Lindsay Lady CURED OF DIABETES.

Doan's Kidney Pills The Remedy She Used.

From the Peterboro Examiner.

One representative called at the residence of Mrs. R. Toole, Kent street, Lindsay, Ont., and was favored with an interview. Mrs. Toole states:

"For three years I have suffered terribly with pain in my back and kidneys, and also with excruciating pains in my head and neck. I felt very dizzy, and when I awoke in the morning seemed to have a stupid or dazed feeling, so much so that it would be a couple of hours before I was able to do anything. Many a time I had to walk the floors at nights, on account of the pain from which I suffered. I had no appetite, and was very nervous and easily startled, sometimes feeling that I was about to faint from the fluttering and palpitation of my heart.

"All last summer I was attended by a physician, who said I had diabetes, and I can say that I have taken a great deal of medicine, but received no benefit from the same. In fact, I was in an awful state. Never did myself knows how much I suffered.

"I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, and have taken two boxes of them. From the first I commenced to improve. They have worked a wonderful change for the better in my health. They have cured all the pain, secured restful sleep, strengthened my nerves, and given me a good appetite. In fact, I am sure the pills were exactly the medicine I need, and I cannot express the joy I feel at the change in my health, which has resulted from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c. a box, or three boxes for $1.25 at The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

WAS AN ACCIDENTAL DEATH

THE DROWNING OF MRS. A. MARKLE, DESERONTO.

The Jury's Verdict—The Funeral Services—"A Step Between Me And Death"—He Who so Tenderly Watches Even The Sparrows Fall Will Not Forget The Little Orphans.

Deseronto, Ont., Nov. 21.—The circumstances attendant upon the lamentable death, by drowning, on Friday night, of Mrs. A. Markle, at the Bay of Quinte depot railway dock, while not really of a seriously suspicious nature, were yet, owing to certain imputations escaping the lips of deceased's daughter in the terrible shock of beholding her dear mother's dripping form on the dock, sufficient to call for an investigation, and to that end Dr. E. S. Hicks, the young and gentlemanly coroner of Deseronto, caused to be enrolled a very intelligent appearing jury on Saturday morning. In the afternoon the remains were viewed by these gentlemen and the doctor at undertaker's Stanton's rooms, and at five o'clock the body was delivered to the friends and removed to her residence, preparatory for burial.

The inquest was opened at 7.30 p.m. in rooms in Colpo's block, St. George street, the coroner, jury, witnesses, immediate friends and relatives, and the Whig reporter being present. Many witnesses were examined as to minor points, and then the daughter denied in tears of having made the statement attributed to her. This, of course, dispelled further gathering gloom and the evidence is summarized in the following verdict:

"That the said Mrs. Markle, on the 18th day of November, 1898, in the evening was going to empty a pail of water into the bay at the steamboat dock, and it happened, accidentally, casually and by misfortune, the said Mrs. Markle fell into the bay as I was informed, and as the jurors generally on oath certify after careful deliberation, the said Mrs. Markle came to her death by accidental drowning, and we do not find any person guilty of any criminal act in connection therewith."

And Britain to Question of Her Strength Objects to His Words.

New York, Nov. 21.—Mr. Ford is sending to the Tribune from London comments as follows on Mr. Chamberlain's speeches at Manchester: "Ministerial speeches in multitude do not, without being expected to arouse much talk of war. Cases like Mr. Balfour's where the public opinion is in a very dangerous condition, show the subject is more serious. Now the subject is more serious. Now the subject is more serious.
