Werner's Dictionary of Synonyms & Antonyms, Mythology and Familiar Phrases.

A book that should be in the vest pocket of every person, because it tells you the right word to use. No Two Words in the English Language Have Exactly the Same Significance. To express the precise meaning that one intends to convey a dictionary of Synonyms is needed to avoid repetition. The strongest figure of speech is antithesis. In this dictionary the appended Antonyms will, therefore, be found extremely valuable. Contains many other features such as Mythology, Familiar Allusions and Foreign Phrases, Prof. Loisette's Memory System, "The Art of Never Forgetting," etc., etc. This wonderful little book bound in a neat cloth binding and sent postpaid for $0.25. Full Leather, gilt edge, $0.40, postpaid. Order at once. Send for our large book catalogue, free.

GRANITES ARE BANQUETED.

HAPPY TIME SPENT AT ATHLETIC HOUSE.

Complimentary Banquet Tendered Victorious Team by Mr. and Mrs. P. Devlin.—The Affair a Huge Success and Enjoyed by All—How the Dining-room Looked.

"Boys, if you win the championship I will give you a banquet, remarked Mrs. Peter Devlin some time ago in conversing with members of the Granite football club. With such a boon before them, what else could the "boys" do but go out and carry off the coveted honor "just to please the ladies. Right royally did Mrs. Devlin keep her promise, inviting the members of the team and a few friends to a well-prepared banquet at Athletic house last evening. The spacious dining hall was beautifully decorated. The walls were covered with nags, while festoons of black and white—Granite colors—hung in graceful lines from the ceiling to the table. Bunches of the club colors were also displayed on the walls and hung down from the corners of the room. The table was arrayed in the form of a horseshoe and was prettily trimmed, smilax being strung around the edges and fastened in festoons around the many large dishes which ornamented the well-arranged and gorgeously appointed table. At intervals huge palms in rich jardiniers lent bright aspect to the scene. The Ontario championship trophy occupied a conspicuous place at the head of the table. It was elevated on a pedestal of flowers, and was trimmed with garlands of smilax. The scene presented, as the fifty guests took their places around the festive board was one which will forever remain bright in the memory of those fortunate enough to be present.

The repast consisted of six courses, the inviting dishes being served in a manner for which this hostelry is famous. The host and hostess, with the aid of chef Berryman, excelled themselves and, judging from the apparent endless variety of dishes, went the limit of their culinary resources in serving a banquet worthy the occasion. The banquet called forth words of praise from those partaking of the hospitality.

Mayor Ryan occupied the post of honor, and seated on his left were alderman J. Morgan Shaw, president of the Granite football club. Next to him came J. M. Elliott, manager, and then alderman J. T. White. On the right of the mayor sat John H. Geoghegan, the affable secretary-treasurer of Granites, and next to him came alderman James Minnes, vice-president of the Granites. In all, including club members and friends, about fifty were present.

When the appetites created by arduous physical training and endurance on the football field had been fully satisfied, mayor Ryan called the gathering to order and proposed the health of the queen, touching upon the South African war and hoping ere long to see Great Britain emerge from this war victorious as she had done in all struggles in the past. The national anthem was heartily rendered by all. Then followed the customary toasts. "Absent Members" and "Tommy Atkins at the Front" were not forgotten. In responding to the health of the club, Capt. Dalton said he had reached the goal of his ambition by filling the position of quarter-back on a senior championship team. All the speeches were sparkling with keen wit, humor and logic. Songs, recitations, readings, etc., were rendered by Sergt. Bailey, W. Hamilton, alderman Minnes, R. J. Gowdey, G. Dalton, F. Carr-Harris and others. A profitable and enjoyable evening was thus spent. The guests showed their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Devlin by proposing their health in a hearty bumper.

A flashlight photograph of the assemblage was taken by C. Powell. The sallies of "Colt" Metcalfe were very timely.

Several times the slogan which led Granites to victory resounded through the hall and shook the place to its foundation.

