THE REPRESENTATION OF THE CITY OF HAMILTON.—Mr. Buchanan having resigned his seat in the Legislature, Mr. Robert McElroy, his late opponent, is again in the field. In his published address he declares himself to be in favor of Confederation. It is believed he will have opposition, and the name of Mr. Charles McGill is freely spoken of in this connection.

THE GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.—An extra train will be placed upon the Great Western line between London and Hamilton, and Hamilton and Toronto, to-day.—The 'Toronto Express' will leave London at 11:45 a.m., and arrive in Hamilton in time to connect with a 2:50 train leaving Hamilton for Toronto. The 'London Express' train will leave Toronto at 12:30 p.m., arriving in Hamilton at 2 p.m., in time to connect with the 2:10 train for London.—This arrangement will be found very accomodative, and will no doubt afford much satisfaction to the travelling community.

THE RAIDER BURLEY.—As soon as the decision was given Mr M. C. Cameron asked for a copy of the evidence on which the Recorder had based his decision for the purpose of applying for a writ of habeas corpus for the discharge of the prisoner on the ground of insufficiency of evidence. The motion is to be made in chambers to-day, and the argument will doubtless take place on Monday.—When the prisoner was getting into the sleigh to be conveyed to the Jail, hearty cheers were raised for President Davis, in acknowledgment of which the prisoner frequently raised his hat.—Leader of Saturday.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN.—An old man named Jean Baptiste Chardand, aged one hundred and one years, four months and eight days, died at St. Saveur on Tuesday.

Recorder Duggins decision in the Burley case is universally approved of here, and has created the most lively satisfaction.

Late New Brunswick papers give accounts of most successful union meetings in West Moreland county, at Moncton.

The Russell Election Committee met today, when Mr. Hunter withdrew his opposition. The committee, therefore, agreed to report Mr. Bell duly elected, and that neither petition nor defence was frivolous or vexatious.

The other committees met, but owing to the absence of some of the members, adjourned without action.

Mr. Isaac Buchanan's resignation is in the hands of the Speaker. The writ for a new election will probably be moved on Monday next.

The Postal Commission met to day. Mr. Brydges was present and handed in a printed statement setting forth the claims of the Grand Trunk for increased remuneration. He will be examined thereon.

INCENDIARISM VERY RIFE.

There can be no doubt but the Fire in the City Buildings was the act of an Incendiary. Such will be the purport of the Coroner's Report to the Mayor and Council. But Incendiarism is not confined to Public Buildings. Mr. J. J. Whitehead, who holds an important office in the Provincial Penitentiary, must have provoked some Convict since liberated, for he has fallen a victim to repeated acts of Incendiarism. Less than a month ago, the stable of his dwelling house was set on fire in the night, and the flames were with difficulty subdued, destroying only the stable. A few nights afterwards, another fire occurred after dark, but this time it took in the shed or porch attached to his dwelling house, and then the whole went, furniture and all. Mr. J. J. Whitehead then moved his family into town, and on Friday night last his premises were set on fire, and his house and furniture would again have been destroyed, but providentially the fire was soon put out.

These repeated acts of Incendiarism show that villainy is in the midst of us and at work. The fires at Mr. J. J. Whitehead's may have been done by a discharged Convict, some one whom he had offended, but there is no proof of it. If not so, the villain or villains are living in the midst of us, and it is high time that an expert Detective should be sent for by the Corporation.

THE DINNER TO Mr. BRYDGES.

It is always pleasant to see public men rewarded for public services. The citizens of Ottawa have just shown an example of gratitude of this kind. Having felt that to Mr. Brydges, of the Grand Trunk, they owe the fact of taking this Railroad out of the Slough of Despond into which it had fallen, they gratefully invited Mr. Brydges to a Public Dinner in that city, in order that their thanks to him might be publicly given. The dinner took place at Ottawa on the 17th inst. The Mayor was in the chair, and the company assembled to do Mr. Brydges honor was very great. The usual quantity of speeches was made. The Mayor spoke highly in praise of Mr. Brydges' successful exertions to aid the city, and when Mr. Brydges' health was drunk, that gentleman made a long and brilliant reply, much too long for our sheet at this time. The Hon. Mr. Ferrier also spoke at large and several other influential gentlemen, and it was one o'clock ere the company rose from table. Say what folks may of Canada, public men who serve the Province are by no means neglected on fitting occasions.

