The Daily News.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 20.

The Ottawa Free Press (Opposition) gives currency to the rumour that the Hon. William McDougall is to be the Speaker of the New House of Commons.

The reports received by telegraph during the last few days regarding the finding of clues in the Stewart body robbing case are almost as contradictory as those received from Europe immediately before the breaking out of the late Russo-Turkish war.

Perhaps it is hardly the thing to expect the Globe to commence its "fair and candid" policy in criticising the acts of the new Government until after the commencement of the new year, the promise of good behaviour in the future being made in the prospectus for the year 1879.

"The Globe has no word of complaint or lamentation to offer over the result of the late Federal Election."

So says the Globe in its prospectus for 1879. A remarkable statement to appear in the Globe. But the Globe has been doing a considerable amount of petty whining since the elections.

While Dr Talmage is engaged in showing up the dark side of New York life, the Rev. Dr Newman, Methodist, President Grant's political parson, has commenced to disclose the bright side of the picture, pointing out that while the existence of much wickedness is to be deplored, New York is doing no mean philanthropic and christian work both home and abroad.

A few days ago the following despatch was sent from Ottawa to the London Advertiser:

"It is said that Mr Williamson, of Montreal, the lowest tenderer for section 9, Lachine Canal, will not receive the contract because he supported Mr Laflamme."

It turns out, however, that Mr Williamson and the gentlemen associated with him have got the contract. The new Government has not commenced to follow Mr Mackenzie's illustrious example just yet.

Several of the more honourable of the American journals are complaining of their Government's contemptible effort to get out of paying the Fishery Award. After an elaborate review of Lord Salisbury's despatch in reply to Mr Evarts, to which we alluded yesterday, and which announced that the British Government would not give way, the New York Herald says:—"Lord Salisbury's reply is calm and friendly in tone and unexceptional in point of courtesy. Let the award be paid."

The Ottawa Free Press pooh-poohs the information telegraphed to the Globe that a new Reform paper is to be started in that city, and it does not think the Reformers of Ottawa are such "idiots" as to favour "any such absurdity." The Free Press has been somewhat independent of late; hence the rumour. Says the Free Press: "If there are any so-called Reformers, who are disposed to think that by stigmatizing the policy of abuse and giving opponents fair play the Free Press has abnegated its functions as a Reform journal, then we emphatically and devoutly pray from all such Reformers 'may the Lord deliver us!'"

The Globe published an article from the Leeds Mercury on Canadian affairs in which the following reference is made to what is called the Pacific Scandal:

"The contract for construction was to have been given to American speculators, who would have been careful enough to retain a control dangerous to the integrity of the country."

This shows how much the Leeds Mercury knows about the case. It is a well known fact that Sir John Macdonald's efforts were directed against such a possibility; and it was after he refused to be a party to the effort to secure the co-operation of Americans that George Washington McMullen began his dirty work, aided and abetted Huntington, et al.

The Globe, which speaks of its intention to indulge in only "fair and candid treatment" of the new Administration, refers in an article in its issue of Monday to what it is pleased to call in its "fair and candid way" of dealing with political opponents Sir John Macdonald's assent to the "wholesale robberies of Canada" under the Treaty of Washington. It strikes us that, everything considered, Canada has not been so badly robbed after all. By the way, did not Mr George Brown, on behalf of the Mackenzie Government, propose to abandon Canada's claims to payment for the use of her fisheries by Americans if the Government of the United States would agree upon a new Reciprocity Treaty?

THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH.