Everybody was in a happy mood and showed they were enjoying themselves to the full measure.

Of what you will give your wife for Christmas? We would suggest a pair of "Jennesse Miller shoes." They would be sure to please her. VanTassel, 145 Princess street.

A Prisoner Recaptured.

Greenwood, B.C., Dec 19.—Clarence King, the young forger, who escaped from jail on Monday night, was recaptured at Phoenix, hiding in the cabin of a friend. It seems that King, in some way or other, got access to the key and unlocked the padlock on the shackles, leaving them on until he got the opportunity to escape, when he threw them away.

CHAMBERLAIN CHEERED.

Irish Students in Dublin Give Him a Grand Reception.

Dublin, Dec. 19.—The honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred on Joseph Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, at Trinity college yesterday. Mr. Chamberlain and his wife, and lady Betty Balfour, when driving to the college, were cheered at some points, but there was a noticeable difference of opinion among the crowds along the streets. While the procession was passing from the provost's residence to examination hall, the cheering was deafening. The students lined the passages and held aloft union jacks, under which the procession passed. Mr. Chamberlain appeared thoroughly to enjoy the demonstration. As the procession entered the hall, all present arose and cheered Mr. Chamberlain.

At the close of ceremony Mr. Chamberlain, in response to the cries of students, said they had met under very disappointing circumstances. If the arrangements had been recent, he added, he would not have chose the present occasion to receive the honor from the university. Their minds, Mr. Chamberlain said, were solemnized by the serious news from South Africa, but Britain had always been accustomed to hold her own in adversity. He was old enough to remember the Crimea and the earlier period of the Indian mutiny, when Britain met with greater distress than she had just experienced, but eventually, the nation sprang to its feet and recovered its equanimity, and it, no doubt, would do so again. Mr. Chamberlain paid an earnest tribute to field-marshal Robert's patriotism in going to the front under the greatest blow that could fall upon a father.

Salvationists Branching Out.

Colebrook, Dec. 11.—On Thursday Norman Boyce, of this place, and Miss Josie Grey, Yarker, were married. After the knot was tied they started, via Gananoque, for New York, Niagara Falls and other places of interest. A branch of the Salvation army from Odessa held forth in the Friends' church Sunday evening. A great many think well of their meetings. Albert Benn, after four years' absence in Manitoba and the western states, has returned to spend the winter at home. Mr. Bowen, Yarker, has moved into C. Ward's house. G. W. Shangraw and Ira Salisbury have returned from Alexandria Bay, N.Y., to spend the holiday season. Miss Emma Penn is on the sick list. G. W. Ashley is preparing to put in a shingle mill. George Lucas, Warner, N.Y., has returned to spend the winter. John G. Gordon, teacher, has returned from Parry Sound, where he has been teaching for the last half year.

Should Be A Bumper House.

From all reports the City Hall will be packed on the occasion of the complimentary concert to the Granites, Thursday evening at eight o'clock.

Some Boxing Bouts

Another boxing contest took place in Victoria theatre last night under the management of trainer J. L. Carey. There was a good attendance of the sportively-inclined public and seven interesting bouts were run off in the following order:

A. Williams vs. D. Gardiner, four rounds, the former winning.

W. Ryan vs. H. Macdonald; honors even.

S. Norris vs. Jenkins, four rounds, won by Norris.

Murray vs. Davis, four rounds, honors even.

Meagher vs. Ross, four rounds, honors even.

Norris vs. Scotten, three rounds, Norris won.

Two other young men sparred for honors. The audience was very well pleased with the programme.

Death In a Tenement Fire

New York, Dec. 19.—Five dead, one fatally burned, and three seriously injured, is the record of two tenement house fires in this city early this morning. The dead are George Barrett, Mrs. George Barrett, Julia Barrett, their daughter, Mrs Thomas Fox and her three-year-old child. The injured Mary Barrett, will die, Mrs. Susan McAdee, Kate Farrer and Delia O'Connor. The Barretts lived on the top floor of the tenement, at No. 1841 Third avenue. The flames spread so rapidly that their escape was cut off. The whole family, except one child, Mary, perished. The girl was rescued by daring firemen. Her eyes were destroyed by the fire, and she is otherwise so badly burned that death is certain.

