COUNTY JAIL STATISTICS.

CRIME IN KINGSTON IS RAPIDLY DECLINING.

A Comparison With Committals Twenty-Two Years Ago—Only Ninety During the Past Year Against 315 in 1878.

Jailer C. H. Corbett has made the following return of statistics for the year ending Sept. 30th, 1900, to the Ontario government:

Number of prisoners in jail on Oct. 1st, 1899; 8 males and 4 females. Number committed during the past year, 74 males and 16 females, total 90; under 16 years of age, 6 males and 2 females; for first offence, 70 males and 16 females; second offence 3 males; third offence, 1 male; number sent from jail to Central prison, 10; to Mercer reformatory, 7; to penitentiary, 1; to reformatory for boys, 5; total number of days prisoners in custody, 3,103; number whose maintenance defrayed by government, 37, and by municipalities, 53.

Nationality of prisoners.—Canadian, 76; English, 5; Irish, 5; United States 3; other countries, 1. Religious denominations.—Roman Catholics, 23; Church of England, 26; Methodist, 27; Presbyterian, 13; other denominations, 1. There were no prisoners of Scotch nationality committed. Half of the female prisoners committed to jail were Methodists. Number of married prisoners, 29; unmarried, 61; number who could neither read nor write, 13; number of prisoners temperate, 25; intemperate, 65. Number in custody on Oct. 1st, 1900, 10 males and 4 females.

Offences—Abusive language, 1 female; assault, 4 males; abduction, 4 males and 1 female; contempt of court, 1; deserting employment, 1 male; destroying and injuring property, 3 males; drunk and disorderly, 29 males and 4 females; indecent assault and exposure, 2 males and 1 female; inmate of house of ill-fame, 1 male and 1 female; keeping houses of ill fame, 1 female; larceny, 22 males and 4 females; lunatics, 1 male and 1 female; perjury, 1 male; prostitution, 1 female; rape, 2 males; receiving stolen goods 1 male; seduction, 1 male; vagrancy, 5 males; other offences, 2.

Trades—Agents etc., 1; carpenters, 1; clerks, 3; engineers, 1; farmers, 7; latters, 1; laborers, 34; masons, 1; moulders, 1; printers, 1; sailors, 10; servants, 8; bookbinders, 1; cheesemakers, 1; soldiers, 2; no occupation, 17.

Crime in Kingston has diminished to a most remarkable extent during the past twenty-two years. In 1878, the number of committals was 315; in 1880 the number decreased to 257; in 1884, a further decrease to 178 is noted; in 1897 the number was 127; in 1899 it was 101, and in 1900 the committments have fallen to 90. Kingston surely should be called the holy city, instead of Toronto.

Married On Saturday.

A very quiet wedding was celebrated on Saturday evening when Miss Edith Smythe, eldest daughter of Dr. E. H. Smythe, Q.C., was married to Capt. R. Sutherland, of the 14th P.W.O.R. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev., the dean of Ontario, in the presence of the immediate relatives of bride and groom. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Ida Sutherland, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid. Capt. and Mrs. Sutherland left by the evening train for Montreal and will spend their honeymoon in the United States. The bride wore a blue travelling costume and hat to match. Best wishes for happiness are expressed by the many friends of the bride and groom.

Perfect Harmony Prevailed.

Saturday evening in the Whig and reform halls meetings of liberals of four wards were held for the purpose of electing delegates to a convention to nominate a candidate for the dominion house of commons. The ward meetings were the largest in recent years and enthusiasm and harmony prevailed; not the slightest shade of friction arose to mar the perfect concord of the meetings. Delegates to the convention were elected as well as sub-division chairmen. A convention will be held some night this week; the exact date has not yet been fixed.

It Will Be Attractive.

The harvest home of St. Paul's, Sydenham, was last year a spectacular event as well as a successful outing. This year there is to be increased attraction. Rev. W. P. Reeve has secured pledge of a visit from the Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, and addresses will be delivered also by J. W. Bell, M.P., W. A. Martin, Dr. Sands and F. S. Wartman, local leaders. The sermons at the morning and evening services will be preached by rural dean Macnorine and Prof. Worrell.