His Royal Highness Prince Alfred Ernest Albert, Duke of Edinburgh, who arrived at Halifax on Monday in command of H.M.S. Black Prince, is the second son of Queen Victoria. He was thirty-four years old on the 6th of August last. His education was received by private tuition. Having prepared himself for examination he passed and became a cadet in the Royal Navy on the Euryalus, 51 guns. He was afterwards transferred to the St. George, on which vessel he made an extensive cruise, visiting countries on the Mediterranean, America and the West Indies. In 1862 he was offered the Throne of Greece, an honour which he "passed." In 1866 he was made Duke of Edinburgh. In the following year he was appointed to command the Galatea. On her he made an extensive cruise, almost around the world. He met with an enthusiastic reception in Australia, but while there an attempt was made to assassinate him, but the effort failed, and the skulking coward who made the attack on him was afterwards executed. In 1873, having previously visited China and Japan, he visited Italy, and at Rome was personally received by the late Pope Pius IX. On the 23rd of January, 1874, he was married at St. Petersburg to the Grand Duchess Marie, only daughter of the Emperor Alexander of Russia. During the late celebrated passage of the Dardanelles, before the British fleet of ironclads anchored in the vicinity of the Bosphorus, the Duke of Edinburgh was in command of the Sultan. His Royal Highness is very popular in the Navy. He is devotedly attached to his profession and his promotion has been of a meritorious character. He will wait at Halifax until the arrival of his sister, the Princess Louise, and her husband, the Marquis of Lorne, our new Governor-General, and will, it is understood, afterwards accompany them to Ottawa.

DISMISSALS—"THE AMERICAN PRACTICE."

The Ottawa correspondent of the Globe, referring to the relegation of Mr Buckingham to the position of First Class Clerk in the Public Works Department, says:

"The Government have boldly continued the American practice, initiated into Canada by Mr Bowell, of dismissing from the public service the appointees of its predecessors."

We deny that either Mr Bowell or the Government has introduced the "American practice." In regard to the case of the cancelling of one appointment in Mr Bowell's Department, it is a fact well known that contrary to the remonstrance of the head of the Customs Department in Montreal, the Mackenzie Government made an appointment to that Department of a gentleman for whom there was no earthly use, just as was done elsewhere on previous occasions; but the Government insisted in making the appointment at the expense of the country. This appointment was cancelled, but no one has been appointed in place of Mr Marchand, and thus $1,200 per annum is saved. This act was that of the Government as a whole, as all official acts are. Now, as to the persons responsible for dismissals and cancellations, who are they? Why, the members of the Mackenzie Government. SOON AFTER THEY GOT INTO POWER THE WORK OF CANCELLING APPOINTMENTS MADE BY THEIR PREDECESSORS COMMENCED, AND FULL-FLEDGED GRITS WERE PLACED IN THE POSITIONS HELD BY TORIES. The acts of the previous Government were annulled by the cancelling of Orders in Council. True, all the appointments of their predecessors were not annulled; but many were, and thus by the Mackenzie Government was what their organs call the "American practice" introduced. Such being the fact the organs should think twice before they indulge in charges about introducing the "American practice." What course the present Government intend to pursue in regard to some other cases of a peculiar character we do not know, but even if they should come to the conclusion to cancel one or two more of the appointments made by Mr Mackenzie after the country had declared against him, and that, too, in direct opposition to the principles he professed after getting into power, neither he nor any of his apologists can consistently blame them. The Mackenzie Party, as above stated, cancelled a large number of appointments and dismissed public officers who would not become pliant tools in their hands, and yet their organs cry out about the introduction of the "American practice!"

The Hamilton Times should read up regarding the dismissals from office and the cancelling of appointments by the Mackenzie Government. Having done so, let it be heard from regarding "the insolence of office."

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

Elaborate Arrangements.

GOING EAST.

The Montreal Witness of yesterday says: At 9:45 this evening the train provided by the Government is to start for Halifax to convey from thence to Ottawa the Vice Regal party. It consists of the official car reserved exclusively for the Marquis and his royal wife, a dining car and three Pullman cars, a first-class carriage for the servants, and two baggage waggons. The whole is under the direction of Conductor McLeod, especially appointed for the purpose of conducting the Vice Regal party on their first trip through Canada. The cook in the dining car goes by the name of "Charles." He is a Frenchman and said to be quite a culinary artist. Mr C. J. Brydges, Manager of the Intercolonial Railway, is going down with as many of the Federal Ministers as can possibly get away. If their Excellencies reach Halifax on Saturday, they will leave for Montreal on Tuesday instead of Wednesday. The following is the programme of their journey: The Viceregal train will leave Halifax at 11 in the morning, and only stop to change engines on their way to Montreal. There will be five meals taken during the ride by rail: lunch, dinner, supper, breakfast, and lunch again. The party will reach the Bonaventure Depot about 7 o'clock in the evening next day. Mr Hickson's car is not going to Halifax, for as the greater part of the land trip will be over the Intercolonial road, that railway claimed the honour and got it. There is to be no transhipment in the entire journey the train only changing locomotives.

