Daily British Whig.

FRIDAY EVEN'G, JUNE 29, 1877.

CITY AND VICINITY

GOLD in New York at 3 o'clock 105¾

Immense Reduction in Prices at A. A. LEVEY'S Clothing Emporium, Wellington Steet, to clear Spring and Summer Clothing.

POLICE.—No cases on hand this morning. Police circles are quiet.

COPIES OF THE WEEKLY WHIG, containing the full demonstration report, may be had at the office or the book stores.

COMING.—We hear that Williams' Hamiltonian, by Rysdeck's Hamiltonian, is coming here to make a fall season, commencing on the 10th July.

THE VILLA SALE.—There is more attention paid to the great sale of lots in the West end on Dominion Day than to the other parts of the celebration. There will be more made out of it by the public.

THE WEEKLY BRITISH WHIG.—This week's issue was delayed one day in consideration of the Demonstration, and the FULL REPORT of twelve columns' length appears in it. The WHIG has done its part liberally in the political splurge.

THAT LITTLE MISTAKE.—The Mail says the attendance at the picnic at the Crystal Palace numbered about 5,000, but the Kingston Daily News says it was only 2,000. This difference of opinion should not be permitted. The Mail must see that its copyist is a little more careful.

BURIAL.—The remains of the late Dr. Betts were interred this afternoon. The hearse was dispensed with and the coffin carried on a black open waggon, drawn by four horses. A large attendance of friends attested to the respect in which the deceased gentleman was held.

THE I. C. B. U.—The picnic of the Catholic Benevolent Union at Channel Grove, Simcoe Island, will be one of the greatest attractions of Dominion Day. The arrangements are complete for the occasion, and the result cannot fail to be a success. The amusements will be varied enough to please all parties, the grand desideratum of all picnic managers.

THE TRANSFER.—To-morrow Mr. Moylan, Dominion Inspector of Penitentaries will be here to superintend the transfer of the criminal lunatics from the Asylum to the Penitentiary, under the new management between the Dominion and Ontario Governments. The arbitrators are still engaged in valuating the Asylum building and contents.

THE DOMINION TAXATION.—By the misplacement of a few words in the speech of Mr. Mackenzie, printed in last night's WHIG, the meaning of the hon. gentleman was not very explicitly conveyed. The whole thing is embraced in a nut shell when it said that the expenses of the present Government in its last financial year was $400,000 less than in the last year of Sir John's reign.

THE SCHOOLS.—The Inspector of Schools has for some time been conducting his examinations—his personal examinations respecting the standing and progress of the schools. Next week we presume the examinations will commence and then the holidays will set in. The vacation, in our opinion, should extend over the heated term. From July 15th to September is a little late.

ANOTHER REBUKE.—It keeps the Intelligencer busy rebuking its contemporaries for their playful or "bouncing" allusions to the Belleville yacht fleet. The Port Hope Times received the last cutting for being so forward as to say that the Port Hope boats could sail around the Belleville yachts. The Times man will please be a little more guarded in his sayings, or he may lose his head.

RUSHING BUSINESS.—On Wednesday the Street Railway did a rushing business. Men on the line say they have been in Buffalo, Toronto and other places, and they never saw such jamming. The crowds taken to and from the grounds were the largest that passed over the railway so far, and yet a prejudiced party organ says there were only 2,000 present at the gathering. It is to be regretted that with all our educational facilities there are people who have not yet learned to count.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE.—The official intimation was to-day received by R. W. Bros. Henderson and Kirkpatrick, and the Masters of city Lodges, that the Grand Lodge would be opened formally at St. Catharines on the 11th July, but no business would be called on. Adjournment will take place till the 12th of September, when the Grand Master will have returned from Europe. The postponement will suit all but wholesale business men admirably, and especially so the member of the Grand Lodge who last year moved that the sessions be held in cooler weather.

GOAT CAPTURED.—There are about six goats in the city, and they do more destruction than all the cows and hogs that roam over the outskirts, when Peter Toland fails to be in all parts of the city at once. On Wednesday one of these intrepid explorers made an excursion up Earl street, and invaded a residence, where he carried all before him as valiantly as the Kingston Daily News scaled the height of straight lying in last night's issue. He was taken, however, and now lies in Peter's Pound, awaiting the tardy recognition of an unappreciative owner, or the hammer of the auctioneer.