Will Be Here To-Morrow.

"Will be here Tuesday. Will bring signed lease with us," were the contents of a telegram received this morning by secretary Gordon, of the smelter syndicate, from Louis Meyers, Ottawa. The Meyers brothers and other members of the syndicate will arrive to-morrow morning, to remain for some days getting matters into shape for the erection of the proposed smelter.

Arrested In Toronto.

Sergt. Hazelton, "A" battery, Kingston, is in Toronto looking for deserters. On Saturday he arrested William McClary, a seventeen-year-old youth, whose home is at 276 Berkeley street. Mr. McClary was locked up at Court street station and will remain in custody until Sergt. Hazelton is prepared to take him back to the limestone city.

Eyes And Nose Ran Water.

C. G. Archer, of Brewer, Maine, says: "I have had catarrh for several years. Water would run from my eyes and nose for days at a time. About four months ago I was induced to try Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and since using the wonderful remedy I have not had an attack. It relieves in ten minutes." Fifty cents. Sold by E. C. Mitchell.—17.

L. N. Fulton, Montreal, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for misappropriating funds, has been removed to St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary.

SPORTING PARAGRAPHS.

The Various Events Which Have Created Interest.

Argonauts II won from the Torontos by five points to three.

McGill outplayed the Britannias in Montreal, winning by a score of five to one.

The Peterboros, intermediates, walloped St. Mary's by thirty-seven to nothing.

London's intermediate team rolled up a big score against Sarnia on Saturday, winning by thirty-six to nothing.

Samuel Asselstine, Verona, will match Waxford, jr., against Sam Harkness' D.L.C. Harkness is ready at any time.

The Argonauts, Toronto, on Saturday decisively defeated the Hamilton Tigers by twenty-one to one. It was a fairly good game to watch.

The Brockville team in an exhibition game with the Royal military college cadets at Brockville, on Saturday, won by seventy-four to nothing. The cadets were afraid of the mud.

Several Rough Riders tried their best to knock out Hamilton, Granites clever centre half back, but they found it almost impossible. Once Hamilton received a kick which took away his wind for a few minutes.

The cup which the Granites won last year is on view in the window of Samuel Harkness' hotel, Wellington street. It stands on a pedestal covered by a union jack and beneath are the words, "What we have we'll hold." Granite colors are entwined around the base of the pedestal.

A gentleman named McGuire, who carries the charter of the Argonauts around in his back pocket, has protested "Jack" Elliott, of the Granites, on the ground of professionalism. He will find he has a hard proposition in hand to prove his case. "Jack" never got a penny piece nor the value of one for his assistance to amateur athletics.

Read His Own Obituary.

Dr. George E. Morrison, Pekin correspondent of the London Times, happily survives to read obituary columns about him produced in London and his native Australia. In Geelong, his birthplace, on receipt of the cablegram including his name among the victims of the supposed massacre the flags of the town hall, the public institutions and the principal business establishments were hoisted half-mast. Sympathy with the widowed mother and the relatives residing at the Geelong college was universal. Having survived perils in all sorts of lands and water during twenty years, the versatile medical-journalist-explorer can now challenge fate to do its worst and look forward with serene confidence to writing his reminiscences at fourscore.

Prince Edward County.

William V. Pettit, M.P., is conducting an energetic campaign in Prince Edward county. He has arranged for a series of evening meetings, which will be addressed by J. Lockie Wilson and other speakers in his interest. The series will open on Oct. 2nd at Demorestville. Other meetings will be held at Bloomfield on Oct. 3rd, Cherry Valley, Oct. 4th, and Milford, Oct. 5th. At the last election Mr. Pettit was returned with the respectable majority of 221, and reports from the county indicate that he has lost none of his popularity he then enjoyed.

New Secretary Here.

