TRYING TO ROB THE BANK

A PLUCKY JUNIOR CLERK PREVENTED THE ACT.

There Was an Exchange of Shots, But Apparently No One Was Hit—The Burglars Had Broken Their Way Into the Building.

Owen Sound, Ont., Oct. 9.—A determined attempt was made between three and four o'clock this morning to rob the Molsons bank. The burglars burst open the door of an outer shed at the rear and while one of them stood at the barred window and covered Mr. Vandusen, the junior clerk, who was sleeping in the bank, with a revolver the other smashed in a panel of the door leading into the bank. This noise awoke Mr. Vandusen, who at once sat up. As he did so the burglar at the window shot at him, the bullet passing close to him. Vandusen returned the shot. The burglars fired again half a minute later, when another shot from Vandusen dispersed them. Apparently no one was hit. The police are working on the case.

INVERARY RACES.

They Were Well Contested On Tuesday Afternoon.

A continuation of the races at the inverary fair occurred in that village on Tuesday afternoon. The weather was fine, the track in good shape and a large crowd turned out. The races were very interesting, and they resulted as follows:

Free For All Purse, $25.

Huisey, Robt. Smith, Kingston,	1	1	1
Lady Ansell, D. Graves, Harrowsmith,	2	2	2
Skipper, M. Corkey, Kingston,	3	3	3

Best time, 2.59½.

Colt Race, W. H. Shibley's Prize, $25.

Linda May, J. Chrisley, Sunbury,	1	2	1
Queen, S. Counter, Inverary,	2	1	2
Nellie L., S. Lake, Battersea,	3	3	3

Best time, 2.57½.

Running Race, Free For All.

Lavina, J. Nicholson, Kingston,	1	1
Dusty Days, J. Patterson, Latimer,	2	2
Greyhound,	3	3

Best Time, 2.29½.

The judges, Capt. Ferguson, G. W. Bell, V.S., and Samuel Sloan, gave the best of satisfaction. Bert Grimshaw was time keeper.

In the free for all race Mr Corkey was a favorite. There was great excitement in the second heat, when his horse, Skipper, led nearly all the way. Horsemen say that if he ridden a "like" instead of a sulky he would have won the race. Mr Corkey is a game driver, who fears not to start in any race.

An $1,100 Postage Stamp.

London Daily Mail.

One of the rarest stamps ever put up for auction will be sold on October 1st, the opening day of the great sale of postage stamps by Messrs. Puttick and Simpson.

Some idea of the scarceness and value of the specimen may be gained from the fact that the last of the used examples sold by the auctioneers realized £227. The one to be offered next month is, however, unused.

The stamp comes under the heading Roumania, and is, in fact, a Moldavian of 1851, 81 paras, blue on blue. To look at these rare stamps recalls very much a postmark, especially in photographs, where the colors are lost. They consist of a circle, within the circumference which are a number of letters that do not read completely round. In the centre is a bull's head in outline, between the horns of which is a five rayed star, and below it is a bugle within the coils of which appear the numbers 81, 51, and so on, denoting the value of the stamp in paras.

Is Seriously Ill.

Sweet's Corners, Oct. 8.—Potatoe digging and silo filling, is the order of the day. W. Mustard, J. Jamieson, and C. Sweet have returned from Manitoba. Robert Nuttall is recovering from a slight illness. H. A. McArdle and sister, Florence, are visiting friends at Marysville. Mrs. Robert Tye is seriously ill. George Nuttall and daughter, of South Lake, spent a few days with friends in this vicinity recently. S. Lake, Gananoque, is renewing old acquaintances here. Our school house was treated to a new coat of paint, which greatly improved its appearance.

Grist Mill Closed Down.

Chaffey's Locks, Oct. 8.—Threshing is the order of the day; the yield of grain is not up to expectation. Our grist mill is closed down for the present. The miller has gone to Burritt's Rapids. Miss Nellie Simmons has returned from Lansdowne. Mrs. (Capt.) Noonan and family have returned to Kingston for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Capt. W. Fleming are guests of Mrs. Gray. Mrs. W. H. Fleming is recovering from a serious illness. The steamer Shanly and barge are here loading stone for Ottawa and different places on the Rideau.

Much Freight Handled.

Westport, Oct. 7.—J. M. Taggart arrived home from the north-west territories, where he has been engaged during the summer shipping live stock. This is his second trip this season to the far away west; he intends making another trip this season. The B. & W. trains have been from one to two hours late for the past two weeks, owing to the large amount of freight handled. A number returned home from attending the Pan-American and report having had a good time. Rev. Father Walsh, of this parish, arrived home last week from the old country.

