MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS AND POLITICS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Dear Sir,—I see the Globe informed its readers a few days ago that the Grit party in this city are forming Ward Associations already for the purpose of introducing politics into the next municipal contest. I sincerely trust that it is a fabrication of the Globe's correspondent, though from all I hear I fear he is right in stating that to be so. I hope that politics, as far as the term extends to the Government of the country in general, will never be introduced into the arena of our contests for seats at the Municipal Council table. Nothing could do such incalculable damage to the welfare and peace of our cities. Nothing yet invented by restless madmen could be of so damaging a character to the maintenance of peace and good order as the introduction of such affairs at the elections for corporations of cities or counties. Ill feelings, too often aroused at elections for the various Houses of Parliament, would thereby be yearly fostered, instead of being allowed to dissipate of themselves by means of that great mediator and surer of wounded feelings, old father Time. Do we, Sir, want to see enacted in our midst such scenes as disgrace the names of many cities in the United States at municipal and other election times. God forbid it should ever be ours to have such things happen in this young and already prosperous country. Rather let us take example from them, and so steer our course clear of such things. Let me ask those who are endeavouring to institute such a course, "What do you expect to gain by it?" Does not our Corporation now contain men of both sides in politics, and do they not each and all do their duties as Aldermen? or do you think that if they were all Grit or all Conservative the city business would be better performed? What more could a Conservative Ald rman do for his Ward in the Council than a Grit or vice versa? What has the political economy of the country in general got to do with that of the Corporation? The one is as distinct from the other as is one race from another. Then this being so, what can you expect to gain by introducing George Brown and his political tenets or Sir John Macdonald and his into your municipal election contests, men of Kingston. The idea to my mind is simply puerile and absurd, but also dangerous to your peace and good order. No thinking man would sanction such a dangerous proceeding, for productive of much disturbance it must be as evinced by the fact that wherever it is tried in the large cities of America, murder and bloodshed are sure to ensue. Let me appeal while yet it is time to the leaders of both parties in this city to at any rate refrain from that course until some other city in the Dominion has tried it on; let me appeal to the educated and prominent leaders of each side, and there are many on both, to refuse their support to a course which can only end in the thorough upreeting of society at large, the breaking up of many friendships, and most probably in such scenes as have disgraced one city already during the last election for the Commons, where creed was set against creed, and nationality against nationality, to the eternal disgrace of those who sanctioned such things. I for one, Mr Editer, will never vote at a municipal election for any candidate who comes out, or is brought out, either as a Conservative or Grit. I don't care how good a man he may be for the purpose, if his politics are to be the guide for electing him, I shall vote for the other if he is pure from the taint of such cause in his candidature. Apologizing for the length of this letter, I remain, yours truly.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND READY FOR CONFEDERATION — HALIFAX ELECTIONS.

Halifax, Aug. 19.—With the Local Government working strongly in Mr Jones' favour he recorded forty-eight votes, more than he did in 1867. Dr. Almon polled 379 votes more than the Union candidate in 1867. This shows a great change in sentiment.

Advices from Prince Edward Island state that the result of the elections in Nova Scotia will have an immense effect on the Island. Several of the Government papers have come out squarely in favour of Union with the main-land. The Progress says:—"As long as we considered opposition to Confederation best for the interests of our native land we fought against it might and main, but now that we see further resistance not only useless, but positively injurious to the colony, we not only refrain from opposition, but are prepared to advocate a change." The Journal says: "We believe that Confederation, and the results thereof as administered by the Cabinet led by Sir John Macdonald, as a whole, have been beneficial and largely conducive to the welfare of the country." I am informed nothing could turn the growing feeling in Prince Edward Island but the accession to power of the Grits, whose sectionalism is commented upon as a selfish policy, calculated to deter the Island from entering the Confederacy. The people of the Island look with great interest upon the struggle in Ontario, and hope the Government of Sir John will win. The five years of Confederation and their good results in Nova Scotia have disposed the islanders to join us.

The Lunenberg M.P., in the course of a speech on declaration day, said he would support Sir John Macdonald's Government on every test question, and promised that he would not vote with the Reform party, if they got the Government, without first presenting himself to the electors of Lunenberg for their views.—Mail.

CRICKET.

