What is Going on in the Business World—The Market News.

Currants are quoted at prices as low as that at which the new crop will cost to import.

Russia seeks to purchase a million tons of coal from the Dominion coal company of Sydney, Cape Breton.

Stocks of old crop Smyrna filberts are practically entirely cleaned up in Sicily, according to a cable received yesterday.

Sultana raisins are very firm. If reports of damaged crops be true the price will be fully two cents a pound higher.

The official estimate of the French wheat crop for 1900 is 288,000,000 bushels, compared with 356,000,000 bushels last year.

Late estimates of Hungarian wheat crop in Manitoba, average 28,000,000 bushels last year, are confirmed. Early in the season it was thought she would raise 48,000,000 bushels this year.

The California raisin crop is estimated at 2,100 cars, according to Fresno advices. The damage done by the red spider and yellow mites, it is said, will reduce the expected crop by a third.

The foreign reports on rye indicate that the French crop will be about 4,000,000 bushels less than last year. The German crop is expected to be an average one. The reports from Russia are incomplete.

Salmon has advanced fifty cents a case at the coast. Some canners are not accepting orders on any conditions whatever. The Fraser river catch is very disappointing, about 110,000 cases instead of 500,000.

Bourdeaux advices say that the crop of walnuts in that district will be about the same as last year's unless something unforeseen occurs in the weather conditions before the time of gathering the crop.

The question of next year appointing an inspector for the exclusive use of members of this board will come up for discussion at the next meeting, 30th inst. The feeling of the members is that this should be done, providing the dairymen's association allows $200 towards the inspector's salary.

Superintendent Hart, of the Kingston dairy school, announced that he had secured the services of J. R. Ruddick, Ottawa, as judge of the dairy exhibits at the Kingston big fair. No Laxity In Discipline.

At the police court yesterday morning, one of the witnesses in gunner Turner's case felt the impression that Turner was drunk when he left the barracks, and the magistrate made the statement that there was certainly a laxity of discipline there. Maj. Fages was indignant when he heard about the charge, and this morning summoned a number of the batterymen, together with Sergt. Fowler, all who declared that Turner was not drunk when he left the barracks. The officer commanding is very strict in all matters pertaining to discipline, and naturally was offended at the magistrate's charge, with so little evidence in support.

Enjoyed Their Visit Here.

H. H. Hall and wife, Yorkshire, England, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Birch, at their summer home at Thousand Island park, were in the city to-day, and took this afternoon's train for the west. They will likely go through to the coast, and in returning tour through the United States. Mr. Hall is greatly delighted with the Thousand Islands, and declares that next summer he will return, engage a steam yacht and spend three or four months on the river with a party of friends which he will bring with him.

Work At The Breakwater.

This morning men commenced to draw stone from a quarry to fill in the crib work on the King street breakwater. SIR CLAUD MACDONALD ILL.

NO NEWS FROM PEKIN SINCE AUG. 17th.

Cutting of the Communication of the Allied Forces is Feared—Press Messages Choke the Telegraph Office at Che Foo.

London, Aug. 23.—The foreign consuls at Shanghai, not having received anything from Pekin later than Aug. 17th, fear the Chinese troops are operating along the rear of the allies and cutting off their communication. The blockade of press messages at the Che Foo telegraph office continues, but it in no way interferes with official despatches which are put ahead. A belated despatch from Pekin, dated Aug. 14th, says Sir Claude Macdonald, the British minister, is ill.

Defends United States.

Berlin, Aug. 23. — The semi-official Berliner Post, in a long leading article, defends the policy of the United States against suspicions cast upon it by certain German papers that go upon the theory that Washington is pursuing separate aims.

Having Own Trouble.

Paris, Aug. 23.—The French consul at Hankow wires that an attempt at an uprising occurred during the night of August 21st. A band of Chinese tried to set fire to a house adjoining the customs bank, adjacent to the British concession, with the object of pillaging the bank and burning the European quarter. The viceroy, however, took immediate steps and arrested the ringleaders, seizing at the same time arms and documents, demonstrating the existence of a secret society and organized plot. Two of the leading culprits were decapitated; twenty others were imprisoned. More trouble is feared when the flight of the empress becomes known.

Causing Uneasiness.

London, Aug. 23.—An attempted uprising at Hankow is causing uneasiness. Twenty-seven warships have assembled at Shanghai, and Woo Sung, their crews numbering about seven thousand men.

A Difficult Advance.

Berlin, Aug. 23.—The German admiral at Taku, wires under date of Aug. 20th: "Capt. Hecht, reached Ma Tu, this morning and proceeded. The advance was difficult owing to the force of the current and the shallow water."

