If You Like to Make Your Own Gifts You May Find a Suggestion Here

For Boys "Over There"

Each soldier "over there" is to be allowed one Christmas package from home, and only one. Here is a small, waterproof portfolio containing a writing tablet, envelopes and a pencil. The donor might slip a few unmounted photographs in it, too. It is made of a long strip of black cloth folded up at the ends and machine stitched down to form the pockets. An extra row of machine stitching across one end makes a casing for the pencil. The portfolio is shown closed at the top of the picture. With all colors bright roses or the flags of the allies or figures clad in khaki are painted on these portfolios.

Toys for Baby

Canton flannel, elderdown flannel and plushes are used for the doggies, ponies and circus animals that prove absorbingly interesting and dear to his babyship. Patterns for them can be bought from any of the standard pattern companies and they are stuffed with sawdust. The doll pictured can be made to go through many antics. She is without a body and her coat is to be slipped on over the fingers of whoever undertakes to amuse the baby. She will bow her head, wave her arms and dance.

Something for Mother

Here is a pretty pedestal supporting a small basket to be used for bonbons or as a sewing basket or for table decoration, now that artificial flowers are a part of house furnishings. It is made of paper rope and is gilded. It is a very substantial bit of decoration, suited to almost any room in the house.

Christmas Bags

Christmas wouldn't seem like Christmas without the lovely bags of all kinds that women delight in. Some of them are rich and splendid and others charm by their quaintness. Here are two that belong to these extremes. The shopping bag is of black satin brocaded with silver and has a handsome silver mounting. The other is a powder bag of lavender satin ribbon with a big ribbon pansy on the front of it. The petals are tinted with water colors, making a blossom that looks very real. It carries a powder puff and a little box of compact powder and a small mirror is incased in the reverse side.

To Wrap Baby Up In

The baby can't kick out of this cozy garment when he is rolled out in the open, windy air or put to sleep by an open window, so that every one of his relatives will want to make him a Christmas present of it. It is made of elderdown flannel and has flaps that button up over the hands and feet and a hood that can be drawn up close about the face.

A Home-Made Doll

The dolls of yesterday—so beautiful and so cheap—they are no more. It is the war. But no little maid need be without a doll, for it is the easiest thing ever to make one of heavy domestic and paint a face on it. One can buy a pattern of any of the pattern companies and make the body, which is to be stuffed with sawdust. Stuffed a doll dressed and making her appearance at Christmas time will be much loved as the most fragile and heavenly that ever came from the loom.

Of Crepe and Lace

This combination or envelope chemise is so sheer and dainty that it is just the sort of gift that one woman will like to give to another. It is of flesh-colored crepe de chine, with insertions of fine fillet lace. Little flowers in small French knots are embroidered on it in pale shades of pink and blue. The yoke is novel, simply four triangles with points joined at the shoulder with little chiffon roses.
