MURPHY—STILLING NUPTIALS SPOKEN AT ST. PATRICK'S

Even though the date was Sept. 6, true summer weather prevailed last Saturday when Miss Mary Grace Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Murphy, became the bride of Mr. Robert Stilling, son of the George Stillings of Orchard Beach. Father Edward L. Kilroy, pastor of St. Richard's parish of Chicago, a friend of the Murphy family for many years, officiated at the 10 o'clock service, which took place in St. Patrick's church, McHenry.

MRS. ROBERT STILLING

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with bouquets of blue, white and purple gladioli. Soloists were Miss Angela Farrell of Scranton, Pa., a cousin of the bride, who sang "Ave Marie, Oh Virgin, Oh Mother" preceding the service and "Panis Angelicius" at the Communion, and Miss Adele Froehlich, whose selections were Sheubert's "Ave Maria" and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother."

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father, radiant in a gown of white taffeta, colonial style, with which she wore white mitts. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was held in place by a headpiece of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book, a gift of her cousin, Miss Farrell, with white satin streamers and roses attached. Her gift from the groom was a gold cross and chain in diamond setting.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Arthur Jackson of Woodstock, while Miss Ann Bolger of McHenry acted as bridesmaid. Both young ladies, close friends of Miss Murphy, were attired in pale pink taffeta dresses with which they wore matching mitts. On their head each wore a wreath of blue asters and carried a colonial bouquet tied with blue satin ribbons.

Fred Wahl served his brother-in-law as best man. Ushers were Dr. Robert Meadows of Cook County hospital, Chicago, and his brother, Harry Meadows of Elgin, school friends of the groom.

The bride's mother chose a plum-colored faille dress with silver embroidery and black accessories. She wore a corsage of orchid and purple asters on her handbag. Mrs. Stilling selected a dress of black chiffon and lace and matching picture hat. Her corsage was of fuchsia and white asters.

Twenty-one members of the families, Father Kilroy and the clergy of St. Patrick's church partook of a wedding breakfast at the Villa Club at Pistakee Bay, and in the afternoon, a reception was held there and dinner served to 175 guests.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school with the class of 1945 and of Mount St. Claire college in Clinton, Iowa, in 1947.

The bridegroom is a McHenry high school graduate and served for three years as a sergeant with the marine corps during the war years. On Sept. 26 he will begin his third year at Lake Forest college, where he is majoring in business administration. The couple has been fortunate in finding a furnished apartment in Lake Forest, where they will live upon their return from a wedding trip to the North Woods.
