Thank You!

Well, here it is -- fait accompli -- your own copy of the 1985-86 Acta Studentium. Have you ever wondered just where a yearbook comes from? Santa can't bring it nor can you exchange a used molar with the Tooth Fairy for a copy. A yearbook originates with people.

Our yearbook originated with highly motivated individuals who were diligent and interested enough in recording the activities, attitudes and antics of the NDSS student body. To our editor, Michelle, and to her yearbook entourage, my thanks for a job well done! To those staff members depicted above who were instrumental in helping keep the yearbook on track, my gratitude to you all. You made this edition a certain success and my job as staff advisor most tolerable!

Thanks!

D. Wilson

Dedication

The 1985-86 Acta Studentium is dedicated to four fine teachers; Mrs. Zanusst, Mr. Graves, Mr. Mandeville, and Mr. Moote. They will not be returning to NDSS next September. Instead they have decided, after much consideration, that they would rather be enjoying themselves than marking our assignments - Can you believe it?!?!?

Together Mrs. Zanussi, Mr. Moote, Mr. Mandeville, and Mr. Graves have put in 88 years of teaching here at Niagara District and their math, biology, marketing, and special ed classes will long remember their dedication, professionalism, and of course, their tests!

Not only will their classes miss them, but the whole school, as they were involved in many activities. Who will replace Mr. Graves as Work-a-thon "Chief"? Will Mr. Moote return to help Miss Black on Enrichment excursions? Do future school plays face bankruptcy without Mrs. Zanussi as treasurer? Already Mr. Mandeville's absence has been felt as a rookie Yearbook Staff undertook an unfamiliar task.

Best of luck to all retirees. We wish you much happiness.

Principal's Message

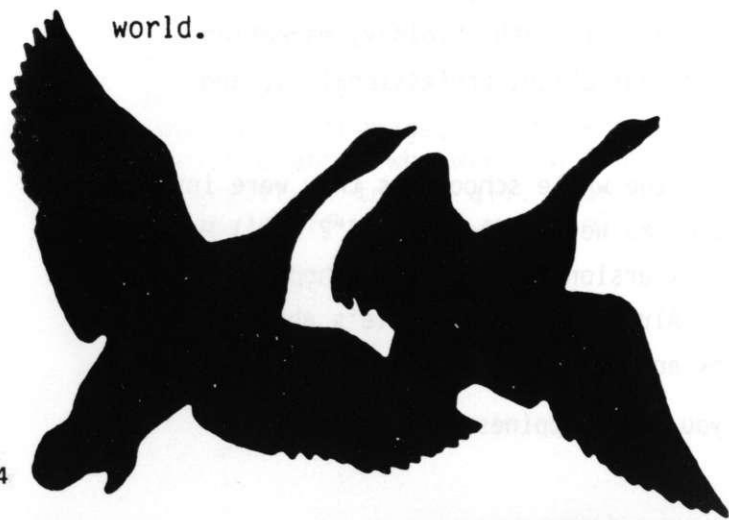

Best wishes Kevin
A. Torigian

Quite often "the older generation" fails to hear the voices of the young. Yet through improved communications, enlightened education and a desire for social justice, it was the young people of the world who rallied around the slogan "We are the World" in order to help alleviate famine in Africa. Whenever progress has been made against a problem -- social or otherwise -- it has been because of an attitude that "no problem is insoluble" -- a typical youthful sentiment.

My wish for all of you is that as you grow older and become "that older generation," you continue to "think young" as your contribution towards a better world.

A. Torigian

A. Torigian,
Principal.

Vice-Principal's Message

The proud achievements of N.D.S.S. students and staff are reflected once again in this annual yearbook. The school is now thirty years old and has established a solid tradition of excellence in academic endeavours, in practical skill development, in athletics, and in its total extra-curricular programme. The uniqueness of work-a-thon, of the fashion show and of commencement at the Shaw Festival Theatre set District apart from other Lincoln County schools and impart that "touch of class" that makes us all feel a special sense of identity and affection.

To all the graduates, Mr. Torigian and I extend our best wishes for next year and the years to come. The school will miss the contributions you have made over these past four or five years. Don't forget us, just as we shall not forget you.

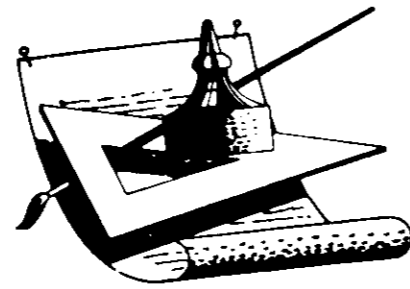

Sincerely,

J. Bascom

J. Bascom,
Vice-Principal.

President's Message

First of all, I would like to take this opportunity to thank and congratulate the yearbook staff for all their hard work on a great yearbook.

My thanks also goes out to the rest of student council, it has been great working with all of you. As well, many thanks to you, the student body, for your confidence in electing me to this position and the staff for all the help you have given me.

We, as a council, have tried to do many different activities, some have been very successful, and some did not work the way we planned. All in all it has worked out pretty good.

Being the president I have learned an awful lot. It has been a great experience and will help me later in life. On that note I would like to encourage everyone to consider running for a position on council, it is a lot of fun, and it is worth it!!!

At this point I would like to clear up a little rumour about whether or not I actually have any classes. Well, I must assure you that I do. And for those people who claim they see me walking around the halls all day, that's my brother!

Once again, thank you to everyone and good luck in life.

Live long and prosper,

Brian Duyn,
Mr. President.

Editorial

Voila! The 1985-86 Niagara District Yearbook took many weeks to complete and was hard but satisfying work. I hope you like this edition as much as I've enjoyed putting it together. It is not easy to please everyone but I did my best to ensure that it had "something for everybody".

A great big THANK YOU to all who helped out. Your enthusiasm and creativity are evident throughout the book. Without you, (and you know who you are) this edition with its special features would not have been possible. Thanks again!!!

Also I wish to thank Mr. Wilson, our staff advisor. We were both rookies, but judging from the book itself you wouldn't have guessed! It was a pleasure working with you.

My last year here at NDSS was my best because I followed the advice of my grade eight teacher. He said that school will only be as good as what you put into it. That's true. The more involved you are, the more happiness and fulfilment you will receive. Participate and make all your memories of NDSS happy ones. Lots of luck and best wishes for your future and remaining years at Niagara District.

Sincerely,

Michelle Trus
Editor 1985-86

Yearbook Staff

Many students volunteered their time during spares, after school, and even on WEEKENDS to help out with the Yearbook. Hundreds of hours and many pages were completed by Joanne England, Tara Johnston, Lynne Griffiths, Katie Kirkby, Debbie DeBon, Eunice Wagner, Shelley Kanters, Laura Worrall and David McClure. They were involved in all aspects of the yearbook from typing and pasting to reorganizing special pictures and yearbook layouts. Contributions were also made by junior staff members: Evelyn Scudamore, Rob McDaniel, Todd Watson and Kevin Julie. I hope this experience will encourage them to work on future editions. Besides the main staff, a lot of students helped out when they could and deserve recognition and my thanks. They include Margo Kissner, Kathy Bryant, Georgia Versteegen, Brian Gilmour, Sheryl Neufeld, Mark Lepp, Rick Trus, Tom Steinhoff, Sherry Smith, Sarah King, Jeff Wills and Daryl Boldt. As well cartoon contributions were made by Kevin Keller and Kirsi Allo wrote the poems for the grade dividers. Candid Photos were supplied by Christine Urias, Shelley Kanters Joanne England, Jennifer Kanters, Mr. Ramburn, Sara Burcuil Nancy Epp, Laura Worrall, Georgia Versteegen, Erica Butler, Mr. Wilson, Michelle Trus, Mrs. Gallop, Kirsi Allo, Ivan Vladianx, and Glen Schachowskoj.

Katie Kirkby presents Kirsi Allo with a cheque for $25 and $10, First and Third Prizes in the Literary Contest.

Lynne Griffiths presents Amanda Heppner with a cheque for $15, Second Prize in the Yearbook Literary Contest.

