CANADA'S DOUBTFUL SCHEMES.

A special cablegram to the Star says:—

"The list for the issue of the bonds of the Atlantic and Lake Superior railway closed last night. Hon. Mr. Haggart's reported denial of the alleged Canadian government guarantee leads the Westminster Gazette and other papers to demand a definite statement from the company, and the Canadian Gazette stakes its reputation that the subscribers to the bonds will never see a farthing of the principal back. It deeply regrets, for the sake of Canada's reputation, that the government is associated with the issue, though it admits, seeing that any one can purchase an annuity, that the government had little choice. It further says that the rules should be revised to prevent the use of the government's name in the promotion of individual schemes."

Isn't this an unfortunate statement to appear in the English press? The Canadian Gazette is not unfriendly towards the present government—indeed, it has been so kindly in its criticism, so faithful in its reecho of all that has been said of the ministers as to lead to the impression that it was subsidized by them—and yet it feels the necessity of raising a warning against a repetition of experiences that are hurtful to Canada's good name. The government surely must not give its endorsation to schemes of which it knows nothing, and of the bona fides of which it cannot give a guarantee. It should not only make a revelation in regard to this scheme, but to all and sundry that are now before it and in regard to some of which there has been preserved a mystery that is suspicious of wrong doing.

NAKED ELECTRIC WIRES.

A great defect in civic government is the omission to legislate against the erection of naked wires for the conveyance of electric currents about the city. That such legislation is really required is admitted by all who know anything about the danger of naked wires charged with electricity. In the danger the city leads, in stringing naked wires for fire alarm purposes. It may be said that the fire alarm is controlled by a current so weak as to be in itself absolutely harmless. But the fact must not be lost sight of that other wires, heavily charged with electricity, are crossing and re-crossing the fire alarm, and that the accidental contact of these is liable to produce disastrous results.

A naked railway wire and a telephone wire came into contact a few nights ago, and the Bell company can give the best account of the result. Suffice it to say that this accident stimulated the thought which is reflected in this article, that the city should have a supervision of the work which, if inefficiently done, may be so dangerous.

Some time ago an expert from Montreal was called in by the fire, water and light committee to make an examination of the fire alarm system. His report was full and interesting, and pointed out what should be done to make the system up to date. The changes advised meant, at the time, the expenditure of too much money, but some standard of excellence should be aimed at by the department. Apart from this there is the necessity for civic supervision so far as the general erection of electric wires is concerned.

The city should have the advice of the best electrician available, one who is abreast of the times and in touch with the latest developments of science, and with his aid a by-law should be prepared and rigidly enforced having to do with the erection of electric wires throughout the city.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Oh for the shade in some vast wilderness!

* * *

In connection with the new Soo canal great scandals are coming to light. The revelations before the public accounts committee, and of newspaper critics at the Soo, are making a commotion. Verily the reign of the Haggart party is a remarkable one.

* * *

The government is said to be at sixes and sevens on the school question, particularly the French members. Sir Adolph Caron wants the remedial legislation postponed until next session, and Hon. Mr. Ouimet demands its passage at once. Who is boss, anyway?

* * *

Mr. Hughes, M.P., has an idea that the dominion parliament should declare that the legislatures have full control of education, and that they should legislate out of existence every form of school save those of a national character. It is easy to see how Sam is going to vote on the Manitoba question.

* * *

The millers of Manitoba have the benefit of 37½c duty and 21c freight, but yet the Minneapolis flour manufacturers undersell them. More remarkable still, flour from Manitoba wheat is selling cheaper in Great Britain than in Winnipeg. No wonder the Globe asks, Does the N.P. make you rich?

* * *

In a bulletin issued by the Ontario department of agriculture fourteen correspondents condemn the importation of pauper boys and girls from England. Of which fact the immigration department should take due notice and be governed accordingly. And, incidentally, it should consider very carefully the effects of Gen. Booth's desire to dump on Canadian soil the toughs with whom he wants to form a colony. The percentage of "revived" people who hold to a reformed life is very small, and the percentage of reformed criminals is even smaller.