Death of Mrs. James Cooke

Mrs. Cooke, the wife of James Cooke, Harrowsmith, passed from the cares of earthly life yesterday after an illness extending over two years. She had attained an age of about sixty-five years. Her maiden name was Maggie Switzer and she was a sister of Mrs. Hiram McKim, of Sydenham. For many a long year both deceased and Mr. Cooke have been known as earnest laborers in the Methodist church of their village, and in losing her the church loses a faithful supporter and worker. She does not leave any family. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband. Alderman J. B. Cooke, brother-in-law of deceased, went out this morning to attend the funeral, which will take place at one o'clock.

Bidding For Political Aid.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 19.—The public advocacy of Great Britain's side in the South African war by Dr. Andrews, superintendent of public schools in Chicago, was the cause of resolutions being introduced in the city council last night, calling for his resignation or his immediate suspension and removal from his position by the board of education, should he ignore an invitation to step down. The head of the public schools was subjected to a heated denunciation by alderman Cullerton, the mover of the resolution. The resolutions were referred to the committee on schools.

INLAND REVENUE CHANGES.

INSPECTOR MORROW OF TORONTO HAS BEEN RETIRED.

His Juniors Take a Step Upward—An Old Man Found Dead on the Steps of a Church—Narrow Escape From Death in a Falling Hoist

Toronto, Dec. 19. — Important changes in the inland revenue department will come into force on January 1st. Instructions have been received from Ottawa retiring John Morrow, district inspector and dominion bonded factory inspector, and appointing W. C. Stratton, collector at Toronto, district and bonded factory inspector H. R. Frankland, deputy collector, is promoted to the collectorship and Burritt. Her becomes first deputy collector.

John Rawlins, an old man who has many years been a street peddler and saw filer, was found dead shortly after nine o'clock this morning on the steps of Erskine church. Physicians who were called in said death was due to natural causes.

E. Murphy, while working in a factory at 105 Adelaide street west, this morning, had a narrow escape from death. He stepped on a hoist and at once it went down to the bottom three storeys with terrific force. Murphy kept his feet and his spine was badly jarred by the shock when the hoist struck the ground. He was removed to the emergency hospital.

Quarterly Services Conducted.

Perth Road, Dec. 18.—Quarterly service was conducted by Rev. Mr Sims in the Free Methodist church on Sunday. Christmas entertainments are to be held at Buck lake on December 22nd and at Perth Road on December 23rd. A number from here attended the concert at the North Shore on Friday evening. J. S. Roberts met with an accident while in Kingston last Thursday, in consequence of which he had to remain over night in the city. The Perth Road Tent of Maccabees held its meeting for the annual election of officers on Monday night. A load of young people drove to Sydenham on Saturday night to attend a concert. W. J. Corkill has purchased a new cutter. Visitors A. Thurston at G. Vancoughnett's, R. Stonness at H. Hackey's, Miss Thea. Ferguson at Mrs. Ferguson's.

Giving Him His Due.

At a meeting yesterday of the civic committee on fire and light chairman Toye was presented with a resolution of thanks on motion of aldermen Cunningham and Behan. Every member of the committee paid tribute to chairman Toye's earnestness of devotion to the best interests of the fire department and all agreed that it was owing to his exertion, clear-sightedness and executive ability that the department was lifted from a second-class basis and put into the front ranks of efficiency. All the committee agreed that the department was in a better condition now, in every respect, equipment, discipline, etc., than ever before in its history, and chairman Toye was principally responsible for the betterment.

About the Fire Department.