I am a yearbook
I make no pretense of great literary worth
At times I am belittled
And I will be the butt of later-life jokes
Because some things written on my pages
Will seem childish
When read again with wiser, older eyes
But, at this moment, they are part Of a life we know and love
The unskilled phrases of youth may mar my pages
But I know my strength
I know my place
I will be succeeded time and again
But I can never be replaced
Because in my leather clad arms
I hold all the memories of this small time
My task is to treasure that you may remember
Some day...when space ships whirl
Across the changed face of the world
I will be taken down from the shelf
The dust will be blown from my covers
And the curious eyes of eager childhood
Will scan my yellowed pages
For a beloved face
Nothing ever born of love really dies
And I was created with infinite care
By a few people who care about Niagara District
And all she stands for
Who believe all that happened here
Is worth remembering
Is worth recording
On the pages that follow...

NIAGARA DISTRICT S.S.
CLASS OF 1985

Brian Goff
Jostens
Congratulations!

So the years have finally gone,
notebooks on top of notebooks,
many textbooks through the hands.
It was fun,
it was hard,
it was unforgettable.

And now it is hard to say goodbye.

The times we've had,
the friends we've made,
are now all part of the past.
So take my hand,
shake it,
hug me farewell,
there will be vows to keep in touch,
there will be tears.

But we must go on.

The last highschool bell will ring,
and let us out
to meet our demands
our dreams
our ambitions.
So,
there will be tears,
but there will be smiles,
and memories
never to be forgot

GOOD LUCK
AND MAY WE MEET AGAIN!

Valedictory Address

Graduation is a time for reminiscing about our years at high school. During these years, a lot of friendships are made and experiences are shared that shape our lives. Brian MacDonald and Patti Miller will always be part of our memories and I would like to dedicate this speech to them.

Well, tonight is the night we've all been waiting for! We are officially finished high school; can you believe it? You know, it seems like just yesterday was....THURSDAY! Do you realize we've spent 156 Thursdays together at N.D.? Now, as we go our separate ways, it's time for the world to be exposed to Niagara District's class of '85. Oooooo! Scary stuff!

Speaking of "scary stuff", boys and girls, high school would have been much more "scary" if it hadn't been for all of the help we received from our teachers. We will always retain vivid memories of them; like Mr. Ramburn standing on his head during class, Mr. Dunn struggling to teach Functions without his beloved cone, and Mr. Munro playing with his slinky in the hall. From these, our respected and admired mentors, we have acquired several important maxims. Mr. Aitken has convinced us that the world revolves around existentialism and phallic symbols; we've learned a few blurb type-things and what-have-you from Mr. Munro; some words of wisdom from Mr. Dunn are sure to have a lasting influence on our lives: "...the ducky eats the big one!"; and from Mr. McKindsey, we've learned that in life unlike Calculus, there are no answers in the back of the book. Our teachers deserve a great deal of thanks and I think a quote by Stephen Leacock sums it up: "I owe a lot to my teachers-and I mean to pay them back someday."

No one deserves more thanks than our parents and families, those special people who put up with us for all our nineteen years, and I'm sure they treasured every minute of it! This diploma is a symbol of our gratitude to them. Our achievement tonight is, in fact, a reflection of our parents' patience, encouragement, and confidence that we would succeed. No matter how independent we think we are, we'll always need them and appreciate that they are there for us. So, thanks Mom and thanks Dad, for helping us through our school years.

Our last year at N.D. was definitely the most memorable. We got out of it what we put into it, and we put in a lot! On the basketball court, our senior boys captured the OFSAA Championship; and the senior girls...well, we had a good time! Remember the excitement of ALMOST making national television? That was a thrill of a lifetime in itself! More public recognition was gained by our Grade thirteen English classes, who so gallantly defended The Stone Angel and made the front page of The Standard! There are so many things we did that were "rather peculiar": the Murder Game, the Trojan Queens, watching the Flintsones and The Wheel of Fortune in the Students' Council Room, and eating Mr. T. cereal in class. We all have to admit that March Break was definitely the highlight of the year. While the Grade twelves were off to Paris, eating croissants and sipping French wine, the Grade 13's invaded Fort Lauderdale by storm! Large quantities of Kentucky Fried Chicken, all-night partying, and a gruelling 30-hour drive, made for a truly unforgettable experience--especially for the four who drove down in Melissa's car!

But I think what made this year special wasn't just the fun we had, but the friends we made with it, including our mate from downunder, Marina! Take a look around you. Many of us have been together since Kindergarten. Sure we've changed over the years and developed our own personalities, but we stayed friends, and that really says a lot. We've let each other grow, attempt new challenges, and dare to be different. I mean, do we really care if certain people enjoy dressing like a flowerchild, or Funky Chicken, or wear a hideous green plaid blazer, or give their dates a humungous weed as a boutonniere, or make bird noises at each other? Despite all our eccentricities, we always accept each other for the individuals we are. As friends, we picked each other up when we were down, and cut each other down when we were up! know each other well enough to be totally honest, and if we were criticized, it's because our friends really care; THAT is what makes for a lasting friendship!

Ralph Waldo Emerson once said, "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm", and I think that's why our class is so great, and has the potential to achieve so much. Our spirit and enthusiasm have left their mark on Niagara District (and not only on the walls of the Students' Council Room!). I think the '85 Graduates are best described by Mrs. Suciak's favourite saying, "Totally awesome!".

Our class is full of talented people--even Dave, who has finally learned to walk down a flight of stairs with his hands in his pockets without breaking his nose! Whatever we choose to do with our lives, I know each of us will be successful. Our years at N.D.S.S. have helped us develop confidence and the diligence to work for what we want. We now have a responsibility to ourselves to attain our full potential.

I think of our lives as novels in the process of being written, and ourselves as the authors. Tonight marks the end of one chapter, and the beginning of another. Who knows what our books will turn out to be: an action-packed adventure story, a drama, a Harlequin Romance, or a "happy-ever-after" fairy tale. As for now, they're all mysteries. What ever the ending may be, I know each of our books will be on the best-seller list! And Melissa, be sure to have yours proof-read for spelling mistakes!

High School is over now and it's time to get on with the next chapter of our lives. So let's follow the advice of our own prophet, Mr. Aitken: "Pitter patter, let's get at her!"

GOOD LUCK EVERYONE!

GRADE 13

We've done our bit of cheering until our voices were hoarse, we've done our share of standing in the football field
 until the rain drove us for cover, we've done our fill of silly stunts until we ran out of crazy ideas, we've met and fought our teachers
 until they became our friends, we've been our part of the changing school
 and now its our turn.
 Goodbye NDSS
 you were good to us,
 but look out world:
 here we come,
 ready,
 willing, and able to meet your challenge and to make our destiny.

FAMOUS SAYINGS FROM THE OTTAWA EXCURSION

MPers "Massive Partiers" POW ... POW ... POW ...
 Let's have a pillow fight!
 The Security Guards are here. Again!
 Whose got my squirt gun?
 Did someone call a taxi?
 Where is ...?
 There is a big disturbance in room 1118.
 We have been framed.
 Who put the coat rack in the elevator?
 We have to go to the Parliament Buildings.
 World, Go on a spree!
 You hosehead!
 Don't worry Brian I'm not going to hit you.
 "How will I know..."
 There are thousands of people in the hall. Where?
 The beverages are so expensive at Helium!
 Let's have a whirlpool!
 Kevin, not again!
 You guys broke our bed!
 Who is in charge here ... Mother!

Down Memory Lane...

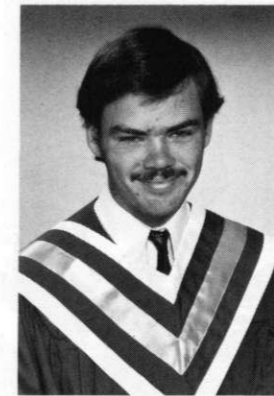

GRADE 12

Our journey is almost done here,
 some of us have one more year,
 some of us are ready to leave.
 Where ever we go,
 we'll always come back
 to these same walls,
 same classes,
 same teachers,
 if only in our memories.
 May our last year be the best,
 and our roads cross again!

GRADE 10

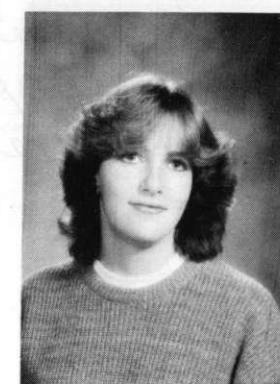

We're the noisy ones,
 ready to meet any challenge
 the time will throw yet it seems so far away
 --- the graduation.
 But we'll make it,
 we always do,
 not too many things
 are new anymore.