The Media regiment, after a very trying march, arrived at Yang Tsung, Aug. 18th.

It is inferred from the foregoing that the telegraph lines from Taku and Ma Tu, near Tung Chow, are working.

SMASHING THE BOERS.

Baden-Powell Had a Conflict With Grabler's Force.

London, Aug. 23.—Lord Roberts reports to the war office under date of Pretoria, Aug. 22nd, as follows:

"Buller's division marched to Vanwyksvlei, fifteen miles south of Belfast yesterday. His casualties were twenty. He reports from Hammanskraal, that Baden-Powell engaged Grobler's rear guard all day yesterday. Grobler was driven back east of Pinaar's river. Baden-Powell re-occupied the railway station of that name. During the fight Baden-Powell's advance and that of the enemy galloped into each other, the Kimberlies, losing Col. Sprockly and four men killed and seven wounded. Many of the Boers were killed or wounded. They were at Cyler Kull, this morning. Plumer and Hickman were closely pursuing them.

It seems certain that Dewet, finding it hopeless to make his way eastward has recrossed the Magaliesberg with a few wounded, with the intention of returning to the Orange River colony. He is in a very deficient condition from when he left Bethlehem with six or eight guns and 2,000 men. His guns have mostly been buried and his personal following cannot be more than 300.

It is stated that Steyn, with a small body guard has crossed Pinaar's river on his way to join Kruger at Machadodorp. The Boers yesterday blew up a portion of the railway at Kaap's hoft, five miles north of Newcastle, and damaged the rails at a point thirty miles south-east of Newcastle.

Made Herself Solid.

"Very well," concluded the lady of the house, "I will engage you."

"Yes, ma'am," said the pretty chambermaid, "and I think I'd better tell you, ma'am, I've got a steady beau that I'm very fond of."

"Oh, that's all right."

"Yes, ma'am. So if you catch your husband tryin' to kiss me, you'll know it ain't my doin's."

Suing For Damages.

Montreal, Aug. 23. — Daniel Ford, owner of theatre Francais, destroyed by fire last winter, has entered an action to recover $30,000 from W. E. Phillips, the lessee of the building, on the ground of neglect on Phillips' part. $10,000 of the amount is to cover the loss over and above the insurance and the rest of it is for the back rent which has been lost through the destruction of the building.

Reached Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—Dr. and Mrs. Leslie, of the Presbyterian mission in China arrived in Toronto this morning from the Orient and will go on to Montreal to-night to visit Mrs. Leslie's father, Mr. Ogilvie. Dr. Leslie, badly wounded during the attack on the Canadian missionaries is recovering slowly from the fifteen wounds sustained in various parts of the body from the knives of Boxers.

Eighty-Four Days At The Castle.

Gr. Cleeter, of "A" battery, was tried by court-martial a few days ago on the charge of desertion. Yesterday the sentence arrived from Ottawa, which announces that the said Cleeter must spend eighty-four days at hard labor. Major Fages transferred the prisoner to Corbett's castle.

The tax collector to-day issued a number of summonses against young men for neglecting to pay their statute labor tax. They will appear before the magistrate to-morrow morning.

Will Roumania Settle?

London, Aug. 23. Numerous despatches appear in the morning papers regarding the Bulgaria-Roumanian situation growing out of the demand of Roumania for the suppression of the Macedonian revolutionary committee, whose headquarters are at Sofia. What appears the most reliable summary of the latest developments comes from the Vienna correspondent of the Standard, who says:

"The conviction prevails that the conflict between Roumania and Bulgaria has now lost much of its acuteness, and that in the end Bulgaria will satisfy Roumanian demands."

Scalped, But Will Live.

Buffalo, Aug. 23.—Robert Longan, an employee of the Union drydock company, was literally scalped by the crank of a heavy hoisting machine, which slipped while a ponderous weight was being lifted and struck him a slanting blow. His left arm was broken and he was otherwise injured, but will probably survive.

Disappointed The Managers.

Miss Le Roi, engaged by the managers of the local fair, at the last moment broke her contract with them, they allege, and refused to perform here. She was to have given a parachute drop. Fortunately the secretaries have been able to fill the vacancy satisfactory.

Acquitted The Defendants.

ATTACK ON MISSIONARIES.

REV. ROBT. MITCHELL, OF HONAN, DESCRIBES IT.

