NEW YORK DESPATCHES.

New York, Dec. 11.—The latest reports are that only eleven lives were lost at the Fifth Avenue fire. The following are the names of the women who lost their lives:—Delia Cummings, Mary Cardy, Margaret Conners, Mary McCabe, Lizzie Moran, Margaret Campbell, Honorah Ward, Mary Donnelly and Kate Cushing. The Fifth Avenue Hotel is all confusion to-day. A constant stream of visitors are pouring in through one door and out through the other. In addition to the eleven girls burned to death, two others, Mary Ann Fagan and Mary Jones, who escaped the fate of the other girls sleeping with them, by tearing down a wire screen from a corridor window, and escaping on to the roof, were badly injured. Griswold, one of the proprietors, emphatically contradicts the statement that there was any delay in sounding the alarm. The walls of the laundry, on the fourth floor, where the fire originated, are burned to cinders, and masses of icicles depend from the ceiling. The staircase leading to the topmost landing, where the servant's appartments are situated, are completely destroyed, and most of the adjacent rooms are gutted. The walls are already torn down by the workmen. The three upper floors of the Twenty-third street wing are deserted by the guests, in consequence of the constant dripping of water through the ceiling. The furniture is piled together in each room and covered with tarpaulins. The proprietors state that the amount of damage cannot be estimated yet, and the insurance is not yet ascertained. Externally there is nothing to indicate that a fire had taken place.

It is now stated that the loss by the fire at the Fifth Avenue Hotel is $140,000. It is insured. Among the offices which have risks are the National, Ætna, and Orient of Hartford, each $5,000; Eastern and Union, of Bangor, each $5,000; North British, 10,000; Liverpool, London and Globe, $3,450.

New York, Dec, 12.—A letter from Gaspe Bay, dated 6th inst., states that the lighthouse on Anticosti Island was completely destroyed in the late hurricane. The house of the lighthouse-keeper was also destroyed, and Mr Baxter, the keeper, his wife, and six children, were all killed. Several small fishing vessels were also wrecked.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—The Madoc Indians have retreated to Wrights Cave on the south-west side of Tule, Lake Oregon, with their children and squaws, and have laid in a good supply of provisions. It is calculated that fifty Madoc warriors, with a number from Pitt River, and several Parites with them, are fortified there. So far, fourteen settlers have been killed in war. Henery Miller was tortured to death. Four hundred troops are in the field besides volunteers. A decisive battle is expected at White's Cave provided the Indians hold the position long enough.

New Orleans, Dec. 11.—Acting Governor Pinchback has relieved Major-General Campbell from active duty and appointed Major-General Langstreet to the command of the 1st division.

Governer Warmouth to-day issued a proclamation warning and cautioning all good citizens against in any manner recognizing the General Assembly at the Mechanic's Institute, or Pinchback as acting Governer, and commanding all state officers, tax collectors, sheriff and others, to recognize, and deal only with the legal officers now in authority until their successors shall be regularly installed, and guaranteeing protection to such officers in the discharge of their duties by all the force of the State if necessary. Militia officers who are ordered by acting Governor Pinchback are to report to General Longstreet, and express the determination to obey no orders except those coming from Governor Warmouth.

Yorkton, Dakota, Dec. 12.—Three-fourths of the horses here have the Epizootic, and one stage per week is run to Fort Randall with oxen.

St. Louis, Dec. 12.—The horse disease is still spreading. There were sixty deaths yesterday.

Hartford, Dec. 12.—The concluding game of the match between Springfield and Hartford for chess championship of New England, resulted last night in the victory of Hartford on the forty-first move.

Philadelphia, Dec. 12.—Edwin Forrest, Tragedian, fell dead this morning while dressing at his residence on North Broad street.

New York, Dec. 12.—Arrived, the steamship Queen, from London, and Westphalia, from Hamburg.

A special despatch from Paris to the Daily News says the gales there on Tuesday last were dreadful. Versailles was also visited by the hurricane. The damage to property is very great and several persons were killed in both cities.
