(Special Despatch to Daily News.)

The German Troops Evacuate France.

Scenes in the Spanish Cortes.

London, Jan. 23.—Advices from the Cape of Good Hope represent that rich discoveries continue to be made in the diamond fields. Among others two diamonds had been found of one thousand carats each.

The President of the Transvaal republic had resigned his office, and the acting President repudiated his acts, because "he had exceeded his powers" in attempting to resist the authority of the British Crown in its territorial claims.

New York, Jan. 26.—A special cable despatch says: M. Thiers is endeavouring to secure the complete evacuation of France by the German troops. Prince Bismarck has given his assent to the withdrawal of the troops on the condition that three milliards of francs be paid earlier than previously agreed upon. The announcement stimulates the tobacco monopoly project. During the recent crisis, M. Thiers said to General Cassey that if Napoleon had fifty million francs, he would be in power in fifteen days.

In the Spanish Cortes Diaz Quintera said it was quite time to cede Cuba to the United States. He was howled down by the whole house.

NEW YORK DESPATCHES.

Trial of the Murderer of Fisk.

The Union Pacific Railroad blocked up.

Annapolis, Md., Jan, 24.—In the case of Mrs Wharton, accused of poisoning Gen. Ketchum, the jury has rendered a verdict of not guilty. As the foreman answered there was a slight manifestation of applause, which was instantly checked by the court and the bailiff. Every eye was fixed upon the prisoner, who still stood calm and apparently unmoved, but through the heavy black crape viel, which was not displayed, tears could be seen streaming down her sad pallid face; otherwise there was no sigh of emotion. Her counsel each shook her hand, with brief words of congratulation. Her friends present also took her hand expressing gratification at the result of the trial. It is understood that before agreeing the jury stood 8 for acquittal and 4 were not fully determined on their verdict. During the time they were out five ballots were taken, after which a verdict of not guilty was agreed upon. Before the court adjourned it was understood between the court and council that the trial of Mrs Wharton, on the indictment for attempting to poison Van Ness, would come off at the regular term of court in April. During the trial 66 witnesses were summoned, and 59 sworn; the cost of the trial being about $16,000.

New York, Jan. 24.—A dense crowd thronged the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day. Promptly at half-past ten Edward S. Stokes was brought into court by Sheriff Brennan. Stokes looked pale and agitated; he tried to smile but the effort died away, for as he looked hurriedly around among the spectators he met no look of recognition. He took a seat beside his counsel Bartlett S. Gerry and McKeon. For the prosecution, District Attorney Garvin. John Graham, Stokes' leading counsel, was not present owing to illness. A little after half-past ten Judge Cardozo entered the court and took his seat upon the bench, when District-Attorney Garvin rose and moved to proceed with the case of Edward S. Stokes. Judge Cardozo, "There is no need for counsel to make any application, as I have received a note from Judge Ingraham stating that he was ill and unable to attend, and asking me to adjourn the court." Judge Garvin, "In that case I move that the prisoner be remanded." Judge Cardozo, "Granted to Monday.

The prisoner was then taken in charge by the Deputy-Sheriff and conveyed back to the Tombs. No one was allowed to leave the court until Stokes had been gone some ten minutes.

Omaha, Jan. 25.—Reports from the stations along the Union Pacific Railway indicate the worst blockade of the winter at Rawlins.

New York, Jan. 26, noon.—No European despatches per cable had been received up to noon.

Cadiz, Ohio, Jan. 26.—Six prisoners, who were confined on a charge of burglary, escaped from jail here yesterday by digging from one cell to another, with iron rods taken from the masonry of the jail; then making their way to the upper story and escaped by means of bed cords from the window.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—The severe northwest storm has ended. The State Senate has adopted a resolution inviting the Japanese to visit the capital. The Assembly has not yet done so. Costly American outfits are being prepared for the Japanese princesses and they will not appear in their oriental costumes of embroidered satin, after leaving here for the East. Part of the embassy are now visiting the silver mines of Nevada.

Newark, N. J. Jan. 26.—Botts was executed at 11:30 a.m.
