ESTABLISHED 1850.

THE BRITISH WHIG

is published by H. S. BOWES every evening (Sundays excepted) at the Office, Brock Street, Kingston. The "Whig" is delivered to City Subscribers at the rate of Twenty Cents per week, payable to the Carriers. Country Subscribers can have the "Whig" delivered at their homes at the rate of Eight cents per line for each insertion, or Twenty cents per line for each insertion if not inserted in succession. Advertisements inserted at the rate of Eight cents per line for the first insertion and four cents per line for each subsequent insertion, except when ordered more or less than a week, when they are charged Eight cents per line for each insertion. The rates per line are approximately as follows, the object of which is to give equal value to advertisers, the object of which is to give equal value to advertisers, namely, that the price charged shall be in proportion to the space occupied, and the number of insertions, and payment is rightly exacted. For notices of births, marriages and deaths, cash charge of 25 cents for each insertion. If thought, marriages and deaths are news in Kingston, they are charged Eight cents per line
