ARRIVAL OF THE CITY OF LONDON.

New York, April 30.

The steamship City of London, from Liverpool on the 19th, via Queenstown on the 20th, arrived to-day.

The steamship America arrived at Southampton on the 19th.

The American ship William Tell put into Pernambuco on the 20th. Capt. Murdock and second mate Batten were wounded. Investigation was progressing.

The fall of Richmond monopolizes attention. Effect partially received per Africa.

The cotton market at re-opening was heavy and irregular, but only ½d a. 1d lower, and afterwards became firmer, and the loss partially recovered. The same remarks apply to Manchester.

LATER BY THE AMERICA.

The effect hardly apparent at the closing of this summary, but the cotton market exhibits continued firmness. Comments were made before the arrival of the America.

The Times thinks the loss of Richmond might itself perhaps be sustained, but combined with the defeat of Lee, it represents a veritable catastrophe. It is due to Grant that his military abilities should be recognized. He did fight it out on that line. The reward of fortitude is at last.

The Times also pays tribute to Sheridan and to Lee, and as regards the future it says: Time alone can solve the problem. If the South now proves powerless and desponding, the work of the North will be easy; but we have now arrived at the end, not of a war, but of the first stage of political revolution. The real troubles of the North are but just beginning.

The Daily News says it is not yet in a position to judge how decisive the result is.

The Star considers the Richmond catastrophe as the end of the slaveholders' rebellion. Davis and Lee may, however, attempt to carry on their career a few months longer in the Mississippi provinces.

The Daily Telegraph says it seems now beyond human probability that the Confederacy should conquer independence, for Richmond is the catastrophe of the South. Numbers, resolution and resources have beaten diplomacy, devotion and desperate valor. Guerilla warfare may prolong the miseries of the South, but can scarcely alter the determination of the Federals.

The Post says, admitting the victories claimed by the Federals, they must now be about to enter into the real difficulties of their task.

It is stated that Mr. Gladstone's budget will leave nearly four millions sterling surplus at his disposal.

In the French Chamber of Deputies on an amendment to the address, proposing a paragraph on American affairs favorable to the North, M. Eugene Pellaton made a speech highly eulogistic of the Northern cause and rejoicing that the slavery rebellion is crushed by the fall of Richmond. He thought the American question ought not to have been passed over in silence. In the speech from the throne and in the address. M. Pellaton was continually interrupted by southern sympathisers in the chamber, and was finally compelled to desist owing to the noise. The amendment received 24 votes, and was of course lost like all amentments, many prominent men abstaining from voting. The address was finally carried entire and presented to the Emperor, who returned thanks in a brief speech.

Latest per City of London, via Queenstown 20th.

The Confederate iron clad Stonewall arrived at Teneriffe March 31st from Lisbon. She was allowed thirty-four hours to coal and provision. The advices received per steamer America at Southampton and the Damascus at Queenstown, further strengthen the conviction that Southern resistance to the United States Government is virtually ended. The Confederate loan has declined to 17 to 18, Federal securities are very active and advancing.

ARRIVAL OF THE PERUVIAN.

Father Point, April 30.

The steamship Peruvian from Liverpool on the 20th, via Londonderry on the 21st, passed this point at 11:40 a.m., to-day, en route to Quebec. Her advices are one day later than those by the City of London at New York.

Liverpool, April 20.

The London Morning Advertiser makes a questionable statement that on the fall of Richmond, Napoleon proposes an armstice between England and France against the United States in the event of an attack on Canada.

The London Index yet expresses hope for the South in the second act of the war, which it says is about to commence.

Buchanan & Co., china merchants of Glasgow, have suspended, with liabilities to the amount of £750,000 to £1,000,000.

LATE FROM QUEBEC.

Quebec, April 29.

The case of Butterworth vs. Hough was brought to a conclusion to-day. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff and awarded him $500 damages.

Two Companies of Quebec Volunteers who have been serving on the frontier returned to-day, and received a hearty reception.

The Shandon, Anderson master, from the Clyde March 28th, with general cargo for here and Montreal, arrived from sea at noon She will leave for latter place on Monday night. Capt. Anderson reports having passed two vessels in the gulf.

ITEMS OF NEWS.

NEW TERRITORIES.—Nevada having become a State, the Union has nine territories now organized and rapidly growing into new States—viz: Arizona, Colorado, Dacotah, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Utah, and Washington. There is a bill pending in Congress for another, a tenth territory, made up of portions of Idaho, Dacotah, and Nebraska; Idaho losing a part of its south-easterly portion, and Nebraska a slice of its western half.