Secretary Page, the newly appointed official of the local Y.M.C.A., is expected to arrive in city to-morrow. He will be formally installed in his new office Wednesday night at a meeting of directors. The former secretary, W. J. Mallagh, is also expected to be in attendance at that meeting and assist at the induction of his successor. The ladies who were members of the swimming class will formally show their appreciation of the privileges accorded them in use of the Y.M.C.A. building by the directors.

Death Of Mrs. Baxter.

The death occurred Saturday evening of Mrs. Baxter, relict of the late W. L. Mackenzie Baxter, for many years local inspector of weights and measures. The deceased, aged sixty years, suffered a stroke of paralysis on Friday, from the effects of which she did not rally. A grown up family survive. The funeral will take place to-morrow from her late residence, Chatham street, and will be quiet.

Nurses' Alumnae Meeting.

The nurses alumnae meeting at the general hospital this evening, will be addressed by Miss Jennie Cameron Smith, returned missionary from Japan, who will speak on "The Condition of Women in Japan." The alumnae president has invited the members of the local Anglican woman's auxiliary and their friends to be present.

Inland Revenue Collections.

Collections on account of excise at the inland revenue office for September: Spirits, $3,170.93; malt, $5,109.45; tobacco and cigars, $3,588.60; bonded factory vinegar, $220.27; other receipts, $7.50; total collections, $12,096.75.

Topics Of The Day.

Every one is surprised at the rapidity and efficacy with which Nerviline—nerve pain cure—relieves neuralgia and rheumatism. Nerviline is a specific for all nerve pains and should be kept on hand by every family.

Peter Grant, Wolfe Island, to-day assumed the duties of second turnkey at the county jail, in place of John K. Dawson, who will attend Queen's medical college this session.

The three remaining daughters of a citizen prominent in dominion politics will be married between the present time and January 1st, or at the rate of one each month.

Rev. T. J. Glover's school opened at "Hillcroft," Union street west, to-day, with an increased attendance. The prospects for the school are exceedingly bright.

The firemen were called out on Saturday evening to extinguish a small blaze in rear of Mills' hat store on Wellington street. A pile of paper was blazing.

Michael James, of Atlanta, Georgia, will return home to-morrow after spending the past summer with his father, Martin James, University avenue.

The Kingston medical and surgical society resumes its meetings at the general hospital this evening.

W. P. Peters, Division street, is recovering after his long illness of typhoid fever.

The Steamer Pierrepont brought forty tons of coal from Ogdensburg this morning.

SCHOOL ROOM DEDICATED.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN ZION CHURCH SUNDAY.

Sermons by Principal Grant and Rev. M. Macgillivray—An Address to Children by Rev. A. Laird—Building Nearly Free of Debt.

On Sunday the new Sunday-school, recently erected in connection with Zion Presbyterian church, was dedicated under very promising circumstances. The music during the several services was especially prepared, and was of a nature to be much appreciated. The church proper and the new Sunday-school room were both tastefully decorated with flags, bunting, potted plants and flowers.

The attendance at the morning service was fair, Principal Grant, who officiated, read a lesson from St. John II, beginning at the thirteenth verse. There was no wonder said the principal, that Jesus had a reverence for holy things. The sale of animals in the temple began in a good practice—the collection of cattle and sheep at the house of God for purposes of sacrifice. So full of indignation was Christ at the sight that he drove the sellers from the house of God. The body was the true temple of God, in which nothing vile or impure should ever be allowed to dwell. At the house specially dedicated to God, and in that house they had just finished building for their children to worship God in, they should always enter with reverence. They had done remarkably well in raising such a beautiful building for their Sunday-school and in paying for it all except $200. An effort on their part would soon wipe off the entire debt.