OSWEGO REGATTA.—The prizes offered for the yacht, races at Oswego on the 4th July are very liberal. For first class (over 24 feet keel) the purses are $50 to first, $25 to second and $15 to third—course 12 miles. For second class (24 feet keel and under) the prizes are $30, $20 and $10—course 10 miles. To sail (open) boats, $15, $10 and $5—course 5 miles. No entrance fee. The Belleville yachts will attend the Kingston regatta on Monday and then go to Oswego. The Kingston boats should accompany the Bay of Quinte fleet across the lake, and make the race as lively as possible.

WIND WAFTS.

—Most time to take your summer vacation.

—The prospects are good for a quet Dominion Day.

—Signs of the Times—"Ice Cream" and "Soda Water."

—The country wants rain more than it does political bun tussels.

—A grand rush for papers containing the Demonstration report. The dailies were all sold out before noon.

—Mr. Taylor, Steamboat Inspector, Kingston, has visited Brockville on business.

—The 4th of July excursions this year will be very successful, if present promises are fulfilled.

—The Kingston Daily News is an accomplished, unblushing liar. The Mail and Pettengill's Newspaper Directory are the witnesses.

—Dominion Day will be celebrated at Ottawa this year on an extensive scale. Fare from Kingston to Ottawa has been reduced to $2.40.

—This is just the season of the year, when two young men flirt round the same girl at a pic-nic, she shows her preference by sending the other fellow to the spring for water.

—The str. "City of Kingston" is running between Picton and Belleville. We have heard her puffing and knew that she wasn't many miles away.

—With a little honest pride we can look back at the BRITISH WHIG's treatment of the John A.-Tupper Demonstration after reading the News' blackguard, lying conduct of the past two days. The Reform meeting seems to have brought out the full savage in its nature, better even than the ruffianly and unnoticed attacks on a local clergyman.

WHAT ADVERTISING HAS DONE.—The great wealth of the great pill man of London, Thomas Holloway, was made through advertising. In his own statements, he says his pills met little or no favor, but he began to increase his advertising and in 1842, five years after his pills were introduced, he spent £5,000 in publicity. In 1845 he invested £10,000; in 1851, £20,000; in 1855, £30,000; and this year he has made contracts for £40,000 in advertisements all over the globe and in all languages. In a letter received from Mr. Holloway, we learn that he has resolved to make some acknowledgment to the public for the support he has had and the means he possesses. He has commenced, near London, the building of a college for women of the middle classes, at which 250 students may be accommodated, with two private rooms for each. The cost will be $1,250,000, with $500,000 given besides as an endowment. This great benefaction has been preceded by the erection and endowing of a sanitarium at a cost of $1,150,000. Mr. Holloway writes that if the college should assist in educating any of the daughters of Kingston he will be extremely happy.

HAVERLEY'S MINSTRELS.—To-morrow evening Haverley's Minstrels, which have what is better than riches, a good name, will perform in the City Hall. The Globe says of them: "They fulfilled all the requirements of those who contend that the stage should be merely the agent of pure and unsullied amusements. After a laughable prelude Mr. H. A. Roe rendered, in fine style, a baritone solo, which was well received. Mr. Wilson followed, and was not less entertaining as the "Captain of the Guards" than in his great laughing song. "Sweet By and Bye" by Mr. Dixon, was only prevented from being encored by the plea of the ill health of that gentleman. The performances of Messrs. Primrose and West at each of their appearances, were rewarded by encores. These were again brought into requisition to show the appreciation of the audience "There's a moonlight on the Sea," by Messrs. Dixon, Wellington, Roe and Keith, and were repeated with even greater warmth after Mr. Carter's banjo solos. The entertainment closed with the burlesque "The Irishman's Class."

MILITIA INSPECTION AT KINGSTON.—The Hon. Mr. Vail, Minister of Militia, accompanied by Lt.-Col. Macpherson, arrived here Tuesday afternoon by train from Toronto. Col. Strauhenzie, D.A.G., and Col. Worsley, Brigade Major, met the Minister on his arrival, who proceeded to inspect the stores and military building, including a visit to the Military College and Fort Henry. The Minister was then received by Col. Hewitt, Commandant, and other officers. In the evening Mr. Vail was entertained at the mess of "A" Battery, all the staff officers of the district and other citizens of Kingston being present. The Minister, accompanied by Col. Macpherson, left by the steamer for Prescott Thursday morning en route for Ottawa.