ALONG THE ROUTE.

We learn that the inhabitants of the towns and villages along the route to be taken by the Royal party are making preparations to welcome them. The places through which they will pass by night are to have bonfires, and the dwelling houses and public buildings in view of the railway track, illuminated as much as possible. Evergreens and flags are to be used at the stopping places during daylight.

THE VICTORIA BRIDGE.

is to have the lettering at both entrances renewed and the Prince of Wales' feather in the centre, where His Royal Highness inserted the rivet at the time of inauguration, is about to be ornamented and illuminated.

THE BONAVENTURE DEPOT

is the place chosen for the reception, notwithstanding the many suggestions to have it elsewhere. The necessary preparations are now going on. A platform is being built, and will be erected inside the depot, on the north side of the track, on which to receive the viceregal party, and those that have tickets of admission. The entrance to the station, from Bonaventure street, is to be cut off in order to allow their Excellencies and suite to pass that way when going to the Windsor. Passengers and others having business to the depot, will pass and repass by Chaboillez Square. The unsightly woodwork which supports the roof bars like is to be screened and decorated with flags and evergreens.

An ample supply of groceries, including $300 worth of wines, will be taken from this city for the use of the Viceregal party en route from Halifax.

INTERVIEW WITH THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH.

A despatch to the Gazette of this morning is as follows: At an interview with H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh, at the Admiralty, House, to-night at 10 o'clock, your correspondent was enabled to elicit but little information of importance. The Royal Duke stated that H.M.S. the "Black Prince" had made an exceptionally good passage, averaging eight knots the whole distance from Gibraltar to Halifax. The voyage of 3,300 miles was made in 17 days, the weather being unusually fine. Steam was employed exclusively throughout the whole voyage, except between latitudes 34 and 35, where 500 miles were made by sail. Upon enquiry as to the specific object of the visit of His Highness to Canada, the Duke stated that his ship had been placed subject to the orders of Vice-Admiral Sir E. A. Inglefield, to do honour to the Marquis of Lorne and H.R.H. Princess Louise upon her arrival at Halifax. Upon being asked if His Royal Highness would accompany the Viceregal party to Ottawa, there was considerable hesitation, and after a lengthy conference between the Duke and the Vice-Admiral, the reply was unsatisfactory. He had no personal desire to visit the capital, and while it was not impossible that he would do so, the probabilities were at present against it. The reception of their Excellencies at Halifax over, he would be subject to the orders of the Admiralty, but these were not yet at hand. H. R. H. had just dined with Vice-Admiral Sir E. A. Inglefield, and was in excellent spirits. The latter stated that it was his desire to go out with the squadron and meet the Marquis and Princess upon their arrival, but everything depended upon the weather. He was not yet prepared to commit himself to any definite plan as to naval movements. Prominent arrivals are becoming numerous. The work of decorating is progressing rapidly, and the general interest in the reception is hourly increasing.

EN ROUTE TO HALIFAX.

(By Telegraph.)

Quebec, Nov. 20—The Pullman palace cars, which are to compose the Vice-Regal train from Halifax to Ottawa, passed through Chaudiere this morning on their way to Halifax. Sir John A. Macdonald is reported to be on board on his way to Halifax, in company with Dr. Tupper, Chief Justice Richards, Mr Brydges, Lieut.-General Sir Selby Smyth, Sir Hugh Allan and about fifty other gentlemen.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

Commissioners' Report.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 20.—The report of the Yellow Fever Commissioners who have been investigating the epidemic in the South attributes the origin of the fever to cases imported into New Orleans as early as May 23rd. The Commissioners also comment on the general neglect and violation of the laws of health, neglect of drainage, inattention to deposits of fetid matter and refuse, and inattention to purity of drinking water.