The principal preached from Genesis xxviii, taking as his subject Jacob's dream. When they read what Jacob dreamed it showed rather plainly what his parents once taught him. It showed his great faith in God. In those days dreams were one of the channels through which God spoke to man. So Jacob was right in taking the dream as a God-given message. He there dedicated himself to God, and called the name of the place Bethel, meaning the house of God. From that day Bethel was considered a holy place. Now people worshipped God as a spirit, as the Father, as a Saviour and as the ever-abiding Comforter and Sanctifier, inspiring to good deeds and good thoughts. They should have some of the reverence that Jacob had for the house of God. The name of Iona would ever be sacred to the church of Scotland for the wonderful work of evangelization done in Scotland through missionaries who received inspiration there. And so a church or a Sunday school was the place where God had promised to meet with man. When God's children passed the broken bread, He certainly was with them, or else it was their own fault. It was their privilege that God's all-seeing eye was everywhere.

The principal closed by hoping that God would bless them and make their house a Bethel—a very house of God.

During the offertory a quartette, "Be Thou My Guide," was rendered by members of the choir, Mr. and Mrs. Dales taking the solos. In the afternoon there was a large attendance at the special services conducted in the new school room, where Rev. Alexander Laird gave an address.

In the evening Rev. M. Macgillivray occupied the pulpit, the attendance being very large. Large collections, taken during the day, went a long ways towards wiping off the debt on the new building.

Police Court Tidings.

At the police court this morning Thomas Holmes, a drunk, was fined $5 and costs or one month in jail in default of payment. He took the month. Frank Potter, on the same charge was dismissed.

Police constable Aiken returned from Belleville last evening with Henry Berman, who was charged by Joseph Abramson with the theft or wrongful appropriation of $160, value of goods supplied. Prisoner is a brother of Noah Berman, recently tried on a similar charge for a lesser amount. D. M. McIntyre appeared for Abramson and R. M. Britton, Q.C., M.P., for prisoner. After lengthy evidence was gone into the magistrate returned a verdict of no case and the prisoner was discharged.

After a Thorough Course.

The hall in the old collegiate institute building, in which First Church of Christ, Scientist, worships was well filled at both services yesterday with a thoroughly appreciative congregation. The church was established upwards of four years ago. The readers of the church started the work here six years ago, and last June had the privilege of receiving a thorough course of instruction at the Massachusetts metaphysical college, in Boston, of which the Rev. Mary Baker G. Eddy, discover and founder of Christian Science is president.

Funeral Largely Attended.

Brewer's Mills, Oct. 1.—The funeral of Mrs. William Shortall, Washburn, took place on Sunday to St. Barnaby's cemetery and was largely attended. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. Mrs. M. and Miss E. A. Webb spent Sunday in the city. Miss Mary Webb has gone to Montreal to visit her brother. J. P. Bower, after a week's illness, is able to be out again. On Tuesday W. and P. Milne, Kingston, paid a flying visit to their parents. A few from here took in the fair at Lyndhurst last week.

Returned From A Trip.

A number of New York Central railway officials, who were on a hunting and fishing expedition up the Rideau, returned home on Saturday afternoon. They went over to Cape Vincent on the steamer New Island Wanderer, and their songs, etc., while on board, were very entertaining. A private car awaited them at Cape Vincent.

A Box of Heather Received.

William Massie, lumber merchant, has received a large box of heather from an Edinburg, Scotland, gentleman. The pleased recipient will keep the favorite flower until St. Andrew's night, or the anniversary of Burn's birth, when he will distribute it among his Scottish friends. The heather is particularly fine, and the donor was careful to send a good quantity.

WEDDING AT ODESSA.

A Popular Society Belle Weds a Young Torontonian.

Odessa, Sept. 28.—On Wednesday evening last, Sept. 26th, there was a happy reception given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Davy, in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Sidanna May, to Alexander W. Bell, Toronto. About thirty of the most intimate friends of the bride and groom were present to welcome the young couple from their eastern trip. It is the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Bell to leave on Monday for their home in Toronto, and we combine our best wishes for their happiness and prosperity in their new life. We regret very much in losing Mrs. Bell from our midst as she was the star of village society and her absence from church work and public life will be greatly missed. She was a general favorite as was plainly manifested in the large attendance at the wedding and the numerous and valuable wedding gifts. Mrs. Bell was a member of the Methodist church choir, a Sunday-school teacher, and musical director of the primary class in the Sabbath school. Her winning manners gained her many friends among old and young, and we trust that her services will be as fruitful in other parts of God's vineyard.

