MR WILLIAM ROBINSON.—We learn that Mr William Robinson, M.P.P., is on a visit at Salem, New York State.

HARVESTING.—Barley was cut on the Penitentiary farm to-day, which is very early even for that cereal. A very good crop is reported.

BEATEN.—Two men of A Battery were thrashed by a number of rowdies last night. They were able to go to Montreal with their comrades this morning. The assailants were not apprehended.

KEEWATIN.—It was reported in Court to-day that if one of the Grit barristers was successful in his efforts to improve the Reform side of the voters list, he would be appointed Chief Justice of Keewatin.

PROBABILITIES for the next 24 hours For the lower lake region, moderate to fresh winds, and partly cloudy weather. For the St. Lawrence, moderate winds and partly cloudy weather, with possibly local showers.

WOULDN'T BITE.—It is said that some of the officers of A Battery endeavoured to effect insurances against accident, before leaving for Montreal, but the companies applied to would not bite at the offer.

P. M. CHURCH EXCURSION.—The excursion of the Primitive Methodist Church to the Camp Meeting did not leave until about noon, owing to the heavy rain which prevailed at the advertised time of starting. About 200 persons were on board.

BATHING.—We announced yesterday that a number of persons had been up before the Police Court on a charge of bathing within prohibited hours. As it is not generally known what constitutes "prohibited hours," we think those in authority should publish the by-law.

THE REV. A. C. CHAMBERS, late Methodist minister at Portsmouth, will leave that place for his new mission, Morven, to-morrow. During his long stay in Portsmouth, Mr Chambers has made many warm friends, both there and in this city, who heartily wish him success in his new sphere of labour.

THE WEATHER.—The weather early this morning was warm and sultry. About ten o'clock, however, the sky became clouded and soon afterwards a regular torrent of rain fell, which proved very acceptable. All forenoon the cloudy character of the sky continued, but the day turned out very fine afterwards.

THE STRATHROY DEMONSTRATION. A great Conservative demonstration took place at Strathroy, in West Middlesex on Monday, in honour of Sir John Macdonald. The town was handsomely decorated with arches and bunting, and an immense crowd attended. A procession, a mile long, was formed and notwithstanding the damp weather the feeling was most enthusiastic. Addresses were presented to Sir John. Speeches were afterwards delivered by Hon. W. Macdougall, Hon. J. Carling, Sir John Macdonald and others.

THE PHONOGRAPH.—Mr Elion, agent for Edison's phonograph, has arrived in the city, and purposes giving a series of exhibitions with the wonderful machine. The exhibitions will be in the vacant store next to Heath & Gunn's, Princess Street. The reporter of the NEWS interviewed the machine to-day, and found it all that it is said to be. It talks, laughs, sings, &c., in the most natural manner. We advise every one to visit Mr Elion's exhibitions, as we are convinced that it will give satisfaction. It will remain in town for a few days.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION AT BATTERSEA.—Some party or parties, either overzealous for a bonfire on the 4th of July or on mischief bent, set fire to the old scow belonging to Mr Vanvalkenberg about 10 p.m. Fortunately the night was a very calm one, or the greater part of the village might have been fired. A number of the citizens were obliged to remain by the fire all night for the purpose of watching while the others slept. Such wanton destruction of property by ill-disposed persons is very reprehensible, and if discovered it is to be hoped they will be severely punished.—Com.

HEAVY DAMAGES.—The Montreal Star says: The time of the Court at St. Johns has been occupied for the past nine days by the jury trial of the case of Wilson vs. The Grand Trunk Railway Company. The action was brought by the plaintiff, Richard Wilson, who is connected with the Customs Department at St. Johns, for the recovery of damages resulting from his being run over by one of the company's trains by which he lost one arm and was otherwise injured. The jury, after deliberation, brought in a verdict of negligence on the part of the Company, assessing Mr Wilson's damage at $5,000.

Educational.