 Christine Worrall- "wiggles", smart, loud, wild
 Carmen Wright- mature, nice, great, outrageous

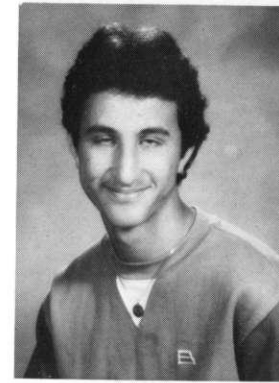

This list was completed by the grade tens who were asked to describe their best friends. After much editing, the list shows many contradictions just proving that they still don't really know one another.

GRADE 9

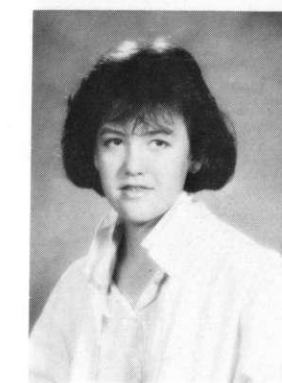

Well, that's over now,
 our first year here,
 it was scary,
 yet full of expectations
 and above all: fun!
 Now we know what it's all about,
 the exams, the teachers, the classes.
 And next year we'll come back,
 to our new-old friends,
 to make our dreams
 and to wield them to our wills, for the journey is still long.

WHERE'D ALL THESE PEOPLE COME FROM?

THIS IS MY GOOD SIDE!

HI! FROM THE WHOLE GANG

WHY'S EVERYONE LOOKING AT ME?

IF MY FRIENDS COULD SEE ME NOW.

DON'T YOU DARE TAKE MY PICTURE!

THIS IS MY NEW FRIEND!

I CAN'T GET THERE FROM HERE?

LIFE HERE IS VERY EXCITING

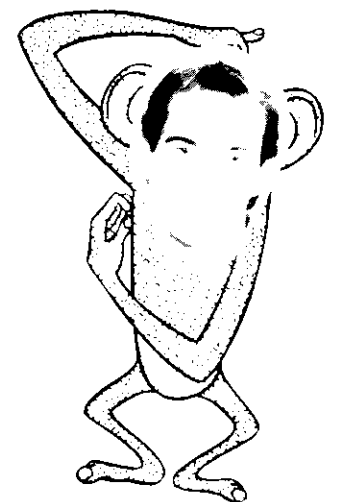

EXCUSE ME.. I'M CUTTING A TOOTH.

DO YOU THINK MY DIET'S WORKING?

WHO CALLED THIS MEETING?

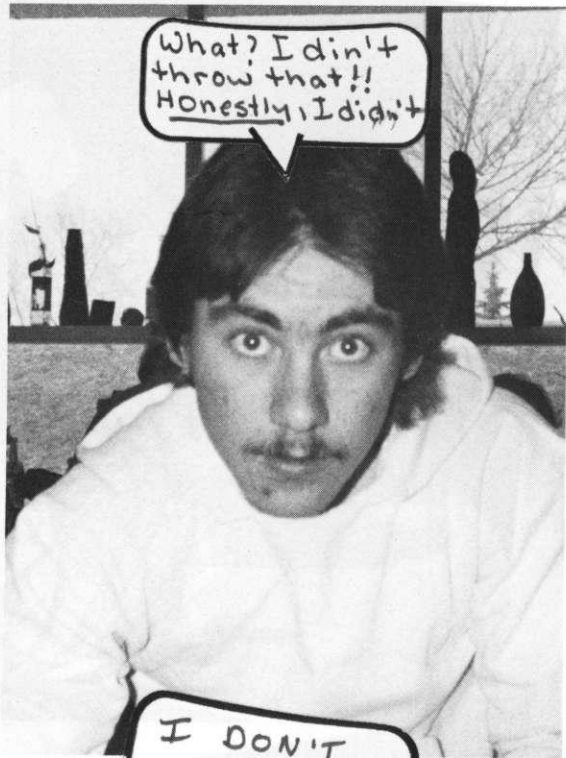

JUST WAIT 'TIL I GROW UP!

WHO COULD WORK UNDER THESE CONDITIONS?

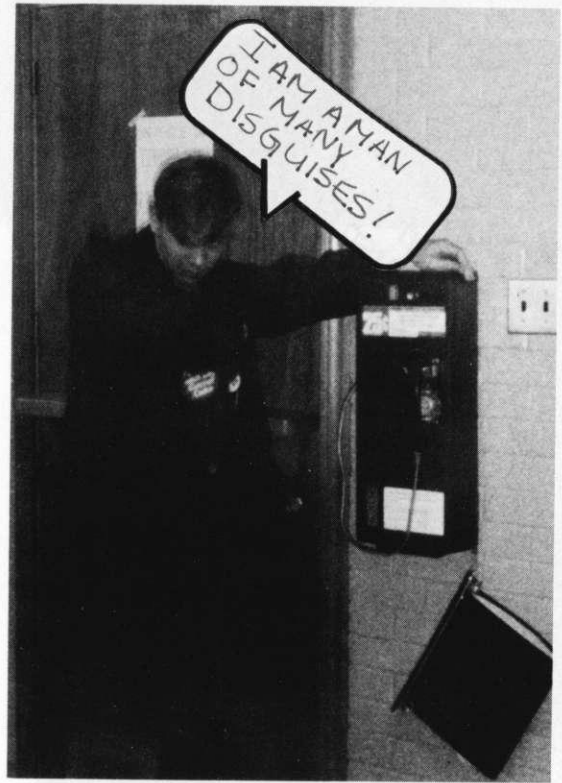

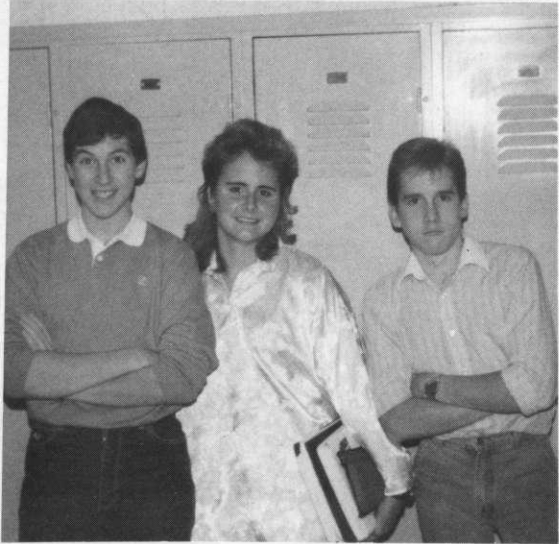

What? I didn't throw that!! Honestly, I didn't

I DON'T BITE!!

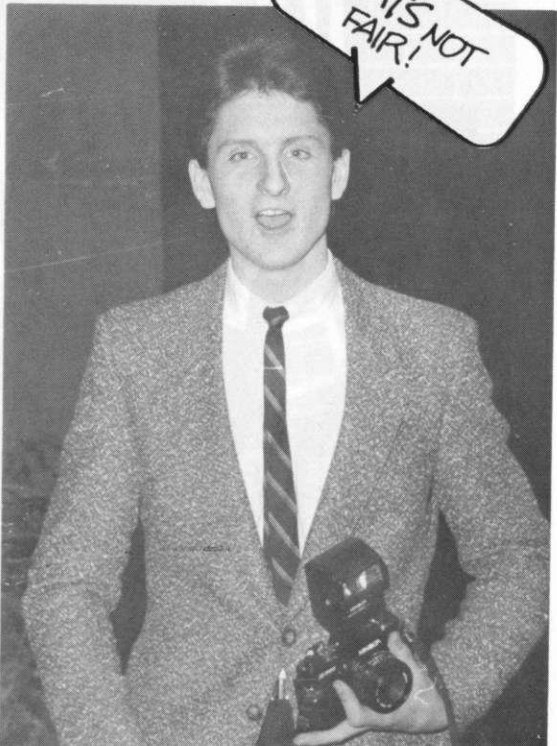

WHO ARE THOSE GUYS?

I AM A MAN OF MANY DISGUISES!

"GENTLEMEN, START YOUR ENGINES!"