KEARNEY.

Hard on Butler.

Boston, Nov. 20.—Kearney left for California last evening. In an interview with a reporter, he admitted that Butler, at his final interview, treated him coldly, and said he had written a letter resenting the insult, and that he had discovered Butler to be a political demagogue surrounded by the worst class of thieves, bummers and bilks, and will advise workingmen to shake him as a leader henceforth and forever.

GREAT DEPRESSION IN ENGLAND.

How Free Trade Affects Sheffield.

London, Nov. 20.—Appalling destitution exists among the mechanics and labourers of Sheffield, in consequence of the business depression. Hundreds are living in tenements without clothing or furniture, which they have been forced to sell for food. They are without fuel, and dependent upon the charity of the neighbours for subsistence. The Mayor has called a public relief meeting.

AFGHANISTAN DIFFICULTY.

Preparing for Active Work—Lord Beaconsfield Interviewed—Important News.

London, Nov. 19.—The Committee organized to urge an early meeting of Parliament, in view of the war with Afghanistan, having asked Lord Beaconsfield to grant them an interview, the Premier has written a letter to their Chairman, Lord Lawrence, in reply. Earl Beaconsfield is at a loss to perceive what useful purpose can be served by a more extended expression through a deputation from the Committee, of the opinion which Lord Lawrence, and others have so effectively and copiously explained. With regard to the assembling of Parliament, the Government will as a matter of course be prepared, in the event of the commencement of hostilities in India, to advise her Majesty to make such communications to Parliament as the letter and spirit of the Act regulating the relations of the Crown with India may seem to require. This would seem to be a not less satisfactory and a scarcely less constitutional mode of meeting the occasion than a series of memorials and deputations. The papers relative to India will be published before the end of the month. Lord Lawrence's Committee to-day passed a resolution regretting Earl Beaconsfield's refusal to receive a deputation, and emphatically condemning his apparent determination, in the event of war being declared, not to advise Her Majesty to consult Parliament until hostilities have commenced. The committee adjourned till Friday, and decided meanwhile to collect signatures to a protest.

The Act cited by Lord Beaconsfield, in his letter to Lord Lawrence, prescribes that when Parliament is sitting, any order detailing the actual commencement of hostilities by Her Majesty's forces, in India must be communicated to it within three months, and if Parliament is not sitting, then a month after it reassembles. Thus the Government are under no legal obligation to call Parliament together earlier than usual.

A despatch from Lahore says the Viceroy has arrived there, and the commander-in-chief has been recalled from Peshawur to meet him.

A despatch from Peshawur announces that the pass near Ali Musjid has been reconnoitered. Its difficulties are less than they were supposed to be, and artillery can be brought to bear on the fort.

Bombay, Nov. 19.—The Gazette announces that several regiments have been warned to hold themselves in readiness to advance from Quettah immediately, and that all are ready. Merchants from Central Asia say that no indications of a movement of Russians toward Afghanistan as observable.

SHERE ALI'S REPLY RECEIVED.

London, Nov. 20.—The Central News says: An important despatch from India, which, we have reason to believe, is Shere Ali's reply to the Viceroy's ultimatum, was received at the Indian Office in London. The Indian Council was immediately summoned, and the result of the Conference will be laid before the Cabinet this afternoon.

THE STEWART BODY STEALING CASE.

Large Reward.

New York, Nov. 20.—Judge Hilton now offers $50,000 for evidence that will secure the arrest and conviction of the five persons believed to have been engaged in the robbery of the vault, or will pay $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of any of them.

