The Ocean Mail Steamships.

Mr James Ashbury appointed Commodore.

Republican Club organized in Glasgow.

The Small-pox in Sheffield.

London, Jan. 9.—Lord Stanley addressed a large meeting of workingmen at Liverpool this evening. In the course of his remarks he said the old Liberal programme has exhausted its vitality, and he expected in the future Conservatism would predominate in all questions.

All the city journals have articles on the assassination of James Fisk, jr. They cite the cases of Richardson and Crittenden, attribute the frequency of such deeds to the peculiar civilization of America, and denounce the laxity of public sentiment and weakness of the courts, which make the practice of carrying concealed weapons so general in the United States. The Times arrives at the conclusion that the assassin's pistol in this case killed Fisk only. The spirit of which he was the incarnate representative is still living and strong in the city of New York.

The Queen and members of the Royal family have gone to Osborne.

Dr. Justo Arozmena had an audience with the Queen yesterday at Windsor Castle, and presented his credentials as Minister President of the United States of Columbia.

London, Jan. 9.—Messrs Seligman Bros. have introduced here and on the continent four millions of bonds of the Territory of Columbia loan at 87½. The loan is a great success. It was nearly all taken up before the books were regularly opened.

London, Jan. 10.—The American Chamber of Commerce in Liverpool has adopted a resolution demanding that the Cunard steamers shall bring mails from America as such an arrangement would be advantageous to the Mercantile Community.

Mr James Ashbury has been appointed a Commodore in the London, Yacht Club.

A Republican Club has been organized in Glasgow.

Small-pox is prevalent in Sheffield.

London, Jan. 10.—Arrived—The steamship St. Laurent from New York.

Arrangements have been made for the introduction of American cars on the English railways.

The captain of the ship Windsor Castle, which ran down a vessel in the channel, and was reported to have passed on without heeding the cries of the drowning mariners, has been examined and acquitted of all blame.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

London, Jan. 10, 11:30 a.m.—Consols opened at 93 for both. Bonds of '62 91⅞; '65, old, 93⅜; '67, 93½. Ten-forties 92.

Frankford, Jan. 10.—Bonds opened at 96⅛ for issue of 62.

Paris, Jan. 10.—Rentes opened at 56 francs 7c.

Liverpool, Jan. 10, 10:30 a.m. — Cotton opened quiet and steady. Uplands 10¾d to 10¼. Orleans 10⅝ to 10¾d. California wheat at 12s 10d. Barley 3s 8d.

NEW YORK DESPATCHES.

The Mexican Insurrection.

Success of the Revolutionists.

The New Orleans Legislature.

General John Cochrane, Mayor of New York.

New York, Jan. 9.—The inquest in the case of the murder of Fisk was resumed this afternoon. The court-room was densely crowded, and hundreds outside clamoured in vain for admission. The crowd outside was loud in denunciation of Stokes, and whether from fear from the rumour that an attempt would be made to lynch the murderer might prove true, or that a large force would be necessary to keep back the crowd, the number of police present was very large. Stokes entered the room looking very pale and haggard. The Coroner left the case to the jury, and the jury retired at 5 p.m.

At 7:30 p.m. the jury returned and submitted the following verdict:—

The Jury find on the testimony submited on this inquest that the deceased James Fisk, Jr., came to his death at the Grand Central Hotel, in the city of New York, on the 7th January 1872, at or about ten minutes before eleven, in consequence of a wound or wounds inflicted by a ball or balls from a pistol in the hand of Edward S. Stokes, discharged by him in a deliberate manner at the person of said Fisk, at the Grand Central Hotel above said, on the 6th January 1872, at or about four o'clock p. m.

Signed by all the members of the jury.

The Coroner then said, Edward S. Stokes, the Jury having found that James Fisk, Jr., came to his death at your hands, you are committed to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury.

New Orleans, Jan. 9.—A courier reached to-night from Tampico with a telegram, dated City of Mexico, Dec. 31st, from the Minister of War announcing two general engagements between General Rocha's [illegible] and the revolutionists under Gen. [illegible] in which the latter was routed with the loss of his artillery and cavalry. The church bells are ringing and troops marching through the streets with music amidst great excitement over the news. General Quiroga has been reinforced by 500 revolutionists from Monterey, and is moving from Wier on Carnargo with 1,500 men. General Cortina is reported to have abandoned Carnargo on Sunday to avoid a fight with Quiroga and fallen back to Reynosa.

New Orleans, Jan. 9.—While Messrs. Isador McCormick and W. McCulloch, Assistant Sergeant's at arms for the Carter House representatives, were attempting to arrest Matthews, a member, a scuffle ensued, in which Walter R. Wheyland was shot. He died an hour later.

New York Jan. 10.—By the temporary resignation of Mayor Hall General John Cochrane President of the Board of Aldermen virtually becomes Mayor of the city. Few believe that Hall will ever again assume the duties of Mayor.

Lancaster, N. H. Jan. 10.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here at 7.45 this evening.

New York, Jan. 10.—Arrived—The steamer Oceanic from Liverpool.

Monsignor Strossmayer, the Bishop of Diakovar was received by the Pope, last week. It would be curious to know what happened at the audience, for Monsignor Strossmayer is still said to maintain a passive opposition to the decree of Infallibility.

The complications existing between the United States and Spain have become so serious as to necessitate the exercise of calm and judicious diplomacy on the part of the respective governments if strife is to be averted. The United States have not yet settled the Hornet question, and that vessel is still detained under the guns of Spanish ships of war. This state of affairs is denounced by Americans, who call for redress and the upholding of the national honour. The delay of the Government in taking action appears in a worse light after the announcement that England has already compelled and obtained reparation for an insult offered to her flag about the same date as the Hornet affair. The recent overhauling of the Florida, a vessel carrying the United States flag, by the Spanish ship of war when on the high seas, is another act for which satisfaction is demanded. Then came a reported change in the ministry at Madrid, and rumoured recall of Governor Roberts from Cuba, which supposed acts were accepted by the United States Government as hostile to the conciliatory policy pursued by them towards Cuba. These latter causes of complaint, it is affirmed, have been removed by the Spanish Government. The situation still remains, however, very critical. Sealed orders have been sent to the United States squadron in Cuban waters, where several Spanish war vessels are also cruising; and at home the Americans are preparing for an emergency. The Navy Department is working assiduously, refitting some of the iron clads which have lain by since the terrible civil war; and though preparation does not necessarily mean war, it is evident that the United States Government intends to resent the somewhat insulting treatment they have received at the hands of the Spanish authorities.