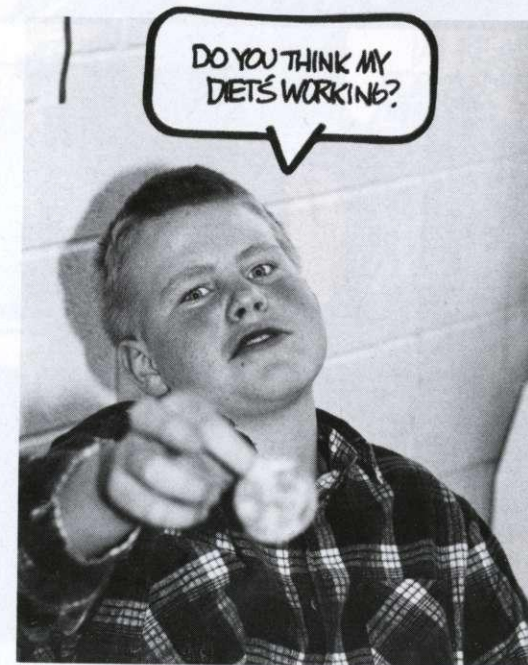

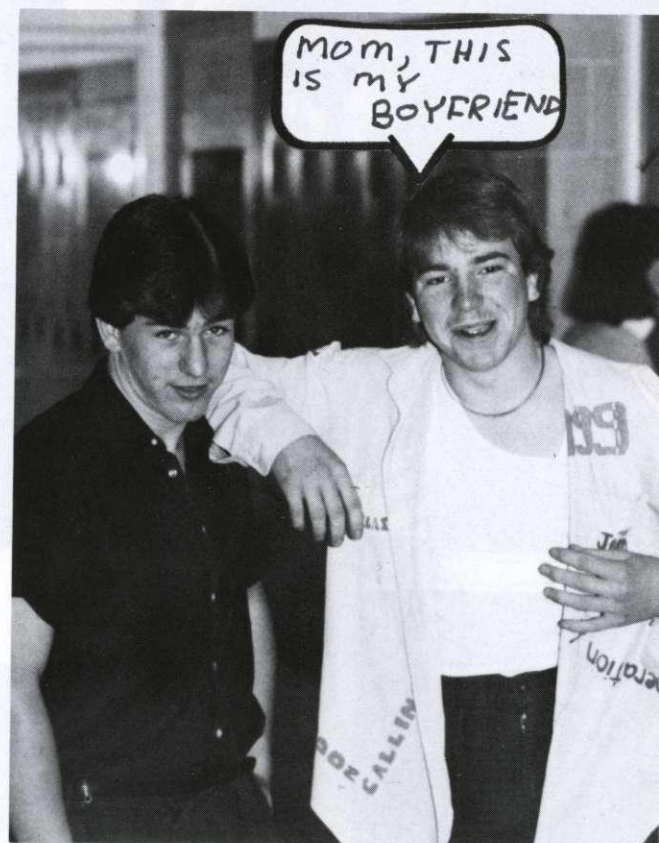

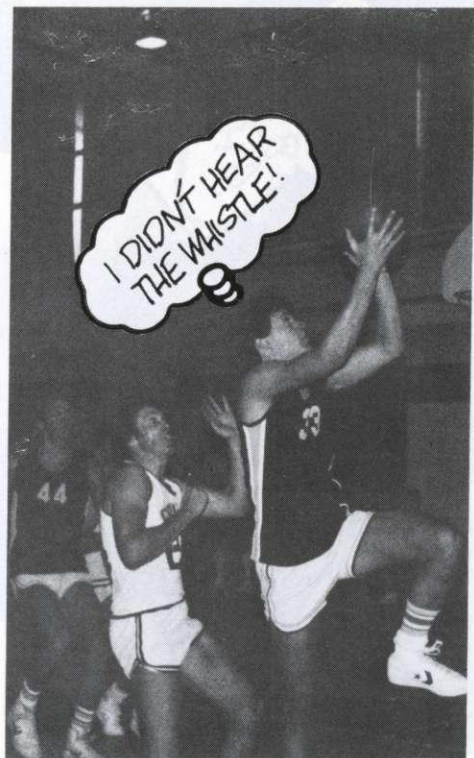

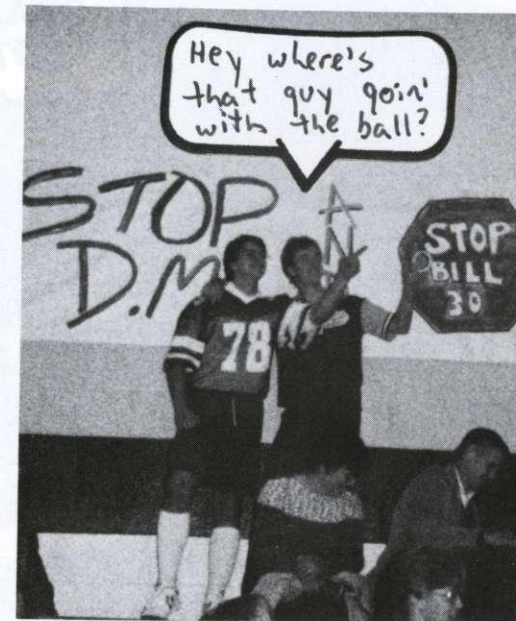

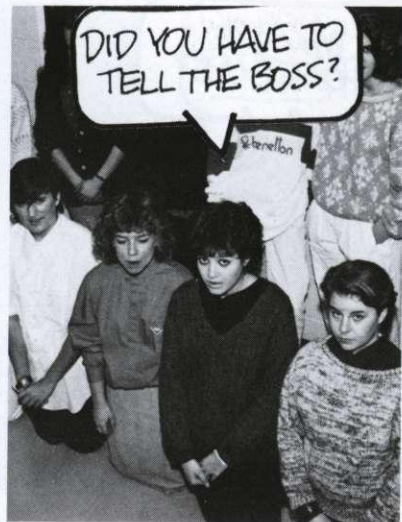

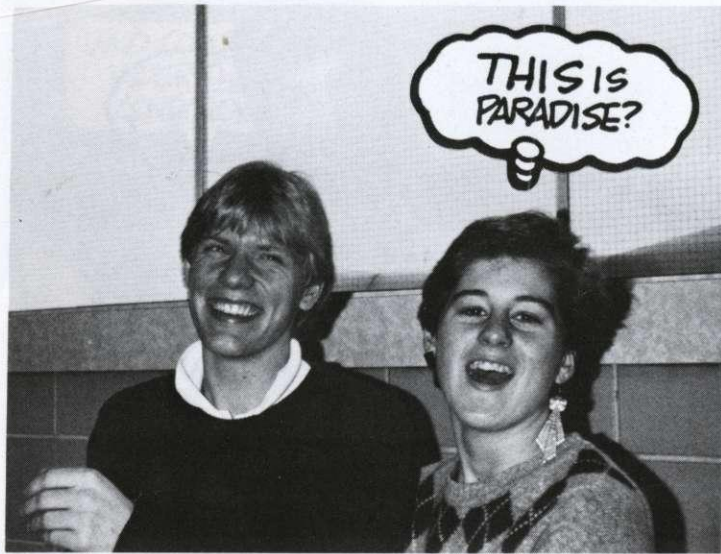

THAT'S NOT FAIR!

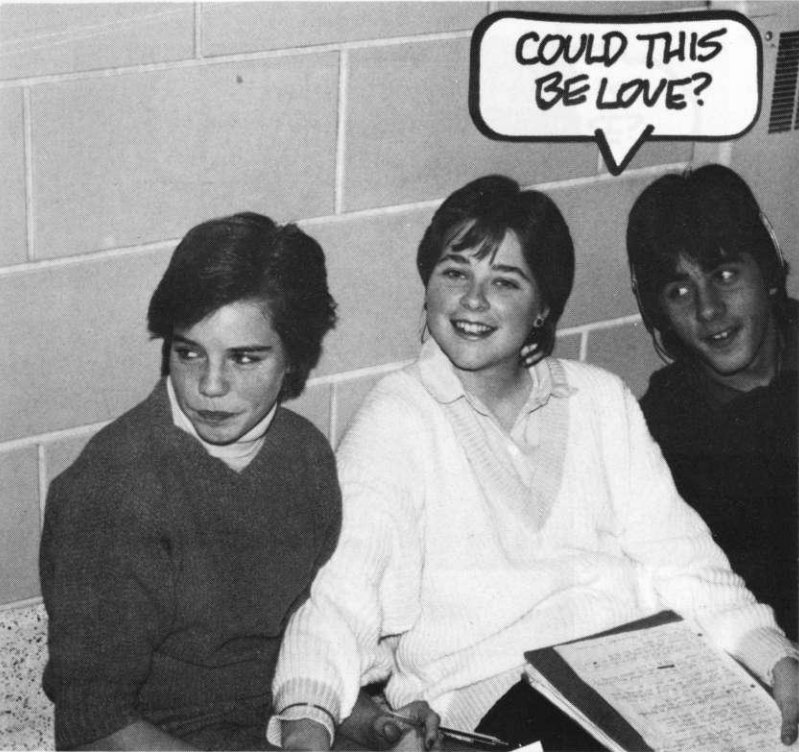

YOU CAN TRUST ME, REALLY!

