THE ALABAMA QUESTION.

London, May 27.

The Alabama claims still form the great theme of conversation and newspaper comment. The Times has an article on the communications of Sir F. Head, which have recently been published here, respecting the case of the ship Caroline, and the course of the United States towards Canada during the rebellion of 1837. The Times says that Senator Sumner's assertion of England's hostility to America is met by the testimony of American officials. Abuses much more flagrant have occurred within the frontier of the United States, for the popular feeling of the State of New York was admitted to have more than countenanced the Fenian expeditions to Canada. The American press expose Mr. Sumner's inconsistency by historical tests, and point out his perversion of facts.

The Messrs. Laird, of Birkenhead, who built the Alabama, have recently published a letter giving legal opinions and extracts from documents and speeches to prove that the building of the Alabama was not illegal. This letter has been extensively copied, and is thus commented on by the daily papers of to-day:

The Star (Radical organ), says the Messrs. Laird may be guiltless, but that England cannot escape the penalty is the verdict of the best authorities, and is a foregone conclusion.

The Post (Conservative) says the vindication of the Messrs. Laird is complete. The law was inadequate to prevent the transaction. The remedy laid with the Legislature and not with the executive.

The Standard (Conservative) says that the Messrs. Laird's vindication condemns the government. England's obligations were broken for the North as well as the South. The Americans were equally guilty of a breach of international obligations in the case of the Caroline, and the case of the Fenian drillings and organization. The final reckoning will give a heavy balance to the debt of the United States.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Absolving Allegiance.

A despatch from Halifax of the 26th, states that Dr. Murray, of Pictou, laid on the table several resolutions which embody the creed of the annexationists. They admit the right of the Imperial Government to withdraw their protection. They most firmly deny their right to force a free people into connection without their consent, and—

'Whereas, the Constitution of this loyal Province has been forcibly changed without the consent of the people and in opposition to their wishes:

'And whereas, the petitions of the people have been treated with contempt by the Government and Legislature of Great Britain:

'And whereas, inquiry into our grievances has been rudely refused, and we now occupy the position of a degraded people:

'And whereas, in addition to the deprivation of our inherent rights as free men, the Union imposed on us has resulted in financial disaster and oppressive taxation:

'And whereas—Our principal commercial trade and intercourse has been, and from our geographical position, will always be, naturally with the United States of America:

'And whereas—We believe that the Imperial Parliament has been deceived and imposed upon by false representations, and still having confidence that the free people of the British Isles will not, when acquainted with our real condition, and views, persist in the great injustice of keeping this heretofore loyal colony in a hatred Union,

'Therefore, resolved—That an humble address be presented to Her Majesty, asking once more that our valued institutions be restored to us, or that Her Majesty, will be pleased to absolve us from our allegiance to the British Throne, and enable us a free and independent people to adopt the political institution which we in our judgment may deem most conducive to our happiness and prosperity.'

The resolutions are to be taken into consideration on Tuesday next.

Supreme Court.

In the bill to establish a Supreme Court for Canada the 54th and 55th clauses provide that the Governor in Council may direct any special case to be laid before the Supreme Court, in which may be set forth any act passed by the Legislature of any Province to ascertain the opinion of the said Court as to the constitutionality of such act or any of its provisions; and that parties affected by it may be heard. The original jurisdiction in civil cases in Quebec, and in cases at law and equity in other Provinces, is defined to be cases in which the constitutionality of the provincial act may come in question; personal cases of the Dominion, or actions arising out of them; cases in which the Crown shall be the party, either as representing the Imperial Government or any Colonial Government; cases where a foreign State; or the Consul of a foreign State, is a party; or cases in which the law of the Dominion to carry out a treaty with a foreign Government, shall come in question. In civil cases, where the parties reside in different Provinces, the Supreme Court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the local Courts; the Supreme Court to have exclusive jurisdiction in cases of extradition and in admiralty cases. All barristers or advocates of all the Provinces may practice in this Court. The other provisions relate to the Procedure Act to come in force on the proclamation of the Governor General.

THE PEOPLE'S FASHION.—The leader of the Opposition at Ottawa, Mr. A. McKenzie, has seen fit to pledge himself and his party to the support of a government measure for the regulating of the public printing, which is for the future to be put out to public competition, under the charge of a salaried officer. It will be recollected that this is precisely the plan introduced by Mr. J. Sandfield Macdonald, a gentleman whom the Opposition take a peculiar delight in abusing, but who, nevertheless, has introduced and carried into effect more salutary reforms since his Premiership in Ontario than has fallen to the lot of any other man. His shirt collars may be objectionable, and the legs of his trousers not of the most fashionable cut, but his reforms are undeniable; and that's the fashion the people like.—Free Press.

FENIANS IN CHICAGO.—A letter from Chicago says: "The Fenians are in ecstacies about two things—the withdrawal of troops from Canada, and the prospects of a war between Great Britain and the United States. They are quietly drilling, and reports say they intend operating upon the Canadian border as soon as opportunity offers.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

MATURDAY MORNING, MAY 28, 1869.

TROOPS.—Yesterday morning on her downward trip the str. Corinthian had on board the second detachment of the Royal Artillery Brigade, being moved from Toronto to Montreal, consisting of 30 horses, 60 men and 2 guns. In the afternoon the str. Kingston passed up with the second detachment of the relieving brigade from Montreal. The last detachments will pass to-day downwards and upwards respectively in the steamers Spartan and Champion.

