

To Cure A Cough

Remove The Cause

There are so many cough remedies on the market that a selection is difficult to the one who has an occasional or even an urgent need for a good one. As a result of our experience in handling scores of different kinds, we feel justified in our claim that is in a class by itself. It cures a cough by removing the cause. It cures stubborn cases. It relieves promptly and each bit of relief is a step towards a thorough cure. At this season when coughs are prevalent, some reliable cough remedy should be kept in every home. Let it be White Pine and Tar. Guaranteed.

JOHNSBURG

The roads leading out of Johnsburg were again opened to traffic last week, the road scraper being used to do the work. As a result of this good work all of the roads are again quite passable.

A few from here attended the funeral of Frank J. Barbian at McHenry last Saturday morning. The deceased resided with his parent here for a short time after their arrival from Chicago.

John M. Smith, local poultry fancier and breeder of Partridge Wyandottes and Muscovie-ducks, exhibited his fowls at the annual poultry show held at Lake Geneva recently. We have not learned whether or not his exhibit won any of the prizes.

While no serious cases have been reported or any fatalities resulted of late, the flu has visited many of our homes in the past few weeks. As far as we are able to learn the cases were all of the mild order. At the present writing Jos. Smith and family are suffering from the disease.

A number of our men are again employed at Spring Grove, where the annual harvest of ice has begun at the Wieland plant. The work of filling the immense ice houses there takes up the greater part of six weeks. The Johnsburg people employed there are making daily trips to and from work.

The largest wedding reception, in point of attendance, held here in recent years was that of the Smith-Schmitt marriage on Wednesday. We are informed that nearly five hundred had been invited to the affair. A wedding dance, which was also attended by a big crowd, was held at the parish hall in the evening.

Arthur Adams informs us that he has been given the exclusive agency for the Grant automobile and he is now busying himself looking up prospective buyers. Last year the Grant agency was held by Jos. H. Huemann and Mr. Adams and their record shows a sale of thirteen of these cars. Not so bad for little old Johnsburg.

Henry Schaefer, who has been in the service of Uncle Sam during the past few months as a member of the Blackhawk division, arrived from overseas service a short time ago and is now awaiting his honorable discharge at Camp Grant. He with the balance of the members of the division which have arrived in this country were the guests of the city of Chicago on Monday.

S. M. Levy and daughter passed Tuesday of last week with friends in Crystal Lake.

Mrs. Claude Jacobs attended to business matters at the county seat one day last week.

Mrs. H. N. Cooper was in Elgin last Wednesday, looking for a house and expects to move to that city in the very near future.

OSTEND

C. J. Sherman and family spent Sunday at Wauconda with Myron Francisco and family.

Bert Sutton of Solon, an old time calf buyer, surprised the farmers here recently by making his appearance again.

Frank Kaiser and wife have been spending a few days in Chicago. The children remained at home and went to school.

Leslie Francisco, who recently returned from over there, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his cousin, Roy Hobart.

Earl Lincoln and Chas. Stein of Harvard drove over with wheat to the McHenry mill and were obliged to stay over night as the mill could not take care of them the same day.

Miss Elfrieda Block, our teacher here, has boarded at her home in McHenry all the term until last week, walking both ways. She is now boarding with the Eppel family during bad weather.

S. S. Rogers has gone to Madison to take the same course Clinton Martin is taking. We expect they will be able to take apart and put together all kinds of gas machines and run them all when they return.

Ben Wallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wallis, swept up a rifle shell with some papers and other dirt and not knowing the shell was there he put the dirt in the stove. The shell exploded and three particles of something went into his left eye. He was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago, where they removed two of the particles. The other they have not been able to get. His mother visited him Sunday.
