A Serenade.—Last night about 11 o'clock, the dulcet strains of a full chorus fell joyously upon the writer's ears and momentarily arrested his step as he wended his weary journey homeward. Three vocalists and two instrumental musicians composed the party, who perambulated several streets, and interested and pleased very many, a few of whom popped their heads through bed chamber windows attracted by the melodious selections. There is a law against "making night hideous," but so long as it is harmoniously and properly conducted, there can be no serious objections to this practice.

Offal—A Public Nuisance.—At the last meeting of the City Council complaint was made regarding the deposit on the market square of filth and offal, constituting an unmitigated nuisance. Last night some person made matters worse by cleansing putrified pork in the fountain. We trust the police will prevent further infractions.

The Railway.—The survey of the line of the Kingston and Pembroke Railway is progressing favourably, the party engaged in such, since Thursday last, have examined and completed the inspection from Cataraqui Ward as far as the Glenburnie Road, where they were employed when last we heard from them.

A Commendable Movement.—We understand that the respective merchants doing business on Princess street, between Montreal and Bagot streets, have, through the suggestion of Mr W. Martin, combined and employed a night watchman by whose vigilance their property will be in perfect safety and not create the same anxiety to the owners.

The Comet Saved from Destruction!—M. Plantamour's comet having apparently resolved to turn tail and spare our planet the annihilation threatened on the 12th instant, our readers feel relieved; they have assumed their usual equanimity, and indulge once more in worldly affairs. The whole story seems to be a hoax, originated in some foreign newspaper; and it is understood that Prof. Plantamour has publicly declared that he never made the prediction. Possibly no great harm might come of a meeting between the earth and one of these erratic travellers through space, if they are composed, as they are said to be, of merely gaseous vapour. Certainly a good deal of what was meant to be laughing gas has been let off on the subject. The public can, however, appreciate another important prophecy, which is that the first frost will infallibly occur this year on the 3rd of September. This information is much more trustworthy than M. Plantamour's, being imparted by a lady of unquestioned veracity, who had it direct from the first katydid of the season, which intelligent insect made its appearance on the 23rd of July, thereby giving authoritativ warning, according to our informant, that frost would follow after exactly six weeks.

Public Schools.—The vacation of four weeks having expired at that time, the Public Schools will be opened on Friday next.

Police Court, Wednesday.—(Before Mr Strange, P.M.)—William Wiley, a frequent visitor at this hall of justice, turned up again under the usual circumstances. "He didna intend to cum agin;" but he did, and for the exercise of this privilege, he was asked to pay $2 or 15 days. He accepted the alternative. Hugh McGurk and Henry Nicholson—the young man who wanted to be an angel yesterday—were fined in the same amount. James Kendle, a negro of dissipated habits, was charged with assaulting Patrick Lennox on the 19th of July last. As the defendant was somewhat provocated the magistrate acted more leniently than he would otherwise have done. Fined $5and costs. Two females from the romantic neighbourhood of the "Pavillion," appeared relative to a charge of abusing children, which was adjourned until the 1st proximo to admit of settlement.

Sir John Macdonald.—Friday afternoon this gentleman visited the establishment of Messrs Sessions, Turner & Co., and inspected the various means and appliances used in the manufacture of boots and shoes. A pleasing feature in his visit took place when he reached the upper flat of the building. The employes of the firm had assembled there, and as soon as Sir John made his appearance, he was greeted with three rousing cheers. He afterwards visited Messrs Gordon & McKay's, and inspected the products of the Lybster Mills.

Rev. Allan McNab, son of Rev. Dr. McNab, rector of Bowmanville, Ontario, committed suicide on Friday morning, by walking into the River Rapids near Victoria Bridge and drowning himself. He had been doing duty for his father during the latter's absence in England for some time past, and had reached Montreal on his way to Liverpool to join his father. Extreme mental fatigue, in connection with clerical duties, is the alleged cause of this melancholy act.

The continued expenditure of money, says a Quebec payer, in building the Intercolonial Railway on the North Shore is having its good effect. The high rates for lumber in the English markets are also making times bright among a large class in that section of New Brunswick. The whole extent of the country, from Shediac to Campbeltown is now enjoying more general prosperity than ever before in its history. On the Restigeuche River lumbering has been prosecuted extensively the past season.

A St. John, N. B., pepar states that there were no less than 900 applications from Ontaria alone for the 100 girls brought out by Miss Rye. The steamer Peruvian brings out on her present trip one hundred more, and Miss Rye will meet them on their arrival.

The St. John Globe says that a splendid black eagle, quite young and very tame, captured in St. George, and sent up by Mr R. A. Stewart, of that place, to Mr Lewis H. Brown, of Carleton, escaped, creating a sensation that even the elections did not overshadow. The swallows in immense numbers attacked the noble bird, and a large number of lads followed him up. He alighted on the grounds of Mr Clark, and was easily re-captured.

The gentlemen players of England have left Liverpool for Canada, where they have engaged to play matches at Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Hamilton. The cricketers in Halifax, who are moving in the project for having the English team extend their visit to this city, have sent letters to meet them at Montreal, and also to Mr Patterson, who is making arrangements in their behalf for the Canadian matches, offering every inducement for them to come here. Sir Hastings Doyle has also sent a pressing invitation, and offered to head a subscription list, should a fund be required to defray expenses.—Halifax Chronicle.

It is seldom that we have to record anything more heart-rending than the following:—Last week one of the children of Mr Hugh Johnston, shoemaker, of Meaford Village, had been badly scalded. Next day it died. On the day following, Mr Johnston was compelled by death resulting from diarrhoea, to part with another and young child. On Friday his brother, Mr Thomas Johnston, of 7th line, St. Vincent, came down to console with the bereaved family in their afflictions.—While in the house, his son, a bright boy of five years, ran out on the road and was run over by a waggon. He was carried into the house where he died almost instantly.

To the Electors of the Riding of Addington.

GENTLEMEN,—I beg leave to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election for the House of Commons. I, as you are well aware, have long taken a somewhat prominent part in the municipal affairs of my native county, and if elected as your representative to the House of Commons of Canada, shall endeavour to the utmost of my ability to aid in passing al measures that are for the benefit of our rising Dominion, and oppose all that will be injurious to our interests. If elected, I shall give the present Government a fair support, as I consider that their legislation on the whole has been advantageous to the country. It is my intention to see as many of you as possible before the election, when I shall explain my views more fully to you on the great questions now before the country.
