Execution of a Communist.

The Chicago Relief Fund.

The Parks Regulations Bill.

Paris, March 9.—The tribunal which has been sitting at Versailles on the cases of parties charged with firing and destroying the church of St. Louis in Paris during the reign of the commune, has brought its labours to an end. Two of the accused were found guilty of incendiarism, and one has been sentenced to be executed and the other to penal servitude for life.

Congratulatory despatches have been exchanged between President Thiers and the Governor of the Island of Guadaloupe. Upon the completion of the telegraph communication between France and that Island.

London, March 9.—The committee appointed to receive subscriptions for the sufferers by the great fire in Chicago have published their report which shows that the sum contributed throughout England reaches a total of £162,000.

A demonstration against the Parks Regulation Bill is to take place in Hyde Park to-morrow.

Queenstown, March 9.—The steamer, Algeria, from New York, for Liverpool, as arrived.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

NEW YORK DESPATCHES.

Murder and Suicide at St. Louis.

Fifteen People Killed by a Railway Accident.

Revolution in Mexico.—Defeat of the Rebels.

St. Louis, March 8.—Charles H. Burklin, shot his wife this evening, and then shot himself. Mrs. Burklin is in a critical condition, but Burklin cannot recover. Burklin is represented as being a worthless, dissipated man, very abusive to his wife, who is said to be a very estimable woman, and who has supported her husband for the past two years.

The whole number of persons injured in the railroad accident this morning is fifteen. All will probably recover.

Brownsville, Texas, March 7.—On Monday a party of armed men, supposed to belong to Cortina's command crossed the Rio Grande at Santa Marie Ranche, thirty-five miles from this city, and captured all the residents, including two inspectors, who were held prisoners, while several heads of stolen cattle were crossed over into Mexico. After the banditti had taken everything of value they released their prisoners, and returned to the other side.

New York, March 9.—Matamoras despatches report a favourable change in Juarez affairs. It appears the rebels have retired from San Luis Potosi toward Stackacas, and that General Rocha, with 13,000 men is pursuing them; that they have been defeated in other places, and have evacuated the city of Aguais Colientas that their Generals are quarreling with each other and that their commands are separated.

It is reported that Juarez has two millions of money in his treasury, while the rebels have nothing, and in a country nearly shorn of its supplies, are living from hand to mouth.

The order from Washington forbidding the clearance of vessels for ports in hands of the revolutionists, causes great excitement among merchants, and depression among the revolutionists as it will put a stop to all trade. A conducta of $406,000 will arive at Brownsville to-morrow. When crossing the river near Camargo it was attacked by a party of Cortinas men, who were routed by the escort and three were captured and hung.

New York, March 9.—Arrived, the steamship Crescent City, from Havana.

Weekly Review of Produce Market.

DAILY NEWS OFFICE,
Kingston, March 9.

Very little activity has been manifested during the past week; the attendance has been limited, and the supplies of produce moderate, though fully equal to the demands for local consumption. We anticipate no change of an important character for some time—a month or upwards.

GRAIN.—The market here continues lifeless, and rates advancing slightly; receipts light. Spring wheat, $1.20 @ $1.23; Peas, 74c @ 76c; barley, 63c; rye, 70c; and oats, 30c @ 40c. A Montreal review says of the movements there:—Receipts of wheat by railway for week ending February 28th, 3,500 bushels. Total receipts from 1st January to February 28th, 48,825 bushels, against 2,800 bushels at a corresponding date in 1871, being an increase of 46,725 bushels. Stocks in store and in hands of millers on the 1st inst., 176,677 bushels against 270,036 bushels at a corespending date last year. Cable despatches from Liverpool during the past few days have shown prices to be in favour of buyers, while markets in the Western States close dull with downward tendency.

FLOUR.—If the decline in the English breadstuffs market continues there will necessarily be a decline in the price of flour here. At present, recent quotations are maintained with a fair trade; XX brings $7.00 @ $7,15; XXX pastry commands $7.50.

DRESSED HOGS.—Little can be said concerning the state of the market for dressed hogs, as the receipts have been so inconsiderable as to give no just idea of it. The few lots that changed hands realized from $6.00 @ $7.00 for heavy; $7.50 for light, which appears to be preferable. However there can be no expectations at this season for large supplies, and it is likely the market will close firm at the above figures.

MUTTON.—Good display at from 5c @ 7c. Lamb more plentiful at from 5c @ 6c.

VEAL.—In small quantities at from 5c @ 6c per lb per quarter.

HAMS.—In fair request at from 10c to 12c; smoked 8c.

WOOD.—No diminution in the arrivals. No reduction in the rates which are:—No 1 quality of beach and maple, $4.00 @ $5.00 per cord; soft wood (or a mixture of inferior grades) $2:50c @ $3.00. An advance is in prospect with the disappearance of the excellent sleighing which has prevailed lately.

HAY.—A ready disposition of this article can be obtained at any time, at from $12.00 @ $14.00 per ton—the latter the ruling figure throughout the winter. Straw scarce at $8.00.

BUTTER.—Ordinary offering at from 16c @ 17c; latest transactions in choice were effected at from 18c @ 20c; fresh rolls, for which there is an improved inquiry, 18c @ 20c; firkins, 20c @ 25c.

EGGS.—More plentiful as Easter approaches. Quotations wholesale or retail, 20c @ 25c—a decline of five cents within two weeks.

CHEESE.—Weak and inactive at from 11c @ 12c.

VEGETABLES.—Unchanged. Potatoes, 40c @ 50c; turnips, 40c @ 50c; carrots, 40c @ 50c; beets, 60c; cabbage, 10c per head.

APPLES.—Barrelled (in well prepared condition) $2:50 to $3.00; 80c to $1.00 per bushel.

BEEF.—An excellent supply both by farmers and butchers; considerable quantities being of a dark colour as if apparently killed some time, and made to retain its freshness by frost. Holders ask $2.00 to 4.00 for fore quarters; hind, $5.00 to $7.00 per 100 lbs.

POULTRY.—Only a few varieties in market Turkeys, 75c to $1:50; geese, 50c to 60c fowls, 50c to 70c.

HIDES AND SKINS.—Brisker hides, $8.00; sheep and lamb pelts, $1:50 to $2.00; calf skins, 10c to 12½c per lb.

WOOL.—Selling at 40c per lb.

COAL.—The sudden change and great severity of the weather has tended to improve the trade, and during the week an active business has been done. Average price $8.00.

It appears that the Governor Generalship of India was first offered to the Duke of Argyle, and afterwards to the Earl of Kimberley. Both these noblemen declining, the office was then tendered to Lord Northbrook, and accepted.

Father Hyacinthe, in a letter to the Paris Temps, headed "The Sorbonne and the Council," after referring to his own position, expresses the opinion that France can only be saved by Christianity, but that she will never accept it in the form under which it is now presented to her by the Catholic Church.

At the annual general meeting of the Scottish Trade-Protection Society, in Edinburgh, it was resolved to petition Parliament to pass a measure for the suppression of betting-houses in Scotland; similar to that recently passed for England.

MUNIFICIENT GIFT.—We understand that his Grace the Duke of Leinster has through Dr. Chaplin, of Kildare, conveyed his intention of presenting to the parish a most munificent gift—namely, the house adjoining the railway station, lately erected by his Grace at a cost of £1,600, together with the ground (four Irish acres) upon which it stands, to be used as the residence of the future clergyman of Kildare. It would be superfluous in us to comment on this act of generosity, as the gift now made to the parishioners of Kildare is but one of the very many proofs his Grace has given of the interest he takes in the welfare of the Church.—Leinster Express.