* * *

G. M. Pullman says the only way to get rich is to give the people what they want. And when, last year, his workmen demanded wages equal to their necessities, and taking very little from the huge dividends his company was paying, he declined it, and so provoked the greatest strike that has occurred in America in many a day.

* * *

The Brantford Expositor says the question of conservative leadership lies between Hon. Mr. Foster and Sir Aldoph Caron, and advises "that the party choose a leader who never had a conscience nor knew the nature of a scruple." This implies that there is a difference between Foster and Caron which it would be nice to have distinguished.

WOLFE ISLAND WAFTS.

Death Of James Kyle—The Prospects As To Hay And Grain.

WOLFE ISLAND, June 19.—Very warm, dry weather during the past week. The crops are doing nicely, but a little rain would do good. Mrs. Kaylor and daughter have returned to Kingston after spending a few days in the village. Miss Minnie Dawson, sick for some time, is out again. Armstrong is pressing hay this week. The forty hour services in the Roman Catholic church are drawing large crowds to the village this week. Rev. O'Hara, of Stella, paid this place a visit lately. Miss Brophy is visiting at Reeve McRae's. The death of James Kyle at Cold Springs at six o'clock, this morning, has cast a gloom over the village. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. His family and friends have the sympathy of the entire village. Thomas Connolly and wife, a newly-married couple, returned to the island to-day from New York. Rev. Mr. Lapton has returned from New York. A fine monument arrived here from Kingston this morning for the grave of Joseph Kyle. It is a fine piece of work and a credit to Kingston. Rev. G. S. White left on Monday for Napanee.

The hay crop from present appearance will be light. The cheese factories are booming. There are five running at present. Wolfe Island factory has an average of 9,000 lbs. daily. James McGlynn, fishery officer, has returned from a trip to Ottawa. He visited the experimental farm and says it is looking fine. Robert Payne has started a general store. There are now six stores in the village. Theodore Briggs has been painting his buildings lately. Channel Grove is looking fine.

The Council Meeting.

WOLFE ISLAND, June 3.—Municipal council met at 2 p. m. Members all present. Minutes read and confirmed. The account of Jas. Reid for the burial of the late Thos. Tennant was refused consideration. The Rathbun Co's. account for $5.99 for wood furnished Mrs. Osser, will be paid. Messrs. Mosier and Vanness were appointed a committee to examine the Grimshaw bridge and report. The account of Mrs. Neal for goods furnished the late Albert Cameron was refused consideration. Council adjourned to the first Monday in July at two p. m.

AN ILLINOIS SENSATION.

A Lady of Union County Recovers Her Health in a Marvellous Manner.

ANNA, Illinois, June 17.—A very interesting case of recovery from a complicated form of kidney trouble has taken place here, and the details are gradually being made public. The sufferer was Miss M. T. Loomis, who for a long time has been a victim to severe pains in all parts of the body. She consulted a number of doctors and was treated for a great variety of complaints, the diagnosis all proving faulty. At length she determined to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, having read and heard much of their efficacy and found her expectations justified in a complete cure.

Queen's Men Dining.

The general assembly has drawn a great many graduates of Queen's university to London, and Tuesday these united with the alumni living in London and held a re-union in the shape of a lunch. Rev. J. G. Stuart, Toronto, presided and an exceedingly pleasant time was spent. Thos. Alexander, customs collector of London, proposed the toast of "Queen's university" in an excellent speech, and Principal Grant replied in a speech, in which he made the remark that there is need of a chair of church history in the theological faculty of Queen's, and that he intends to get the endowment this year. The graduates present were asked to help in the work.

Rev. Prof. Burgess, Huron college, London, proposed the toast of "The Professorial Staff," to which Prof. Dyde, Queen's, responded. The toast of "Alumni" was proposed by Rev. Dr. McTavish, Toronto, and excellent replies were made by Rev. Dr. Milligan, Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, Toronto; Rev. J. Fraser Smith, Honan, China; Dr. Ferguson, London South; W. T. McClement, London collegiate institute; Rev. Alex. Campbell, Wolseley, N.W.T.; Rev. Neil McPherson, Oil Springs, and Rev. Alfred Gandier, Halifax, N.S.