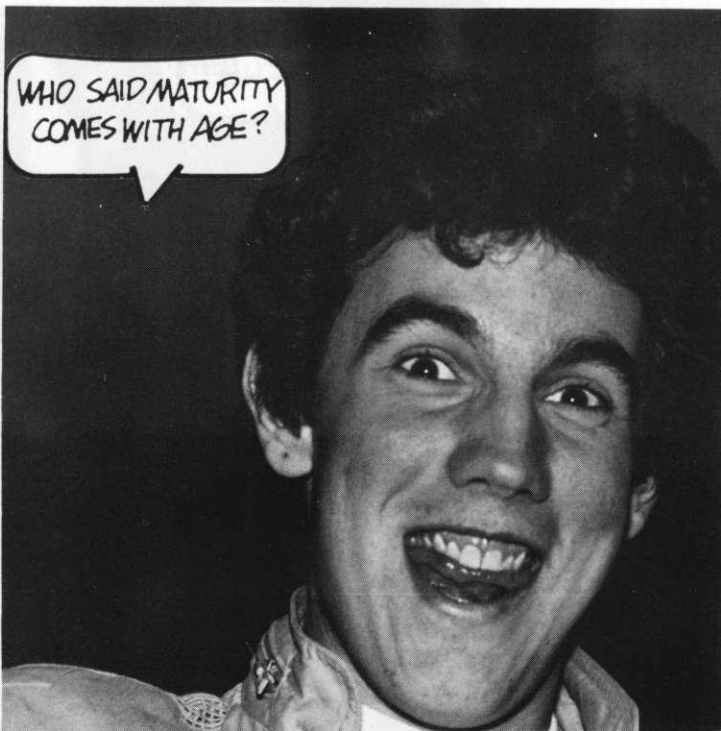

COULD THIS BE LOVE?

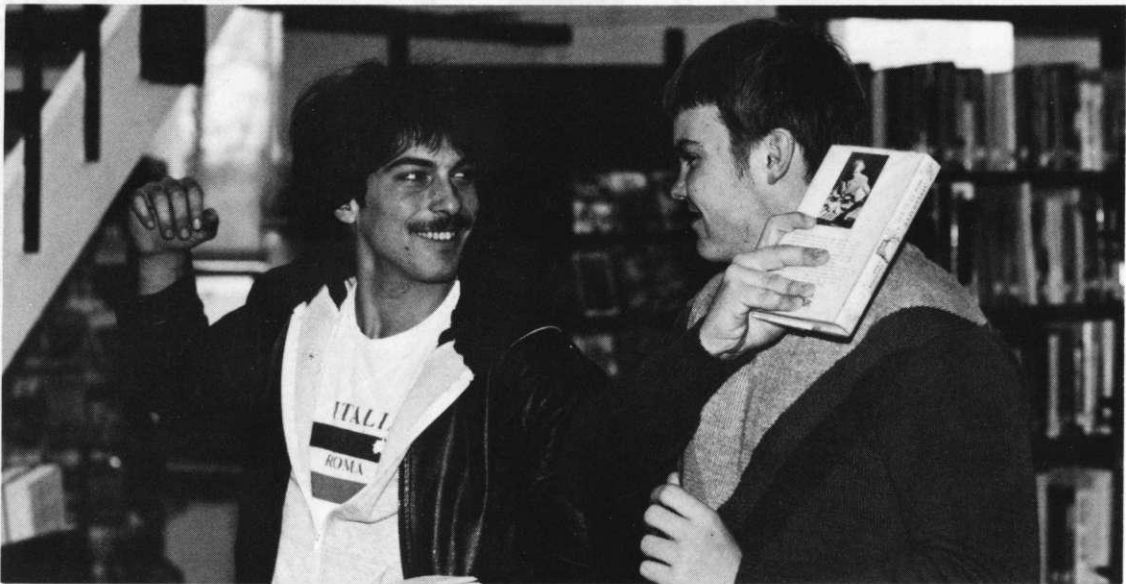

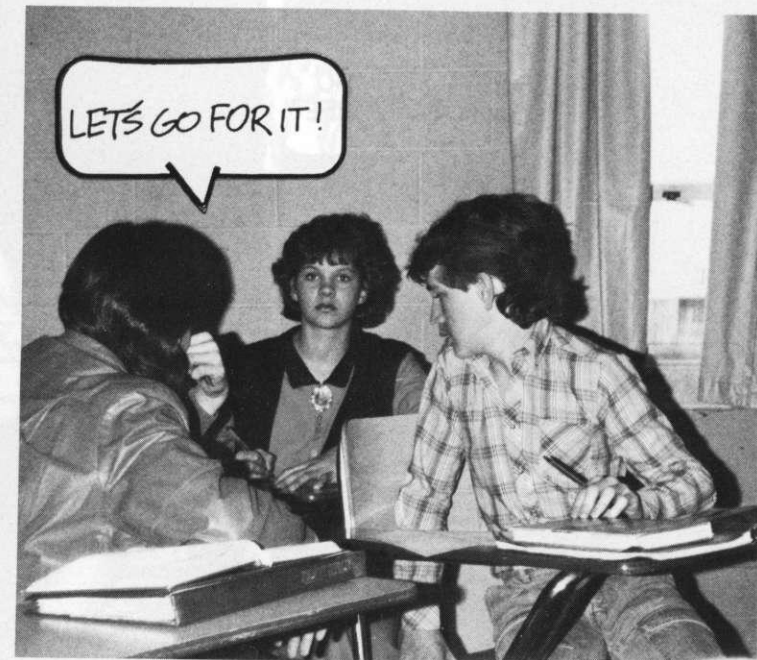

WHO SAID MATURITY COMES WITH AGE?

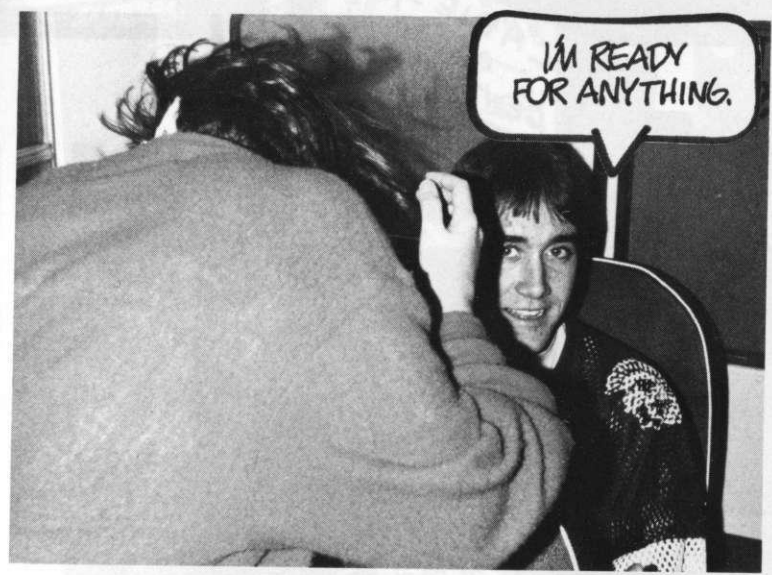

HI HOW ARE YOU? NICE TO SEE YOU! (GET COST)

