There will be a brigade camp at Brockville in June. The Pembroke company will leave for camp on the 16th of June.

The Knights of St. Crispin in Arnprior have struck for higher wages. This will be a bootless job to Arnpriorians.

The appointment of Judge Johnson to be Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba has been cancelled, and Mr Archibald remains in charge until further orders.

Intelligence comes from Quebec of the death in that city, on the 29th ult., of Baron Von Koerber, of the Crown Lands Department, who was for some years a resident of Ottawa before Confederation.

William Caulfield, of Oshawa, has been convicted at the Assize Court being held at Whitby, of the willful murder of his wife by drowning her in a creek. The murder was committed last fall. Caulfield is about forty-five years of age.

The discourteous and unparliamentary language used by the Hon. Mr Hutchinson towards the Minister of Marine and Fisheries is much censured on both sides of the House of Commons. Mr Hutchinson is evidently a man wanting in good manners and gentlemanly instincts.

The Canada Southern Railway Company have commenced building their workshops, &c., on their grounds east of St. Thomas, and labourers, stone masons, bricklayers and carpenters are in great demand there at present.

The appearance of the St. Helen at Trenton was of such a novel character that nearly all the people of that village turned out to visit her.

The Norwood Register regrets to state that fall wheat in Peterboro county promises to be a poor crop. A great many farmers have ploughed up the ground and sowed some other grains.

Thirty men of the Dominion Artillery, Quebec, are under orders to proceed to Montreal next week, to be stationed on St. Helen's Island, where cadets of the School of Gunnery will be instructed. The remainder of the 60th Rifles, at present in garrison, are under orders for Halifax.

The Halifax Reporter says: From Ottawa there comes the news that matters in Ontario were never more favourable to the Cabinet than they are now. It seems to be an understood thing that the possession of the Government of Ontario has weakened the Commons' Opposition, both in the House and with the country.

A private bill, to naturalize Anson G. P. Dodge, the great lumber king of Western Canada, has been favourably reported on. Mr Dodge will become a candidate for parliamentary honours at the next general election, for the new county to be made up from N. Simcoe and N. Ontario.

The schooner Olivia which was wrecked, thrown on her beam ends and dismasted near Oswego, in a gale last fall, has been hauled out and thoroughly repaired by Mr Jamison, at Rathbun's ship yard, Mill Point, during the past winter, and was most successfully launched on Tuesday last. She looks like a new boat now.

We are pleased to learn that Capt. C. R. W. McCuaig has been appointed General Superintendent of Agencies for the Dominion of Canada and General Agent for Eastern Ontario for the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States—an appointment he is well qualified to fill.—Picton Times.

On Tuesday last, as Benson Kimerly was "pulling" pickets, at the steam saw mill, Mill Point, he took his right hand to clear away the sawdust, when another boy drew his attention by asking him some question, and the circular saw caught his hand and took off his fore-finger, tore his thumb nail and cut across the inside of his hand. He was taken home bleeding fast and in a fainting state. Dr. Newton dressed the wounds, and he is now doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The latest apology for Mr Mackenzie's Isolated Risk Insurance transaction is, that Mr M. C. Cameron is also a director of the company. How this is to help Mr Mackenzie it is difficult to see. While Mr Cameron was a Minister of the Crown, and consequently had an opportunity of bringing about such an arrangement as Mr Mackenzie has, we heard of no attempts on his part to do so. It was only after "honest" statesmen got charge of the affairs that we heard of the public funds being used for the private advancement of one of the occupants of the treasury benches.—Hamilton Spectator.

The water was let into the Cornwall Canal on Tuesday last. Several boats have since passed through. Navigation is now fully open. Mr Macdonald, Superintendent of the Cornwall Canal, is apprehensive from the unusual lowness of the water that either the navigation or the manufacturing establishments must suffer, as there is not like to be enough water to supply both.

The Globe complains of ministerial tardiness in the matter of legislative business. The London Advertiser complains of ministerial activity, and call upon members to put on the "breaks." Hard to please these Grit journalists.

The Welland Canal deputation consisting of Mr John Riordan, and Capt. Norris, of St. Catharines, Mr John Gordon, of Toronto, and Mr John McDonough, of Thorold, in their interview with Hon. Mr Langevin, stated that responsible parties were prepared to erect steam pumping engines at Port Colborne, and guarantee them to supply sufficient water for the canal during the summer, pledging themselves to charge nothing for the work, and to remove the machinery at their own expense if they fail to accomplish this result. Hon. Mr Langevin promised to give the subject his favourable consideration.

We are pleased to here from different parts of the County of Ottawa expressions of satisfaction at the progress made by that section of the country. Bridges are being constructed, new roads opened up, and old ones repaired; schools and post-offices are being established in backward places, and there is evidence of a general prosperity. The credit of this state of affairs is awarded principally to Mr Alonzo Wright, M. P. and Mr E. B. Eddy, M. P. P., the representatives of the County, who are doing all in their power to advance the local interests of that portion of the Ottawa Valley.—Citizen.

A deputation from Toronto respecting Harbour improvements at that City, and one from Chatham in connection with improvements in the navigation of the River Thames, had an interview with the Hon. Minister of Public Works, on Thursday, and submitted their cases for the consideration of the Government. It is evident Mr Langevin's office is no sinecure; not a day passes that he is not called upon by deputations from various parts of the Dominion, all having important schemes for public improvements, and all demanding appropriations from the public chest. Whether their applications receive favourable consideration by the Government, or not, no one has ever had reason to complain of discourtesy or inattention to their claims, from the Minister of Public Works.—Citizen.

VESTRY MEETINGS.

KEMPTVILLE.—Rev. J. Stannage, Rector, in the chair. The rector re-appointed Mr R. Leslie as his churchwarden and the people Mr Thomas Blackburn. Delegates to Synod, Messrs Leslie, Blackburn and Charles Jones, jr.

It was decided, at the request of the rector, to declare the pews free after the bell has ceased ringing, and to adopt the envelope system, as a trial for one year. Steps were also taken to raise $400 towards the purchase of an organ and to make an organ room at the side of the chancel. Thirteen persons present signed a note for that amount.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH, TRENTON.—The Rev. W. Bleasdell, Rector, in the chair. Rector's churchwarden, Mr J. T. Flindall. People's churchwarden, Mr Charles Francis. Incumbent's warden for West Trenton, Mr W. Shea. People's warden for same, Mr J. W. Thompson. Delegate to the Synod, Mr W. Shea.

Resolutions were unanimously passed (1) expressing confidence in free seats and the weekly offertory; which were introduced on trial at the previous Easter meeting, and (2) declaring all seats thereafter free and unappropriated, and the offertory the mode of raising means for church purposes.

An Irishman went to Bangor and bought a horse for two dollars and a half. When he had dragged him home, a neighbour said: Arrah now, Pat! Why didn't ye give another half dollar and get a good one?
