ARRESTS TWO SUSPECTS

SHERIFF HENDERSON TRAILS THEM INTO CHICAGO

(Woodstock Sentinel)

After a search of two weeks, following up a very important clue Sheriff Henderson on last Thursday arrested two suspects in the Addison murder and bank robbery case, only to be obliged to release his prisoners because the bank cashier was unable to identify the men with absolute certainty.

The two young men whom Sheriff Henderson placed under arrest were two characters who had taken an extensive automobile trip to points including Delavan Lake, McHenry and other points along the route of the Addison bank robbers, who were automobilists and mechanics.

Sheriff Henderson followed up the clue, and from Mr. Bickler at McHenry, at whose hotel the two men had stopped, he gained valuable information for directing his search. The two men in their conversation chanced to name some Chicago parties whom Mr. Bickler knew and the three men engaged in conversation on this matter of general interest.

Mr. Bickler and two detectives accompanied Sheriff Henderson to Chicago last Thursday, looked up these mutual acquaintances and thru them learned the whereabouts of the two young automobilists.

The directions given Sheriff Henderson's party led them to a garage on Belmont, near Clark and Halsted. Sheriff Henderson and the two detectives waited nearby, Mr. Bickler being instructed to remain within the garage if the two men were within, and to come out inside of five minutes if they were not there.

Mr. Bickler did not re-appear at the end of the five minutes, so Sheriff Henderson and the two detectives entered, found the two men and placed them under arrest.

The suspects were taken to Addison. News of the arrest reached Addison and spread like wild fire. Practically the entire population of the town turned out to meet the train bringing the sheriff and his prisoners.

The suspects were badly frightened. The man believed to have been the one who entered the bank and committed the crime was taken before the cashier, who declared that the man answered the description almost perfectly. However, feeling the seriousness of the charge and the great responsibility attached to a positive identification, the cashier declared he could not positively identify the man.

Under the circumstances, Sheriff Henderson felt that he could not hold the men, and they were accordingly released.

The two young men placed under arrest by Sheriff Henderson are said to be of a somewhat suspicious character. Altogether considerably agitated when told that the cashier had declared one as answering almost perfectly to the description of the masked robber, the man declared he was innocent.

Sheriff Henderson has in his possession a handsome solid gold watch which one of the young automobilists had left with a farmer near McHenry as security for payment for some gasoline for their machine.

The two men, after leaving Bickler's at McHenry, were stalled in the road and discovered that they were out of gasoline. They went up to a farm and asked if they might purchase some gasoline. The farmer, who had only that day purchased a supply, readily consented and proceeded to pour the gasoline out for them. After he had finished he looked around for the two men, but they were not in sight. Going around to the corn crib he found them. "Your gasoline is ready," he told them. They informed him they had no money to pay for it, but one of them drew the gold watch from his pocket and offered it as security, saying he would send for it the following day.

The watch was never redesignated and Sheriff Henderson now has it in his possession. When asked by Sheriff Henderson where he got the watch the fellow told a roundabout story of the watch being purchased by a certain person, returned to the jeweler's for $10, bought by a friend and then handed over to himself. The watch is an elegant one and is probably valued at about $40.

DO WE WANT IT?

Since the fact has become known that a number of the small towns about us are organizing brass bands, the question is being agitated here in McHenry. Some of the local musicians have talked over the band question at different times in the past year, but that's as far as they ever got. We all know that McHenry has boasted some good bands in past years and it is an established fact that the material is still here for as good, if not better a band as McHenry has ever had. The older band men in town are in favor of organizing and are quite anxious to have someone start the ball a-rolling. Over at Graylake the Commercial club has taken the matter in hand and an excellent little musical organization is the result. The business men of that village have financed the project and in turn for this assistance the band has promised to give the merchants at least one concert a week absolutely free of charge. The same thing could be accomplished right here in McHenry. Will some of the more enterprising men start something in this direction?

Good Coffee Costs Less

It's the poor coffee that's expensive. High grade coffee yields more cups to the pound than low grade—there is more strength in the high grade berries. And there's little satisfaction in coffee that lacks a full, rich flavor. You are choosing a high grade coffee, but an inexpensive one, when you tell the grocer to send MEX-O-JA. From every pound you can make 40 cups of delicious coffee—more if you like it mild. The cost is less than a penny a cup. MEX-O-JA Coffee is packed in a specially constructed tin, protected in a moisture resistant carton with brand green and red stripes. The Price May Change—The Quality Never. Price subject to revision according to the cost of raw material. 30 Cents Per Pound.