THE DEMONSTRATION.—The Brockville Recorder, which sent a representative to the Reform gathering on Wednesday, records this opinion: "The political demonstration was one of the most successful and enthusiastic ever held in Eastern Ontario." The Citizen, of Ottawa, and the Globe put the attendance down at 7,000. All papers agree that the meeting was a marked success, save and excepting our local contemporary, and it's of mighty little consequence what it says.

THE CRICKET MATCH.—To-morrow the St. George's Club, of Montreal, will play a match with the Kingston Club. The Montrealers will doubtless send up a good team and an interesting game may be expected. Play will commence at 10 o'clock. The local team will likely be composed of the following:—Messrs. A. Jones, O. Dobbs, E. H. Dickson, G. Drummond, C. F. Smith, F. Ireland, T. Hendry, W. Hendry, M. Elmore, F. Dupuy and and another.

THE GRAND TRUNK.—While every exertion has been made by the Grand Trunk detectives to trace the persons who removed the fish plates and bolts on the track three quarters of a mile west of Kingston some little time since, with the evident intention of causing an accident, the task has been unsuccessful so far. A reward of $50 is now offered by the Company for any information that will lead to the detection of the guilty parties.

POLITICAL TALK.

—The mechanic's cry is neatly disposed of by the London Advertiser, whose article we reprint in another column.

—Tory journalism is looking up in Kingston. The party of gentlemen are showing what they don't know about ordinary newspaper etiquette.

—There is a man in Kingston who bids fair to outrival Dr. Tupper as a stretcher of facts. He is the present player of the local Tory organ.

—'Tiser: The Premier cut several lengths off the "great stretcher's" picnic stories at Kingston yesterday, and there are numerous chapters yet untouched.

—Sir John cares a heap about the workingmen. The workingmen will remember the time that the clean handed Sir John sent their representative in the Legislature, Mr. Robinson, back to his paint pots.

—'Tiser: The Kingston demonstration was successful beyond expectation. From eight to ten thousand people were present, twice as many as could be expected from a locality so decidedly Tory as Kingston and Frontenac have been.

—There's a good time coming—the pic-nic of the Tory party next fall. Comparisons will then be in order. But there is no danger of one thing—the WHIG settling down to intentional misrepresentation, and kicking friends instead of foes.

—If one half the persons who attended the political meeting in the Crystal Palace on Wednesday were Conservatives, we fear they must have caught the inspiration of Reform, for the feeling and cheering was almost unanimous. Two or three more Reform meetings at this rate would leave the city without a Tory.

—The local organ is disappointed because the Hon. Mr. Cartwright did not go into figures and the financial question when he spoke at the Palace on Wednesday. The Hon. Minister was otherwise engaged. He just topped off a few of the most glaring falsehoods which ever escaped Sir John's lips. In due time Mr. Cartwright will supply more about the country's finances than the local Tory pea shooters will care about hearing.

St. Paul's Fetival.

The Victoria Music Hall was crowded last evening at the annual Strawberry Festival of St. Paul's Church, the popularity of these affairs not having been injured by repetition apparently. The attendance was fully equal to those of the two preceding festivals. The ice cream and strawberry and flower tables were particularly well patronized. The music by the 14th P.W.O. Band was well appreciated.

The Music Hall looked well in its new dress of paint and colors. It is now as neat as a new pin, and its appearance would prepossess any local or travelling company in its favor. The building is now in the control of a few enterprising shareholders, with Alderman Gaskin at their head, and we hope soon to see the stage enlarged and permanent scenery erected. This addition would not injure it for any service whatever, and would make it attractive to many.

"THE BLOODY FIRST."—It is many years since the roll of officers of this once active and prominent battalion was revised and completed. Nearly two years ago Lt.-Col. Henderson sent forward to headquarters a list of promotions and appointments to vacancies, and in January last enclosed it again with revisions to date. These reserve regimental divisions are still being sustained, on paper, it may be, and it is desirable that their rolls should be made nearly correct. Other reserve regiments have been the subject of general orders of late, and the Bloody First seems to be a neglected institution, which is ill becoming its celebrity and traditional valor.

REQUIEM MASS.—This morning at 7:30 o'clock a solemn requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the late James Harty was celebrated in St. Mary's Cathedral. The Rev. Father Corbett was the Celebrant. A large number of the relatives and friends of the deceased gentleman were in attendance. The services were very solemn and imposing. The music by the choir was grand, and Mrs. P. O'Reilly, during the offertory, sang a Sancta Maria.