Ministers Should At Least Be Honest.

Toronto News.

At the Hamilton conference several ministers were charged by the book steward with being very poor pay and the threat was made that the law might be appealed to as a means of compelling the delinquents to respect their obligations.

At the Toronto conference something of the same kind was alleged when it was asserted that some of those present had not even paid the notes given on account of connexional funds, and when it was stated that only about one sixth of those in attendance had paid the paltry dollar called for on billeting account.

It is not well for Methodism, it is not well for christianity, to have such reports go out. They tend to destroy the respect of ordinary people for ministers of the gospel generally, and when respect for the ministry is shaken confidence in the doctrine preached by the ministry must be weakened.

The Methodist church should remove what is a grave scandal and disgrace, even if in doing so it is necessary to expel preachers whose practice in every day life is so strongly at variance with the precepts they enunciate with such unction on Sundays.

Sunday Cheese Making.

Brockville Times.

Tuesday afternoon the cases of nine patrons, charged with drawing milk to Maple Grange cheese factory on Sunday, and of the cheesemaker, John Philips, for manufacturing on the same day, were called in the police court. I. N. Marshall, on behalf of the defendants, admitted the charges and entered a plea of justification on the ground that in order to keep the milk sweet it was necessary to deliver it to the factory. All the cases were allowed to drop on the payment of a certain amount of costs with the understanding that hereafter no patron is to convey milk to the factory on the Sabbath if there is more labor in doing so than in taking it to his or her own premises. In some instances it was shown it was less labor to deposit the milk in the factory, but in the majority of cases the contrary was shown.

DIVISION OF THE DIOCESE.

THE REPORT LAID BEFORE THE SYNOD YESTERDAY.

The Mission Grants Not Adequate in Several Instances—No Self-Glorification But Stimulation in the Publication of Donors to the Mission Fund.

Synod resumed at 3 p.m. Greetings were read from the bishop, clergy and laity of the diocese of Niagara. They cordially received the greetings of the diocese of Ontario and heartily return fraternal greetings and trust that their deliberations in Kingston by God's blessing may be so guided as to promote the welfare of the church. The telegram is signed C. Niagara.

The motion of Canon Burke to grant $50 each to the missions of Roslin and Tweed was carried.

Rev. Mr. Reid moved that the mission board be instructed to put Beachburg back in the same class as it was in last year.

Mr. Reid said that the grant to Beachburg had been reduced by $50 this year.

Col. Matheson objected to the motion, saying that the mission board had no money and he did not think the board should be forced into debt.

The archbishop said it was not fair to the board who have expended much time and energy in the preparation of the estimates to ask them to make additions. The mission board has expended every penny at their disposal, and a better plan would be to revise all the missions.

Judge Macdonald moved that the $100 granted to Bearbrook, last year, on account of poor crops, be struck off and give $50 to Beachburg.

This suggestion stirred the Rev. Mr. Clayton, of Bearbrook, and he made a vigorous appeal on behalf of the mission. He claimed he had as good a right to the grant as the missionary of Beachburg, who got a salary of over $400 last year, while he (the speaker) only got $360. He could not keep himself and family on this salary, and he had to go into debt.

Rev. W. Orr, of Beachburg, pleaded for the grant, and Col. Matheson and R. T. Walkem hoped both amendments would be voted down.

The motions were withdrawn.

Rev. Mr. Rayson wanted the Ernestown mission placed back in the class it had before. He moved a motion which was ruled out of order.

Prof. Worrell moved that the names of the individual contributors to the mission board be not printed on the parochial cards.