ON DIT.—A rumor is afloat that Mr. Ex Chief Justice McLean, who fills the important office of Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, from age and ill health is about to resign, and that Mr. Chief Justice Draper will be his successor. The rumor further says that Mr. Chancellor Vankoughnet will be the future Chief Justice of Canada.

THE FRONTIER CORPS.—The Official Gazette contains an order of His Excellency the Governor General, transfering the officers serving on the frontier, from their Battalions, to the three Administrative Battalions.

The great sale of West of England Broad Cloths, Beavers, Tweeds, Fancy Flannels, Blankets, Gold and Silver Watches, Electro-Plated Ware, Jewellery, Table Cutlery, &c., &c., will be continued by Mr. Devany every day and evening during the week in the store of Mr. Donald McKay, corner of Brock and King Streets. Inhabitants of the surrounding country should take advantage of so favorable an opportunity for purchasing all kinds of household goods.

BOOKS AND PAPERS FOR THE VOLUNTEERS.—Through the liberality of Mr. Kent, of the B. & A. Express Company, a bag will be conveyed free once a week to the Kingston Volunteers at Niagara, containing Books, Newspapers, and other reading matter. The bag will be closed at the Brigade Office every Monday, at noon, and Books, &c., intended for it can be left there during the week. Our Volunteers have plenty of spare time on their hands, and it is earnestly hoped that the citizens of Kingston will enable them to spend it pleasantly and profitably by supplying their reading-room in the quiet little town of Niagara. There are few families in Kingston who cannot spare a few books or papers. Let us endeavor, therefore, to fill the Volunteers' bag once a week. Packages of the above can either be sent for the benefit of the whole company, or addressed specially by their friends to individual members.

[To the Editor of the British Whig.]

Sir,—For the information of the "Old Naval Officer," whose letter appears in your issue of yesterday, and others interested, I would say that the want of a Volunteer Naval Force in my Division has to me been a source of regret. Kingston and the Bay Ports possess the very best men in Canada for a Brigade of the kind, but as yet no commander for them can be found; and I join most cordially with your correspondent in the call for some one fitted for the position to come forward: organize such a force, and take the head of it. And so far as the Brigade Office is concerned, its utmost effort will be exerted to secure so absolutely necessary a result as the establishment at this important Naval Station of a Brigade of Volunteer Blue Jackets.

I am, &c., &c.,
DAVID SHAW,
Lieut.-Col.,
Brigade Major.

The Editor's Table---No. 380.

Mr. John Creighton, of the City Book Store, very kindly sent for 'Our Table' a copy of the last new London Novel:—

MATTIE, a Stray. By the author of 'Owen, a Waif,' and other celebrated works. Harper Bros., New York; John Creighton, Kingston. 8vo., pp. 160.. 50 cents.

The above is not a Sensation Novel, but is a simple tale, well told, of London Low Life and London Middle Life. The incidents are natural, and the characters not overdrawn, and the whole story is one exemplifying the theory, that crimes are not the result of blood or birth, but that a child rescued from the streets at an early age, may turn out to be a pure woman. It is an interesting story, though not a pleasing one; for perfect justice is not done to the heroine, and the 'Deus ex machina' is not propitious to suffering virtue. 'Mattie,' nevertheless, is a first-class novel, and in the present dearth of something really good, cannot fail to more than repay the cost and trouble of perusal.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY (Knickerbocker) for February. J. Holmes Agnew, New York. $3.

THE JOURNAL OF EDUCATION of Lower Canada for December. E. Senecal, Montreal. $1.

All the above are such well known publications as to preclude any special observation on our part.

THE EXTRADITION CASE.

We are sure the public at large will receive with the utmost satisfaction the judgment of His Honor the Recorder in the case of Benjt. G. Burley. By far the greatest part of the community felt that sub-tantial justice could alone be done by surrendering the man to the United States authorities; but at the same time it was feared, that the law might not reach him and that consequently he would escape. It is a matter of congratulation that this is not the case. We bespeak for the judgment of the Recorder a careful reading, as it will sweep away many fallacies the advocates of the raiders have sought to impose upon the popular mind.