CAXTON MEMORIAL.—The Dominion Type Foundry have issued a special pamphlet respecting the Caxton Memorial, giving a review of printing from 1477, illustrated by a number of very fine wood engravings. It is printed in connection with the Dominion Printer, a useful and, to the Fourth Estate, a very attractive publication. The memorial number is very creditable in typographical appearance and finish.

THE BAND.—Last evening the band played on the Queen's wharf, the music being very highly appreciated. A large number of small boats were out, and the weather, though chilly, was so pleasant that some of the rowers would have remained out all night if the band would keep them company, and cheer them on by snatches of the latest waltz.

CURRENCY.

—Chief Justice Draper will resign shortly, owing to ill health.

—Hamilton City Council has increased the grant to St. John to $5,000.

—In England, iron is 40 to 50 per cent. and tin, 50 to 54 per cent.

—Rev. Wm. Scott has been appointed to the governorship of the Stanstead College.

—A Mobile cow, twenty-two years old, has the author of milk which sold for $6,800.

—The young lady, Miss Kneller, who was stabbed at Hamilton, is not in immediate danger.

—The wages of drivers and stablemen on the Montreal C. P. Railway have been reduced ten cents per day.

—An influential member of the Orange Society in Montreal says there is no intention of parading there on the 12th.

—A telegram from London, Ont., says another reduction in the pay of railway employees is in contemplation.

—The Trust and Loan Co. of Montreal has taken suit for the recovery of $30,000 lent on mortgage on Trinity Church.

—At the Police Court Capt. Dick, for plying his steamer at two rapid a rate in Toronto harbour, was fined $20 and costs.

—The men in the lumbering establishment at Ottawa will contribute one day's pay to the relief of the St. John sufferers.

—The Rine temperance movement in Toronto is a great success. Many hard drinkers have taken the pledge.

—The ladies of the Protestant House at London refuse to take $10 collected for the institution by some Sunday excursionists.

—The Conservatives of Montreal will honour Sir J. A. Macdonald with a torchlight procession on his return from the Eastern townships.

—Murray v. the Queen, in which the plaintiff claims $159,000 for extras on Intercolonial Railway work, was argued before the Exchequer Court.

—Belleville people express great satisfaction over the amicable settlement of the difficulties which have delayed the construction of the Grand Junction Railway.

—A bank in a Western town employs detectives to see who of the townsmen are in the habit of gambling. It guides its accommodation by their reports.

—The good will and effects of the Mail printing and publishing company, subject to a mortgage of $25,000, were sold at the Court House for $2,000, the buyer being Mr. T. C. Patteson, who now becomes sole proprietor.

—A belief in the value of fresh blood as a medicine in cases of consumption is entertained by several St. Louis physicans, and every morning the chief slaughter house of that city is visited by patients.

—The Newcomb-divorce case, a cause celebre in the Kentucky Courts, has been finally settled by the Court of Appeals of that State declaring the divorce illegal, null and void, and restoring the first wife to all her rights and property.

—A meeting of builders and contractors was held Wednesday evening at Ottawa. A resolution regretting the strike was passed, but it was unanimously agreed to pay no more $2.25 a day, that being the highest wages paid in the Dominion to bricklayers. The men are obstinately holding out for $2.50.

The Reform Pic-nic.

(Hamilton Times.)

The brief summary of some of the speeches delivered, which we give elsewhere, shows that the leaders of the Liberal party are entering on the summer pic-nic campaign with the vigor that a good cause inspires. The small jokes of Sir John Macdonald and the india-rubber "facts" of Dr. Tupper's will fail to stand the siege that has set in against them. Like cowards, the Tory leaders failed to bring their charges against the Government and its members before the House when it was in session, for they knew they had no evidence with which to support them. Like cowards, they now, during the recess, reiterate the charges they had not the manliness to bring down to the test of evidence, when they were face to face, on the floor of the House, with the men they had accused. But it is evident that this game is now nearly up with them. The public mind is prepared to believe that the men who in Parliament dared not to bring forward the grave charges they made against Ministers during the previous summer are utterly unworthy of belief when they now travel the country with the same old rubbish. And the solid facts that Mr. Mackenzie and his friends are able to bring forward will, in the present condition of public feeling, give a death blow to the party of slander.