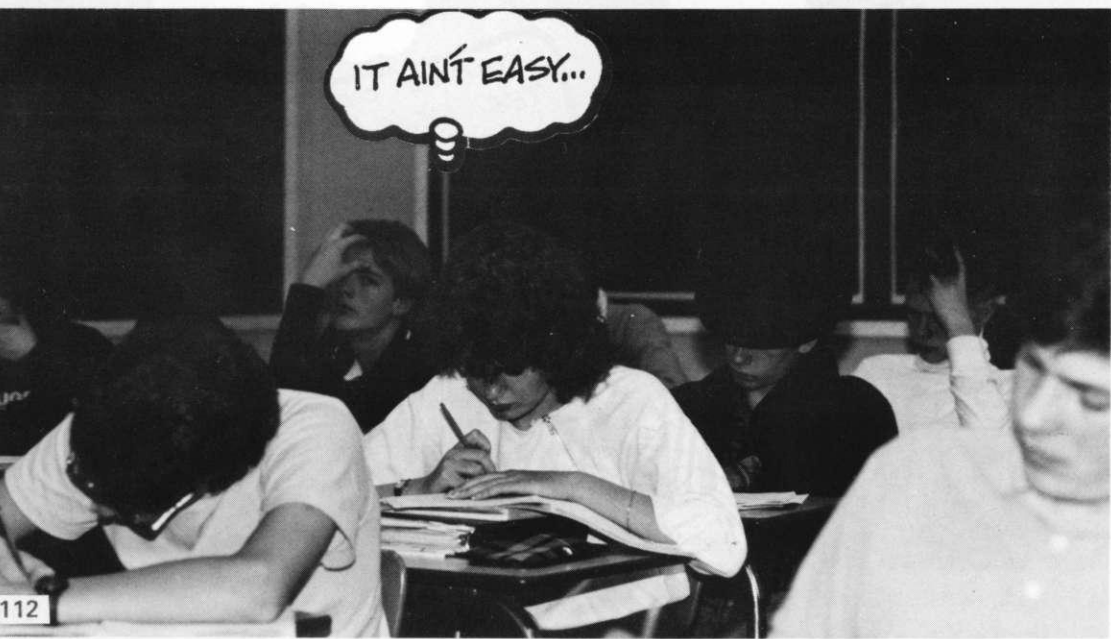

LET'S GO FOR IT!

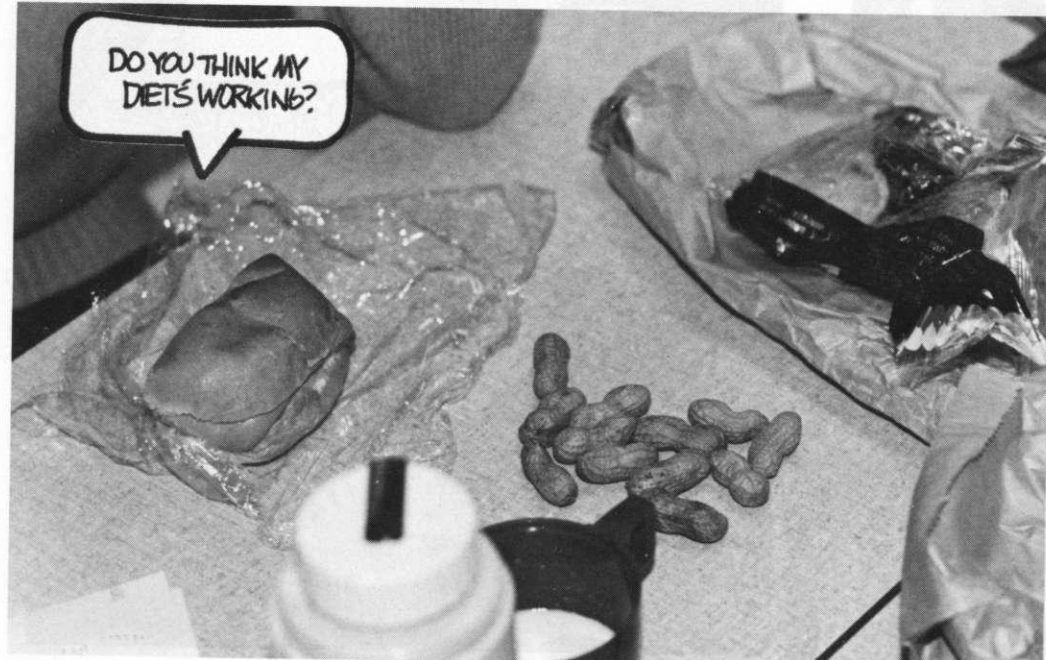

I'M READY FOR ANYTHING.

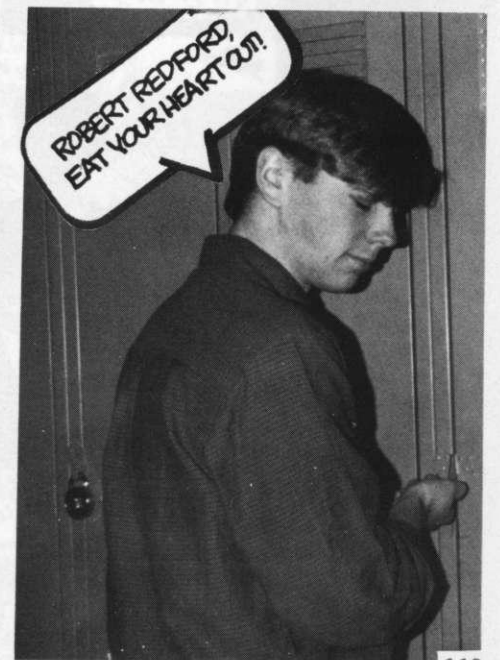

IT AIN'T EASY...

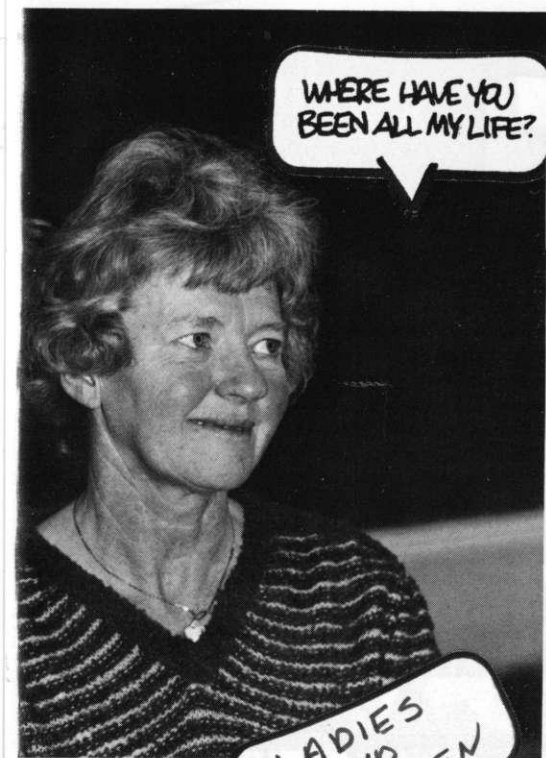

DO YOU THINK MY DIET'S WORKING?

behind an old tire.
How painfully
you remind me of my insecurity.
In your trustfulness,
you, a wild creature,
can sleep quietly,
without fear.

of your closed eyes
hurt me,
for I've lost mine
to the worries of the world.

Forget Him

Forget his name, forget his face
Forget his kiss, his warm embrace Forget the love that you once knew Remember he has someone new.

Forget him when they play your sons
Forget the nights you cried so long Forget how close you two once were Remember he has chosen her.

Forget you memorized his walk
Forget the way he used to talk
Forget the things he used to say
Remember now he's gone away.

Forget his laugh
Forget his grin
Forget the dimple in his chin
Forget the way he held you tight
Remember he's with her tonight.

Forget the time that went so fast
Forget the love that now is past Forget he said he'd leave you never Remember now he's gone forever.

Listen

Friends are not lost in time nor distance, for a memory lives on forever.
When you need comfort,
just listen to the wind on the grass,
the rain on the roof,
the silence of dimming evening.
There you'll find,
that you never really lost your friend,
only,
that her voice was drowned in the busyness.
If you take the time,
you'll always hear the voices of your friends,
in your memories and heart.
Where ever you go,
my friend,
I'll follow,
where ever you stay,
I'll be,
if only in my thoughts.

A mom's love is boundless

"You don't love me!"

How many time have your kids laid that one on you?

And how many times have you, as a parent, resisted the urge to tell them how much?

Someday, when my children are old enough to understand the logic that motivates a mother, I'll tell them.

I loved you enough to bug you about where you were going, with whom, and what time you would get home.

