☞ Malaga grapes, sweet potatoes, and oranges, at the Italian Warehouse.

☞ Richmond & Boyden have just received a full assortment of ladies' gossamer waterproof mantles, which they are selling remarkably cheap.

FOR PICTON.—The steamer Armenia will leave Swift's wharf for Picton to-morrow morning at 6 o'clock, giving good time for parties desirious of visiting the show to be held there to-morrow.

PROBABILITIES for the next 24 hours: lower lake region, moderate to fresh southwesterly winds, clear to partly cloudy weather. For St. Lawrence, moderate to fresh south easterly winds, clear to partly cloudy weather.

MASONIC.—The Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Bro. Dr. Henderson, will instal the new D.D.G.M. of St. Lawrence District, Bro. Dr. Forbes, of Farran's Point, at the regular session of Ancient St. John's Lodge, Kingston, this evening.

KINGSTON ELECTION.—Dr. Stewart requests us to state, for the information of inquirers, that he has his protest ready against the election of Mr Gunn as member for Kingston, and that it will be presented at the proper time. He claims the seat, as being legally elected.

SENTENCED.—John O'Shaughnessy pleaded guilty before Judge Price this morning to assaulting Policeman Lanigan. His Honour sentenced him to one year and eleven months' imprisonment in the Central Prison, where he will have an opportunity of learning a trade and improving his morals.

THE CHRONICLE AND NEWS for the present week was issued to-day, and contains all the local news of the week, including the births, deaths and marriages. No more acceptable present could be made to an absent friend. The CHRONICLE can be procured at any of the bookstores or at the counter in wrappers for mailing, price five cents.

THE MENDELSSOHN QUINTETTE CLUB will give one of their high class concerts in Kingston on Monday evening, the 14th instant. Owing to the City Hall being under repair, the concert will be given on this occasion in the Ontario Hall. The programme is a fine one, and all the old favourites appear. The vocalist is Mrs H. F Knowles, who is said to be first class.

BATTERY COMPETITION.—The big gun firing of A Battery in the annual competition between it and B Battery took place to-day on Stowal's farm, Pittsburg. The weather was very fine for good shooting. Col. Montizambert, of R. Battery, is here from Quebec to act as scorer on behalf of his Battery. The latter fired in the competition some time ago. The result will be known to-morrow.

SYDENHAM HIGH SCHOOL.—Mr J. E. Burgess, Principal of Sydenham High School, has been officially informed that both Wm. Cooke and Chaffey Devans passed the intermediate at the recent examinations. A mistake had been made about exemption from Cæsar, which accounts for the additional passers. This makes five altogether who have passed from Sydenham High School, two in English and three in Classics. Mr Burgess is to be congratulated on his success.

THE BOAT RACE.—There is a considerable amount of excitement in the city over the boat race, and regrets were expressed that it did not come off last night. The report which obtained currency this morning that Courtney and his friends had sold the race caused great indignation, and it is hoped that there was no truth in it. If it is true, Courtney's reputation as a sculler is ruined. We are sure Hanlan's friends would be no parties to such a bare faced swindle.

THE MODEL SCHOOL.—Mr J. J. Tilley, Inspector of Model Schools, visited the County Model School to-day, and expressed his satisfaction with the work done. In the course of some remarks Mr Tilley said that the Governments grants to the schools would be increased, and also that there was a probability that counties would be compelled to assist Model Schools. In the case of our school it is most unfair that the city should be at the whole expense. At present out of 26 teachers in attendance, only three belong to the city, the rest being from the country.

Short Notes.

Mr Gault, M.P., Montreal, has been robbed of his watch.

Dean Stanley is the guest of President Hayes, at Washington.

Mr John O'Shaughnessy will go to Toronto for two years' residence.

Principal Grant is announced to preach in Belleville on Sunday next.

Rev. John May has dropped the protest in the County of Carleton election.

A letter has been received from the Bishop of Ontario, who sails for home about October 17th.

Good, first-class barley brought $1.06 on the market to-day. At Napanee it sold at $1.10.

