NEW YORK DESPATCHES.

Matamoras, Dec. 17.—The delegates assembled to count the municipality vote commenced quarrelling, and to prevent a row troops were called. The Government has abolished the franchise granted to merchants here.

New York, Dec. 16.—Fifty-one shares of the capital stock of the Tribune Association constituting a majority were to-day sold to Wm. Orton. The parties going out, besides Mr Sinclair and the representatives of the estates of dead proprietors, are Geo. Ripley, Whitelaw Reid, John Hay, Thos. N. Rooker, Philip Fitzpatrick, Patrick O'Rourke, and Dr. J. C. Ayer. Each of the old proprietors was earnestly requested to retain at least a part of his stock. Messrs. Reid and Hay refused. It is understood that eight are reserved for Schuyler Colfax, who is to be invited to assume the editorship. Mr Reid was requested to remain but declined. The majority of the trustees who desired to continue the paper on the basis of Mr Greeley's card, with Mr Reid at its head needed only eighteen shares to secure a clear majority. It is expected that ex-Governor Morgan, ex-Surveyor Cornell and others of that wing of the Republican party are to unite with Mr Arton in carrying the stock.

SHAMROCK BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—A meeting of this Association was held last night in the St. Patrick's Hall; but the proceedings were of slight importance, as there were not sufficient members to constitute a quorum.

THAT CASE OF SMALL-POX.—No tidings have been leared of what became of the subject o small-pox, which was brought to the city last evenirg. The patient was not admitted to the Hospital as intended, and the last heard of her was about 9 o'clock, when she was still being conveyed from place to place uncared for—no one consenting to receive her even for the protection of a night. There is another case reported in the same neighbourhood from whence the woman came.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—Last night an interesting missionary meeting was held in the Primitive Methodist Church, Brock street. The addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr Listen, of Collinsby, and Rev. Mr Willis, of Portland, and Rev. Mr Lewis, the resident incumbent. The speeches were spirited and pithy, and were well received. A good collection followed on behalf of the missions.

The Hamilton Board of Trade have had the Insolvent Act under discussion. A good many members were in favour of leaving the Act as it stands, fearing that any attempt at amending it might be fatal to the law altogether. A committee was appointed to report on the subject. The tariff question was similarly dealt with, the committee to report within a week. Seventy new members were added, so that hereafter the Board will more fully represent the commercial and manufacturing interests of Hamilton than at any time previously.

Montreal.

During our recent visit to Montreal, although occupied with things ecclesiastical, we found time to snatch a few half-hours to pay a few hasty visits to our mercantile friends, and to note briefly the marvellous progress which the good city is making in material wealth, architecture, commerce, &c.

CHARLES ALEXANDER AND SONS.

This enterprising firm have found their confectionary business increase so rapidly that they have been obliged to open a new branch establishment at University street, near the Cathedral. Both here and at Notre Dame streets they are very busy, owing to the approach of the Christmas holidays. Their wares are sent all over the Dominion and find ready purchasers everywhere.

SAMUEL CARSLEY.

A few rods from the Messrs Alexander's place of business is Mr Carsley's establishment. Mr Carsley is well known to Kingstonians for his push, tact and energy, and appears to be making his way rapidly in Montreal. His energy and industry has a fine field of operations in that city, which by a liberal allowance of printers' ink he makes ample use of, and we were pleased to see that his large staff of employees were kept fully employed. Good goods, light profits and quick returns are Mr Carsley's mottoes, and he thrives by them.

THE OTTAWA HOTEL.

The "Ottawa," under the management of Mr C. S. Brown, the present proprietor, is a really first-class hotel in every respect. The rooms are spacious, clean and comfortable; the table is supplied with the choicest viands. We cannot say anything for the bar, as we did not drink anything. The servants are courteous and attentive, and if anything wanting remains, Mr Andrews, well known to Kingstonians as the clerk of the Ottawa for several years, will see that it is attended to. Situated in the heart of the business part of the city, no more desirable place can be found by mercantile men for a resting place than the Ottawa Hotel.

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

We must not omit kindly notice of this great Canadian institution, which, for political reasons, has been the subject of so much virulent abuse for many years. The difficulties of doing a large and greatly increased business on a single line of rails must necessarily be very great, and that delays should occasionally arise is not to be wondered at. A great deal of the line has been relaid with steel rails, which are found to be preferable in every respect to the old rails. The Pullman cars are so very comfortable and luxurious that the traveller feels just as comfortable seated in one of them as if he was in the finest drawing room in Kingston. Mr Brydges' fine administrative abilities are evinced in the excellent management of the Grand Trunk Railway.