THE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION.—The Entrance Examinations to the Collegiate Institute began yesterday at Ontario Hall and will finish this afternoon. Mr Kidd is superintending the examinations. There are 76 candidates, of whom 20 are from the country. We are informed that the Arithmetic paper submitted to the candidates is absurdly difficult, and will probably be the cause of many failures.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS.—The following are the candidates for teachers' second-class certificates at the examinations now going on in the Court House: Misses Dick, Dunlop, Gill, Hayward, McCool, Nicholson, Sutherland, Pugh, C. Woolard, J. Woolard, and Mr Thomas H. McGuirl. There were fifteen applicants, but only eleven presented themselves for examination to the presiding examiner, Mr Knight. The candidates belong to both the city and county.

The action of the County and District Orange Lodges in deciding not to go to Montreal under present circumstances is generally endorsed throughout the city.

For a rich man to make a will that will please his heirs, is about as difficult a task as for an editor to undertake to print a newspaper to please all his readers.—Portland Democrat.

Mr Beecher somewhat surprised his congregation on Sunday by reading his sermon from manuscript, a most unusual occurrence with the Plymouth preacher. His subject was "Weariness in Well Doing," a feeling he declared to be as old as the Apostles.

A plain speaking country minister was asked one day how it happened that, considering the good example supposed to be set before them, so many ministers' sons should turn out ne'er do-wells. "That's easily accounted for," said the divine. "You see the devil kens he canna get hand o' the geese, so he just make grab amang the gaislins!"

THE LATE MRS. FRANKLIN, OF PITTSBURGH.—One of those sad events that casts a gloom over an entire community took place on the 3rd instant, in the death of Mrs Franklin, of Pittsburgh. She was taken hopelessly ill sixteen days before her death; but those who loved her best never despaired of her ultimate recovery till the very last. She had been delirious during her whole illness until a few hours before her death, when she became conscious, and calling her family around her took a last sad farewell of each; and though young in years yet full of good works she passed quietly away. No death has occurred in the township in very many years that has caused so much sorrow, not only in her own family but among all those who were acquainted with her. She was an earnest, active Christian, and one in whom faith and good works went hand in hand. Dying at the early age of 43, she yet left behind her a well educated and cultured family, who, before sorrow darkened their lives, reflected the cheerfulness of that sunshine with which she filled their home. Her children have the entire sympathy of all who had the least acquaintance with their kind, cultivated and faithful mother.—Com.

A BATTERY.—Acting under orders from Ottawa, the officers and men of A Battery left Kingston by the steamer Corinthian this morning for Montreal. The Battery was in command of Colonel Cotton, Captain Peters and Lieut. Drury. The Battery numbered 113 officers and men, with fifteen horses. They were in heavy marching order, and took a plentiful supply of ammunition. The members of the band went as gunners. They will reach Montreal to night, and will be encamped in the city. When B Battery arrives, they will be brigaded together. Only about ten men all told were left to take charge of the barracks and fortifications.

ROWDYISM.—At a late hour last night a number of young rowdies congregated at a down town tavern, and made the night hideous. Policeman Nesbitt and another was sent to quell the row, but the roughs, about ten in number, fastened on him and attempted to rescue a prisoner. Nesbitt was kicked on the leg badly and otherwise assaulted. He managed to hold his prisoner, however, who was fined $20 and costs this morning. A warrant is out for another one of them, and as he has been in trouble before he will probably be severely punished if captured.

ORANGE MEETINGS.

THE COUNTY & DISTRICT LODGES DECIDE NOT TO GO TO MONTREAL.

The Resolution voted down at a "Mass Meeting."