The Rev. George Grafftey has been brevetted Dr. by some of the papers. He preached at Ottawa on Tuesday evening.

The Rev. Hugh Hanna, a prominent Presbyterian clergyman of Belfast, Ireland, preached in New York on Sunday last.

The workingmen of Ottawa are arranging for the presentation of an elaborate address to Sir John Macdonald on his arrival in that city.

Chisholm's International Railway Guide for October is to hand, containing, as usual, a large amount of useful information for travellers.

Rev. Prof. Mackerras, who has been rusticating at Peterboro during the summer, has returned to the city, and appears very much improved in health.

The price of tickets for admission to the press boat at the great race was $10, a pretty large sum to pay for a sight of the race. Badges were sold at $5 for gentlemen and $2.50 for ladies.

The work of the assessment has just been completed in Toronto, and shows the amount of real and personal property assessable in the city to be $50,637,103. This is an increase of over $1,500,000 for 1878-9.

We had a visit to-day from Mr J. J. Watson, of Adolphustown, who has just returned from a pleasant trip to the Old Country. Mr Watson was pleasantly surprised at the intelligence of the defeat of the Mackenzie Government, which he learned at Cork on the 18th of September, just before he sailed.

PAY THE PRINTER.

So live that when thy summons
Comes to join the innumerable caravan—
Who pay promptly for their paper—
Thou go not like the quarry slave
At night, dead broke to his dungeon.
But soothed and sustained by
An unfaltering no trust, approach
The captain's office and settle,
Like one who wraps up the receipt in full
And places it under his pillow to prevent
Being kicked to death by nightmares.

Queen's College.

The Rev. Dr. Grant, Principal of Queen's University, returned to the city this afternoon, after prosecuting a successful canvass for the Endowment Fund in the West. He is in labours abundant.

There are sixteen freshmen undergoing examination at Convocation Hall. The number of freshmen may increase hereafter.

The Rev. Professor Mackerras, we are glad to learn, will be able to resume his class work after the formal opening of the session. He returned from a visit to Peterborough yesterday. We sincerely hope, with a host of friends, that his health will continue to improve, and that he may be long spared to fill the important post which he occupies as Classical Professor.

THE ENGINEERSHIP OF THE MILITARY COLLEGE.—Some time ago we gave currency to a statement which we were informed was correct that Mr Madden had been appointed Engineer at the Military College. An effort was made at the time to discredit the statement. The following paragraph appeared in our contemporary last evening:

APPOINTMENT.—It is stated that Mr James Madden has been appointed Engineer at the Military College.

This appointment, it is said, was promised to another person. Be that as it may, it was kept dangling as bait until after the elections.

The Great Boat Race.

(Correspondence of the News.)

A large number of Kingstonians went down to Montreal on Tuesday last to witness the great boat race between the Canadian champion sculler, Hanlan, and the great American sculler, Courtney. The special train which conveyed the Kingston party left here at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, and reached Montreal about 12:30 the same night. A general hunt took place at once for quarters, but it was found that all the hotels were crammed full, and it was with great difficulty accommodations were secured. Many persons sat up all night in chairs, and some, more fortunate, got sofas and stretchers. All the hotels were very busy, and the proprietors reaped a golden harvest. Prices were exorbitant at some places. One gentleman complained of having to pay $1 for the privilege of lying on a lounge for three hours, and others had to pay double fare for sharing a bed with a stranger. The eating houses and restaurants, too, were very busy, and at some of them the charges were shameful for Canada, and the fare miserably poor. Yesterday large crowds went out to Lachine to see the race, but were disappointed, as it did not come off on account of the equally condition of the weather. The people waited patiently all afternoon in the hope that the wind would go down, but at five o'clock all hope died away and the crowds turned homewards. Great preparations had been made at Lachine to accommodate the large number of people expected, but at no time was there, perhaps, more than 23,000 persons present, and great numbers of those would have been debarred from seeing the race had it come off, as the Citizens' Committee had erected a "grand stand" and a high fence all along the river front to shut out the view of the river and to compel persons to go on the grand stand and pay $1 each for the privilege. The stand was a failure, as very few went on it, and all afternoon it presented a beggarly show of empty seats. The Citizens' Committee overdid the thing altogether in trying to force the people on their stand by shutting out the view of the river, and as they were very greedy it perhaps served them right not to patronize their grand stand.

