The Bill respecting the office of Queen's Printer and public printing. Is similar to the resolutions formerly introduced. The salary of the Queen's Printer is not to exceed $2,000 per annum.

Apropos of the discussion on respective jurisdiction of federal and local Governments with regard to the bill respecting the St. Francis and Yamaska River Improvement Company, it is said the Government intend next session to introduce resolutions on which an address to Her Majesty will be founded asking for the passage of an act by the Imperial Parliament, to more clearly define the Jurisdiction of the Federal and Local Parliaments on such matters.

A Montreal telegram says:—

It appears certain that there is serious disagreement in the Cabinet. Cartier, it is said, insists positively on pushing the Banking resolutions through, and has even gone so far, as to threaten to resign; if he cannot carry his point. The letter statement may be taken for what it is worth. Sir J. A. Macdonald, knowing the feeling of Ontario, refuses to go on.

The French elections have gone largely in favor of the Government, partly because it has all the wires in its hands, and pulls them cleverly—partly because the people are really in favor of it by an overwhelming majority, dreading the anarchy which might succeed it—and partly because a portion of the Opposition is running into the wildest atheistic theories as in the first revolution.

The Irish are a wonderful people. They gave Wellington to England, O'Donnell to Spain, O'Neil to France, and now we learn the death of Gen. Patrick O'Malley, of the French army, who served in Algeria and at Magenta with great distinction. It is considered to have been owing to the bayonet charge of O'Malley's regiment on an Austrian brigade that the Emperor Napoleon III. was prevented from being taken prisoner. For this service he was made a Brigadier-General.

A case box, broken open and rifled of its contents, was found on the corner of George and Bridge streets, Belleville, on Saturday morning. On enquiry it was found that the office of Mr. F. J. Phippen was broken into that night, the till drawer broken open and the cash box taken therefrom. Fortunately the cash box contained only a small amount of silver and a few postage stamps.

There are now more than 1,000,000 of people on the Pacific slope. San Francisco, not 25 years old, has 150,000 inhabitants. Her manufactures amount to $30,000,000. The Pacific slope exports $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 of bullion annually. The wheat crop of California and Oregon is 25,000,000 bushels in a year. San Francisco, in one year, loaded 106 vessels for China, and exported $10,000,000 worth of merchandise and minerals to that country.

NEWS OF THE DAY

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 10, 1869.

Mr. Beel's Concert.

Mr. Beel's Concert came off last night at the Ontario Hall. The attendance was not as numerous as might have been expected, when its object was understood. The programme was of a varied and attractive character. There were four choruses which were carefully rendered by a large choir,—Mr. John Reyner accompanying on the piano forte. Mr. Chas. Gildersleeve gave the first song with great taste and spirit, and was deservedly encored. It is to be regretted that Mr. Gildersleeve so rarely of late sings before a Kingston audience, as he is a very general favorite in our little musical world. Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. O'Reilly sang a very pretty duett, which was rapturously encored. These ladies, however, like Mr. Gildersleeve, declined re-appearing. Mrs. O'Reilly afterwards sang with great pathos and sweetness—"Sweet Spirit Hear My Prayer." Mr. R. Tandy sang, "The Heart Bowed Down," which was warmly received. Mr. Laishley, a gentleman who has lately arrived from England, gave the song "Will o' the Wisp" with great force and precision, and was warmly encored. The trio of the "Elf King," by Miss Allen, Miss Savage and Mr. Beel, was very favorably received. Mrs. Moylan was particularly happy in her choice of "Maggie's Secret," it being so well adapted to the compass of her voice. Her encore song, Won't you tell me why, Robin?" also touched a sympathetic chord in the breasts of the audience, and was warmly applauded. "Driven from Home," by the Reyner family, was, of course, very fine. As was also Mr. Reyner's "Good-bye Sweetheart," which was given by request. Mr. Beel gave "The Wanderer" in his usual good style. He also sang in the duett "The British Navy," with Mr. Morgan. The spice thrown into each part by the serio-comic songs of Mr. Keeley and Mr. Robbs was evidently relished by the audience. We warmly congratulate Mr. Beel on the result of the Concert.

T. Kirkpatrick, Esq.—We are happy to say that this gentleman has so far recovered from his late severe sickness, as to be able to resume his parliamentary duties. He left for Ottawa on Monday.

A Distinguished Load.—Yesterday morning the steamer arrived from Toronto, (and took her departure for Montreal) with the following among her passengers:—Major General Stisted, removed from Toronto to Point Levi; Colonel Peacock; Colonel Bouchier, and two daughters; Hon. Jos. Peabody, New York; and Messrs. Noel and Russell, the purchasers of the steamship George Peabody, now on her way from New York to Quebec to be run on the Lower St. Lawrence. The Hon. Mr. Galt and family came as far as Port Hope. Add to these, the roll of seven bridal parties and then imagine the situation of the purser who had to provide state rooms for them all.

"Healing on its Wings," say all who have made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and by such use been cured of coughs, colds, influenza or consumption. The prudent will always keep this standard remedy by them.

The Stabbing Affray.—The man Fink, who was stabbed at Garden Island is not dangerously, if even seriously ill, and appears to have been more frightened than hurt. The boys with the exception of the assailant, Denis Ahern, were discharged on Tuesday night.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where this article is known it is a work of supererogation to say one word in its favor, so well is it established as an unfailing remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, as well as that most dreaded of all diseases, Consumption, with high medical authority has pronounced to be an incurable disease, those who have used this remedy know its value; those who have not, have just to make a single trial to be satisfied that of all others it is the remedy.

The Rev. Jacob Sechler, well known and much represented among the German population of this country, writes as follows:

Hanover, Pa., Feb. 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Son, Boston.

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago, one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry throughout the country.

Fellows' Compound Syrup.

A peculiar characteristic of Fellows' Compound Syrup is its power of decomposing the food in the stomach, rendering digestion and assimilation more perfect. This partly accounts for the rapidity with which patients take flesh on after using the article.

Diseases such as Consumption, Bronchitis, Debility from Typhoid and other Low Fevers, from excessive grief, study or close confinement, and prostration of the vital powers, yield to Fellows' Compound Syrup sooner than any remedy ever before discovered.

The muscles of the stomach are strengthened, digestion becomes complete, the absorbent vessels take up nutrition, the blood becomes vitalized and pure, the nervous system vigorous; and the thin, pale, or shallow complexioned becomes plump and hearty, and regains the ruddy tint of health.

Sold by Apothecaries—price $1.50 per bottle or 6 for $7.50.

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne.

A correspondent of the Brampton Times thus writes to that journal: "Some time ago I was attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism in both limbs and feet, and confined to the house for several weeks. Hearing of Arnot's Arnica Anodyne, I got a bottle, and after using it a few times obtained the greatest relief. It took all the soreness out of my feet, and I am now able to walk nearly as well as ever. I will always recommend it as the best thing I ever used for that disease."

The high praise emanating from people in all parts of the world that have derived benefit from the use of RADWAY'S REMEDIES, prove their title to confidence. COCO-GLYCERINE

IS THE BEST and most agreeable Hair Dressing ever prepared. It is delightfully perfumed, and entirely free from all irritating qualities, while it combines the virtues of both its constituent ingredients.

As a beautifier of the Hair, Cocoa Nut Oil has long been highly prized; and Glycerine, according to Dr. Hassall's analysis, enters into the composition of every popular Hair Restorative.

Prepared by

G. S. HOBART,
Medical Hall.

And for sale by all Hair Dressers in the city.