This started a lively argument and Rural Dean Nesbitt said the names of the contributors should be published. Archdeacon Jones said the printing of the names of contributors on parochial cards had been a detriment to the collectors in Brockville. Contributors had warned him frequently to refrain from printing their names. They used to appeal to the people for the love of Christ and the church. Now they appeal to them for the sake of having their names in print. This is a low motive. They wanted the people to give to the church and its causes, not for self esteem and not to have their names in print. Other religious bodies publish the names of contributors to missions, but the Anglican church should not follow other bodies. The church should set an example for others and have a higher motive than self-esteem. People who gave small sums do not want their names to appear.

Rural Dean Nesbitt said it was the contributors who gave small sums and were able to give more that he wanted to hit when he advocated the publishing of the names. It is the rich men they wanted to move. Prof. Worrell said the publication of the names, through parochial cards, was detrimental to the voluntary offerings of the church. The Methodists do not print any particular class of contributors, but they print them as a whole.

Dr. Smythe supported the printing of the names. It was a means of showing the disparity of the donations of parishioners. One man whom he knew was very rich gave fifty cents. He would not have known this had not the names been printed. Ten or twelve men gave all the mission money in St. George's cathedral, and it was right the names of these men should be published. The other parishioners who do not contribute will by this means become known. It will be retrogression if they interfere with the system of publishing the names.

Rev. Mr. Emery was not in favor of publishing the names.

Dr. Walkem said the publication of the names incited people to give money toward missions. The amounts given were seen by others, and they were inspired to give. The names were not published for the purpose of glorifying the giver, but for the purpose of leading others to contribute to the mission funds.

The motion was lost. The mission board report was then carried.

The chancellor read the report of the committee appointed to consider the resolutions sent down to the house by the synods of Toronto and Huron, respecting the formation of provincial synods coterminous with the civil provinces of the Dominion, and the abridgment of the powers of the present system. The committee reported that the synod of the diocese of Ontario did not concur in the resolutions. Adopted.

Judge Senkler presented the report of the committee on the division of funds. The principle of the division of the Episcopal endowment fund as adopted by this synod, is that the present Episcopal fund of the diocese of Ontario be divided in the following proportions, viz., two thirds to remain with the diocese of Ontario as hereafter to be constituted and one-third to go to the proposed diocese of Ottawa, be accepted and affirmed. The clergy trust fund, widows and orphans funds, divinity students fund ($31,500) clergy superannuation fund and diocesan mission fund to be awarded equally; each diocese taking one-half of the said funds and assuming one-half of the liabilities in respect of such funds respectively but that bequests to missions fund should remain in that diocese within the limits of which the testator resided when made.

So far as regards the Episcopal endowment fund, the division provided for above be not carried out until a vacancy in the see occurs. When the new diocese of Ottawa is duly organized, or as soon after as possible, the several funds mentioned shall be actually divided as set out, and such part as be due to the new diocese of Ottawa shall be handed over to the proper authorities of such diocese, to receive and manage the same. Added to the report was a statement from chancellor Walkem, in which he determined the character of the bequests to the diocese of Ontario. The Labatt bequest is general, having been given for the benefit of Ontario missions. The McMillan, Walker, Crawford and Keefer bequests are also general.

The report was discussed generally by Col. Matheson, Canon Spencer and Rev. Mr. Carey. The archbishop made a short address, in which he urged the raising of $20,000 above what had been estimated to be given to the new Ottawa diocese, in order that it may be enabled to give the bishop a respectable salary of between $3,000 and $5,000. If this $20,000 is not raised the speaker could not consent to the election of a bishop for Ottawa, because he would not be able to live on such a small salary as $2,000 per year. Canon Spencer thought that the bequests should be divided with the Ottawa diocese in proportion to what was contributed by the Ottawa end.

It was moved by Col. Matheson, seconded by Mr. Pense, to the effect that the report on the division of the funds be referred back to the committee with instructions to report in favor of the Watkins bequest remaining with the new diocese of Ontario, and the other funds to be equally divided.

Mr. Pense seconded the motion because it had been agreed that the Watkins bequest remain with the diocese of Ontario and that the Gainsford and other bequests be divided.

The motion was carried.

The report was then discussed as a whole.

