LORD BURY UNSEATED.

On Tuesday the subject of Lord Bury's election for Norwich came up in the House of Commons. It was introduced by Colonel Frewell, who called the attention of the Speaker to the case of the election for Norwich. Lord Bury was returned for that borough at the general election, but a petition was presented against his return. The noble lord had accepted office, and had been again elected, but the return for the first election had been declared void. He wished to know whether the second election was also void, or whether Lord Bury still held the seat, although incapable of sitting or voting.

Mr. Walpole said the decision was strictly in accordance with law, and it would occasion very great inconvenience if in such cases the second writ was not issued, as it might be used to disqualify all the ministers of the crown accepting office soon after a general election. The law was that the second election should be void, for any person found guilty of bribery was incapable of sitting for that particular borough during the present parliament.—No action of the house was necessary to prevent Lord Bury taking his seat, for if he attempted to do so he would be liable to penalties, and could be ordered to withdraw by the Speaker. The question was, what was the house to do with the seat declared void? There was a petition declared against the second election, which must be heard; for if the house directed the writ to be again issued, it would be prejudicial to the claim of the petitioner against the one seat at the second election. With respect to the second seat, the house might issue the writ for it, but if it issued the writ for both seats great difficulties would be occasioned.

Sir G. Grey said Lord Bury had not the slightest intention of taking his seat under present circumstances. He thought it would be better to give notice to move for one of the writs to-morrow. He agreed that it would not be right to issue both writs together, on account of the claim of Colonel Bolders to one of the seats.

Sir J. Shelley said whenever the writ was moved for, he should move that it be suspended till the evidence taken before the committee was heard.

The Speaker said the case was not one of privilege with respect to the honorable and gallant member. He could only state, if Lord Bury had taken his seat under the circumstances he should have requested him to examine the act of Parliament, which was very definite. It would be the act of Parliament, not any proceeding of his, that must define the position of the noble lord. He said it was the desire of the house not to pursue the matter any further at present.

The subject then dropped.

INDIA.—Advices have been received from Calcutta to the 18th June. The Times correspondent writes—"The campaign has been left to the Oude police, and the European withdrawn under cover for the rains. A line of posts occupied by the police is protected by a line of Sikhs, and supported by her Majesty's 38th and a battery of Royal Artillery, at the corner of Gorruckpore and Oude. The rebels, still 6,000 strong, are in terrible distress. A light force which penetrated into the hills found the road strewed with the dead and dying women imploring mercy, and bearded men still scowling with the old hatred of the Caffre. Almost all the animals are dead, and their plunder is wasting away under the necessity of paying for all feed they take from the Nepaulese. The Nana, the Begum, and Bala Rao are the only three leaders of note remaining, and they are deserted day by day by parties of their followers. Unless Jung Bahadoor gives them an asylum they must be caught in time, though with the exception of the Nana, they are hardly worth the trouble of capture. According to a leader who recently surrendered, they have ceased to hope since the publication of the amnesty, though they still endeavour to open correspondence with most Indian princes. Hydrabad is perfectly quiet. It was believed—justly, I understand—that the disaffected in the capital were prepared for open arms. Lord Napmistone, however, added three European regiments to the garrison of Secunderabad, and the leaders of intrigue, were our most devoted friends. So it has always been and always will be in India. No European resident or envoy can cope with the intrigue of a native court, but that intrigue is always powerless in the presence of any force large enough to prevent the first outbreak from succeeding.

IS THE BRITISH SHILLING A LEGAL TENDER.

(To the Editor of the Globe.)

Sir,—On Saturday last, I went to one of our principal banks to pay a note of one hundred dollars, due on that day. I took ninety-seven dollars in good notes, one dollar in American silver, and eight British shillings, and expected to cover the cost of each, which was refused, the teller saying that he had orders not to take more than one British shilling, and that, if I had not a legal tender, my note would be protested. Will you obige me by informing me whether the conduct of the teller in this matter is correct and legal? For if so, the mechanic and retail dealer will be subject to very great inconvenience, and I think, would be justified in retaliating in a way that the banks might not be very agreeable to them.

I am, Sir,
Your very obed't serv't,
A MECHANIC.

Toronto, August 15, 1859.

