Youth Convicted Of Assault, Gets Seven Days In Jail

William Warren, 19, of Georgina Island, was sentenced to seven days in jail when convicted of common assault on Friday, August 24.

The charge was laid by Miss Mona Porte, also of Georgina Island, who appeared in court with a black eye and bruised face. The incident occurred at Parkside Lodge, Island Grove, on August 19, but no charge was laid until Tuesday, August 21.

The original charge of assault causing bodily harm was reduced to the one of common assault by Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake who said in sentencing Warren that he was taking into consideration the fact that he had been retained in custody since his arrest on Tuesday. Warren had a previous assault conviction.

Miss Porte testified that about 2 a.m. on Sunday, August 19, Warren came to a cabin at Parkside Lodge which had been rented by her cousin, John Big Canoe and in which she was visiting with a friend, Ross Cameron. Miss Porte said that she worked for Mrs. Carson Pollock, the operator of Parkside Lodge.

Continuing her testimony, Miss Porte told the court that Warren "forced his way into the cabin and started beating me". When asked by Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong what Warren had done to her, she replied, "He hit me in the face".

Miss Porte said there was nothing to drink in the cabin, but that she had been drinking at Lake Simcoe Hotel earlier in the evening. She said Warren smelled of liquor.

Shortly after Warren arrived at the cabin, Cameron left, Miss Porte said. "Warren was cursing and swearing at me", she continued.

"Did you curse and swear at him?" asked the defense counsel.

"A little".

"Did you say things about his mother and family?"

"Well, he said things about me," she replied.

The defense counsel argued that although there was a good deal of name calling and liquor consumed there was no proof of the accused having formed an intent to assault Miss Porte.

"I consider arguing is quite legitimate," replied the magistrate. "But, I don't think hitting someone in the eye is legitimate."

Warren gave evidence in his own defense. He said that he had stayed in that cabin at Parkside Lodge last summer, but now everyone used the cabin. He didn't know who was there but thought it would be some of the group that he knew used it so he just opened the door and walked in.

"Mona was pretty high he testified. "After Cameron left she started quarrelling. I left and she opened a window and started cursing me and my mother. I came back and pushed the door open. When I went in she was sitting on the floor crying. I never hit her," warren said. "I think the door must have hit her when I pushed it open."

Wouldn't this jar your sewer?

This is a jar-type, unglazed sewer pipe used by a long-dead civilization. It was unearthed in Parthian ruins, 2100 years after installation, still in perfect condition . . . vitrified clay lasts. And today's vitrified clay pipe, regardless of the type of waste, ground condition or climate, is the only pipe to ensure service to the end of time. It will not deteriorate in any way, even under the demanding conditions found in modern sanitary sewers. For service as "Permanent as the Pyramids", specify Vitrified Clay Pipe.

Donald Archer is really in tune with the times

High fidelity sound expert Donald Archer says:

"On older phonographs and records you could hear only part of the sound range. Today's 'hi-fi' systems reproduce the lowest and highest notes of the musical scale with startling realism. This modern development has meant great progress in the recording field."

As a family man, Mr. Archer also benefits by continuous progress in another field . . . life insurance. Policies are more flexible and more adaptable to the needs of individual families.

Today, you can obtain life insurance policies that provide not only basic protection but ready funds for emergencies, also policies for education, for safeguarding your home, for protecting your business and for ensuring your retirement income.

In these and other ways, the life insurance companies in Canada have progressed with the times . . . meeting the needs of people in all walks of life!