I loved you enough to insist you buy a bike with your own money that we could afford and you couldn't.

I loved you enough to be silent and let you discover your handpicked friend was a creep.

I loved you enough to make you return a Milky Way with a bite out of it to a drugstore and confess, "I stole this."

I loved you enough to stand over you for two hours while you cleaned your bedroom, a job that would have taken me 15 minutes.

I loved you enough to say, "Yes, you can go to Disney World on Mother's Day."

I loved you enough to let you see anger, disappointment, disgust and tears in my eyes.

I loved you enough not to make excuses for your lack of respect or your bad manners.

I loved you enough to admit that I was wrong and ask your forgiveness.

I loved you enough to ignore "what every other mother" did or said.

I loved you enough to let you stumble, fall, hurt and fail.

I loved you enough to let you assume the

ERMA

At Wit's End

responsibility for your own actions, at 6, 10 or 16.

I loved you enough to figure you would lie about the party being chaperoned, but forgave you for it ... after discovering I was right.

I loved you enough to shove you off my lap, let go of your hand, be mute to your pleas and insensitive to your demands ... so that you had to stand alone.

I loved you enough to accept you for what you are, not what I wanted you to be.

But most of all, I loved you enough to say no when you hated me for it. That was the hardest part of all.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit -
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its' twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learn,
And many a fellow turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out.

Don't give up though the pace seems slow -
You may succeed with another blow.
Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out -
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems far.
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit, -
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

All In One Day's Work

...And the wind alone
heard the cries
and the wind alone
saw the dead...
A beautiful day,
said the weather forecast,
a truly Indian summer day.
The leaves were of all colours now, nature had clothed the trees
in their brilliant gowns.
The quiet, crisp morning
smelled of goodwill,
and peace.
The roads waited for the cars to start,
lawnmowers sat in their garages,
hungry for the lush grass.
Then all hell broke loose.
A flash of blinding light,
all-destroying fire,
and the dust.
Then... nothing.
...And the wind alone
heard the cries
and the wind alone
saw the dead.
The winter had come.
Forever.

Such a pity
To live in society
Where life is controlled
By the way others think

Life is then a lie
To those who live it
And those who are victims of society
Suffer endlessly

People worry to much
About public opinion
And do what's acceptable
But not necessarily to themselves

So no one is really free
And this slavery
Hurts too many people
In too many ways

So Many Dreams

So many dreams
unrealized
- killed with the first frost of the heart
So many dreams
forgotten
- lost in the cluttered thoughts
So many dreams
unfulfilled
- shadows walking in blackened corridors
So many dreams
that never meet the right dreamer, they become just echoes of wishes
in the empty ears of the deaf.

Newspaper NDSS news

By JOSEPH PAUL WIEBE

Niagara District Secondary School's play for this year is Bye-Bye Birdy. Auditions were held and the cast has been selected. A lot of good actors have come out, and the show should prove to be a good one as usual.

On Oct. 8, many students from ND went to Toronto with students from other schools to see a dress rehearsal performance of the opera, Madama Butterfly. They had dinner at The Olde Spaghetti Factory in downtown Toronto. Most students felt the opera was a good experience and were glad to have had the opportunity.

The Students' Council for this year includes: Brian Duyn, president; Kevin Epp, senior vice-president; Gord Rand, junior vice-president; Brian Gilmour, treasurer; Forrest Miller, Ombudsman; Jim McIntyre, Boys' Athletic Association president; Kim DeBon, Girls' Athletic Association president; Christina Hambrook, social convener; David McClure, Spirit Club president; Tricia Goetz, secretary, and Joseph Paul Wiebe, literary representative.

The Student Council has done a lot of work, organizing the year's agenda, planning dances, setting up the Work-a-Thon, etc. and are really trying to make this year a great one at ND for all the students.

On Oct. 12, about 30 students went to Canada's Wonderland, where a band made up of students competed in an Air Band Contest. The song that they performed was one from a movie called Spinal Tap, a satire on Heavy Metal Music. They did not win, but they got to open for the Premiere band of the night.

The Athletic Association of ND are holding a raffle now of a great pair of expensive, leather basketball shoes. Last year, the same raffle was held, and Mr. Wilson of ND's Moderns Department won. This year, he has pledged to buy the first 50 tickets. Obviously, the shoes are very good. So, come on out and support your school's Athletics, and get a chance to win a great pair of shoes in the process.

By Joseph Paul Wiebe

On Tuesday, October 8, many students from Niagara District Secondary School went to Toronto to see the opera, Madama Butterfly at the O'Keefe Centre. We went along with some students from other schools in St. Catharines, and had dinner at The Olde Spaghetti Factory in downtown Toronto. Most students felt it was a good and interesting experience.

Auditions for the school play, which is probably going to be Bye-Bye Birdy, started last week. A lot of good talent has come out, but the play requires a lot of actors.

On Saturday, September 28, the Midget Trojan Girls played Midland and defeated them 37-14, Eastview 57-30, and St. Joe's 43-23 in tournament play. On Tuesday, October 1, our Junior Girls' basketball team played Holy Cross, and won 68-7. The Midget Trojan Girls also played Holy Cross, and won 56-27.

On Thursday, October 3, the Junior Girls defeated St. Catharines Collegiate 39 to 28. Also, on Saturday, September 28, the Junior Girls played in a tournament in Barrie, and lost in the final game, a close 54 to 52. On October 10, the Midget Lady Trojans won against Grantham 44-41. The Trojan Football team fought hard against Sir Winston Churchill on October 3, but lost 21-14. In tournament tennis play Phil Bowron and Shelley Kanters won first place in mixed doubles and Abby Neufeld and Carolyn Loewen won first in ladies doubles.

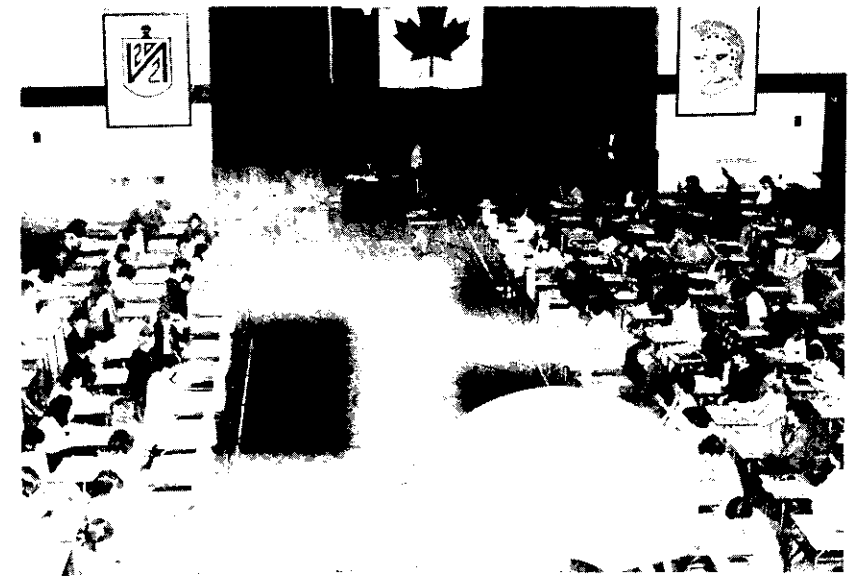

On Tuesday, October 15th, the Midget Trojan Girls defeated Lakeport 54-45 in a hard-fought game. The top scorer was Rhonda Taylor with 14 points. On Wednesday, October 16, the Junior Girls defeated Denis Morris 47 to 46. The Senior Girls' Volleyball is getting started now, and it looks as if we should have another great team.

The Athletic Associations are holding another raffle for a pair of leather basketball shoes. The tickets are selling for three for a dollar, and last year's winner, Mr. Wilson of the Moderns Dept. here at N.D., has bought the first 50 already. Obviously, these are great shoes. So, come on out and support your school's athletics. You could win a great pair of basketball shoes.

Our Intramural Sports program has just started, and a total of eight teams have been formed. The first sport this year is Co-ed Volleyball.

It seems that, this year, all our teams are doing very well, and let's hope that they can keep up the great work. Good luck!

ACTIVITIES

School Spirit

The purpose of the spirit club is to enhance school spirit and to get students involved with extracurricular activities. The spirit club is composed of various students throughout the school. These students are responsible for the organization of special events and extracurricular activities; they make the school year more enjoyable for everyone. This year (1985- 1986) the club was composed of fifty students, each unique and supporting, producing great achievements.

