The Pacific Coast has not escaped from forest fires. In Santa-Cruz County fire has been raging over a district of four mile, committing great destruction.

The United States civil authorities have notified the Dominion Government that informations have been laid against O'Neill and his Fenian followers for their late unlawful raid on the Manitoba frontier.

The cattle disease, which for some time past has prevailed among the cattle, sheep, and swine in England, shows no sign of abating. From statistics at hand it is ascertained that the disease at present prevails in about fifty English counties. In Scotland, also, it exists in about twenty-three.

Current Notes

A carefully prepared estimate of the losses by the Chicago fire gives the total little over one hundred and fifty millions of dollars.

A spectator in the court room in New York, on the other day carelessly overturned a chair when Judge Barnard gravely reprimanded him to be more careful, as he alone had already cost the city $100,000.

Carlotta, widow of Maximilian, the Emperor of Mexico, has lost the beauty for which she was once so famous, and her appearance is said to be repulsive. Her physician announces that she cannot live long.

We shall have telegraphic communication with Fort Garry on Wednesday next, 25th inst. The first wire of the telegraph line was strung on September 14. Quick work. Good for Canadian enterprise.

Quebec city appears like Kingston to be determined to awake from it commercial and industrial lethargy, and if the present rate of progress is continued for a year, will become one of the great industrial centres of Canada. So it ought to be, and we rejoice to hear of this hopeful state of affairs.

The Bishop of York, and the Bishop of Winchester, having held services and preached in the Glengarry Presbyterian Church, has caused the most intense feeling both in England, and amongst the Scottish Episcopalians.

It is not surprising that the Chicago, Windsor and other fires are leading property owners to look more carefully after their insurance. There has been a notable increase in the insurance business in all sections of the country. It is bad policy to wait till you burn and then regret that you did not insure.

To-day Mr. Gladstone will address his constituents at Greenwich. It is probable that he will refer to Mr. Disraeli's declarations with reference to the Queen's health. The speech will, no doubt, be worthy the great orator, and the grandest political effort of the season. It will be looked for in this country with no ordinary interest.

"Happy Hours."—This morning we received our first Chicago exchange since the fire. It is the pleasant weekly paper "Happy Hours" and it is a little singular, too, that such an anomalous publication should be preserved to Chicago in its desolation. "Happy Hours" scarcely represents the state of Chicago society now. We congratulate our confrere on his escape from the general ruin.

Humors of the Fire

People are not only as cheerful as could be expected under the circumstance, but, with all due regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not refrain from an occasional pleasantry. Indeed, as every one among us has been chastened by affliction, everybody claims the right to indulge in loose remarks when occasion suggests them.

One merchant who found his safe and its contents destroyed, jocularly remarked that there was no blame attached to the safe; that it was of chilled iron, and would have stood, but that the fire had taken the chill off out.

A firm of painters on Madison street bulletin their removal as follows on a sign board erected like a guide board upon the ruins of their old establishment:

MOORE & GOE,
House and Sign Painters,
Removed to 187 Desplaines Street,
Formerly Capital, $000,000.30.

A friend in need is a friend indeed.

Editor of a daily paper has received practical effusions suggested by the fire; he declines them all, on the ground that it is wasteful to print anything which requires every line with a capital is as scarce as it is now.

At the corner of a street intersecting Madison avenue, a board still clings to a tree, having painted on it, "This house for sale." It would take a telescope of considerable power to find that house. Some joker nailed a board to a broken telegraph pole on which was painted "One thousand acres of this unimproved land for sale at $1.25 per acre. Inquire next door."

A sign board, stuck in the ruins of a building on Madison street, reads: "Owing to circumstances over which we had no control, we have removed, etc.—Chicago Tribune.

Chicago

Henderson Brothers, of the Anchor Line, Glasgow, have authorized their Chicago house to pay over to the Mayor of Chicago $25,000 on account of Glasgow subscriptions.

Robert Collyer, the Chicago clergyman, was forced to move several times with his family during the fire. His son was to have been married on the Monday night of the fire, and the plucky of the young people did not fail; only it took all next day to procure the needed license, it being necessary to hunt for Mastodon Justice through the ruins of the burned city. The young couple start out in life pluckily.

It now appears that the cow to whose kicking over a kerosene lamp the origin of the fire at Chicago was attributed, is guiltless. The woman who owned the cow says that the cow was not milked at night, and moreover that she was in bed and asleep at the time she was said to have been milking the cow. Indeed there is even room to doubt whether the fire began in her barn at all, and whether she had a cow or not. So now the origin of the fire still remains a mystery.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and efficacious for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of soiling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. It would merely for a

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is universally required by everybody as a cathartic, for was ever any before so extensively adopted by all classes, as the mild yet efficient Ayer's Pill. The demand for such a cathartic has led to more imitations than for any other medicine, and the more efficacious remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them, those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or negligence of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of the most remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not cumber this page with them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, it is the most perfect purgative yet discovered, and the most reliable physic for general use. Their power to cure is unquestionable. Their super coating preserves them perfectly fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, there is no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They purge the system effectually in the doses required for those they are adapted to cure. They stimulate the stomach, bowels, liver and other organs of the body, to healthy action, restoring them to health, and correcting whatever may exist, such derangement as is the first cause of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box. We do the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Costiveness, Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such changes these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the desired effect by purging.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it precedes the desired flow by purging.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two to stimulate digestion and relieve the stomach from its disorder, and no more eating for hearty meals, Parties who have used Ayer's Pills make them their family cathartic, and recommend them to their friends and neighbors.