Alderman Bell does not agree with alderman Donnelly in the remarks the latter made last night about the fire department never being in as efficient a condition as under the present management of alderman Toye. He claims that the department was never in a worse plight than at the present time, and he instances these facts. That there are not enough men to properly handle the large ladder which was recently purchased; that the keeping of the chemical engine is useless, and it should be used for carrying hose; that the horses purchased have no wind. Alderman Bell states that the fire department is no further advanced than one year ago. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Ill of Pneumonia.

Violet, Dec. 18.—A number of our young folks attended the concert at Wilton last Friday night. Mrs. Earle, for a short time past a resident of this place, passed away on Tuesday last at a ripe old age. Mrs. M. Robertson, ill with pneumonia, is recovering. E. Cummings is also suffering with pneumonia and quinsy. Our school closes Friday for the Christmas holidays. The popular teacher, Miss Cameron, has been engaged for another year. We look for a good evening at the literary and debate to be given by the E.C. of C.E. to-morrow evening. Visitors Mr. Snider, Prince Edward; T. Cosgrove, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Houghton, Chances.

Invited to Inspect Work

At a meeting yesterday of the civic fire and light committee the communication from the carpenters' union, protesting against firemen doing carpenter work around the fire stations, was taken up. The committee instructed the city clerk to reply to the communication, inviting the carpenters to meet at the Ontario street fire station on a day to be appointed, where they would be met by the chairman of the committee and shown how the money of the citizens had been saved by the firemen. The carpenters contributed this money just as much as any other class of citizens.

A Kingstonian In Service.

Peter O'Connor, brother of James O'Connor, of Collendar hotel, has just sailed from New York for the Philippines aboard the transport Australian. He served aboard the man-of-warman Charleston at the bombardment of Santiago, and was with the landing party being reported as killed, but it happened to be another man of the name who was bowled over. His parents reside on Earl street.

Death of Gen. Koch.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—Gen. Koch died at Ladysmith on October 31st, ten days after being wounded. His nephew tells W. T. Stead, of the Daily News, that his uncle died not so much from the wounds he received, as owing to the treatment he suffered after his injuries.

Edward Leach, of Johnston Bros.' jewellery store, is confined to his home with a severe attack of pneumonia.

MARINES IN RESERVE.

The Volunteers A Great Element Of Security.

LONDON, Dec 19.—In a speech delivered in this city last night the right Hon. George J Goschen, first lord of the admiralty, referred to the criticism of the government for not employing the marines in South Africa. He said he regretted that such criticisms should have been made. He was sorry the known eagerness of the marines to go to the front could not be realized, but nothing could be allowed to impair the efficiency of the navy, especially when 120 000 soldiers were withdrawn from the country. It was necessary to look not only at South Africa, but without being unreasonably alarmed to contemplate the possibilities of emergencies elsewhere.

Mr. Goschen said: "The possession of 250,000 volunteers will be regarded by the country, I am sure, as a great element of security, and I am confident that they are all well prepared to do their duty. The colonies also are prepared to do their share, and Canada and Australia are to the fore, welcoming the opportunity to go to the front."

A Suggestion.

Does he look comfortable with his boots on? Poor fellow, he's too busy to buy slippers. Buy him a pair and see how good he'll feel. We've a splendid variety of slippers. VanTassel, 145 Princess street.

Lost His Voice On The Queen Of Hearts.

BOWLING GREEN, O. Dec. 19.—Some days ago Charles West, of this city, was engaged in a game at a well known resort in Toledo. He had been losing heavily and his last dollar was at stake. As the cards were being dealt out he remarked: "If the queen of hearts turns up again I hope to God that I may never speak again." To his consternation the fatal card turned up. He attempted to utter an oath, but found that he could not articulate above a whisper. He has tried various remedical agents, but up to the present time he has not regained his voice. Many of the friends of Mr West look upon his affliction as a visitation from God.

Gananoque Junction Station.

The work of building a new station at Gananoque Junction, about two miles east of the old one, is progressing. In a short time all freight will be transferred there and early next spring the new building will be completed and the whole business, freight and passenger, will be handled there. It will necessitate the extension of the Thousand Island line by about two miles.
