FRIDAY EVENING, DEC. 27.

Correspondence.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Sir,—Being awakened about one o'clock on Christmas morning by the sound on the crisp air of a number of persons halting in front of my dwelling, I determined to rise and see what was the matter. Before I could dress, however, my anxiety was most pleasantly allayed by the sound of a good old Christmas carol, whose words went directly to my heart. Waking my spouse, we listened with delight and stirred up devotion to same three or four more, when I felt it my duty to shake up the store, and ask the singers to come in and warm themselves, which they did as soon as their carol singing was finished. It proved to be nearly all the masculine part of the choir of All Saints' Church, assisted by a few musical friends. After warming themselves they gladdened us with another hearty carol, and wishing us all the happy compliments of the season of Christmas tide, took their departure.

This, my dear News, is one of those pleasant and devout customs of "merrie old England" which we may well wish to see continued in our Canadian Dominion. As the sweet singer of Israel wrote thousands of years ago, "It is a joyful and pleasant thing to be thankful."

At this season when the whole Christian world is busy with "keeping holy-day," in commemoration of the Birth of the Blessed Lord, the Saviour and Redeemer of mankind, it is a pleasant thing to be thus awakened "early, very early," that we may turn our devotion thoughts, with thankful hearts, to the holy Jesus, before the world has had time to thrust its daily cares upon us, or to make our minds and bodies now fresh with the rest afforded by "nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep." It reminds us that we should give to the Blessed Saviour our best thoughts, best devotions, and best offerings.

Taking the liberty, dear News, of thanking through you, these devout and joyous carol singers.—Very truly,

A LOVER OF CAROLS.

Kingston, Dec., 1872.

[We have heard of the performance of the party of carollers from a number of gentlemen, and all in warm terms of praise. One of our staff was initiated into another good "old English" custom on Christmas morning by a young lady in connection with an overhanging bunch of mistletoe. We have not time now to describe the ceremony, but it was very pleasant and should become very popular with Canadian young ladies and gentlemen.—ED. NEWS.]

The Belleville Ontario of Thursday last says:—A most serious runaway entailing an accident, occurred to the eldest son of Samuel Parliament, Esq., Ameliasburg, yesterday afternoon, that placed the young man's life in great jeopardy. He was delivering a sewing machine to a farmer in Smithville, when the horses attached to his sleigh took fright. In trying to recover them he was thrown on the whiffletree where he remained in contact with the heels of the horses for a long distance. His face and body are badly bruised, and it is difficult to ascertain the full extent of the casualty. His father was telegraphed to and the young man was taken home and is now in a precarious state."

CHILDREN'S ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment in St. George's Hall for the benefit of the children attending St. George's Sunday School will take place on Tuesday evening, a capital programme has been prepared, which will appear to-morrow.

Every farmer who owns a good stock of horses, cattle and sheep, and intends to keep them through the winter, should get at once a good stock of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders. One dollar's worth will save at least a half ton of hay.—Adv.

North Haven, Knox County, Me., 20th October, 1871.—Mr James I Fellows, Chemist, St. John, N. B.: Dear Sir,—Having used your chemical preparation of Hypophosphites, which was recommended to me by Mr Blagden, Apothecary of Rockland, I am truly surprised with its wonderful effects, because for several years my health has been declining, notwithstanding every means possible, which offered encouragement, was used by me. Several alarming symptoms appeared, amongst which dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, impoverished blood, and great prostration. Since January, when I began to use your Syrup, my health has steadily and amazingly improved, so that now it gives me great pleasure to recommend it to others, and in this way to show my gratitude for return of health. To all who require a remedy for debility, I would say they will find your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites just what you say it is. I believe it is the best preparation in use.—I am, sir, &c., ELEAZER CRANMER, J. P.—Adv.