So much interest is felt just now in cricket and more especially in the English Eleven, who are expected soon to make their appearance in Canada that the following account of last year's batting of the members of the Eleven will probably be acceptable to our readers:

Names.	Matches	Inn'gs	R'ns	Most Inn'gs in an Inn'g	Most R'ns in a Mat'h
Appleby, W. G.	9	13	181	99	99
Grace, W. G	25	32	2,739	268	268
Grace, G. F	14	26	756	98	116
Hadow, W. H	16	24	723	217	217
Hornby, A. N	9	26	350	112	134
Lubbock, A	6	11	172	42	63
Mitchell, R. A. H.	4	5	223	59	113
Thornton, C. T.	19	33	769	111	158
Walker, V. E	3	3	25	20	20
Walker, R. D	2	3	3	39	39
Yardley, W	10	19	610	126	126

Thus it will be seen that Mr W. G. Grace participated in twenty-five games with an average of rather more than seventy-eight runs. During the present season he has already played in twenty-one games, scoring 1,294 runs, or an average of sixty runs per innings.

The first game between the eleven gentlemen named above and a Canadian twenty-two will be played on the Montreal cricket ground on Thursday and Friday next, the 22nd and 23rd inst. Messrs Mills and Harper, of the Belleville club, will form two of the twenty-two in the above game.

The second game will be played in Ottawa on the Rideau Hall ground, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 27th and 28th, when Messrs Shaw and Benjamin, of Belleville, will do battle for the Canadian twenty-two.

The third game will take place on or about the 5th and 6th of September, another game in London on a subsequent date, and the fifth and last of the series of games in Hamilton, after which the English players will visit the United States, where they will contest several matches with cricketers resident there.—Belleville Intelligencer.

LONDON—NOMINATION FOR THE LOCAL HOUSE.

London, Aug. 19.—The nomination for the Local Legislature came off to-day. Messrs W. K. Meredith, Union, and James Durand, Grit, are the candidates. Other gentlemen, among them the Hon. Mr Carling, the Hon J. O'Connor, and Mr A. W. Lauder, was proposed for the purpose of speaking. Mr Durand declared himself a hearty supporter of the Ontario Government, but said not a word further in definition of his political principles by which he is understood to endorse the Proton affair, the Coalition and assume the Isolated Risks. Mr Meredith gave a masterly political address condemning the acts of the Government, and the means by which power was obtained. He was frequently interrupted by the Grits, who showed themselves determined to stifle fu discussion. The Hon. Mr O'Connor then came forward, but was received with a storm of disapprobation; they would not hear a word from him. One bigoted fellow kept shouting, "Send the Catholic O'Connor back to Winsor." As a last resource they let the hustings fall by deliberately loosening the braces and swaying it and fro. About twenty or thirty people fell to the ground together, but none were injured. Mr O'Connor was then escorted into the Court House by Mr Carling, followed by a large crowd. Here he spoke for half an hour, amidst the wildest interruption. He, however, made himself heard, and delivered a telling speech. The insult offered to Mr O'Connor meets with universal condemnation outside of the Grits, and has caused great excitement. It has gained Meredith one hundred votes.—Mail.

FIVE LONG BRANCH BATHERS WASHED OUT TO SEA—TWO WOMEN DROWNED.

Long Branch, Aug. 17.—Four servant girls employed at the West End Hotel, were bathing this evening. The undertow being very strong, they were washed out to sea. The screams attracted the attention of gentlemen on the beach, who went to their rescue. Two were easily saved. The third was rescued by Henry Woodruff, of New York, at the risk of his life. The fourth was washed out to sea, and the body has not yet been found. Mary Calley, of Brooklyn, a servant in the family of ex-City Chamberlain, J. Bradley, while bathing was carried away by the undertow, which was running very strong. A gentleman went to her rescue, but when he was brought ashore very little life was in the body. A doctor was called, but she died on the beach.

Eighty-two Ministerialists have been elected to Parliament and twenty-two Oppositionists. The Grits have only sixty seats to win to get even. The Government majority will be larger than in the last House—somewhere about one to one.

The English cricketers, being all of the members of the Marylebone Club, bring with them the M. C. C. flags, and a large assortment of prize bats and balls for the usual reward of talent opposed to them.

It is stated that Mr Gibbs, the head of the well-known firm of Antony Gibbs and Sons, has given £30,000 to Keble College, Oxford, for the purpose of building a chapel for the college.
