The Editor's Table.—No. 123.

Our Table' is well supplied with the lines of the coming year :—

The Christmas Number of 'London Society.' W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto. One Shilling Sterling.

London Society for December. W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto. One Shilling Sterling.

These charming London Magazines come at a very seasonable time. They show the perfection at which cheap periodical literature and pictorial embellishments have arrived. In point of literary talent, 'London Society' is quite on a par with the higher priced London Magazines, while in point of embellishment it goes far before them. The New Yorkers showed how much could be done in both lines for a monthly quarter of a dollar (Harper's Monthly), but it was left for the Londoners to bear away the palm in the Shilling 'London Society.' The Christmas Number on 'Our Table' is one continued page of engravings, enlivened with Christmas Carols and Christmas Stories. A more delightful book can scarcely be conceived. We recommend all who can sign 'Pater familias,' to procure it forthwith for the amusement of his family circle.—The December Number of 'London Society' is an ordinary good sample of the year's production. 'London Society' is the best (considering its low price,) Magazine, that comes on 'Our Table.'

The Westminster Review for October. Reprint of L. Scott & Co., New York. John Creighton, Kingston. $3.

The Quarterly Review for October.—Reprint of L. Scott & Co., New York. John Creighton, Kingston. $3.

These excellent Reviews, the one extremely orthodox, and the other the very reverse of orthodoxy, will serve to wile away the tedium of a long Canadian night. To those in this far away land who only hear of new books, these Reviews are of incalculable service—in fact could not be spared. They keep up acquaintance with the world of letters, and though the information they give is of a superficial nature, it is better than total ignorance. Let us see how many new and useful topics are the subjects of the essays in these two Reviews :—

In the heterodox Westminster—No. 1, Personal Representation ; 2, Rationalism in Europe, 3, Capacities of Women ; 4, Palgrave's Travels in Arabia ; 5, The Holy Roman Empire ; 6, The Doctrine of Nationalities ; 7, Grote's Plato ; 8, Letters from Egypt ; and 9, Contemporaneous Literature.

In the orthodox London Quarterly—No 1, The Cathedrals of Europe ; 2, The Mariner's Compass ; 3, The Resources, Condition and Prospects of Italy ; 4, The Poetry of Praed and Lord Houghton ; 5, Blind People ; 6, Field Sports of the Greeks and Romans ; 7, The Gallican Church ; 8, The Russians in Central Asia.

What a world of thought in both !

The Churchman's Magazine for December, W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto; General agents. One shilling sterling.

The contents are as follows :—Our Bishops and Deans, No. 10, the Right Rev. Connop Thirlwall, D. D., Lord Bishop of St. David's ; Advent with the Poets, by A. H. Grant, M. A. ; Christ Church Day : An Oxford Story ; "How long ! O Lord, How Long ?" a Lyric by the Rev. W. J. Iroos, D. D. ; Latimer, the Autobiographic Preacher, (with a portrait); Our Parish Party, by the Rev. Cornelius Witherby ; A Vision of Death, by the Hon. Mrs. G. A. Gifford ; Our Educational Facilities, by the Rev. W. Webster, M. A. ; Our Clerical Club, by the Editor ; Concerning the Humming-Bird Moth, by the Rev. Richard Wilton, M. A. ; How to Decorate your Church for Christmas, by Dr. Parker. See advertisement.

The Atlantic Monthly for January, 1866, Ticknor & Fields, Boston. $4.00.

The opening No. of this Monthly is a fair criterion of its merits, as the Literary Magazine of the United States. It has nothing but good letter press to recommend it outwardly, no embellishments, no prettinesses of any kind, but it has in lieu, the best, nay almost the only sound criticism of the lighter kind extant on this continent. It daily grows in favor with us, the more we become acquainted with its idiosyncrasies, and most probably the same is the case with the generality of its readers. The contents of the present No. are 1, Hawthorne's Notes ; 2, Castles in the Air ; 3, Beauty and the Beast ; 4, The Wilderness ; 5, The Belle of Lynn ; 6, The High Tide of December ; 7, Lucy's Letters ; 8, Doctor John, Nor-xii. 9, Wind the Clock ; 10, The Kingdom Coming ; 11, The Chimney Corner, for 1866 ; 12, Griffith Gaunt, No. ii, 13; Review and Literary Notes.

Fortieth Annual Report of the Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, 12 No. pp 144.

This, by no means very small volume, contains all the statistics of the Wesleyan Methodist Missions throughout all Canada.