The Royal Canadian Bank.

If the Toronto Telegraph is to be believed, and we have no reason to doubt such an authority, there is a fair prospect of the Royal Canadian Bank being able to resume business in an early day, under auspices every way more favorable than favored it at any time since its incorporation. We trust that meanwhile a full and frank exhibit will be made to the public of its present financial position. This sooner than anything else, will tend to re-establish confidence in its solvency.

OFF FOR HOME.—Yesterday the pensioned, discharged and invalided soldiers from the different garrisons, were forwarded to Quebec for passage to England. On Thursday afternoon, gunner Hewett, Royal Artillery, who is under military sentence of imprisonment for one year, and was confined temporarily in the County Gaol, was released and handed over to the military, to be sent off with the detachment for Home, it was presumed. In less than an hour, however, he was returned to gaol with another commitment, and is likely to the reserve out the remainder of his sentence, the military authorities of course providing for his rations.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Rosebrugh, Oculist and Aurist, of Toronto, is now in the city, and may be consulted to-day and on Monday at the office of Dr. Lavell, Johnson street.

RAIN.—Yesterday afternoon the rain, such a long time in arriving, poured down in copious showers, and vegetation, very backward for the season, will receive a fresh motive.

SOCIAL.—The Rev. Mr. Swift, Minister of the Brock Street Primitive Methodist Church, is in consequence of the triennal movement of ministers of the Conference, shortly to retire from the charge of the congregation: On Monday evening a complimentary benefit will be tendered to him by his flock, in the shape of a "social," in the basement of the Church, at which the attractions will be numerous. Apart from the general interest attaching to these socials, the object of the present one will ensure a success.

THE STEAMER GRECIAN.—The accounts of the wreckers and steamboat men generally agree that the wreck of the Grecian is a hopeless case. We hear that an offer has been made to the company to purchase the wreck as it now stands for $1,000, the purchaser agreeing to remove her, and thus prevent a further obstacle to navigation. It is even doubtful if she could be successfully moved to facilitate navigation. The baggage of the Royal Artillery has all been recovered from the steamer and sent to Montreal. The ill-fated steamer was on her first trip down the rapids of the season, with a new pilot unaccustomed to the great difficulty of steering her, when the accident occurred. It is said the water rushes through the vessel so furiously that the divers are almost carried off their feet.

DUTY ON IMMIGRANTS.—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. Langevin proposed resolutions relative to the duty on immigrants arriving at any port in Canada, from any port of Britain or Europe. The duty is to be one dollar each over the age of one year. Those who arrive without proper certificates of embarkation to be charged one dollar and fifty cents. The duty to be paid by masters of vessels to the collector of customs at the port where the vessel first enters.

POLICE COURT, Friday.—There have been no incarcerations since yesterday's sitting, and the police are reposing on their laurels. After the Court had opened pro forma, a demented woman appeared and complained of being troubled with spirits. There is no doubt she was so troubled, but perhaps the spirits she complained off were of a most exhilarating nature, when not communed with too freely.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where this article is known it is a work of supererogation to say one word in its favor, so well is it established as an unfailing remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, as well as that most dreaded of all diseases, Consumption, with high medical authority has pronounced to be an incurable disease, those who have used this remedy know its value; those who have not, have just to make a single trial to be satisfied that of all others it is the remedy.

The Rev. Jacob Sechler,

well known and much respected among the German population of this country, writes as follows

Hanover, Pa., Feb. 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Son, Boston.

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry throughout the country.

Grace's Celebrated Salve.

From Mr. James Carling, of Amesbury Mass.

I was afflicted with a severe felon on one of my fingers, and tried many remedies without relief. My friends induced me to apply your Salve. In two days it extricated the inflammation from my finger so as to enable me to resume my work. I can almost say that the Salve worked like magic, for it effected a cure without leaving a scar. I unhesitatingly pronounce Grace's Salve an excellent remedy and do not doubt it will be appreciated throughout the land.

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne.

A correspondent of the Brampton Times thus writes to that journal: "Some time ago I was attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism in both limbs and feet, and confined to the house for several weeks. Hearing of ARNOT'S ARNICA ANODYNE, I got a bottle, and after using it a few times obtained the greatest relief. It took all the soreness out of my feet, and I am now able to walk nearly as well as ever. I will always recommend it as the best thing I ever used for that disease."

BRONCHITIS.

MR. JAMES I FELLOWS:—

Sir,—In the winter of 1868 I was afflicted with a severe attack of Bronchitis, and although our Doctors were very attentive, and used all the means in their power, they failed to afford me much relief. Hearing of your Hypophosphites and Cod Liver Oil, I procured a bottle, and found no benefit from that. I then obtained a bottle of your Compound Syrup, and took it until it made a permanent cure.

Respectfully yours,

MENDAL CROCKER.

The high praise emanating from people in all parts of the world that have derived benefit from the use of RADWAY'S REMEDIES, prove their title to confidence. There is no pain so severe, no disease so malignant or swift in its destruction of life, but that the READY RELIEF will stop the pain and arrest it in its progress. Every one has heard of it, if not tried it. Let those who have not used it, if sick, give it a trial. A few minutes will prove its power of stopping pain. See Dr. Radway's Almanac for 1868.