Rev. S. Tighe urged those who were to be the members of the Ontario diocese to be careful in the matter of the division. He pointed out that if the division took place the Ottawa diocese should pay for half of the cost of the see house. It was stated that when the collector went to Ottawa to collect for the see house the clergymen threw every obstacle in his way.

Archdeacon Lauder and Rural Dean Bogert refuted the remarks of Mr. Tighe as relating to the Ottawa clergymen. The speakers said they assisted the collector in his work and gave him donations. Mr. Tighe continued stating the interest of the Ontario diocese should be carefully watched in the Episcopal and commutation funds. The discussion being too weariesome the bishop decided to adjourn.

The report will be resumed on Thursday morning.

Higher Education.

Notwithstanding the extreme heat, a goodly audience gathered in St. George's hall last night at eight o'clock. Dr. R. T. Walkem called the synod to order and Archdeacon Jones led in opening prayer. Dr. Walkem stated that the subject for the evening would be a review of the yearly work of Trinity university, the English church school of the province, and as he saw several graduates of the institution present, he would take the liberty of calling upon them to say a few words concerning their alma mater.

W. B. Carroll, barrister, etc., Gananoque, said Ontario had a good heart for Trinity college. He belonged to the class of '78. He had paid a visit to the institution some six weeks since and had noted the great improvements made since he was there. Trinity is upon a new era in this banner diocese of Ontario. Judge McDonald, of Brockville, said that he and Mr. Carey must be getting old, as they were long since graduates of Trinity. He had the honor of being placed upon the corporation of the college. This body consists of able men and he felt like complimenting Mr. Carey upon his regular attendance at the meetings of the board. Those happening in Toronto should not fail to go up and visit the university. In 1893 the first general synod of Canada, was held at Trinity. No other Canadian college possesses the residential feature. The new appointment of provost he thought would place Trinity still further on in the van of progress.

Rev. Dr. T. D. Phillips, Chicago, was given an unexpected pleasure in speaking a word for his alma mater. He was there for an hour a few days since. He had been for thirteen years a resident of the United States, yet he had never lost his interest in Trinity. He had been interested in educational matters for forty-five years and knew of no better institution. He was among the first fourteen students of the college. There were those in the room who had been students of his. He had learned England's national game at Trinity and the exercise at cricket had kept him young. He believed in physical exercise which clergymen were too apt to neglect. We are bound to worship God with our bodies as well as our minds.

J. P. Whitney, M. P. P., said he came to hear the dean of the college, Prof. Rigby, and therefore would not take up the time of the meeting.

Prof. Rigby took the platform as the principal speaker of the evening and did space permit we should like to give a full report. Trinity owes a great debt to the diocese of Ontario. The five dioceses of the province are all interested in Trinity as the Anglican school of the province. We do not believe in simply secular education. Australia may believe in such a system, but we do not. One of the principal features of Trinity is the residential arrangements. The students live in the college, which we esteem a great advantage. We learn, teacher and scholar, to know each other. Our corporation is a varied body, as wide as the church of Canada, with no room for party or faction. We are much indebted to Archbishop Lewis for the fund of information furnished by him to the church governing body of England, the better to enable them to make the new appointment of provost. Edward A. Welch is the new provost, who will shortly assume his duties. He comes highly recommended. We have been without an educational head for a year, but things have gone on well. Prof. Montgomery has been given the chair of natural sciences. W. H. White is our fellow in classics, Michael McKenzie has been appointed in place of Dr. Jones, who held the place for thirty-two years. He had his foot splendidly set on the intellectual ladder in England, but gave up all to come to Canada. The new wing was to be finished in October, and also the new gmynasium. All students are required to take the arts course. I have been dean three years and during that time Trinity has turned out thirty-five men to take up orders. Ladies are entitled to take all our degrees in the arts course, and we have many lady students. Rural Dean Nesbitt spoke a good word for Trinity, although he came from another college. He had sent six from his bible class to the college. The clergy should seek to direct worthy young men towards the ministry. Mr. Jones said he was not a professor, but a fellow. He had been connected with the college for ten years and had seen it increase two and a half times since he had been there.

