly confirmed persons and the members of the congregation. He said he did not think it necessary to address them on the subject of Confirmation; that was now over. He was always pleased to be present in the Cathedral on such occasions as these, as there were always such large classes, and upon the present occasion he understood there were one hundred and fifty persons present to witness the confirmation who had been confirmed in previous years. During the sixteen years he had been Bishop, he had confirmed seven hundred persons in this church. These were no doubt scattered all over the world. Some had gone above, others remained, and some perhaps had fallen away. He charged them to remember the vow that they had this day taken, and whenever they were tempted to sin against the moral law or the law of the Church to think of their public profession and promise. In this manner they might turn their confirmation to a practical result, God's grace helping them. Passing on to a means of grace, the highest in the Church, to which they were invited, he trusted they were prepared for that celebration in a proper spirit. He thought this was a proper time for them to receive their first communion, at Easter-tide, which was a commemoration of the resurrection. He explained the Feast of the Passover and drew several parallelisms between it and the Lord's Supper. He considered that dissenters, schismatics and many Church people were mistaken in regarding the Sacrament only as a reminder. Although they might receive the Sacrament on Easter Day that was no reason why they should not receive it on many other Sundays in the year as well. They should endeavour by God's grace to make the Sacrament serve a good purpose until they received it again. Henceforth by their life and conversation they could recommend to the world such services as those of to-day, or they might give the world a chance of saying that those who were unconfirmed were just as good as those who were, and in this way they might do an injury to the Church. Many no doubt come to Church and communion whose lives are not in accordance with their professions, but that was no argument against doing their duty discreetly and conscientiously. He urged upon them never to turn their backs upon the table of the Lord. He greatly rejoiced that the opportunities for receiving the Eucharist were so greatly increased in this Church. In conclusion he urged upon them to be diligent in private prayer, and in the study of God's Word.

The number confirmed was 44, of whom 27 were females and 17 males. Including the newly confirmed 146 partook of the Communion, which is a very large number, considering that Easter Day was only the week previous.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.—The Bishop of Ontario administered the sacred rite of confirmation at All Saints' Church last evening to nine persons. The Ven. Archdeacon Parnell read the lessons, the service being read by the Rev. T. Bousfield. After the confirmation the Bishop delivered an excellent and impressive address to the candidates.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE, MONTREAL.—The session of this institution closed on Friday, the Rev. Dr. Douglas, Principal, presiding. The Rev. W. I. Shaw, B.A., LL.B., explained that there had been seventeen students registered during the year. He briefly reviewed the curriculum, which embraced Theology, Homiletics, Church History, Apologetics, Classics and Church Polity, the students attending McGill University for the Natural Sciences. The Rev. Le Roy Hooker addressed the students, and insisted upon the necessity of an educated ministry. Prizes were then presented to successful students in the various classes. Principal Dawson's prize, offered for competition to the theological students of the city who had attended his lectures delivered before them, was won by Mr A. J. Barthrop, who delivered the valedictory address. The Revs. E. B. Harper, M.A., J. W. J. Sparling, M.A., B.D., W. H. Withrow, M.A., editor of the Methodist Magazine, and Dr. Fowler, all of the Board of Examiners, delivered addresses. The College will re-open at the same time as McGill next session. Several of the students have finished their work, and those who have not done so will be employed on missions during the summer.

THE MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS.—The examination of medical students of the first year and those of the final year for license by the Ontario Medical Council began this morning at the City Hall. About fifty candidates in all classes were present. The examiners are Dr. Logan, Ottawa; Dr. Bergin, Cornwall; Dr. McLoughlin, Bowmanville, and Dr. Fowler, Kingston. The oral examinations will begin on the 14th May at the City Hall, the examiners being Drs. Workman, Kennedy and H. H. Wright, of Toronto, and Dr Morrison, of Newmarket. The written examinations will probably last until Friday next.

ORANGE FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late William H. Bennett, which took place on Wolfe Island yesterday, was numerously attended. A large number of Orangemen and Britons went over from the city in regalia, and joined their brethren of the Island in paying the last respects to the deceased. The islanders turned out in large numbers also.

THE FUNERAL OF MR JOSEPH SMITH yesterday was one of the largest seen in the city for many a day, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased and his friends are held. After a short service at St. Mary's Cathedral the cortege proceeded to the Roman Catholic Cemetery, where the remains were deposited.

Easter Vestry Meetings.

NAPANEE.—The annual meeting in connection with St. Mary Magdalene's Church was held at eleven o'clock on Monday. Mr Chas. McGreer was re-appointed Warden by the Rector, and Dr. Clements re-elected on behalf of the people. The sidesmen appointed were Messrs. J. B. McGuin, G. H. Downey, H. Douglas and C. A. Hooper. Mr. Luke Carscallen, Sr., was appointed lay delegate of the Synod.—Beaver.

ADOLPHUSTOWN.—The annual Easter Vestry meeting was held in St. Paul's Church on Monday at 3 p.m., the Rev. R. Harding, Rector, in the chair. The record of the last annual meeting being read, the Churchwardens presented their accounts, showing that the expenditure did not exceed the receipts. The Rector re-nominated Capt. J. Chalmers as his Warden, and Mr. Alfred Taverner was re-elected by the Vestry. Capt. J. Chalmers was re-elected to represent the congregation at the Ontario Synod for the next three years.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH, PERTH.—The regular Vestry meeting of St. James' Church, Perth, was held at Mr Carman's office on Monday evening last. There was a fair attendance, and the proceedings were of the most harmonious character. The auditors' report showed a small balance on hand, but not quite enough to meet existing liabilities. A resolution was passed adopting the envelope system again, after which Mr. H. Carman was appointed the people's Churchwarden and the Rector reappointed Mr S. R. Loucks. Mr J. F. Millar was appointed delegate to the Synod, after which the meeting dispersed.