C. H. TUGGEY.

Mr Tuggey, who has been well know in Montreal as a Real Estate Agent for many years, has recently gone into the coal trade, and by his industry, business tact and integrity is pushing a fine business. He got burned out in St. Patrick's Hall, but nothing daunted has resumed business, determined to succeed—and that he will do so, we have no doubt.

The Perth Expositor says; "We paid a visit to Carleton Place last week and were surprised and pleased to see the improvement made in the village since its awakening from the sleep of years. Splendid brick, stone and frame buildings have sprung up in all directions. The new Town Hall now almost completed, is a neat and substantial stone structure, with rooms on the ground floor for council chamber, caretaker, armory, lock up, &c. The hall on the second floor is a fine large room—58 feet by 35. The contract price is some $6,500. But notwithstanding the present prosperity of Carleton Place, the removal of Messrs Gillies & McLaren's saw mill operations to some point on the Kingston and Pembroke Railway, will be a serious injury.

WAIT FOR BARGAINS!

TO THE PUBLIC.

Kingston, Dec. 12th, 1872.

WE have to return our sincere thanks for the liberal patronage extended to us since we began business here in 1855. During all that time we have been highly favoured with your custom, although we could not wait upon you or show our goods to advantage in consequence of the small size and insufficient accommodation of our Shop.

As you are perhaps aware, we have this year built a NEW STORE on the CORNER of BROCK and WELLINGTON STREETS, known as the Forsyth or Wellington Gore, and which will be better known as the SIGN OF THE GOLDEN LION, where we hope to make up for the many inconveniencies you have kindly borne with in the seventeen years long gone by.

And now we beg to inform you that the doors of our New Establishment will be thrown open to the public on WEDNESDAY, 18th DECEMBER, at 10 A.M., when we will be happy to meet you with the choicest, complete and most select assortment of new and fresh Groceries, Teas, Fruits (of all descriptions), Old Wines, Brandies, and other Foreign and Domestic Liquors, in Ontario and as our premises are large and got up in the most modern improved style, we hope the people of Kingston and surrounding country, who are desirous of dealing in a first-class House, will give us a share of their patronage, as we intend to sell Goods for Cash far cheaper than usual on account of our increased facilities.

The upper rooms of our Establishment will be entirely devoted to Wholesale and the ground floors to Retail. Wishing you all the compliments of the season.

Yours truly, with 17 years thanks,

W. R. McRae & Co.

P.S.—On the day of opening the New Store, and during the Holidays we will have the largest stock of fine Fruits, Condiments, and other Groceries, ever shown in this city, and IMMENSE BARGAINS may be expected. ☞ Remember the Sign of the Golden Lion.

GROCERY MERCHANTS' AGREEMENT

THE UNDERSIGNED GROCERS AND Liquor Merchants of Kingston give notice that they, finding the custom of distributing amongst their patrons Christmas Boxes and New Year's Gifts to be a severe tax on their business, have agreed together, under bond and forfeiture of $50 each deposited with the President and Treasurer of the Society, that they will neither give, nor allow their employees directly or indirectly to give these Gifts from their respective Stores to any Customers or other persons after the date hereof; the money arising from any conviction of a breach of this bond and consequent forfeiture, to be bestowed on the Charitable Institutions of the city, and the said act of breach of agreement to be chronicled and published, with the name of the person so committing the violation, in the city papers.

TESTIMONIAL.

Bath, Dec. 9, 1872.

Mr Henry Cline, General Agent, Ag. Ins. Co. of Watertown, Kingston:

DEAR SIR,—You will pardon my delay if a press of business prevented me sooner expressing to you and through you, to the other Offices of your Company my warmest thanks, for the liberal, prompt, and hearty spirit with which you have entered into the settlement o my claim on you, for the loss by fire sustained by me during the past month.

I take therefore, my dear Sir, this, the first opportunity afforded me, to perform so pleasing a duty, a duty I feel I owe alike to the public and your Company; as the generous treatment I received at your hands merits a public acknowledgement.

Permit me to add my hope and belief that such a system of business as yours, as honourable to yourselves, as it is liberal to your policy holders, free from the worry and procrastination almost inseparable from the settlement of such claims, will receive, as it unquestionable deserves, public patronage and support.

I am Dear Sir,
With great respect, yours much obliged.
