Victoria News.

Victoria, July 19.—Mrs. Charley has returned from Black River, where she has been spending a few days with her sister, who is in poor health. Lee Perry took a trip to Hiawatha on business. Miss Gertrude Spurr, Perry, is on a visit with her sister, Mrs. Ross Snider. Bowen Snider has his new house nearly completed. Farmers are busy with their haying, which is much lighter than last year. Several farmers are purchasing McCormick cut and sweep hay makers this season. Frank Bevan, Forest Mills, made a flying visit with friends in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, Colborne, spent Sunday at J. F. Rose's. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Desoronto, were at J. F. Rose's on Sunday.

PROMINENT CLERGYMEN ENDORSE "OZONE."

Positive Statements from the Most Reputable People in Canada Proving Conclusively the Superiority of the New System of Treatment Over All Others—Can the Public Ask More? Do They Expect More?

The proof of the marvellous curative properties contained in Dowley's Liquified Ozone comes to us from across every section of the land. People in all walks of life are giving the most convincing testimony in favor of the new treatment, and proving conclusively that it purges our disease of every vestige. Artisans, mechanics, laborers, business and professional men alike continued the testimony again and again. To-day we present the testimony of three of the most eminent clergymen of the Methodist Church, supplemented with the statement of Mrs. Chown, wife of Rev. Dr. Chown. Surely there could be no more witness more to rely and suffer it. When reputable men and women voluntarily testify such gratefully and with the utmost care to give others the same chance of cure, and evidence comes the attention of the public with an authority which cannot be ignored by an intelligent people. Nationwide is truth of the highest practical value and importance to the sick.
