THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 8.

Election Intelligence.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—We have the following intelligence respecting Quebec elections:—

Dr. Ross has been re-elected for Champlain by 176 majority.

Dr. Langlois, the late Sandfield Macdonald's son-in-law, for Montmorenci, by 400 majority.

Chauveau was returned by the splendid majority of 1,200.

McGreevy was elected by 300.

Cauchon was elected by 250.

Dr. St. George, elected in Port Neuf, is friendly to the Government.

Bertrand, Ministerialist, is elected for Temiscouta by acclamation.

BROME.—Knowlton, August 6.—The election excitement waxes warm here. Yesterday meetings were held at Bolton and Potton, at which speeches were made by Messrs Colby, M.P., Cartier, Holton, Dunbar Browne and Parkins. Mr Colby is doing splendid service, his explanation of the policy of the Government on the Pacific Railway and other questions being both able and convincing.

STANSTEAD, Aultsville, Aug. 6.—Nomination for this county took place yesterday at Navington, about eighteen miles from this place. Farmers being busy with their haying the attendance was not so large as usual on such occasions. There were, however, about 1,000 people present. Messrs Samuel Ault, the old member, Archibald, Thomas White, Jr. of Montreal, and James Bethune, of Toronto, were severally nominated, and addressed the public, who gave to the speakers an attentive hearing. Messrs. White and Bethune withdrew, and the contest, which will be a close one, will be between Messrs Ault and Archibald. Polling on the 13th inst.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The Citizen to-night directs attention to the fact that Mr Jas. Bell, who is contesting South Lanark in the Opposition interest, is an official of Ontario, holding the office of Registrar for the county. Your contemporary adds that it is almost certain that Mr Bell has a very good understanding with Hon. Mr Mackenzie, that at all events he can stand for the Riding, and put it to the expense of a contested election. If that constituency should chance to elect him, well and good; the Registrar might have to resign his office, but something equally good would be provided for him. If he fails, as we trust he will, then there is no harm done. The Registrar remain the Registrar. The Citizen continues: "Whether it is in good taste for the Registrar of South Lanark to retain his official position, and at the same time allow himself to be nominated as a candidate for Parliamentary honours, and go to the polls, we are not now going to say. It may not be a violation of the letter, but it certainly is of the spirit of our constitutional system. In the face of the fact that just such a position has always been denounced by the clear Grits as unconstitutional and improper, it is positively indecent for the Ontario Government to countenance such a proceeding. They might just as well direct his resignation, appoint a Registrar ad interim, and then, in case of failure, reappoint him. It would be quite as becoming." Mail.

LONDON—HON. JOHN CARLING.—We are much pleased to hear of the return of this gentleman for London by the large majority of 300. The vile abuse of the London Advertiser appears to have done Mr Carling little harm, as we are told that in 1863, he polled 544 votes against Mr McBride; in 1867, he polled 947 against Mr Durand; in 1871, he polled 985 against Mr Cornish, and in spite of the sudden defection of nearly 200 Roman Catholic votes, he actually polled 4,102. This shows Mr Carling's increasing popularity.

SOUTH LEEDS.—Mr George Morton, of Kingston, is out for South Leeds against Mr A. N. Richards, the Grit candidate. The Mail thus refers to his candidature: Mr Morton will support the Government in all honest measures, having in view the good of the country. Mr Richards will oppose them in everything. Mr. Morton has many local claims on the Riding. It was he who established there the manufacture of Cheddar cheese, having as many as eight factories now in operation. He is president of the Dairymen's Association; and in connection with agricultural matters has been most active in encouraging and promoting every improvement. Mr Richards belongs to the Richards-Buell family compact, is the Brockville lawyer who essayed to go to Manitoba, but didn't get beyond Stinking River. He is a terrible leech whenever any of his friends, having patronage and pap to bestow, are in power. He is in no way identified with the people or the industries of South Leeds. His selfishness is a matter of notoriety. The electors of South Leeds have now before them two men between whom they cannot have much difficulty in making a choice. Mr Morton is a local man of great energy, irreproachable character, good education and an enterprising farmer. Mr Richards is a Brockville lawyer, iron-clad Grit principles, who would go to Parliament not to exercise any will or judgment of his own, but to vote as his leaders might think fit. We cannot doubt that the choice of the electors will fall upon Mr Morton.

EAST DURHAM—A GROSS MISSTATEMENT AND ITS DENIAL.

Yesterday the Grit organ in this city published the following:

"EAST DURHAM.—The news from this constituency is of the most encouraging character. Mr Kirchhoffer—the Government candidate—becoming discouraged, talks of withdrawing from the contest, and rumour has it that his conference with Sir John A. Macdonald at Picton the other day was upon this subject. In any case the result of the contest is not doubtful.

In reply to which we have received the following by telegraph:—

"Port Hope, Aug. 6, 1872.

"To the Editor of The Mail

"I have to request you to deny the paragraph in to-day's Globe referring to East Durham. I never met Sir John in Picton in my life, or anywhere else with reference to the election, and have certainly no idea whatever of retiring. The election is sure.

"N. KIRCHHOFFER."

What could have tempted the Globe to make such a misrepresentation? It cannot have been else than wilful. For, as we see by Mr Kirchhoffer's telegram, it does not contain a single word of truth. Let it make its mind easy about East Durham.—Mail.

It is announced from Ottawa that the Department of Public Works intends at once to call for tenders for the projected improvements in the harbour of Montreal.

We have been informed by Mr Smith, of the Marine Department, that he received a telegraphic despatch from New Brunswick this forenoon, stating that the Hon. Mr Tilley's return is certain, and that out of the sixteen members which will be returned for the House of Commons, from New Brunswick, fourteen of them will probably be supporters of the present Government.—Ottawa Times.

A little four year old beset his mother to talk to him and say something funny. "How can I?" she asked; "don't you see how busy I am baking these pies?" "Well, you might say, 'Charley, won't you have a pie?' That would be funny for you.