Archdeacon Jones said that we all felt deeply grateful to the dean for the interesting yearly report just given of old Trinity and voted him, with the audience, the thanks of the meeting.

THE DISTRICT DASHES.

News of the District Condensed From the Whig Exchanges.

Ground was broken Monday for the new town hall, Carleton Place.

Lang & Morphy, Arnprior, have bought the stock of Allen, Burroughs & Co., Carleton Place.

The sad news reached Carleton Place of the death of James B. McGuire, after a week's illness, aged forty years. Mr. McGuire resided at Watertown. He leaves a wife and two children.

At the annual meeting of district committee, No. 40, I.O.O.F., A. G. Horton, Almonte, was nominated as D.D.G.M. for the ensuing year, and W. H. Allen was re-elected district secretary.

B. V. Stafford, the well-known sash and door manufacturer of Arnprior, has taken into partnership with him, Stafford R. Rudd, and hereafter the business will be carried on under the firm name of Stafford & Rudd.

An incident out of the ordinary was the marriage in St. James' church, Carleton Place, last Tuesday, of two native Assyrians dwelling there, Assaf Zahalan and Richardy Abraham. The marriage festivities were kept up for several days.

The case of Moulton vs. Leyden, which arose from a dispute over a dog in the Almonte post office several months ago, by which Wm. Moulton, caretaker of the institution, had a leg broken by John Leyden, was tried at Perth, when the jury returned a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy. The judge dismissed accused on two years' suspended sentence.

Forfar Facts.

FORFAR, June 18.—A football team has been organized at Forfar. George Johnston and wife have gone to Ireland to spend the summer. Mrs. Horner Graham is spending a few weeks at Messina Springs. Miss Essie Sheldon, attending Kingston conservatory, has organized a music class here. The children's annual Sunday school picnic was held on Saturday. Rev. Mr. Jamieson preached his farewell sermon here on Sunday. He was beloved by all and an earnest worker. We wish him success in his new field of labor. A number from here attended the funeral of Miss Sophronia Chipman at Portland on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. S. Morris are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. Brown, Gananoque. Joseph Dowsett, Markdale, was united in matrimony to one of Newboro's fair daughters, Miss Minnie Rorwell, last Wednesday in the Methodist church, Newboro. They departed for their western home on Friday. A reception will be held on Thursday evening at Mrs. Jas. Dowsett's for her daughter Sarah, of Markdale, who is expected home on her wedding trip.

Or side, try Shiloh's belladona plaster, 25c. Wade's Pharmacy.

There is no one article in the line of medicines that gives so large a return for the money as a good porous strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache plasters.

NEWS FROM RURAL POINTS.

TELLING OF A LOG JAM.

Hopeful Writes Entertainingly From Bancroft, North Hastings.

BANCROFT, June 17.—We are having a boom here at present; several new houses are being erected. The Bronson drive is passing through and the Irondale railroad is expected here this fall. This last is exercising no small influence on our alert business men who are busily preparing for the expected good times. Charles Tucker, Madoc, has completed laying the foundation of Davy Bros' three new stores, and a large staff of workmen are rapidly raising the building. When completed these stores will comprise by far the largest building in Bancroft and will add greatly to the appearance of our main business street. Wm. George has started a brick yard on his farm about a mile south of here and reports good success. If brick can be made here it will supply a long felt want and will ultimately lessen the danger from fires in our fast growing wooden village. At the police court a few days ago a man charged with smashing the top of a buggy was fined $27.50 including costs. Aykroyd and Hansen of Kingston are doing a rushing business in photographs here. Miss A. Greenfield is visiting friends in Kingston and Napanee. F. S. Weaver has returned from the Methodist conference; he will import a high wheel bicycle. Since he is a good man we will not mourn for him when he starts out on his first aerial expedition notwithstanding we predict a funeral. On Saturday afternoon two large sticks of dimension timber got crosswise in the dam and before they could be cut away a heavy jam was formed that threatened the entire structure. Many were the heroes of our village, however, who with peavie, pike, axe or saw came to the rescue of the old dam while the gentler sex ranged on the banks or alongside Davy's big mill and watched the disentanglement of the logs. At last the long expected time came, the logs seemed to form in rank and flew down en masse. No sooner had the logs run down than the feminine heroes thronged across the wide plank walk to the centre of the dam, perhaps to distinguish themselves with the event or to obtain part of the spoil, but water leaves no mark and so the logs sped on down the lovely river York. We love to watch the sawlogs threading their different courses down the river, they are so emblematic of human life, but more anon we'll deliver a speech on the subject. —HOPEFUL.

