Von Roon retired from being Minister of War.

Recall of Minister Catacazy.

The Assassination of German Soldiers.

Mr Cardwell and his Constituents.

London, Jan. 2.—The Right Hon. Edward Cardwell, Secretary of State for War, addressed his constituents in Oxford yesterday. Alluding to the illness of the Prince, he said it had served to bring out a strong reciprocal sympathy, which always existed between a constitutional sovereign and a free people. He intimated the intention of Parliament would be directed to social measures for the improvement and welfare of the people.

Berlin January 2. General Von Roon has retired from the Ministry of War and marine, and the Emperor has appointed M. Stock to fill the vacancy.

London Jan. 3.—The supporters of Sir Charles Dilke are preparing a grand demonstration in his honour which is to take place before the Assembly of Parliament.

The London, Times, after reviewing the circumstances which led to the recall of Catacazy from Washington, comes to the conclusion that the Minister served his government zealously.

The orders recently issued from Berlin for the arrest and detention of French citizens as hostages in places where outrages are perpetrated on German soldiers have been rigorously executed. About 100 personers taken in accordance with those orders are now in the hands of the Germans. Warning is given of summary proceedings in all cases of murder or assassination unless the actual offenders are surrendered by the French authorities by the 3rd of the present month. The hostages held for them will be put on trial for their acts, before a court martial.

Great Riot at Rochester.

Several Persons Killed by the Military.

The Floods in California.

Fire at Louisville—Loss about $75,000.

Three Persons Murdered at Hartford.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan 2.—On Saturday last, a negro 25 years of age, decoyed a little girl, named Ocha 10 years of age, into the commons just outside the city, and there committed a terrible outrage upon her. He evidently intended to kill her striking her in the face with his fist. She wandered into the town of Brighton having to cross on the ice of the canal river and feeder, to do so. She sought refuge in a house where her condition was ascertained, and word sent to the Police. The girl gave such a description of the scoundrel as to enable the Police to suspect who he was, and he was captured this morning at the house of a relative in the town of Penfield. He was at once brought to the city and taken before the girl who identified him. The people made an attempt to lynch him, but the Police fought them off by using their revolvers. The girl is in a precarious condition, the excitement over the affair is great, and threats are freely made against the life of the negro whose name is Howard.

Rochester, noon.—The excitement over the outrage is very great this forenoon. A mob of four or five hundred people went to the jail, and attempted to break in and kill the prisoner. They were followed by the Sheriff and police.

5 o'clock.—The excitement has not abated. The evening papers are out with the evidence against Howard. It is conclusive, and leaves no doubt that he is the man who committed the outrage. The Grand Jury is in session, and will indict Howard to-morrow forenoon, when he will be brought into court to plead to the indictment. Efforts have been made this afternoon to have him plead guilty, but he refuses and persists in his innocence. The evidence against him accumulates. It would seem almost criminal to take Howard from jail at present, as the mob would rescue him from the authorities and kill him.

8 p.m.—About a hundred of the military are guarding the jail this evening. There is a mob there, yelling and shouting, and there have been several stones thrown at the military. The police who had been relieved are again ordered to the jail.

About nine o'clock, while the crowd were yelling at the corner of Court and Exchange Streets, the military fired a volley, killing two men, wounding one man and a boy. The excitement was great, and people are hurrying to the scene of conflict. The crowd said it was not necessary to fire, and the military say they were compelled to protect themselves, as they were [illegible] with stones. Police man Brancli[illegible] [illegible]unt of the difficulty with the [illegible]ry drawn up in line across [illegible] facing Exchange Street. A man informed me that some boys a short distance off were picking up stones; I drove them away, and at the same time a squad of military was ordered to move forward by the officer in command, who pushed me aside; shots were fired about this time. The men shot were standing in Exchange street and had not participated with the mob. The feeling against the military is intense. Police are being drawn in from other districts of the city and despatched to the vicinity of the jail. It is feared that more blood will be shed before morning. The coloured people are fleeing to their houses to hide and it is not deemed safe for them to be seen on the streets.

Rochester January 2.—The main portion of the crowd on Exchange and Court streets has been dispersed. About one hundred or more still remain on the grounds. There does not seem to be any organizing for further attack. The body of John Elter has just been taken to the home of deceased. On being deposited in the waggon loud expressions of indignation were made by the spectators. Henry Melow was going to his home on Bartlett street when shot. He was an inoffensive man and had taken no part in the disturbance. John Nolan was shot through the right lung and is not expected to live. A carter named Elias Swanston is also reported killed. Louis Kemp was shot through the thigh and left arm. Five companies of Militia now guard the jail and streets leading thereto. The feeling of indignation against the Militia is very great, and their conduct is condemned by the law-abiding citizens. The Captain of E. company disavowed giving any orders to fire.

Hartford, Conn. Jan. 3. A man named Billings, his wife, and another man, name unknown, were found murdered at Windsor locks to-night. There is no clue as yet to the perpetrators.

San Francisco, January 2.—The storm has cleared away. No trains are yet running between San Francisco and Sacramento. The reclamation levees along the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers all round are injured though the rivers are at flood. Two thousand five hundred tons of salt were washed away and the works flooded on the Alameda shore bay. Mr Cook, a prominent lawyer, and counsel for Mrs Fair, died Dec. 31st.

Louisville, Ky. January 2.—A fire last Sunday at Somerset burnt twelve of the best houses in the village including the Court House. Loss $75,000.

Rochester, Jan. 3.—From 3 till 11 o'clock the city was comparatively quiet. Four companies of the 54th regiment are guarding the jail and its approaches. Cannon loaded are stationed so as to command the bridges. At 11 o'clock this forenoon quite a crowd had gathered around the military and there is a good deal of hooting, but no overt act has been committed this forenoon. At half past 10, some one placed on a canal boat in the slip in Court street, a flag on which were the words "Avenge your Brothers."—Brigadier General Clarke tore it down and the crowd rushed for him, and for a short time he was in peril, but was released and firearms handed him by friends. The Sheriff has ordered out the remaining six companies of the 45th regiment, and they are now assembling at the Central Arsenal. It is feared that there will be more trouble this afternoon and evening. The authorities are determined to defend the jail, but they wish to get Howard out of it.

Fuller particulars of the shooting last evening shows that the soldiers were pelted by the mob with bricks and stones, and several of them injured. The order was given to charge, and some men fired instead.
