Washington Letter.

Washington, D.C., August 10.

Mr Manton Marble has attempted, apparently at Mr Tilden's suggestion, to convince the people of the country that Mr Tilden was opposed to the Electoral Commission scheme and did what he could to defeat it. Mr Marble should understand that all Democrats do not fully agree with him as to the amount of damage done, the country by the elevation of Mr Hayes to the Presidency in place of Mr Tilden. As the Republican party is not a unit in the support of Mr Hayes, so the Democratic party is not unanimous in its regrets at the defeat of Mr Tilden. This view of the case is not the highest one which could be taken, but it seems the highest that Mr Marble is capable of appreciating.

We justly ridicule much that Kearney and the like of Kearney say and do, but ridicule will not stop the hunger of thousands of Kearney's deluded followers. The devices of Kearney and Butler are as sufficient food for hungry men as anything in which the old parties are offering. A Republican Senate and a Democratic House did nothing from October 1877, to June 1878, that has tended to the establishment of confidence, and the consequent revival of trade and industry. If Butler offers to the hungry labouring man a sufficiency of bread even for a brief period, we must not wonder if he take it and does not consider that the supply cannot last forever. Better men than Butler, wiser men, should be able to offer a better and more permanent supply. They have not done it, and the delusive schemes of Kearney and Butler seem likely to have their day of control in Massachusetts and elsewhere.

Three years ago Quartermaster Gen. Meigs refused to pass a claim filed by the Richmond & Danville Railroad for the transportation of Federal troops over it at the rate of 6½c. per mile; he, however, recommended it to be paid 2c. per mile, the Goverment rate paid to all other roads. Subsequently Gen. Ingalls was temporarily acting Quartermaster General, while Meigs was in Europe, and the claim was then renewed so far as to demand the difference between the rate asked and that allowed in other words for 4½c. a mile additional, for every soldier carried over it. Ingalls passed it to Belknap who approved it. Shortly before he went out in disgrace, Secretary of War, Cameron promptly rejected it and was threatened by the Attorneys of the Company with a mandamus to compel him to reverse his action. He didn't scare worth a cent and they went to the 2nd Comptroller. He referred them to the Solicitor of the Treasury who recommended payment. Secretary Sherman overruled this and refused to pay. Then the Attorneys went to the economists and reformers of the House and found them ready for just that kind of a job. A special appropriation was voted to pay the claim. It is roughly estimated that $50,000,000 will not suffice to satisfy the claims that may be urged under this precedent. Other Southern roads are already at work preparing to file their claims.

Anglo-American Hotel.

If you would step into Faughnan's Bar
To treat your friend to a good cigar,
There is the real Havana and pure cheroot
Direct from Cuba without dispute.

If your friend should think he'd need
Something more exhilarating than the weed
To refresh his spirits and make him frisky,
There is good Old Rye and Canadian Whisky.

Spanish, French and Madeira Wine,
With the choicest Vintage of the Rhine;
London Porter, Ale and Beer,
At moderate prices and not too dear.

Highland Scotch fra Campbellton
It will make you lively and feel like fun;
Old Irish Potheen from beyond Tyrone,
And the heathery hills of Enishowen.

If you dispute it I'll lay a wager,
Darn the cent was paid the gauger.
With all these luxuries on hand,
I want you all to understand

That my bedrooms are light and airy,
Furnished with every modern necessary;
All that the travelling public can require,
Or the lovers of comfort can desire.

Composed by THOMAS FAUGHNAN, Proprietor of the Anglo-American Hotel, Kingston, Ont.

IN THE HARD DRY COUGH OF CHRONIC BRONCHITIS, with its difficult expectoration and laboured breathing, the demulcent properties of Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Lacto Phosphate of Lime, manifests itself in its healing and soothing effect upon the irritated mucous membranes of the bronchial passages; the cough quickly yields, the breathing is eased, while nature, thus aided, reasserts herself, and where once gaunt Consumption stared the victim in the face, no hopes beckon on to live and health. Prepared by J. H. Robinson Chemist, St. John, N.B., and for sale by druggists generally. Price $1.00 per bottle; six bottles for $5.00.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS, or CHOLERA INFANTUM, which is carrying off the infants and children by the thousand at this season of the year, can always surely be checked and cured by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has never failed to give immediate relief in the most severe cases. It is a boon within the reach of every mother. Do not fail to give it a trial. You will be pleased with its charming effects. For sale by all dealers. Milburn, Bently & Pearson, Toronto.