Harper's Magazine for January, 1866, John Creighton, Kingston. $4.00

As usual Harper's Monthly is filled with good things, both pleasing to the eye and mind. Lord Milton and Dr. Cheadle's journey across the Rocky Mountains is profusely embellished with good engravings, and judging from these the prospect of a Railway to the Pacific through British Territory seems very remote. What a country ! Due justice is done in Harper's to the indomitable pluck of the English lordling and his more adult companion. 'Armsdale' progresses at a snail's pace, and its conclusion may be looked for about the middle of the year 1871 ! There are many good things in this No. but some are borrowed from England, for instance "More Witnesses," from "London Society." For shame ! Harper's has now great merits of its own and can afford to be wholly original.

Our Young Folks for January, 1866, Ticknor & Fields, Boston. $2.00.

Another Volume is commenced in this January Number, and the success with which the publication has met, encourages the publishers to increased exertions. The following list of contributors to a single No. (the present), will show the pains already taken to merit success: Capt. Mayne Reid, Gail Hamilton, Mrs. Becher Stowe, Jean Ingelow, Margaret Eytinge, L. [illegible] Gaylord, Rose Terry, Charles Dawson Shanly and Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney.

The Law Courts and Municipal Gazette for December.—W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto. $2.

The Upper Canada Farmer for Dec. 15th. George Brown, Toronto.

The Printer's Register for December. Wm. Dorrington, London.

Journal de l'Instruction Publique pour Decembre. E. Senecal, Montreal. $4

L'Echo De La France. Vol. 1. No. 2 Longmore et Cie., Montreal. $4.

This is a new French Magazine, edited by Mons. L. Ricard. The subjects on which it treats are the following, viz. :—1. La Marque de Naissance ; 2. Historic Philosophique ; 3. L'Ouvoir sans le Salon ; 4. Mort du General Lamoriciere ; 5. Impressions d' un Paysan ; 6. Chronique ; 7. Les Avenements du Mois.

Demorest's Monthly Magazine for January, 1866. Madame Demorest, New York. $3.

This is perhaps the most thorough Lady's Book extant, for it seems almost entirely devoted to Fashion. The fair editress enjoys a high reputation as the best modiste in America, and she makes use of this Magazine to extend her fame, and consequently her business. The Fashion Plates are very beautiful, and the Magazine contains other Engravings equally elegant.

The Times—A Daily Sheet—Ottawa.

Le Canada—A Tri-Weekly Sheet—Ottawa.

The above are additions to the Metropolitan Press, the one in English, the other in French. Both are well printed and well got up newspapers, and their politics are unexceptionable. It is said that Mr. Cotton and Mr. Foote control the destiny of the one, and the Messrs. Duverney of the other. We can say of these handsome sheets the same that was said of the Evening Post—there is not sufficient business in Ottawa to maintain them, and Government pap alone is not enough. There is no in the whole city as much commercial business as would defray the expense of the Midnight Telegraph. Ottawa might maintain a couple of English Dailies and one French Daily, and it can do no more for many years to come. It is a great pity to see so much time, labor, talent, and money thrown away, as they probably will be in the new Metropolis before newspapers settle down to the level of the business.

Messrs. Ticknor & Fields of Boston tell us by circular that on Saturday, January 6th, 1866, they will begin the publication of a weekly journal entitled Every Saturday : A Journal of Choice Reading, Selected from Foreign Current Literature. As Messrs. Ticknor & Fields already publish three Magazines of purely original matter, they think they can venture on a fourth, culled from Europe, therefore they can.

"Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals ; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The Publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will not only be entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class."

"Every Saturday is intended for Town and Country, for the Fireside, the Seaside, the Railway and the Steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on Science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however hard and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style, as to charm the reader while instructing him."

The Terms are :—"Single Numbers, 10 cents. Subscription Price, $5.00 per year, in advance. Monthly Parts will be issued, containing 128 pages each handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per, in advance."

The State of Kansas—A Home for Immigrants. 12mo. pp. 24.

This is a cleverly compiled pamphlet, proving incontestably that of all the States in the Union, the State of Kansas is not only the best, but almost the only one for the emigrant to flee to. Credat Judeus!

The American Farmer for January, 1866. John Tarner, Rochester. $1.

This is the new Agricultural Journal consequent upon the decease of the 'Genesee Farmer.' It appears to be a very similar publication.

The Phrenological Journal for January, 1866. Fowler & Wells, New York.—$2.

The Phrenological Journal commences its 43rd Volume with the present January Number—which contains Rufus Choate, John Marshall, Sir Mathew Hale, John Bright, Flat headed Indians, etc., with Portraits. The Two Paths—8 Portraits.—Character in Shaking Hands, illustrated. Influence of Mind on Body. Love and Lovers. Fore-seeing and Fore-knowing—Ghosts and Prophets. Heads and Hats.—Dress and Disease. Engineering as a pursuit. New York city, with engraved view. Advice to a Student. The Wolf and the Lamb. The Lion and the Mouse. The Ass and his Driver. The Dog in the Manger, etc. ; with upwards of 30 illustrations.