As there appears, from the number of enquiries addressed to us, a great deal of doubt as to the course matters will soon take we have a few words to say in order to clear up the mystery as far as possible. Mr. Recorder Duggan did not order the extradition of Burley; he had no power to do so; he merely re-committed him to prison. He has now to inform the Governor General of his decision. His Excellency is then able to order the surrender of the prisoner.

But before this can be done Mr. M. C. Cameron will in all probability get out a writ of habeas corpus. The Crown will then have to show cause why Burley is held in custody. Mr. Cameron may bring the case before the full Court either of the Queen's Bench or of the Common Pleas, or before any single judge of these courts. If it be held after hearing the arguments on both sides that Mr Recorder Duggan's judgment is wrong, then Burley will be released from custody. But should it be on the other hand be held that the Recorder is right, then the man will be recommitted to prison to await His Excellency's order for extradition.

Two questions then arise. First,—If the judges order the release of Burley, can he be re-arrested. To this we return an affirmative reply—he can. There is, we think, no doubt—the Recorder certainly entertains none—that Burley has been guilty of a gross violation of our neutrality laws. For this we cannot extradite him, but he is punishable by our courts, and our Government it would be guilty of a gross violation of public duty if they permitted him to escape. Upon the judges pronouncing the cause for which he is now held in custody insufficient, it would be competent for the Attorney-General to order his immediate re-arrest on a warrant charging him with a breach of the Foreign Enlistment Act. We know nothing of the determination of the Government in this connection, but looking at the facts of the case, we should say, that if the necessity arises, there is nothing more probable than that the course we have indicated will be taken.

The second question is—if the Recorder's decision be confirmed, will the prisoner be able to carry his case before a still higher tribunal, to the Privy Council for instance? We have heard of considerable "blowing" on the part of Southerners here, but it amounts to nothing. The decision of the Court on the habeas corpus will be final; at least we know of no means by which an appeal from it can be made, and we think it will be difficult to discover any.

LATE FROM QUEBEC.

THE GUNBOAT STORY A CANARD.

Quebec, January 21.

Among the Western members who have arrived I observe Messrs. Amos Wright, White, Stirton, Wood, McConkey and Walter Ross.

The Postal Commission were engaged today in considering the papers that have been put in.

A meeting of the Cabinet took place this afternoon, Messrs. Chapais and J. A. Macdonald being absent.

A painful rumor has been in circulation here respecting Mr. Daoust, M.P.P. for Two Mountains; no less than that he is guilty of forgery. His friends say that his note, endorsed by his brother-in-law, was protested at the Ontario Bank, Montreal, and that when sued by the Bank his brother-in-law denied his signature, for the purpose, he now alleges, of gaining time, so that the money might be raised. Mr. Daoust left last night for Montreal in company with the High Constable. It is presumed the matter will be arranged.

A canard has been set on foot here that a fleet of British gunboats is to be put on the lakes. There is no foundation whatever for the statement.

A sale of the Hamilton and Port Dover roads has been made to Kearn & Co. As soon as the necessary bonds are completed, a transfer will be made.—Globe.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

Halifax, Jan. 22

The Royal Mail steamship Canada, from Liverpool on the 7th, via Queenstown 8th, arrived here at 11 o'clock. Her dates are three days later than those by the City of Baltimore at New York. The steamer City of Limerick and City of Cork, both from New York, arrived at Queenstown on the 5th and reached Liverpool on the 6th inst. The Royal Mail steamship Cuba arrived at Queenstown on the 7th, and reached Liverpool on the 8th inst.

The news by the Canada is not important.

The Army and Navy Gazette says: The Canadian difficulty will in all probability lapse, but not harmlessly. The display of attachment to Great Britain of patriotic zeal which the recent events called forth, will add to the many sources of irritation which the contest in America has opened, and will transfer to the Canadians a full share of the overflowing animosity with which Great Britain is regarded by the mass of the northern people; but the Canadians have certainly established fresh claims to Imperial sympathy.