At the Gates of Tien Tsin—Clubbed, Stoned and Slashed—Dr. Leslie Received Eleven Wounds—Will Arrive in Toronto To-Night.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—Rev. R. P. Mackay, secretary of Presbyterian foreign missions, has received from Rev. Robert Mitchell, of the Honan mission, a letter giving the first account of the attack upon the missionaries at the gates of Tien Tsin, while on the way to the seacoast. The letter says:

"About a hundred yards from the gate there was a rush made by about 200 men armed with swords, spears, clubs, etc., while the stones flew in a storm. The attack was made simultaneously front and back, and the ranks were slashed to prevent escape. It was not an easy matter to escape with the carts, the women and the children inside; moreover, more than robbery was the interest of some. Though Mr. Goforth continued shouting 'take the goods and don't strike,' they persistently attacked him at a distance from the cart, while one man said to Mr. Goforth: 'I want your goods, but I also want your life.'

"The result of attack was that ladies and children and Mr. Hood escaped with no injuries, but bruises from stones and clubs. Mr. Goforth had a big gash in the palm of his hand, cut across the fingers of the other, and a gash in the forepart of his head. Mr. McKenzie got a sword cut on the head, a stone bruise on the nose, and some other wounds. Mr. Goforth was badly bruised with stones, and received several sword gashes on the left arm and a sword cut about two inches long on the back of his head. Another cut went through the hat just over his temple, but did not injure him. He believes he was also clubbed over head. Dr. Leslie has eleven wounds of which the most serious one is in the instep on the right knee cap, and one on the right wrist. The doctor fears his right hand will never be of much use again as the largest tendons are severed. They straggled out from the crowd, but parties outside relieved them of things on their person, such as watches, pens, suspenders, hose, belts, even overshirts, while Mrs. McKenzie was nearly choked in a man's eagerness to relieve her of her rings, etc., tied on a string about her neck. Mrs. Leslie saved her wedding ring by slipping it into her shoe. The party was robbed later, but no further attempts to kill were made."

Dr. Leslie, the most seriously injured of the missionaries, will reach Toronto to-night.

Meet Them At Vancouver.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—Dr. Warden, of the Presbyterian mission rooms, left this afternoon for Vancouver to meet the returning missionaries from China. Those who are in a fit condition to go into the field will be assigned to take up work in the home mission cause, probably in the west and northwest.

Couldn't Enjoy Perfection.

Just before Cecil Rhodes went to Kimberley he was walking near Paarl, and the thought struck him that he would have a village built by Kaffir labor. In six months it was done. Then the story goes, that walking one day with Kipling, he saw it, liked it, and said: "Yes, that will do; build another hundred houses." The same day he and Kipling wandered up to a hill, from whence could be obtained a most lovely view. But it was spoiled by three apple trees. They must come down, he determined. He rushed to a cottage; the door was locked. He broke it open in a fury, found an old ax, and began hacking the trees down. Kipling sat by in silence. At last the trees fell. Rhodes sat down to enjoy the view. Kipling got up, picked up a filthy piece of rag, and tied it on to a branch of one of the fallen trees.

"What on earth do you do that for?" said Rhodes.

"Now I can see the view," replied Kipling; "you must never have a scene too perfect, you must always have a blot. If you get perfection you cease to enjoy it."

Advantages of Vivisection.

Up to the time that Sir Charles Bell made his experiments on the nerves of the face it was the common custom of surgeons to divide the facial nerve for the relief of neuralgia, tic-doloreaux, whereas it exercises, and was proved by Sir Charles Bell to exercise, no influence over sensation, and its division consequently for the relief of pain was a useless operation.

So far back as 1500 Frascatorius had said that phthisis (consumption) came by "the giving of the corrupt and noisome humors of the patient into the lungs of a healthy man." Surely, if clinical experience could suffice, men would have made something out of this wisdom of Frascatorius. They made nothing of it; they waited three centuries for Villemin to inoculate the rabbits, and then the thing was done. En voici les preuves.

Thus within a few years experiments on animals have set the subject of typhoid in a new light. They have given to everybody a new method for the diagnosis of obscure cases. They have illuminated some of the mysteries of immunity, and they have brought about preventive inoculation.—"Experiments on Animals," by Stephen Paget.

The Modesty of Merit.

I have known half a dozen Victoria cross men, but never heard a battle yarn from one of them. I remember trying to draw from a friend who had distinguished himself in the battle of the Alma, where he had two horses killed under him, something as to his feelings and experiences in an engagement. All I could get from him was: "A battle is a very disagreeable place to be in. Come, and I'll show you my pigs."—Rev. E. J. Hardy, British Army Chaplain.

A Startler.

Thomas K. Beecher once prefaced a sermon preached at Plymouth for his brother with the startling intimation: "All those who have come here to worship Henry Ward Beecher will now retire. All those who have come to worship God will remain."

There was a large crowd at Lake Ontario park last night. The performance was a splendid one. Some good trick bicycle riding is done and there are other attractions.

The Beaver line Lake Ontario passed Fame Point, inward, at 12:30 to-day.