THE SACRED COLLEGE.—By the death of Cardinal Wiseman, the number of Cardinal Wiseman, the number of Cardinals is reduced to sixty. As the Sacred College, consists of seventy members, ten cardinals hats remain at the disposal of the Pope. We learn from the Annuario Pontificio for 1865, published a fortnight ago in Rome, that five Cardinals are over eighty, thirteen over seventy, twenty-eight over sixty, and that only one is fifty years of age.—True Witness.

ANOTHER INVASION SCARE.—The good people of Burlington, Vermont State, were on Friday in a state of "scare," owing to a supposed raid impending on their little town. The telegraphic account says that "information was received" that the rebel sympathisers in Canada were "preparing" for another raid on the frontier. In consequence of this information—how or whence obtained, is not stated—the military authorities were put in readiness and guards were placed on the Lake Champlain steamers, and the militia called out, &c. We suspect the whole will turn out to be a mischievous hoax, but it is nevertheless annoying that these periodical panics should occur, as they have the tendency of giving Canada a bad name on the frontier towns.

Prof. Agassiz has sailed in company with his wife and six assistants, en route to Brazil. He had obtained leave of absence from his post at Cambridge to visit that interesting country for glacial researches, but was expecting to proceed alone, for want of sufficient means to support a corps of scientific observers. This want being casually revealed in conversation with Mr. Nathaniel Thayer, a Boston banker, the latter inquired the estimated expense of a single explorer, and was informed that it would be three thousand dollars. "Take six assistants, Mr. Agassiz," was his prompt rejoinder, "and send the bills to me." The distinguished naturalist announced at his last lecture before the Lowell Institute that the steamship company had offered to convey him and his party free of charge.

Grantley Berkley, the English snob and hunter, tells us the following story of Lady Haggerstone's scheme to charm the Regent:—Her ladyship had at her residence a miniature farm-yard, and those pretty little Alderney cattle. When the Prince and his friends had arrived she came forward from a side wicket as a milk maid, for the purpose of making a syllabub for the Prince. She had a silver pail in one hand, and an ornamental stool in the other. Lady Haggerstone tripped along with ribbons flying from her dainty little milking hat, hung on one side of her graceful head, and the smallest little apron tied below her laced stomacher, till she came opposite his Royal Highness to whom she dropped a really graceful courtesy. Then passing lightly over the beautiful plaited straw, her tucked up gown showing her neat ankle, as well as her colored stockings, she placed her stool and pail convenient for use. Leaning against the flank of one of the crossest looking of the Alderneys, she was attempting to commence her rustic labors, but not having selected the right sex, the offended animal did not seem to fancy the performance, for he first kicked out, then trotted away, nearly upsetting stool, pail and Lady Haggerstone, who, covered with confusion made a hasty retreat for her little dairy, whence she did not appear again.

A marriage took place a few days back at the mairie of the eight arrondissement in Paris. The bridegroom, an honest and industrious locksmith, was uneducated, and when called on to sign the register, marked a cross. The bride, on the contrary, although belonging to a poor family, had received an excellent education. Nevertheless, when the pen was passed to her, she also signed a cross. The bridesmaid, a former school-fellow of the bride's having expressed astonishment, the young wife replied, "Would you have me humiliate my husband! To-morrow I will commence myself teaching him to read and write.

By order of the Secretary of War.

W. A. NICHOLS,
Assistant Adjt. Gen.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, by my proclamation of the 25th inst. Thursday the 25th day of next month was recommended as a day for special humiliation and prayer, in consequence of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, the late President of the United States; but whereas, my attention has been called to the fact that the day aforesaid is sacred to a large number of Christians as one of rejoicing for the ascension of the Saviour; now therefore be it known, that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby suggest that the religious services recommended as aforesaid should be postponed until Thursday, the first day of June next.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington this 29th of April in the year of our Lord 1865, and of Independence of the United States of America the 29th.

[Signed] ANDREW JOHNSON.
W. Hunter, Sec. of State.

THE "STONEWALL" IN THE WEST INDIES.

RETRENCHMENT AT WASHINGTON.

Washington April 29.

Information has been received by the Navy Department that the rebel iron-clad Stonewall left Teneriffe on the 22nd for the West Indies, and she is supposed by this time to be in that locality.

The Government is establishing military posts in St. Mary's Prince George, and Charles Counties, Maryland. This is done to protect the loyal people in that vicinity, and to prevent any treasonable demonstrations by the disloyal. The protection given the murderer Booth plainly exhibited the extent of the latter. The troops are to forage on the country and to give receipts for everything they take, which will be paid to all persons proving their loyalty.

Edwin Booth, who is now in this city, came here, it is said, at the instance of his mother, to obtain the dead body of his brother. If such is the case he has been unsuccessful up to the present time.

The Government has already begun the work of retrenching with earnestness its expenses, and on the first of May a large number of clerks of the various departments will be dismissed.

Considerable disorder has existed here for the past few days among the numbers of troops who have passed through this city. Severs have been killed by fighting among themselves.