Capt. Corbett, ex-commander of the 'Sea King,' alias 'Shenandoah,' has been brought before the magistrate in London, on the 5th inst., charged with having enlisted, or attempted to enlist, British subjects to serve in the Confederate navy. The solicitor who appeared on the behalf of the government to prosecute, stated the case against the prisoner who took the vessel to Madeira, and there announced to the crew that she was intended and sold for a cruiser, and urged them to enlist in the service. Evidence was given in support, when the case was remanded; the prisoner being admitted to bail in £500, and two sureties of £250 each.

Liverpool, Jan. 7th.

LATEST FROM THE SOUTH.

Philadelphia, Jan. 21.

The Bulletin says a letter has been received in Philadelphia from a prominent gentleman in Washington, who says that F. B. Blair, senr., returns to Richmond with full authority from President Lincoln, to give a safe conduct to Washington for peace commissioners from Jeffer-on Davis. Mr. Blair is expected to be in Richmond this evening.

The Herald's Washington special has various rumors concerning Blair's visit to Richmond. One is that Blair brought an autograph letter from Mr. Davis to Lincoln saying that he was ready to treat for peace, and that a communication from Lincoln has been taken back to Richmond, expressing a willingness to send or receive commissioners.

Gen. Joe Johnson in his late speech at Columbia, says he is out of service, and regretted that he could not serve with rebel soldiers.

H. S. Foote refuses to be released, and insists upon a trial to show the cause for his arrest.

Captain Semmes has reached Richmond.

The Herald's New Orleans despatch gives particulars of Grierson's great raid in Mississippi. They confirm previous reports of his success. They marched 400 miles, lost less than 100 men, captured 600 prisoners, and brought in 1,000 contrabands and 1,000 horses, besides destroying 100 miles of railroad.

The Herald's Central American correspondent makes important developments in regard to intrigues now in progress there to bring about an absorption of Spanish American republics by Maximillian's Empire through French agents.

The Richmond Whig says that negroes in the prime of life will make better soldiers than white men over 50.

New York, Jan. 23.

It appears by a Washington special that Mr. Field, one of the Louisiana delegation seeking Washington as Congressman, last Friday night assaulted Judge Kelly, of Pennsylvania, with a knife, for remarks made in the House. The Judge was only slightly cut in the hand. Field was held to bail.

A significant article appears in the Richmond Enquirer of last Thursday, which says, after every effort to get England and France, or Maximillian, to join their interest, may fail, would incline the rebels to submit to the United States, rather than England, France or Maximilian, joining their military forces; they could then sweep this continent, and then hide their heads while America was begging for general peace of the world. On the other hand some Richmond editors, in view of the fact that they have lost all the seaports of consequence, make great efforts to prove these disasters a blessing. They say war is now their sole business, conscription can be enforced, and every one that can must fight.

Charleston, Jan. 17.

Deserters and prisoners report the story that edreing from Beaufort to contest of the fall and 15th cities, artillery or baggage trains, and the Sherman way marching by railroads with the remainder of his army, subsisting from Acres. They report that Charleston is their destination. The enemy advanced within two miles of Pocotaligo yesterday and then retired. Intelligent officers from Hood's army say its losses were much less than reported, which will cover all the casualties during the Campaign, and Hood has plenty of armies. The rumored fall of Richmond is unofficial as yet. Gen. Hood has been superseded by Lieut.-Genl. Taylor. Another report is to the effect that the Confederate Senate had passed a resolution asking the President to release Gen. Joseph Johnson in command of the army of the Tennessee. Hon. H. S. Foote has been released from custody by the Provost Marshal of Fredericksburg and had arrived in Richmond

RECIPROCITY TREATY.

Washington, Jan. 20.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in response to the inquiry by what lawful goods and merchandize pass into Canada and thence back into the United States, says the Reciprocity treaty grants the citizens of the United States the right to navigate the St. Lawrence and the canals in Canada, used as the means of communication between the great lakes and the Atlantic ocean, with their boats and crafts as fully and freely as the subjects of her Britannic Majesty, subject only to the same tolls and other assessments as now are or may hereafter be exacted of her Majesty's subjects; and the fifth section provides that goods duly entered for warehousing may be conveyed over any foreign territory, the government of which shall by treaty, grant free right of way over such territory. Then the tariff of 1846, and subsequent acts, grant free admission of goods the growth, production or manufacture of the United States exported to a foreign country and brought back in the same condition as when exported, upon which no drawback has been allowed.