Much grumbling was heard at the extra charge of 50 cents by the Railway Company on their tickets to Montreal. The 50 cents covered, of course, the trip to and from Lachine, but a large number of those who went to Montreal did not want to go to Lachine, but were compelled to buy a ticket. Again, the Company very properly got into bad repute for taking some 1,500 persons out to Lachine Bank and leaving them there, to get to Lachine, which is 1½ miles away, the best way they could, through fields and over fences and ditches. This was nothing more nor less than a take in, and Mr. Hickson should not have permitted it. The tickets the people paid for were for a trip to and from Lachine, and not to a place 1½ miles off, on the main line of the Grand Trunk. Considerable delay occurred in getting back to Montreal, and the Railway Company have nothing to boast of in the carrying out of their arrangements.

If the weather is fair the race will be rowed to day, and it is expected that Hanlan will be the winner; but Courtney is no muff, and it would create no surprise in sporting circles if he came in first.

Central Fair Notes.

Entries are still pouring in for the Central Fair next week. Already, we believe, there are more than on any previous occasions, which shows that the Midland Central Fair is growing in popularity. It is hoped all those who intend to enter will do so this week, as they will be positively refused on the opening day. In past years a great amount of trouble has been caused by late entries, and an attempt is to be made to put a stop to this.

The refreshment booths in connection with the Fair were sold yesterday afternoon. They are to be in the Mechanics Hall. The upstairs one was sold to Mrs Purdy for $26 and the lower one to R. Tompkins for $37.

In former years there was considerable difficulty experienced in connection with the fine arts and ladies' departments of the Fair. This arose from the fact that articles for exhibition were not sent up to the Palace until the morning of the opening day. The Secretary requests us to say that the directors would be very glad if intending exhibitors in the fine arts and ladies' departments would send up their exhibits on Monday or Tuesday it would greatly facilitate the work of the Judges. Indeed, it would be better if all the city exhibitors did this, as it would save a great deal of time, and the exhibition would be ready for the rush of visitors expected. We hope this hint will be taken by those interested in the success of the Fair.

A new platform has been erected for the exhibition of furniture, which was greatly required. Furniture will be well shown off on it.

The collectors have been around for the last two days in connection with the fair, and are meeting with good success.

THE CITY HALL.—Work at cleaning and repairing the City Hall is progressing rapidly and when finished it will be a great improvement. The walls are to be lightened in colour, and the ceiling will be in blue and white, the ornaments being touched off in a darker shade. The ventilation will also be greatly improved by the plans of the architect. A couple of ventilators have been inserted into the front of the platform, and another will be opened in the roof, the cupola being utilized. When finished the hall will be a credit to the city instead of the disgrace it has been for many years past. The corridors and staircases are also being painted a lighter colour, which will remedy in a great measure the darkness which prevailed in these places. We believe nothing has been done to properly cleaning the hall since 1860, so that there can be no doubt of its being required.

THE OLD STORY.—DISMISSING LABOURERS.—The following is from the Ottawa Citizen of yesterday: "The work of dismissing the labourers hired, for the purpose of endeavouring to secure their votes for the Government candidates on the 17th of September has been completed—eighty-five receiving their walking tickets on Saturday last. Added to this the Government is discharging a large number of extra clerks from the various Departments, the design being, of course, should they be re-instated, to charge the incoming Government with increasing officials. However, the game will scarcely succeed, for we venture to say a comparative statement of the pay-sheets for September, 1878, and September, 1879, will prove to a demonstration that Reform 'economy' costs the country more than ever did the Conservative 'extravagance' once so fervently denounced by 'Liberals.'"