THE BRITISH SHILLING.—We published yesterday a letter from a Mechanic, complaining that British shillings had been refused entirely by one of the city banks, without the remark intended to accompany it. The teller was entirely wrong in the refusal. British silver is a legal tender in Canada for any sum under $10 at 20 cents and a fraction.—[Globe.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT OSWEGO.—Oswego, Aug. 17.—The Ontario Grain Elevator, owned by Ford, L. Carrington, was burnt this morning entirely, with the exception of the engine building. The warehouse contained about 15,000 thousand bushels of Chicago spring wheat and corn. Loss estimated at $15,000. Insured mostly in New York Companies. The Canadian schooner Mary, lying at the warehouse, was badly burnt.

The foundation stone of the last pier of the Victoria bridge, was laid on Saturday, by the Prince, assisted by General Sir

The Barrtefield Ghost.

It has been long an acknowledged fact, firmly believed in the village of Barrtefield and elsewhere, that the beautiful Elm Tree in Major Sadlier's meadow, known as the Marks Tree, is the abode of a good, good spirit, or some other ethereal being. Hundreds of persons have seen the said spirit with their own eyes, and can make affidavit thereto. Well, this ghost, or whatever else he or she may prove to be, is a funny, malicious creature, and by way of alarming and diverting the neighborhood, has recently shifted his or her abode into the belfry of St. Marks Church, immediately adjoining the Marks' Tree. Certes, the church bell has been recently often rung in the dead of the night, and by no human hand! For the Clergyman of the Parish, the Squire, and all the principal people of the village have made the most minute inquiries, have kept nightly watch, and have done everything in their power to detect the ringer, if human, without success. The bell is rung, and will be rung again, in spite of mortal impediment or hindrance; for it is rung by the Barrtefield Ghost!! Of course this ringing has created much conversation and conjecture, mixed with terror and laughter; for in spite of the plainest facts some few people are simple enough to believe that this nightly bell-ringing is the secret work of some one or two wicked, God-forsaken lads of the vicinity. But we know better. It is the ringing of the Barrtefield Ghost to welcome the return to Canada of Col. Marks, whom he or she ever protected, ever since he or she took up his or her abode in The Marks Tree.

Query, would not "it" have served the purpose better, Mr. Editor?

PATRON'S DAYS.

TO "PUT THE SADDLE ON THE RIGHT HORSE."

To the Editor of the British Whig.

I take the liberty of solving the query published in your paper to-day, concerning the plank-walk in front of the Park. I made some inquiries respecting this a short time since, and was informed that the Committee on Streets and Improvements promised seventy-five per cent. during the progress of the work. On being again asked by the contractor, it was refused by the chairman of the Finance Committee, consequently the work was postponed till the contractor would be put in funds.

Yours truly,
RIDEAU.

SUPPOSED MURDER OF A FATHER BY HIS CHILDREN AT BEAUCE.—The Coroner has just returned from the County of Beauce, opposite Quebec, where he had been summoned to hold an inquest on the day before yesterday. An old man named Charles Champagne, who has been for some time past living with his children, and grand-children, on an annuity paid him by his two sons, was reported to have been murdered by the two men a short time back, for the sake of the money which they had engaged to pay him during the term of his life, in compensation for his lands which he had made over to them. It appears, that the old man, who was 75 years of age, had begun to spend the evening with some friends, and was returning in company with his two sons, when he was drowned by falling out of a scow in crossing a river. The sons testified, at the inquest, that their father was in the act of lifting the rope from the stern of the boat, when he lost his balance and fell into the water; and that although they used every exertion to save him they could not do so, as he sank immediately and did not rise again; they then pulled ashore and alarmed the nearest residents. The ground on which rumours had arisen of the existence of ill feeling between the deceased and his sons, was that, instead of laying by his rents, which it seems were paid him with regularity, the old Champagne took especial delight in squandering it in the purchase of presents for all the pretty girls of the village. The jury gave a verdict of "accidental death."—[Quebec Mercury.

The greatest natural ornament to the "human form divine," is unquestionably a fine, luxuriant, healthy growth of hair. It has been so esteemed in all ages of the world, and among all nations, savage or civilized. Hence the Indian brave regards the scalp of his enemy as his greatest trophy. For a similar reason, the fashionable belle often disguises the regal in vanity, as well as her other physiological organs with borrowed locks.