FREDERICKSBURG.—The annual Easter Vestry meeting was held in St. Paul's Church on Monday at 10 o'clock a.m. The Rev. R. Harding, Rector, being chairman. The Churchwardens presented their financial statement, which was thought to be satisfactory considering that the Church was entirely free for the past year, for the first time. A resolution was adopted that seats should continue to be free for the present year. The receipts equalled the expenditure. The Rector nominated Mr J. Fitchett as his Warden, and Mr Allen Neilson was re-elected by the Vestry. Mr Allen Neilson and Mr Wm Phippen represent the congregation at the Ontario Synod.

MADOC.—At the Easter Vestry meeting, the Rev. A. F. Echlin in the chair, Mr A. B. Ross was appointed Incumbent's Warden, while Mr J. Baily was elected People's Warden. The Lay Delegates are Mr C. Green, Mr C. B. Daly and Mr A. B. Ross. The following were the receipts during the past year:

Subscriptions towards Incumbent's stipend	$175 89
Special collections	43 33
Offertory collections	79 89
Mission Fund collections	44 00
Collected towards Parsonage Fund	60 00
Total	$403 11

The church expenses for the past year amounted to $82.24. The Vestry was adjourned till Thursday, May 2nd.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, BROCKVILLE.—At the vestry meeting of St. Peter's Church on Monday evening, Judge McDonald was elected People's Warden, Mr Cochrane Rector's Warden, and John Crawford, Esq., re-elected delegate to the Church Synod. Allan Turner, jr., John Healy, jr., E. J. Reynolds and Dr. Jackson were added to the list of sidesmen. The financial statement of the past year was not presented, but will be handed in to the adjourned meeting two weeks from last night. Mr George Weatherhead and Mr Lloyd Thomas were appointed Auditors. The committee appointed to confer with the heirs of the Jones' estate, relative to the disposal of the old cemetery property on James street, reported that they had been unable to trace out the deed conveying the property to the church. It is hoped that the committee will yet be successful, as it is very desirable that the property should be put to other purposes than is witnessed at the proper time.—Recorder.

PROFESSIONS RELIED AGAIN.

The Dominion Minister at Work for the Quebec Government.

Mr Laflamme, the Minister of Justice, is absent—personally canvassing Jacques Cartier, accompanied by his Local candidate, St. Pierre! Of course he takes in the Lachine district, with its land jobbery, canal trickery and other influences. This is the man who narrowly escaped being unseated—escaped—shall we say how? For the honour of the Bench, we shall refrain from doing so. But to find M. Laflamme now in Jacques Cartier, to find this besmeared politician interfering in the Local contest, when dual representation was done away with, and the Dominion "Liberal" policy pretends to be a total separation of Provincial and Federal politics—is simply disgraceful. But what too bad, what too infamous politically speaking for a Quebec Rouge of the Lachine-Laflamme stripe?

CHALMERS' CHURCH.—Mr A. H. Scott, M.A., preached an excellent sermon at Chalmers' Church last evening, taking as his text the first clause of 2nd Chronicles vi. 18—"But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth?" The discourse was well wrought out and was much appreciated by the congregation. Mr Scott will leave for Owen Sound in a few days. We wish him success in the important field of usefulness in which he will hereafter labour. He proved himself to be an industrious student, and we feel confident that he will make an earnest minister of the gospel.

FOOT RACE AT TORONTO.—The foot race between James McLoughlin of this city and J. S. Barnes of Toronto, 150 yards for $50 a side, came of on Saturday afternoon at the latter place. The start was a flying one, and the Toronto man won easily by four yards. It is whispered around town to-day that it was a "put up job" in the race, and that it was arranged that Barnes was to win. We do not know if this is true or not, but if it is, it is a sure way of bringing a good sport into disrepute.

PROMENADE CONCERT.—A promenade concert and military display will take place at the Drill Shed on the evening of Wednesday the 8th May, for the purpose of raising funds to defray the expenses of the band of A Battery at the Montreal jubilee. The admission fee will be 25 cents. Particulars will be anounced in a day or two.

YOUNG MEN'S CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION.—The meeting for the formation of a Young Men's Conservative Association will be held on Wednesday evening at Bethel Hall, over Wade's drug store, King street. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of young men.

LECTURE.—A lecture will be delivered in St. Mary's Cathedral on the 12th of May by the Rev. E. H. Murray, on "Pius the 9th." A rich treat may be expected.

PROBABILITIES for the next twenty-four hours: For the lower lake region, moderate to fresh winds and cloudy weather with rain followed by clearing weather.

Bajus' Lager in wood and bottle at Harback's, Agent for Kingston.

The Montreal Witness states that in conversation with a reporter a leading Irish Catholic citizen stated that he had received a letter from an influential friend in New York, saying that if the Orangemen of Ontario persisted in coming down to walk with the Montreal brethren on the 12th of July, 50,000 Irish Catholics in Boston, New York, Albany and Troy were ready to come over to Montreal and defend Irish Catholic rights here.