The World reporter learned last night that notwithstanding the fact that two of the five principals in the robbery had evaded the detectives, the case was likely to be finished at any moment. The principal man boarded near St. Mark's Church. He left his boarding house on the day or night of which the robbery was committed. He is known to have been in St. Mark's Church yard two hours before the robbery was committed. He has evaded the detectives thus far.

New York, Nov. 20.—The police are as reticent as ever over the Stewart robbery. It was learned that a number of arrests have been made in various precincts. The only explanation for these arrests which has been offered is that the police are anxious to get the reward now offered for the conviction of any of the thieves who stole Stewart's body, as it is understood that to get the reward it will only be necessary to convict the thieves, whether the body is found or not.

BODY RECOVERED.

The Express states that Stewart's body is now in possession of the estate. Its whereabouts has been known since Monday. Of the four principals in the crime, all are in custody excepting the leader. The increased reward offered by Hilton makes no mention of the recovery of the body, and simply offers remuneration to those who may give satisfactory information to strengthen the evidence already in possession of the police.

THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH.

Reception at Halifax.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 20.—H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh landed at the dockyard at eleven o'clock this morning, under a royal salute from the citadel. At the wharf there was a guard of honour from the 101st Regiment. Accompanied by Vice-Admiral Inglefield, the Duke then drove to the Military Offices on Pleasant street, where he had a reception from the officers of the garrison. A large number attended. A guard of honour from the 97th Regiment was in front of the building. The Duke then called on the Lieutenant-Governor, and afterwards drove to the Admiralty House.

A Grain Scheme.

New York, Nov. 20.—It is rumoured that a Wall street clique, with Keene and Rufus Hatch as leaders, has formed a combination to buy Chicago grain at the present low prices and hold it for a rise in March or April.

Sugar Adulteration.

New York, Nov. 20.—The Tribune publishes the views of Prof. Morton, of Stevens' Institute, concerning the alleged sugar adulteration. He declares that glucose is harmless, and that muriatic acid and cholide of tin not injurious, if properly used.

ITALY.

The Attempted Assassination of the King.

Rome, Nov. 20.—Passanonti, the King's assassin, manifested most perfect unconcern and brutal self-assurance while undergoing his preliminary examination. Evidently he had calmly meditated the act, and fully made up his mind to the consequences. When the magistrate expressed horror at the deed, the prisoner said: "It seems to me you are getting too excited." On being asked if he had not observed people who would have torn him to pieces but for the police, he replied, "The people are fools; they always act that way."

To the question as to whether he intended to kill the King, or merely wound him, he answered: "My intention was to finish him." He said he was neither an Internationalist nor a Socialist; that he did not know the meaning of those words; but he failed to satisfactorily account for the Internationalist work found in his possession.

THE VANDERBILT WILL CASE.

Judge Black on the Marriage.

New York, Nov. 20.—A dramatic scene occurred in the Vanderbilt will case yesterday, when Judge Black accused Vanderbilt, a man eighty years old, of marrying a woman fifty years his junior, and who came here a stranger, after separating from her husband, who is still living. He said it was not strange that the Commodore's daughters should have felt some bitterness toward this woman. He added that Wm. H. Vanderbilt had encouraged this marriage. During the Judge's remarks the counsel and all interested seemed much excited, and Wm. H. Vanderbilt, for the first time during the trial, appeared affected.

TORONTO.

Toronto, Nov. 20.—The Rev. R. Anthony Bilkey, the newly-appointed pastor of Christ Church (Reformed Episcopal), arrived in town with his family yesterday from Bermuda, where he has been preaching for the past three years. He enters on his duties next Sunday.

Ex Alderman Gearing's sureties intend completing the work he has left undone.

Mr Charles Statesburg, a York pioneer, and a resident of Toronto for 61 years, died this morning at the age of 85.

Edward J. Clarke, who is charged with the abduction of Josephine Leslie, was arraigned this morning. The evidence of the girl's brother and father, and of a Mrs Wallace, to whose place Clarke took Josephine, were taken, and the case was adjourned till to-morrow. The defendant alleges that the girl was badly treated and beaten at home and sought his protection.