He who should discover a method of preventing the hair from showing the inroads of envious Time by turning prematurely gray, a method by which it could be restored when falling off or turning white, and a way of promoting its continued and luxuriant growth, would justly entitled to rank among the benefactors of the human race. Read the testimonials in another column of the wonderful, not to say almost miraculous effects of "Professor Wood's Hair Restorative," and see if he has not accomplished all this.—[Capital City Fact.

A DISTRESSING COUGH CURED.

DEAR SIR—A few weeks since I had a distressing cough, my throat was very sore and inflamed, and I procured a bottle of Perry Davis' Pain Killer of you, and it has entirely cured me. I have also seen it used in cases of sore in the face, with the most beneficial effects. I believe it to be an indispensable medicine, and shall recommend it to my acquaintances.

C. W. BANKS, La Port, Ind.

This may certify, that my wife was for some time very much afflicted with a violent cough, which reduced her so much that she was unable to enjoy a moment's rest, day or night; after the use of one bottle of Perry Davis' Pain Killer, she was entirely relieved, and now enjoys good health. I consider it the best family medicine in use.

ANOTHER OF THE GOOD LADIES OF OUR CITY TESTIFIES TO THE EFFICACY OF DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE PREPARED BY FLEMING BROS., PITTSBURGH, PA.

New York, February 7, 1859.

I do hereby certify to the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., which I administered to my child of mine, four years old, troubled with worms, I was induced to procure a bottle of Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., which I administered, the result was, it brought away an enormous number of worms in his sleep and stools; many had the appearance of being cut in pieces. My child is now enjoying good excellent health. I take pleasure in recommending it to both old and young, as one of the best medicines I ever used.

MRS. ANN JACKSON, 38 Ninth-st.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS., of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.—There is not one accompaniment of costiveness more frequently observed than depression of spirits, particularly in persons a little advanced in age. It seems to cloud the whole mind, to destroy every pleasure, to take away all elasticity and buoyancy of feelings, and to produce a distressing sense of impending woe to come, in the form of poverty, calamity, disease, or something equally distressing. Universal fullness of blood is often produced; and this, at times, leads to dropsy, either partial or general.

Diseases of the heart are always aggravated, and sometimes produced by costiveness. Sluggish bowels are among the principal causes of Dyspepsia. It is true, that Chronic Diarrhœa is often present in obstinate cases of Dyspepsia. But, in nineteen cases out of twenty, costiveness seems to be the true cause of Dyspepsia. In fact, it is exceedingly rare to witness good digestion where the bowels are costive. Nothing contributes, as a general thing, to relieve dyspepsia, more than to have a free and healthy action of the bowels. Liver complaint is often produced by costiveness. The liver is apt to become enlarged and engorged with blood, and to pass its bile badly. Costiveness, without doubt, produces as much illness, or more, than any indisposition that originates with a foul condition of the Stomach and Liver, and how important it is to keep the bowels in a free and healthy condition at all times.

CORY'S STOMACHIC BITTERS have been used with complete success in the CURE of this complaint by thousands, and is acknowledged by all who use it as the best Medicine now in use. It costs only One Dollar per bottle, and each bottle contains full eight ounces of medicine. See advertisement in another column.

CANCER IN THE MOUTH AND STOMACH.—At mention of this we imagine we hear many a mother exclaim, "from this, O God, deliver us!" But many have suffered, and still are suffering from this painful cause. Permit us, in all kindness, to suggest the use of Kennedy's Medical Discovery; it has cured cases of long continuance, and of a most aggravated nature. Why then—afflicted one—should it not cure you?—Mrs. Mary Smith, of Brighton, Mass., was cured after an illness of four years. Mrs. Martha Jones, of Roxbury, Mass., was deprived of the use of her limbs by this trouble—three bottles made her perfectly sound. Mrs. Chester Morse, of Roxbury, Mass., was cured by the use of three bottles. The two latter cases are within a stone's throw of Mr. Kennedy's Laboratory, and then a man's own neighbors praise him, it is not without cause.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country that really are what the inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial the results have been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that have been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no injury. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have not their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Louisville Journal.