Burial Corps Off.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 1.—A burial corps will take passage on the transport Hancock to-day. Free transportation to the United States of the bodies of the soldiers, sailors and civilians who lost their lives and were buried in the Philippines and China. All the bodies recovered are to be given an honorable burial in the United States at places selected by the next of kin. In all cases where not otherwise ordered the interment will be made in the national cemeteries, with preference for the cemetery at the Presidio at San Francisco and the Arlington cemetery, near Washington. The approximate number of bodies to be exhumed is 1,331.

England's Election Begins.

London, Eng., Oct. 1.—The polling in the general election began to-day, and will end on the 15th. Popular enthusiasm is singularly missing. The house just dissolved was composed of 399 ministerials, and 271 opposition, giving the government a majority of 128. Conservative organs are confident that the "khaki issue" will give them an increased majority. The liberal and radical organs on the other hand, are not at all confident. The followers of Mr. Chamberlain believe that the result will show him to be the uncrowned king of England.

More Imported Aliens.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—A clear case of contravention of the alien labor law is reported from Guelph. The Raymond sewing machine people, who operate a cream separator there, it appears, have imported a number of Swedes from Newark, New Jersey. This importation appears to be part of a bargain made with the Newark firm from whom the Guelphites secure their raw material. Inspector Williams will visit Guelph to investigate.

Opened In Jerusalem.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 1.—It was learned at Yale university to-day that the American school for oriental research in Palestine is now ready for work. The school was started by the archaeological institute of America, but was made possible by the co-operation of twenty American colleges. The work was put under the immediate direction of Prof. C. Torrey, of Yale university. Oriental research in Jerusalem will now be carried on systematically by Americans.

2,000 Chicago Saloons Close.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 1.—About two thousand saloon-keepers closed their doors with the coming of this month. Most of these were keepers of small saloons who depended on the sale of beer by measure, and have been unable to realize any profit since the rise in the price of beer. The prohibitionists are rejoicing, but there are nearly 5,000 saloons still open. This means a falling off of $1,000,000 in revenue fees of the city.

To Make Guam A Naval Station.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 1.—Lieutenant Beecher of the commission appointed on the improvements of the Island of Guam, is expected to sail from San Francisco to-day. The commission is a mixed one of army and navy officers. They are: Capt. Merry, now on duty at the naval station in Honolulu; Maj. Biddle of the army engineer corps, now in the Philippines, and lieutenant Beecher.

Fair View Facts.

Fair View, Oct. 1.—Fall ploughing and the digging of potatoes are the order of the day. The heavy winds blew nearly all the fruit off the trees. Corn husking bees are numerous. Henry Bennett, Watertown, N. Y., spent a few days with Stephen Bennett and J. Bennett. H. Ming has finished his hop picking. Mrs. A. B. Stover, Odessa, spent a few days at S. Vanalstine's. Reuben Snider spent a day last week at A. D. Snider's.

Gives Her Nurse $1,000,000.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Ora Horsman, a pretty nurse here, is worth perhaps $1,000,000, due to the beneficence of Mrs. William Porter, Boston. Mrs. Porter is eighty-five years old and feeble. She lives in the Back Bay district, and there has been nursed and cared for by Mrs. Ora Horsman. On Sept. 5th Mrs. Porter paid her nurse with $80,000, and on Sept. 9th made a will leaving Mrs. Horsman all her property.

Found Dead In His Room.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—W. T. Casgrain, a civil and contracting engineer, a man of distinguished Canadian family, was found dead in his room on Friday. A gas jet was turned on and it is believed that death was wilfully sought. He died in a hotel where he had registered under an assumed name.

Wound Proved Fatal.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 1.—Charles A. Collier, former mayor of this city, and United States commissioner to the Paris exhibition, is dead from a pistol shot. It is generally believed he shot himself while chasing a burglar.
