WANTS DEBATES AND P.M. (Continued from Page 1) your president. "It is a strong conviction of mine that no officer should hold an office longer than one year at one time. On the spur of the moment I could think of at least five executive members who would make splendid presidents. Should each one remain in office more than a year it would be at least eight years before the last one had a chance to be president. This means a slowing up of bringing new members into the executive and generally causes stagnation and lack of new blood in an organization."

In Memoriam Brodie—In loving memory of my dear, beloved husband, Walter H. Brodie, who passed away May 19, 1941. We placed a marking stone to show the grave where one we used to know Lies fast asleep today. And sometimes we put flowers there And have arranged for skilful care To keep the weeds away. And birds go there to sing their songs And there at night the dew Still falls where tears so often flow. So God has not forgot, I know, The husband that I knew. Composed in his memory by his lonely wife, Elizabeth Brodie.

In Memoriam Hadden—In loving memory of my dear daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hadden, who passed away four years ago, on May 20, 1938. "The midnight stars are shining, Upon your silent grave, Beneath it sleeps the one I loved, The one I could not save. Ever remembered by Mother.

In Memoriam Hadden—In loving memory of my sister, Mrs. Wm. Hadden, who was called to her eternal home, May 29, 1938. She suffered on earth, she will suffer no more In the loved land of the blest. Pain fled as she trod on heaven's bright shore. It left her at peace and rest. Lovingly remembered by sister, Gertrude, and family.

In Memoriam Hadden—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Wm. Hadden, who passed away May 20, 1938. Somewhere beyond the shadows Dwells a dear sweet mother of mine Whom we looked on as a treasure, Whom we cherished as divine. But God called the one we loved away. Forget you, dear Mother. No, we never will. As years roll on we miss you still, But God is good. He gave us strength To bear our bitter cross. He is the only one who knows How bitter is our loss. Sadly missed by husband and Mabel.

In Memoriam Hadden—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Wm. Hadden, who passed away May 20, 1938. With tears we watched you sinking, We watched you pass away. We tended you with loving care, That could not make you stay. We watched beside your bedside As the lonely hours passed. And how our hearts were broken, When we saw you breathe your last. Our lips cannot tell how we miss you, Our hearts cannot tell what to say, God only knows how we miss you In a home that is loneliness today. Sadly missed by Della and Randall.

In Memoriam Hadden—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Wm. Hadden, who passed away May 20, 1938. Deep in our hearts lies a picture, Of a loved one hid to rest, In memory's frame we shall keep it. Because he was one of the best. Ever remembered by wife and family.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES TELL OF EMPIRE'S PART IN STRUGGLE

Pupils of Newmarket high school observed Empire Day Friday afternoon by presenting a program that emphasized the important role being played by the British empire in the present world war.

Following the singing of Kipling's "Recessional" by the school and the reading of "Tonyson's 'Of Old St. Freedom'" by Jeanne Duncan, Eleanor Crandell gave an address on "The Empire at War," which introduced capably the theme of the program.

Her address was followed by six others, each of which dealt with the war contribution of a component part of the empire. The speakers, with their respective subjects, were as follows: "Great Britain," by Jean Lynn; "Canada," by Douglas Chalklin; "South Africa," by Dorothy Dales; "New Zealand," by Wilbur Henry; "Australia," by Shirley Creed; "Smaller Units of the Empire," by Tom McInnis.

The addresses were followed by a reading of Kipling's "Of All We Have and Are," by Jean Cunningham; and the program concluded with the singing of two verses of the national anthem.

At the last meeting of the Literary society for this school year, the final round of the inter-form debates was held between XIIC and IXA. The senior commercial, represented by Margaret Gould and Betty Dales, successfully upheld the negative side of the resolution, "That newspapers should print full reports of murder cases." Their opponents were Betty Fisher and Doris Proctor. Congratulations, XIIC!

The final party of the school year was held Friday evening in the auditorium, with Max Bong's orchestra supplying the music for dancing. A special box at