A Man And A Citizen.

New York, Oct. 9.—Robert Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, has made application in Brooklyn for his final naturalization papers. The former champion of the ring was born in Australia. He took out his first citizenship papers three years ago in New Orleans, La.

Not Among The Slain.

The name of Patrick O'Brien, adopted son of Patrick Welsh, Oates, does not appear among those of the 9th United States infantry, who were ambushed and killed recently on the island of Samar, Philippine group.

WOMEN'S DELIGHT.

A Sermonette On Popular Styles Of Dress.

While black is without doubt the color most seen now-a-days, it is profusely trimmed with passementeries, embroideries and laces, for sartorial novelties reveal a splendid lavishness of lace.

Crepe de chines, of the silk and woollen variety are exceedingly popular, because they so easily lend themselves to the making of gowns that are clinging in effect. It matters not how much skirts may flare and be trimmed around the feet they must remain close fitting about the hips to outline the contour of the figure.

Some of the most stunning things in muffs and boas have been imported for this season. One of the daintiest boas to be seen is composed of countless ruchings of white tulle alternated with frills of black chiffon dotted in white chenille. At the front the boa is finished with long stole ends of plaited chiffon and tulle caught with a tiny gold clasp at the end.

The perfect fit of gowns will be greatly facilitated this season by the use of the combination corset cover and petticoat, or rather, short and long petticoats. The garment is really a great convenience and does away with the fastening of so many bands around the waist, which are not only often uncomfortable, but unhealthy.

A close fitting gown of pale grey is an enviable design for any woman's wardrobe. The material is thin and clinging and there are what might almost be called "sunbursts" of fine tucking all over the light bodice.

No models have taken a more secure hold on the feminine fancy than the blouse and bolero, and yet there is no possible sign of their waning popularity.

Upon designs of fur animals' heads will be more popular, if possible, this year and there will be no end of caudal appendages combined with these life like heads.

Potato Crop A Failure.

Collins Bay, Oct. 8.—A number attended Odessa fair on Tuesday. David Rankin is repairing his grist mill. The steamer Tacoma unloaded timber here this week, and left on last Thursday. Farmers are busy drawing their grain away. The potato crop around here is a failure this year. Joseph Losee, jr., has recovered after his recent illness. Frank Keyes has returned to P. Nugent's, after spending nine weeks at Railton. A few of our young men are going to Toronto on Tuesday morning. Visitors: Manson Smith and wife, Parrott's Bay, at A. Clement's; William Clement and V. Davidson, at Millhaven, on Sunday; Mrs. J. Purdy, Millhaven, at Mrs. J. Purdy's; Mrs. W. Clement and daughter, at W. Topliffe's, Glenvale, on Sunday; W. Hinch and sister, Ernesttown Station, and F. Finigan and sister, Millhaven, guests of Miss Lillian Woodcock, on Sunday. B. Clement and wife, at J. Clement's, Bath, on Sunday; Mrs. Keyes has returned after spending a few weeks with Mrs. P. Nugent.

Tailors Have a Conference.

The tailors and tailoresses are still on strike. This morning several members of the union visited the boss tailors and asked them to attend a joint meeting this afternoon. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Waggoner, O'Brien and Livingston, met the strikers in the hall on Brock street, at 3 p.m., to consider the situation. It is expected that satisfactory arrangements can be made, so that most of the shops, at least, can resume work soon.

One proprietor declared this afternoon that, rather than accede to the demands, he would close up his shop and go out of business.

A Souvenir Of 1890.

The French minister of war has acquired for the "Musee de l'Armee" an interesting and curious exhibit. It is a specimen of an illustrated handkerchief which the Germans had made before the armistice of 1870, and which they distributed everywhere. According to the Debates, there are depicted twenty views of the towns which the Germans were to occupy, and the date of entry of each. In the centre is a representation of the principal personages of Paris offering to the conqueror the keys of the city upon a velvet cushion (an event which did not take place.)

Heno Wins The Matron.

New York, Oct. 9.—Clarence H. Mackay's Heno won the rich Matron stakes of $20,000 at Morris park yesterday. He made most of the running and won cleverly from William C. Whitney's Yankee, the futurity winner. The race was the feature event of the opening day of the Westchester racing association's fall meeting. The track was fast.