A combined meeting of the County and District Lodges of Orangemen was held at the Orange Hall last night to make arrangements in accordance with the resolution to go to Montreal on the 12th of July. There was a large attendance of members, including several from the County. The County Master occupied the chair. After a considerable amount of discussion a resolution was passed to the effect that seeing ample protection had been guaranteed to the Orangemen of Montreal by the military authorities, the Orangemen of Kingston did not deem it advisable to go to that city on the coming 12th of July. We believe that this resolution was passed unanimously, the feeling of the Orangemen being decidedly adverse to going to Montreal owing to the coming state of affairs. After the passing of the resolution the meeting adjourned to attend in Victoria Music Hall, where the decision of the united County and District Lodge meeting was to be submitted. A committee was appointed to draw up a statement in accordance with the resolution, and during their absence from the "mass" meeting the chair was taken by the County Master. He stated the result of the deliberations of the County and District meeting, which was somewhat coldly received by the meeting, several hisses coming from young boys in the audience.

A "MASS" MEETING

Mr. T. L. Snook was then called for, and made a speech strongly in favour of going to Montreal, the principal reason urged by him being, that if they had nothing to do when they got there, they could have a pleasant trip. He stated that he intended to go himself.

At this stage the Committee appointed to draw up the resolution entered the hall and ascended the platform. The following was then moved by the District Master, Mr. D. Callaghan, seconded by Mr James Marshall:

"In view of the fact that the Orangemen of Montreal are to receive protection from the military authorities of the Dominion, the Orangemen of Kingston do not deem it necessary to go to Montreal on the 12th, although fully prepared to do so."

This was received by a perfect storm of hisses from the younger portion of the audience.

At this stage a member of one of the city Orange Lodges rose and protested against such conduct, his remarks being applauded.

Mr. Callaghan, after noticing the hissing, proceeded to state that the resolution just read had been arrived at after a careful and deliberate discussion.

Mr. James Marshall explained that he did not altogether agree with the resolution, and only seconded it because appointed by the united County and District Lodges.

Dr. McCammon, in a forcible speech, endorsed the resolution, which he considered to be the best thing they could do. He urged at some length the reasons why the Orangemen should not go to Montreal, showing that embarrassment instead of protection would be the result of a large number joining the processionists.

The Chairman was about to put the resolution to a vote, when

Mr J. C. Hardy rose and asked the Chairman if the Montreal Orangemen had not invited the Kingston Orangemen to go there?

Mr Callaghan said that if Mr Hardy had been at the meeting up stairs he would have heard that question and others of a similar character fully answered.

Mr Hardy proceeded to say that he was not qualified to attend the meeting up stairs, but he was opposed to the resolution. He repeated his question.

The Chairman answered it as follows—"Yes!"

Mr Hardy—Did the Orangemen of Montreal withdraw their invitation?

The Chairman—"No!" (Loud applause.)

After speaking at some length Mr Hardy resumed his seat and was loudly cheered.

In response to a call, Mr W. G. Elliott, late County Master, spoke briefly and moderately in favour of the resolution.

Ald. Gaskin having been called for, strongly opposed the resolution, holding that the Kingston Orangemen were in honour bound to go to Montreal to assist their brethren there.

After some further discussion the Chairman put the motion, when about a dozen voted for it, while between 30 and 40 voted against it. The large majority of those present did not vote either way.

Mr. Callaghan then said he would move a resolution to test those who voted against the motion. It was that those who intended to go to Montreal should come forward and report their names.

At this stage a general rush of the younger portion of the meeting was made to the platform. We understand that 56 names were put down last night, which was expected to be increased to-day.

The meeting adjourned to visit the Model Farm. The press was accompanied by the town officials and a number of leading business men of the town, and farmers from the surrounding country. After inspecting the farm, lunch was provided for the visitors. A few happy speeches were afterwards delivered by Prof. Goldwin Smith, Mr Jas. Shannon, Mayor Howard, and others of the Association. Mr Johnson made a brief but eloquent address, dealing mainly with the work of the College. After luncheon the party took a trip through the town in hacks, inspecting several of the important public buildings on the route. In the evening the Press Association was given a complimentary concert and banquet by the Corporation of Guelph. Old members of the Association, who have attended many an excursion, state that they never received more kindly and generous treatment than has been bestowed upon them by the good town of Guelph.