IDA HILL IDEAS

An Aged Resident's Death—Foot-Ball Practice and Other Notes.

IDA HILL, June 17.—All growing crops are now fast advancing. Our village young men have organized a football club and are open for future matches. A. Smith, a respected farmer on Queen street, died suddenly last week. His funeral occurred on Wednesday and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Laird conducted the service which was very impressive throughout. Contractor Smith still prosecutes his calling with many orders ahead.

Farmers are doing their statute labor this week. The public school attendance has, of late, greatly lessened, and now is very limited. Some of our residents are erecting road fences along their several properties. An effort will be made by the council to have the telegraph company change their present line of route, so as to pass through the village and with an office probably here. The village and suburbs are fast increasing in population. Our football team plays the Sunbury club on their practice grounds to-night, Wednesday eve. Another game will be played on Saturday evening.

The village carriage works has received a quantity of lumber for future use. T. Shannon has a large plot in roots, etc. E. Hudson's chicken fence is a fine one; nothing of like kind can now find an entrance. The jobs given for repairing certain culverts by the reeve should be at once done, as a more safe drive would or could at times be taken. Conservatory plants with very beautiful flowers adorn the windows of the public school. A decided favorable change.

Lattimer Locals.

LATIMER, June 18.—All kinds of grain and vegetables are suffering for want of rain. Hay, particularly, owing to the late frosts and want of moisture, will be a short and thin crop. Dr. Spankie, P.S.I., visited the school last week and expressed himself as well pleased in every particular with the pupils. Rev. Mr. Follick preached his farewell sermon on Sunday last, and next Sunday will preach at his new appointment at Stella. Regrets are expressed at his departure. His conduct as a minister of the gospel was at all times consistent with his calling. Rev. A. Wright, Hastings, on a visit at his daughters, Mrs. Cavalry and Mrs. Wartman, preached earnestly and most acceptably to the congregation here on Sunday, June 9th inst. He left for home on Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. McTraves and family, paid friends at Parham a visit on Saturday last. Mr. Letherland, as a member of the Frontenac cavalry, left for Kingston to-day for the annual drill. Visitors: Mrs. Bawden and family, of Kingston, at Mrs. Colling's; Mrs. Brainard, of New York State, at Mrs. Gordon's.

Hammock Song.

Swinging, swing, swinging slow,
Swinging in the twilight glow,
Sending, lending perfume sweet,
Apple blossoms drifting fleet
Drifting through the balmy air,
Coming here and going there.
Swimming, skimming o'er the glades,
Fleeing from the sombre shades.
Dipping, diving, coming nigh,
Swift the swallows homeward fly.
Creeping, peeping through the blue,
Vigil stars come creeping, too.
Sleeping, sleeping, dreaming fair
In Acadia, leave her there,
Swinging, swinging, swinging slow,
Swinging as the breezes blow.

Every Bone
In my body ached with the dreadful Rheumatism which followed a severe cold. My sufferings were awful. I could not dress myself or comb my hair. My husband had to carry me up and down stairs. I was scarcely able to nurse my little one. Within two weeks after I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, I felt better. Shortly I was able to walk up and down stairs without help and finally I was cured. My friends thought I was going to be a cripple, but thanks to God for his blessing on Hood's Sarsaparilla, I now enjoy good health. MRS. JOHN BLACKBURN, Lower Five Islands, Nova Scotia.