A new condiment.

This time two years we introduced to Kingston an aspirant for public favor in the shape of a humble Bologna Sausage Maker, an Italian, by name Pisati. Well, by little and little he has got on and prospered. He sold his Bolognas, he cured hams and sold them readily, and now he has one of the best filled Pork Butcher's Shop in all Kingston, and judging from the rapidity with which it is filled and emptied, he must be doing a roaring trade, a trade which his industry and attention to business richly deserve. But what has all this to do with the new Condiment ? A great deal. Last Saturday he sent us some of his Spiced and Stuffed Pig's Feet. This is the new Condiment. We shall not tell our readers what it is like—let them find that out. But we shall say, that if this new condiment is not popular in Kingston, the people don't possess the good taste we gave them credit for.

Montreal, Dec. 23.

The Hon. Mr. Macdonald and the Hon. Mr. Galt arrived here yesterday. The resignation of the Hon. Mr. Brown has been accepted. The Hon. Mr. Howland has proceeded West to consult his political friends.

Mail Arrived.—On Sunday morning, the safe in the office of Messrs. G. Chaffey and Bros., on the Atlantic Wharf was opened and $80 extracted therefrom. The door of the office was opened (about eight o'clock) with the proper key, it being usually left about the premises. The safe was unlocked with a skeleton key with which the thieves had provided themselves. Circumstances show that the robbery was undoubtedly perpetrated by parties well acquainted with the office. The money taken was all in $10 bills with the exception of $10 in silver, and the robbers left some $150 in greenbacks, and a check for $4000 undisjarbed in the safe. Information was given to the Police as soon as the robbery was discovered, but no clue has been found to the thieves.

Another Burglary.—On Monday evening while Professor Murray of Queen's College, who lives in Sebastopol Terrace, was spending the evening with a friend his house was entered by burglars, and a writing desk, containing a watch and chain, and a valuable collection of jewelry and relics taken from one of the rooms. There was no one in charge of the house at the time, the servant having left to spend the evening also. The entrance to the house was made through the cellar window. No clue has been found to the robbers though the Police are diligently looking out for some trace of them. There must a desperate set of thieves in the city, when a citizen's property is not safe even on the Sacred Christmas night.

The Volunteers.—The Fourteenth Battalion have received their orders to parade at the Drill shed on Monday morning at nine for a march out into the country, returning at noon. The service of the bugle band of the Royal Canadian Rifles has kindly been granted, and if the weather be favorable there will be a large muster.

Partnership in Ottawa.—A card, in another column, announces a partnership being entered into, between the Hon. Mr. Campbell and Mr. A. T. Drummond, for the practice of law in this city.—Ottawa Union.

COMMERCE AND MARINE.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal, Dec. 26, 1865.

Gold in New York at 12 o'clock, 145¼ a ½. Market prices nominal ; very little doing.

The Weather.—The weather is very unsettled, a thaw having set in on Sunday. The snow had all nearly disappeared on Christmas Day, and there was positively no sleighing, and very indifferent skating on the Rinks. As far as nature goes there was not a merry Christmas. The prospects are that navigation will not be closed the present year, there being clear water in the harbor except above the bridge.

LOCAL NEWS VIA NEW YORK.

We have an item of local news to-day via the New York Herald. A correspondent of that paper telegraphs from this city that an agent of the United States Post-office department and the United States consul in Toronto have recently found in bond in the custom house here $10,000 worth of United States three-cent postage stamps, of the consignment of which to a house here by the rebel agents in Liverpool, the Federal government received information in August last. It is supposed the stamps were captured by the privateer Florida. An injunction on them has been taken out, and it is expected the question of their proprietorship will be shortly argued before a Canadian court.

Good Export.—Large quantities of staves are being shipped from Quebec to Europe via Portland. No doubt there must be a very good demand at home for this article as freight by this route is enormous. Messrs. Dunn & Holmes are the principal shippers.

The Coburg Sentinel says that the party of American capitalists who visited the Marmora iron region returned on Monday last, and expressed themselves fully satisfied with the prospects. A party of miners are to be employed immediately to take out a few tons of ore for the purpose of being more fully tested ; and if it prove satisfactory, of which there appears to be no doubt, the work of building the Marmora branch will be proceeded with at once. The complete restoration of the Coburg and Peterboro railway, and the extension to Mud Lake, will also be immediately carried out, so that we may expect stirring times here next summer.

The propeller Bruno, which was sunk on the bar opposite Ogdensburgh, a week since, was got off on Thursday last, and proceeded on her way to Montreal.
