VOL. XLV. KINGSTON, CANADA TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 30, 1877. NO 25.

TO THE Free & Independent Electors OF THE COUNTY OF FRONTENAC.

GENTLEMEN:

HAVING BEEN REQUESTED TO OFFER myself as a candidate at the approaching election for the Local Assembly, I beg to solicit your suffrages therefor in my favour.

From an intimate acquaintance with the requirements of the agricultural community, I think I could be of considerable service in promoting your interests in that respect. My whole attention (if elected) shall be solely devoted to the advancement of the County, in conjunction with that of our Province.

As a Liberal Conservative, my political views are already well known to you, and on the day of nomination I hope to present them more fully to your notice.

I enunciate no loud protestations of what I will do, but every farmer is aware that in returning me, he will best advance the future prosperity of the County.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,

WILLIAM MURRAY.

WHEN I AM FAR AWAY.

From "The Mountain Minstrel."

BY EVAN MACCOLL.

O'er yonder ocean wide and wild
When I am far away,
When never more thy voice, sweet child,
My spirit sad may sway,
This thought will cheer the minstrel's heart
Forget though others may,
That thou wil't sing my songs, sweet child,
When I am far away.

Unknown to fortune's fickle smile
Though oft the minstrel sings,
If but his lays are loved, meanwhile,
He'll laugh at crowns and kings
And thus it is I comfort bring
From out life's darkest day,
Since thou, sweet child, my songs will sing
When I am far away.

MY JEWELS.

A ringlet, tiny, bright and fair,
A simple spray of golden hair;

A half-worn shoe, with the form impreat,
Of the little foot that is now at rest;

A tiny mitten of white and red,
With here and there a broken thread;

A broken toy, a withered flower,
That passed, like her, in a single hour;

The darkened room and silent hall,
The hush unbroken by baby's call;

The mound beneath the yew tree shade,
Low and narrow and newly made;

Such are the jewels left to me.
Of a little life that was swift to flee.

WHIGGINGS

—The new Methodist church in Belleville was dedicated yesterday.

—The Kiralfy Brothers cleared no less than $160,000 at Philadelphia during the Exhibition.

—A French woman has bequeathed $17,000 to Marceilles, for a horse and dog hospital.

—The Independent says that for many years Commodore Vanderbilt's benefactions averaged $1.000 a day.

—The liabilities of Baldwin, the Ottawa lumber merchant, who made an assignment yesterday, are $300,000.

—The N. Y. Commercial speaks of the Stove Manufacturer's Convention as "another poker party."

—The London Times is getting very progressive. It is putting up a special wire from London to Vienna and Berlin.

—Chas. A. Bullard, of New York, has been arrested for the seduction of Miss Anna A. Pevin. $20,000 bail is demanded.

—The Canadians say they can beat the United States in height of buildings. The spire of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, is 315 feet height, and is the highest in America.

—Sir Henry de Hoghton left a personal estate of the value of $1.000,000. His will provided that his coffin should be inclosed in one of lead weighing not less than seven pounds to the square foot.

—They were shipped during 1876 at the Belleville station of the Grand Trunk Railway 70,885 packages of cheese weighing 4,782,518 pounds, and 934 packages of butter, which weighed 62,230 pounds.

—The St. Catharines Review learns that Serg't Patrick O'Keefe, of the city police, is one of the heirs to the $24.000,000 estate left by Charles Robert O'Keefe in India, to be divided among the O'Keefe family throughout the world.

THE Grand Central Hotel, New York, notwithstanding its unsurpassed location and elegance of appointment, to meet the views of the travelling public, has reduced its rates for $4.00 to $2,50 and $3.00 per day.

WORMS IN CHILDREN.—Worms in children, if neglected, lead to fatal results. If a child does not sleep well, is restless and uneasy, keeps picking its nose, or does not seem well, though it may be positively sick it has worms, and nothing will releive it, so speedly, and effectually, as WINGATE'S WORM LOZENGES.

Be Wise.—Too often a cold or slight cough is considered a very ordinary, trifling affair, just as well left to go as it came, and hence systematically neglected until a simple curable affection is converted into a serious pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware that a cough or cold should never be trifled with, promptly use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers, which have sustained their reputation for over thirty years. They are efficacious and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per box.

Hide Bound Horses.—A horse is said to be hide-bound when his skin will not slip under the pressure of the hand, but sticks as if it was glued, which condition is always dependent on a deranged state of the stomach and digestive organs—by correcting which, and giving to them a healthy tone and condition the disease or complaint will disappear. Experience has proved that the means best adapted to this end is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." It has been used in numerous cases with complete success, generally effecting a cure in a few days. It is the best condition medicine known, and may be given with perfect safety at all times and does not require that the horse be kept from work. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.