St. Louis, April 29.

The officer in command of the paroled prisoners on board of the steamer Sultana, which exploded above Memphis, states that all the Eastern men were saved.

The Democrat has a special despatch from Cairo, which says that the Sultana was going at ordinary speed at the time the catastrophe occurred, and all seemed well up to the time of the accident. The troops on board represented every State in the Union.

Cairo, April 29.

The news of the assassination of the President reached Little Rock, Arkansas, on the morning of the 17th inst.

The Legislature, after passing appropriate resolutions, adjourned. A large mass meeting was subsequently held, and appropriate addresses made and resolutions of sorrow adopted.

The Arkansas Legislature adjourned, sine die, on the 26th inst.

A flag of truce was sent by General Reynolds to General Fagan with the same terms as granted by General Grant to Gen. Lee. The result was not known—the return of the flag having been delayed by high water.

Baltimore, April 28.

A well known citizen of Baltimore committed suicide last Monday, a short distance from this city, by shooting himself with a pistol. No cause could be assigned for the rash act, except that he had recently seemed depressed and melancholy. Subsequent events have indubted the suspicion that he was in some way implicated in the conspiracy, and last night the body was exhumed, embalmed, and sent to Washington by orders of the Government. The affair causes much speculation, and there are many reports in connection with it, as well as facts which it is deemed imprudent to publish at present.

Louisville, April 20.

Nine hundred rebels surrendered at Cumberland Gap yesterday and were paroled.

New York, April 29.

The Post's Washington special says that it is estimated that Secretary Stanton's orders will dismiss from the military service at least fifty thousand persons.

The latest advices show that there is a good prospect of capturing Jeff Davis, specie and baggage train, if not himself and cabinet.

ANOTHER RAM.—SHE PASSES THE MISSISSIPPI FLEET.

SURRENDER OF A PORTION OF MORGAN'S COMMAND.

Memphis, April 29.

The Vicksburg Herald of the 24th has a despatch dated at the mouth of the Red river, on the 24th, giving the following important intelligence:—At 9 o'clock this evening the famous ram Webb ran out of Red river, passing all our gunboats and iron clads, and descended the Mississippi with lightning speed. When first discovered she had no lights, emitted no smoke, and looked like a large mass moving on the waters. She was fired on from the Manhattan, when she immediately showed signs of life and shot passed the Manhattan with a sign to the fleet. The Lafayette then started in pursuit of her. The officers of the Manhattan estimate the speed of the Webb at 25 miles an hour when passing the steamer. The Saratoga from New Orleans met the Webb at Tonica at a quarter to ten o'clock; she then attempted to run down the Saratoga, but was unsuccessful. It is believed that the Webb intends destroying all commerce.

New York, May 1.—The steamer Savannah brings Charleston dates of the 28th.

An expedition sent out under Gen. Potter had been recalled under an order to suspend hostilities based on Sherman's first agreement but on the morning of the 28th, another party was sent out to notify the rebels at Orangeville of a resumption of hostilities.

The large building on Sudbury street known as Murat Block, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning, and two small wooden buildings adjoining were crushed by the falling walls.—Among the occupants were Kemball, Bros. & Co., carriage repository; Burr & Co., rubber manufacturers; Mr. Gallamere, auctioneer and commission merchant; Hiram Tucker, spring bed manufacturer; Hinds & Williams, telegraph instrument makers, and others; also the Union Billiard Rooms.

Lexington, Ky., May 1.

105 officers, and 1,000 men of Morgan's old command, surrendered to Gen. Hobsons at East Sterling t -day. 1,200 rebels also surrendered at points to Hobson's troops. Several hundred deserters from the rebel army took the amnesty oath. Eastern Kentucky is now clear of rebel troops.

New York, May 1.

A Philadelphia despatch this morning stated that Boston Corbett, who shot Booth, had been shot at the Relay House near Baltimore, and killed. A subsequent despatch to the Philadelphia Bulletin contradicts the report, and says Corbett was there and well this morning.

The Commercial's Washington correspondent says Sheridan's troopers are in that city dismounted. They say they are en route for Texas, and in the meantime are having a jolly time, rather to the disgust of prudent dames of secesh proclivities.

MRS. MAXWELL'S TESTIMONIAL.

New York, Dec. 23, 1862.

Knowing positively that Reeve's Ambrosia produced a beautiful head of hair for Mr. Lizzie Shepherd, of Brooklyn, N.Y., I was induced, thereby, to use it thoroughly. I needed something for my hair, it being short and thin; had used only one-half dozen bottles when I could plainly notice an increase in its length, strength and beauty. An experience of about two years has proved a complete success. My hair is now, by measurement four feet ten inches in length; nearly reaching to the floor. I have allowed my photograph to proclaim the merits of Reeves' Ambrosia to the world.
