changeable, and Tom was a remarkable good-looking fellow. Now, perhaps, you understand the reason.

On the following day Miss Webber's brother arrived from college, with the intention of spending the vacation at home. He was a gay, reckless, good tempered fellow, full of fun and good humor, so I made friends with him directly.

When you are sweet upon a young lady, always made friends with the brother. It's good policy.

I noticed, with some uneasiness, that Tom Stone was paying more and more attention to Miss Webber every day, and that she did not appear to object to it at all. Yet, in walking or riding, I was the favorite swain, so I made up my mind to 'pop the question' at the very first opportunity.

One evening the whole four of us were sitting on the piazza talking little nothings as people are wont to do on summer nights, when Harry Webber proposed a stroll and a cigar. A smoke was the very thing I wanted. I had not had my usual after dinner puff, so I gladly accepted.

'Will you come Tom?'

'Yes.'

'You are very polite, I must say,' said Miss Webber, 'leaving me here all alone; but you men are so selfish,' and she gave a short, sarcastic laugh.

'Pardon us,' I began.

'O,' said Tom, interrupting, 'I feel rather tired, and perfer not going. I will challenge Miss Webber to a game of chess instead.'

'And Miss Webber will accept. Come along.'

They entered the house to play their game of chess. We took our hats and strolled down the lane to enjoy a cigar. If I had known what was being enacted at the house I had just left, I am affraid I should not have enjoyed my cigar quite so much.

We returned home in about an hour. When we entered the parlor I cast my eyes upon the chess-board, and found the game not quite played out. But Miss Webber and Tom were sitting a long way from each other. She sat upon a lounge by the window, and Tom upon a chair at the further end of the room. When two young people have been left alone for some time, and when you enter the room and find them some distance apart, take my word for it, they have been making love together. It was so in this case.

While in my bed room this evening, I heard a tap at my door. I bad the rapper to 'come in,' and in walked Tom.

'Hallo!' said I.

'Hallo!' replied Tom as he sat down upon my bed and began swinging his legs about.

'I hope you enjoyed your game of chess?'

'Yes Miss Webber plays very well.'

You didn't finish the last game, though.'

Tom turned all manner of colors.

'Ah you sly dog,' I said, with a forced laugh, 'you neglected your game to make love.'

'Have you a cigar?'

'Yes; there they are, upon the mantelpece.'

Tom took a ciger, and we had an animed metaphysical discussion. At last Tom rose to go. He went to the door, opened it, closed it again, returned to the bed and sat down. He looked at me with a queer smile on his face. At last he said.

'I'm going to be married in the fall.'

'The deuce! To whom?'

'Miss Webber.'

'What!'

'Yes. I proposed to her to-night, and was accepted.'

It was too true. That confounded cigar cost me a hundred and fifty thousand dollars! The next morning I packed up my things, bade them all adieu, and returned to New York a melancholy man.

Last fall Miss Fanny Webber was made Mrs. Thomas Stone. Am I not an unfortunate man?

The Machine was Worn Out.

Why? Not because it was not well built, but it was wrongly run. Thousands of men who have run down long before their threescore and ten years are accomplished, might have been renewed into sprightliness and vim if they had tried the well known PERUVIAN SYRUP, which contains among its compounds the Protoxide of Iron, so combined that it assimilates with the blood and invigorates the whole system. This syrup has proved efficacious in thousands of cases, and will do everybody good who uses it. All druggists keep it.

Very Sensible—Horse dealers who are supposed to know what suits their own interest purchase Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy by the dozen, and feed it to their horses for the purpose of improving their condition, which it always does—others should profit by their example. Remember and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.

ELECTRICITY! THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL!—WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical: J. Collard, of Sparta, Ont., writes, "Send me six dozen Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful. Wm. McGuire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I am nearly out, nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes, "Send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes, "Send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reid, Ulverton, P.Q., writes, "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown on the bottle and TAKE NO OTHER. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price, 25 cents. NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for the Dominion.

NOTE—Eclectric—Selected and Electrized.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the Profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis and Asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests these too often fatal diseases, Diphtheria, Fevers, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Metralgia, &c.

From Lord Francis Conyngham, Mount Charles, Donegal, 11th Dec., 1866.

"Lord Francis Conyngham, who this time last year bought a bottle of Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne from Mr. Davenport, and has found it a most wonderful medicine, wishes to have half a dozen bottles sent at once to the above address."

"Extract from a communication to the College of Physicians that he received a despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Manilla, to the effect that Cholera has been raging fearfully, and that the only remedy of any service was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, 1st Dec., 1866.

CAUTION.—Vice Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated in the Court of Chancery that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the late Mr. Davenport was a mere fabrication, and that he was not entitled to say, had been sworn to.—See Times, February, 1864.

The public are therefore cautioned against imposition, a conviction of the Vendor having been recently confirmed by the Court of Queen's Bench. Name is genuine without the word "Collis Brown's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Over thirty years in universal use. Sold by all Druggists.