One inference may be fairly deduced from the successful demonstration of yesterday—that is, that Sir John Macdonald is not likely to again sit as member for Kingston.

Reform Meetings.

The Globe says:—The success of the Reform Demonstration at Kingston on Wednesday is gratifying for more reasons than one. Kingston and its vicinity have been so long—with few intervals—in the hands of the Conservative party, that a completely successful Reform meeting possesses a peculiar significance. There was not in the reception accorded by Kingston to leading Reformers a single symptom that would indicate anything but a growing Reform spirit in a place where the fighting of Reform battles has generally been carried on amidst a discouraging want of success.

THE TOLL QUESTION.—Last evening the Joint Committee of the County and city met in the City Buildings and talked over the question of abolishing the toll gates on the Kingston and Napanee Roads. Those present on behalf of the city were, The Mayor and Messrs. Price and McIntyre; and on behalf of the County, The Warden and Messrs. Clyde, McRory and Strachan. The matter was debated at some length, and then an adjournment until the 17th inst. took place. We cannot say definitely what the end may be, but we are given to understand that is likely that the K. and N. Road tolls will be abolished, and this step will likely lead to others of a similar and satisfactory nature.

EQUALIZATION.—The hearing of the appeals of the townships of Wolfe Island and Pittsburg against the assessment placed upon them by the County Equalization Committee commenced this morning. A little evidence was taken, and the case was then adjourned for further hearing until the 4th of July. Messrs. Snook and Agnew for the County; Messrs. Walkem, McIntyre and McGuire for the appellants.

JUDGMENT.—The judgment in the Kingston Election Case will be rendered in Toronto to-morrow.

Merchants should lay the foundation of a home by buying a Lot at the Mammoth Land Sale on Monday and Tuesday next.

The Oka Indians' Trial.

St. Scholastique, June 27.—The trial of the eight Indians began before District Magistrate de Montigny, at one o'clock to-day. The charge of cutting the eighty four trees was taken up first. Mr. McLaren produced a special plea that the magistrate had no jurisdiction as question of title was involved. The magistrate refused to allow it to be filed on the ground that the Indians should have raised this when first brought before him on their arrest. However, if it appeared from the proof he had no jurisdiction he would not decide the question. The prosecution have examined those witnesses, Lefebvre, Binet, and Lacroix, who have proved the cutting of 84 trees along the line between the Indians common, and a farm of the Seminary occupied by one Quevillon. The witnesses watched the Indians from a distance.

At the close of the case for the Seminary, Mr. McLaren urged that he should not be required to enter in the defence, as if the witnesses for the prosecution were to be believed, the offence amounted to a riot, and the Magistrate had no right to try it summarily, but to send it before the grand jury and the Queen's Bench. The Magistrate said the point was well taken, and bound the accused to appear on the second of July. Bail was at once given.

The Twelfth July.

There is an anxious feeling pervading the citizens in regard to the coming Twelfth of July. Our police authorities, who are well able to judge, feel sure there will be a serious disturbance if there is a procession, and what is worst of all, fear that the large number of unemployed (many reckless) men now in town will take advantage of the rioting, which will necessitate a concentration of the police force, to rob and pillage. The Council should have a meeting and discuss the matter.

A leading Irish Catholic states that the meeting of the different branches of the Irish Catholic Union last evening was not in connection with the Orange procession, but to arrange for a grand pic-nic to be held on the 15th August next, and that he is doing all he can to allay the excitement.

Enquiries made at Morland & Watson's, Frothingham & Workman, and other firms, show a not unusually large sale of firearms.—Witness.

LAGER INTOXICATING.—Mr. Police Magistrate Denison of Toronto, after reviewing the evidence pro et con as to whether lager beer is intoxicating or not, at Wednesday's session of the Police Court, concluded his judgement, which was in writing, as follows:—"The evidence, therefore, shews that lager beer is intoxicating to a certain extent, but that a powerful man accustomed to it, or with such strong natural capacity to resist its effect, would become intoxicated, and, therefore, that lager beer is an intoxicating liquor within the meaning of the Act. I quite appreciate the force of the argument for the defence, that the free sale of lager beer would tend to reduce drunkenness, but my duty is simply to enforce the law, not to make new laws, and if lager beer is to be exempted from the clauses of the liquor Acts, the exemption must be specially made by the Leglislature. I find the defendants guilty of selling intoxicating liquor without a license."