At the beginning of the year Niagara District soared with results, as various teams were successful and the spirit club galantly cheered them on. The exciting beginning to school was accompanied with the many maroon and blue days. Mid semester blaws were washed away with the booming success of Halloween week. Other weeks to follow were Christmas, Valentine, Easter, and Tropic week. The club also formed many special days, the most successful being p.j. day.

It's my opinion that the spirit club is a good way to bring students close together. We've had alot of criticism throughout the year but I know we tried hard-I'm proud of each member.

School spirit cannot be contained in just a number of people; to be successful it must come from everyone.

It's been a memorable year for me, one that I will always remember.

Junior Boys' Basketball

1st row: Craig Evans, Glen Davis, Ray Hunter, Andy Boldt, Chris Clarke. Back: Tim Sobschak, Rob Conkwright, Paul Lagerwerf, Mr. Probst- coach.

SOSSA Champs Sr. Boys Basketball

This year's Senior Boys' Basketball started slowly; however, by season's end it had won the SOSSA "A" Championship for the third straight year and came fourth in the Province at the OFSAA Championship.

The SOSSA Championship was a real thriller. Our team trailed by 6 points half way in the final quarter and seemed tired. However, some timely baskets by Bob Carmichael and Blair Creed enabled our team to rally and prevail over Weland Centennial by a 46 to 42 score. Allen MacDougall led all scorers with 20 points.

Our Seniors won the first two games at OFSAA. We defeated W.L.Eaket from Blind River by one point 56 to 55. Our team then easily defeated Osgoode Hall- a team from the Ottawa Valley by a 70 to 41 score. Then disaster struck. In the semi-final against Seaforth, injuries sidelined Bob Carmichael and Blair Creed while Mark Klassen, Jim McIntyre and Allen MacDougall succumbed to fouls. We lost by 12 points. In the bronze medal game our Trojans once again played W.L. Eaket and lost by 2 points, 70 to 68.

Allen MacDougall had a strong tournament scoring 114 points in the four games. The team showed steady improvement throughout the year and with most players returning our team should be a strong contender next year. We will miss our most improved player, Bryant Werner, along with Ralph Ens and Rob McClelland. We wish them well.

Reminiscing

The time for fighting,
war for peace, as is said.
Young men marched on,
and for our future now are dead.
Where the still bodies lie
the poppies now do grow,
And resemble the blood-stained soil of long ago.

The freedom that was wanted,
the poppy does portrait.
By them men who fought in agony,
through long and lonely days.
Men once prayed and hoped for the best.
Now they are buried - - forever at rest.

The poppy represents love and peace, not war.
This is what we must remember that the men were fighting for.
So as we remember
the suffering people's tears,
Try and recollect these things,
more than just one day
a year.

Kevin Boy, it sure has been a long time, Congratulations on the rotary medalists and good luck to you in the future keep in touch. Neil.

Autographs

Kevin David Letterman is the shittiest ever. I'll call you when you're rich or when you have an important career. Good luck in your future education. Love Maddy.

Kevin: You rotary type people deserved it. Good luck in your future. To come. Your friend Rob.

Let's have a little restraint here!
I'm a Jew. I'm short so I'll just sigh.
Andrew J. Monev (P.O. 2.35)

Kevin: Hey I think I will see you at Guelph I will be going then. Hope you had a great summer and have a great summer. P.S. Love Van Tamada for bella next time.

Kevin: I hate your guts (that's from Don). I'm really glad I got to know you this year. My sport wouldn't have been the same without you (driving me crazy). Don told me to mention you best at university. All the love Margaret. P.S. Keep in touch.

Dear Kevin, I decided I should write my epitaph here seeing that I will die next year due to a cruel murder by a certain person who we won't name but whose initials are K.K. Now, he wouldn't do that to me, would he? Haha, well if you ever try anything, I'll set Sherry's killer plants to hunt you down, so there!! Anyway, I hope to atleast see you once in a while at Guelph, and have a great summer now, don't get killed by any cats.

on anything like that now, so, now, now... I'm sure you're looking forward to hearing me laugh next year (nightmares!) after having a summer of silence. Ha-ha-hee-hee! Seriously folks, I hope you have one blast of a summer (don't blast anyone else) and see you next fall (oh no!). Love, Kimo & Me

beginning of a Wash's ark I've managed to already collect

Kevin - I gave up Chuck for you and know he'd be happier in your arms! HA HA Best of Luck in the future your Yoda friend

Hey kev congrats on your rotary award. Good luck in university or wherever you plan to party for the rest of your life. Kevin I to even pretty good knowing you. I hope something you will come back and visit. Your friend Rob Moppan

Kevin: It's been a boring year without having you in any of my classes. Have a wonderful summer. Good Luck. Ewing Feby

Dear Kevin I must first congratulate you on all of your marvellous achievements this year. Of course you deserved all that you got! (Good English eh?) Have a nice summer & I hope I get a chance to see you before you hit university. Good luck always. Love Kevin

P.S. Kelli's sup hi and good luck! It was fun playing soccer with you. Love you Rob G.

I'm not gonna get mind like last year, in fact I don't have much time because food suggested I put it away so I'll just say have a good summer and make sure you protect your thumb while cleaning the toilet. Joan

Kevin, I have been my extreme pleasure to share memories with you all the best animals, I wish you a great summer, drop in + say "hello" love Mayo.

Kevin, I was glad I got to meet you, you a great guy to know. I was glad you won the soccer award because you certainly deserved it, you held the team together in times of despair. Since you won't be here next year we going to get new uniforms and win the championship. Here a great time at university, and don't kill too many animals. We're all going to miss you.

Dear Kevin, I agree with Laura second medalist. You are one of them. Good luck! I know you will be successful. Thanks for the lots of love Michelle Iris my son, Kevin, it has been fun over the years. We've always faked and laughed! I'm going to bring all my pets to you! Keep everyone smiling like you do. Sky, Congrats about winning Rotary medalists! Take care of yourself, and keep in touch. Love you, your mom, Chris/Hambree

Kevin, I'm sure you're terribly upset that this year has come to an end so quickly & I know why. YOU'RE GOING TO MISS ME! Right? You'll look back & ask yourself why you were so mean to me & then you'll be sorry. I wish you the best of luck in the future + hope to see you around! Have a great summer & take care!

Kevin, soccer was great and I'm glad I was on the team with you. Congratulations on all your awards. Have a good summer and good luck in university. Love Eric Paul

Vets - 2001 - Good luck to your lives Row

Kevin, it was great having you for a soccer coach. Well hang loose in university!

Dear Eddie - alias (Van Halen) Someday you will grow your hair long enough to be my hero! Even though you are just about that now well the year is finally over and over though we weren't in any classes I still saw you quite a bit at all the "exciting parties" and the fabulous parties.

Kevin,
 I'm glad to see that there is no funny pictures of me in this yr's yearbook that you can't cut me up for. Congratulatory on the winning of Rotary medalist. The last 5 years have been great - no doubt about it. We've shared a lot of good times - that a laugh + '2. Calculus was a killer but we've survived. Or what about Spisak our great French class in gr. 9. Typing in gr. 10 with Mrs. Hunter was another joke. Finally the time we spent outside the classroom - Blue Jays game, Athletic Banquet Michelle's fabulous Bash. I guess that is enough reminding we can't forget about John's reminishing now-onto the future! I wish you all the best at Guelph. I'm sure you will go on to be Canada's Best Vet!! But for now - BE HAPPY! :)

Well Kevin: well until this year I didn't even know you. Too bad it was so late. Well I hope you had as much fun at the formal "Prom"
as I did. ~~By~~ Just kidding.
all. I can say is I wish I was Sober. Oh' well. hope to see you over the summer and good luck at Guelph!

Love always Sean

Kevin, this year I seem to have having around with you more than ever before 12. Prom night and swimming in Lake Ontario at Distas Beach.
It's been a lot of fun both in and out of class. I'm sure you'll do well on your exams so I won't wish you good luck (what a friend eh!). I'd go on but...
Oh NO!!! I think ~~that~~ I'm in the wrong commercial (I'm dreaming I'm in Thrifty's) Ba du, Ba du, Ba du, Cheap cheap cheap!!!