Plenty Of Gold.

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 9.—Charles R. and Porter W. Fleming, of this place, have arrived here from the Gallure mountains, where they report a remarkable gold discovery. The rich find is located seventy miles north of Tutson. The men estimate the amount of gold in sight at the enormous sum of $7,000,000.

Honorably Acquitted.

Marie Antoinette

A very interesting historical relic, say the Daily Chronicle, has just been unearthed among the archives of the department of the Seine. It is the list of effects found in the pockets of the dress that Marie Antoinette wore at her execution, and sold at public auction for the benefit of Samson, the executioner. The first lot was a small pocket book, in green morocco, containing a pair of scissors, a small corkscrew, a pair of pincers, a comb, and a very small pocket looking glass, and a small pocket book of red morocco; this sold for 5f, 75c. The second consisted of three little portraits in green morocco cases, one of them being surrounded by a metal frame, and sold for 4f, 40c.

A Plague Of Vipers.

A naturalist desirous of studying the ways of the viper could not do better than make a visit to the environs of Bar le Duc. Ligny-en-Barrois, Saint-Mihiel. The Figaro says that last Friday a countryman named Muller, of Ligny, brought to the Mairie sixty five vipers and a companion of his, twenty-two. Since the commencement of this year these two men have destroyed 940 of these dangerous little reptiles. A goodly number has been accounted for by a M. Jules Andre, of Saint-Mihiel, who "bagged" in the neighbouring woods some ninety-three of these venomous little pests one day last week.

First Took Bride, Then His Life.

A marriage between inmates of a working house near Liverpool, England, has ended in a tragedy. Some months ago a soldier, discharged after service in South Africa, entered the workhouse as a harmless imbecile. He engaged to marry another inmate. He spent £40 in preparation, but the woman changed her mind at the last moment, and another inmate became the bride. When the bridegroom's savings were exhausted the pair returned to the workhouse, where the ex-soldier hanged himself.

Wilson Is All Right.

Some Toronto papers are pleased to assert that "Wicky" Wilson will never be admitted by the O.R.F.U. to amateur ranks. They're all off their trolley. Wilson has signed the declaration sent down to him yesterday by secretary McMurrich, and that should satisfy everybody. Next Saturday he will play full-back for Granites, in spite of all hogtown protests.

DEMANDING PROTECTION.

Outrages Have Been Committed On British.

Kingston, Jam., Oct. 9.—The newspapers print a number of letters from Bocas Del Toro and other parts of Colombia, complaining of outrages on British subjects, including women. Strong appeals are made to the government to send a warship for their protection, and also to demand compensation. Over a hundred refugees have arrived here from Colon.

The Sanctity Of Cats.

New York Tribune.

A Sunday school teacher in Carthage, Ill., has a class of little girls, and it is her custom to tell them each Sunday of one little incident that has happened in the week and request the children to quote a verse of scripture to illustrate the story. In this way she hopes to impress the usefulness of biblical knowledge upon the little ones. One Sunday she told her class of a cruel boy who would catch cats and cut off their tails. "Now, can any little girl tell me of an appropriate verse?" There was a pause for a few moments, when one little girl arose and in a solemn voice said: "Whatsoever God has joined together let no man put asunder."

Can't Receive Them.

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—A despatch received from Maj. Maude, dated Fort William, Ont., October 9th says that it will not be possible for the duke to receive addresses in cases where drafts of such addresses have not already reached his excellency. This decision has been arrived at in consequence of the necessity for going through all such addresses carefully, with the view to the answers to be given to the same. Drafts of addresses were originally asked for through the medium of lieutenant-governors and the press by the 1st of September.

Druidical Discoveries.

Many visitors have lately been attracted to Ringstones Farm, on the moors between Hayfield and Glossop, owing to the highly interesting discoveries that have been made there recently by the owner and occupier of the farm. The latest finds include a large stone chair of the Druidical period, and a fine stone Celtic axe, in an excellent state of preservation. The latter is considered one of the finest specimens ever found in the High Peak. Ringstones is the site of an ancient Druidical temple.

Why He Expected To Win.

Sir Thomas Lipton had a particular reason to feel that the Shamrock would "clearly outdistance the Columbia in the last race," remarked the yachting enthusiast.

"How was that?" innocently asked his companion.

"Why, isn't Friday a 'fast' day with most of the Irish, so why not for the Shamrock," jubilantly replied the merry ha, ha, man.