It will be perceived the Secretary explains that goods in bond, the productions of the United States, by virtue of the aforesaid treaty regulations, are permitted to pass through Canada in American vessels by way of the St. Lawrence and the Canadian canals, yet these several acts do not provide for the transit of merchandise through Canada by other routes than those designated in the Reciprocity Treaty. It may be remarked, however, that merchandise passing from one port of the United States to another, though the transit may in part be through a foreign territory, has not been regarded as exported within the meaning of the law, the destination being to a port in the United States, and the merchandise not being unladen within the foreign jurisdiction.

If all the requirements of law, regulating the export and import of merchandise have been substantially complied with, and all the proper precautions taken to prevent frauds on the revenue, it has not been thought necessary to enquire by what authority the merchandise is permitted to pass through the foreign jurisdiction to its port of destination in our territory. It has been regarded sufficient that the foreign government make no objections. But to insure the protection of the revenue, the department requires the merchandise so passing in transit, from one part of the United States to another, over Canadian railways, to be conveyed in locked cars, and to be accompanied by an officer of our customs through its entire transit. The condition of merchandise transferred differs in no essential respect from that conveyed from the same ports in vessels which pass through foreign waters, except that in transit by land there is the additional security of actual and continued custody by the customs authories of the United States.

MRS. MAXWELL'S TESTIMONIAL.

New York, Dec 23, 1862

Knowing positively that Reeve's Ambrosia produced a beautiful head of hair for Mrs. Lizzie Shepherd, of Brooklyn, N.Y., I was induced, thereby, to use it thoroughly. I needed something for my hair, it being short and thin; I had used only one-half dozen bottles when I could plainly notice an increase in its length, strength and beauty. An experience of about two years has proved a complete success. My hair is now, by measurement, four feet ten inches in length; nearly reaching to the floor. I have allowed my photograph to proclaim the merits of Reeves' Ambrosia to the world.

In support of the above statements, are presented the certificates of Dr. Jas. E. Chilton, chemist, New York; Dr. Hiram Cox, chemist, Syracuse, Ohio; Dr. James R. Nichols, Chemist, Boston; Dr. N. E. Jones, Chemical Inspector, Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. C. T. Jackson, Chemist, Boston; Dr. Chas. Upham Shepard, Charleston, S.C.; and J. V. Z. Blaney and G. A. Lawrence, Consulting Chemists, Chicago, all of whom have analyzed the Catawba Brandy, and commend it in the highest terms for medicinal use.

ANALYSIS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS STATE ASSAYER, JAN. 25, 1858.

When evaporated through clean linen it is free of oil or offensive matter. In every respect it is a PURE spirituous liquor. The oil which gives to the Brandy its flavor and aroma is wholly unlike fusel oil. It is odor partakes of both the fruit and oil of grapes. With acids, it produces ethers of a high fragrance. The substitution of this Brandy for Cognac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of fictitious spirits, sold under this name both at home and abroad.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M.D., Assayer to State Mass.,

BY THE SAME, IN 1864.

I have analyzed "L. LYONS' PURE CATAWBA BRANDY," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from two casks afforded the same results with regard to purity; a slightly increased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined, by comparison with former samples.

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as made of the imported Brandy.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M.D., State Assayer,

HOWARD HOTEL,

Broadway, Corner of Maiden Lane,

NEW YORK.

THE Subscribers desire to intimate that they have leased this popular hotel, for so many years the well known favourite resort of the Canadian Public, while under the management of Mr. Howard, and have, regardless of cost, re-fitted and re-furnished it anew throughout. Situated in the very centre of the business part of the city, the Howard Hotel offers many advantages and conveniences to commercial men, not enjoyed by the up town establishments, while the accommodation, comfort and attendance will be found equal to that of the best hotel in the city. They have spared no expense to place the house in the very first rank of Hotels, and trust, by attention, perseverance, and moderate charges, to merit a share of the patronage so long and so deservedly enjoyed by Mr. Howard.
