FALL IN THE PRICE OF PRODUCE.

Sir John's Prediction.

(Mail.)

The Parkhill Gazette lectures our King street contemporary in the following manner:—"The Globe descends to positive silliness when it attempts to make political capital out of the late decline in prices of produce. Such weak attempts to deceive the electorate do much to discredit the expressions of newspapers generally, and weaken the effect of their arguments when they happen to be right." The Gazette is correct, and if it carries its memory back to the Conservative demonstration held in Parkhill on July 3rd last, it will remember that Sir John Macdonald then prophesied just what has happened—a fall in the price of produce. After referring to the promise of an abundant crop in the United States, and pointing out that they would have an immense surplus which would have to find a market, Sir John asked where it was to go, and said:—'It had to go to England. It had to cross the border, and undersell us in our market. We could see what advantage they had in the United States; they had a market of their own, and no bushel of our wheat would go into their country, because they kept, if he might use a vulgar Scotch phrase, their own fish guts for their own sea mews. (Laughter.) They had to get rid of their surplus, and they could afford to undersell us in the market, having got a good price for the major portion of their crop, and he was afraid that we would have a practical proof of that this season, and would find that as our number of bushels increased, so the price for each bushel would decrease. They had seen this in the price of oats. They had seen how a couple of schooner loads brought into Windsor reduced the price all over Western Ontario.'"

Literary Notes.

The October number of Blackwood's Magazine, just published by the Leonard Scot Publishing Co., 41 Barclay street, New York, contains an unusual variety of readable articles. The place of honour is given to the opening chapters of a serial, "The New Ordeal," a story of the future, in style, subject, and treatment strongly reminding us of the author of "The Battle of Dorking." It is very cleverly written. "Fire-flies" is an indescribable article. Every one should read and understand it for himself (if he can.) "The Troubles of a Scots Traveler" gives the amusing and sometimes distressing experiences of a traveller of the 17th century, who explored Europe, Palestine, and parts of Africa. "Three days in Paris" gossips of the sights and the people, Paris in general, and this exhibition season in particular. For the sentimental are numerous poems, and the concluding articles treat of India and the East, and England's and Russia's interest in them. The periodicals reprinted by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co. (41 Barclay street, N. Y.,) are as follows: The London Quarterly, Edinburgh, Westminster, and British Quarterly Review, and Blackwood's Magazine. Price $4 a year for any one, or only $15 for all, and the postage is prepaid by the publishers.

A Sad Story.

A report came to town the other day of a heartrending tragedy which occurred near Delta on Sunday, Oct. 12th. A man living near Beverley lake, whose name could not be ascertained, had been sick for some time, and on the morning in question his brother, living on the opposite side of the lake came over to see him in a boat; on reaching the shore he met a son of the sick man, and asked after his brother's health; the boy, bursting into tears, replied that his father was dead. On receiving this startling intelligence, the visitor fell back in the boat, and expired almost immediately. His wife, on hearing of the sudden decease of her husband, coupled with the unwelcome news of her brother-in-law's death, went out of her mind, and is now, as near as we could find out, hopelessly insane. The affair is a very strange one, and the thrice afflicted ones have the warm sympathy of all who know them.—Smith Falls Gazette.

Extracts from a Letter from C. H. S. Cronkhite, Esq.

Canterbury Station, York Co., N. B., October 10th, 1878.

Mr J. H. Robinson.

Dear Sir,—In reply to your letter of enquiry, I would say that your Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime is the best preparation of the kind I have ever seen or taken.

I was ordered by my physician to take it, and commenced about the last of August, and since that time I have felt a different man, and also look differently, and all for the better, as the doctor can testify.

I was unable, in the summer, to walk any distance without much fatigue. I can now take my gun and travel all day, and feel first-rate at night, and eat as much as any lumber man. Have not bled any since I took your preparation, and can now inflate my lungs without feeling any soreness, and I think I can inflate them up to full measurement same as before I was sick; have also gained in flesh, my weight in the summer was 173 lbs., and now it is nearly 190 lbs., which is pretty well up to my former weight.

The foregoing is a correct statement which I am prepared to swear to, and I hereby authorize you to give it publicity in my name.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,
(Signed) C. H. S. Cronkhite.

We, the undersigned, hereby consent to have our names published as witnesses to the effects of Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion on the person of Mr Cronkhite, and do assert that the foregoing statement is correct in every particular.

Alexander Bennett, J.P.,
(Signed) William Bain,
Rev. Thomas Hartin.

Prepared solely by J. H. Robinson, Pharmaceutical Chemist, St. John, N. B., and for sale by Druggists and General Dealers. Price $1.00 per bottle; six bottles for $5.00.

Husband and Wife.—The word "husband" means literally "the band of the house," the support of it, the person that keeps it together, as a band keeps together a sheaf of corn. The word "wife" means literally a "weaver." Before the great cotton and cloth factories arose, one of the principal employments in every house was the fabrication of clothing—every family made its own. The wool was spun into thread by the girls, who were therefore called spinsters; the thread was woven into cloth by their mother, who accordingly was called the weaver, or the wife.

The Victoria Hypophosphites acts like magic, rapidly restoring the strength and appetite, promoting sound and refreshing sleep, and imparting Tone, Vigour and Energy to the whole system. For Consumption, Weak Lungs and Chest and Throat Diseases, it is the best and surest remedy known. For sale by all dealers.

Freeman's Worm Powders are highly esteemed by all mothers who have used them.
