The Orangemen of Ireland Upon the Irish Church Bill.

The following is the address to the Queen adopted at the late special meeting of the Grand Lodge of Ireland :—

'TO HER MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY THE QUEEN.'

'The humble address of the Members of the Loyal Orange Institution of Ireland humbly showeth :—

'That we approach your Majesty with feelings of faithful attachment to your Majesty's person, crown, and dignity. That this institution is composed of Protestants united and resolved, to the utmost of their power, to support and defend the rightful Sovereign, the Protestant religion, the laws of the realm, the legislative Union, and the succession to the throne in the House of Brunswick, being Protestants, and united further for the defence of their own persons and properties and maintenance of the public peace. It is exclusively an association of those who are attached to the religion of the Reformation, and will not admit into its brotherhood persons whom an intolerant spirit leads to persecute, injure, or oppress any man on account of his religious opinions. They associate also in honor of King William III., Prince of Orange, whose name they bear as supporters of his glorious memory. That, heartily entertaining these principles, we approach your Majesty to solicit your Majesty's gracious consideration of the following statements :—

'That the Church of Ireland, from the earliest period down to the time of the English conquest in the 12th century, was an independent Church, not recognising any foreign authority. That in the reign of your Majesty's predecessor, King Henry VIII., the bishops and clergy of the Church, the people of Ireland by the acts of their chiefs, and the Irish nation by its Parliament, rejected the supremacy of the Pope, which had not at any period been universally recognized, and they acknowledged the supremacy of the British Crown in all matters ecclesiastical. That such supremacy of the Crown was confirmed in the reign of your Majesty's Royal predecessor, Queen Elizabeth, and it has so continued, and is now one of your Majesty's royal and highest prerogatives. That the Church of Ireland embraced the doctrines of the Reformation in the 16th century, and has ever since, and in the midst of the greatest disparagement, faithfully adhered to them. That the Bishop of Rome, having failed to regain his supremacy, subsequently intruded bishops of his own creation into Ireland, from which intrusions and usurpations the present Roman Catholic Church in Ireland has sprung and now exists. That the maintenance of the Protestant religion is of the essence of the Constitution, and is guaranteed by the Act of Settlement and the Act of Union between England and Scotland; the oath required by that Act to be taken by each monarch immediately on his accession, by the Coronation Oath, and by the solemn Treaty of Union between England and Ireland, which treaty was confirmed by the then separate Legislatures of the two kingdoms. That the disestablishment of the Irish branch of the United Church will violate all those solemn compacts, and will consequently render it impossible to trust hereafter either in Parliamentary or any other national guarantees. That by such disestablishment your Majesty will be deprived of your indefeasible right of supremacy, a prerogative hitherto enjoyed by your Majesty's predecessors, and the supremacy of the Pope will be virtually substituted. That the proposed disendowment of the Irish Church would be in effect to take away from a loyal body its rightful property, dedicated to the service of God, in violation of every legal and moral right by which the possession of property has been hitherto or can be secured, and it has therefore been justly described by the terms 'spoliation, 'plunder,' and 'sacrilege.' That irreparable evils will thence ensue to the State. 1. Because it will sever the rulers of this kingdom as such from all connexion with religion, and their highest duty will be thereby abandoned, the faithful exercise of which the Almighty God requires of them, as is manifested by the sure warranty of Holy Scripture. 2. That it will be the means of withdrawing the pure worship of God from many parts of this country, and thus cause to cease that continual testimony of the national faith to the doctrines of the Gospel, and the protest against error which is now—and more successfully than ever—maintained in every part of this land. 3. That it must tend to the social injury of the country, by depriving many of its parishes of that kindly and sympathetic counsel and material assistance which the Roman Catholics as well as the Protestants customarily seek and obtain from the clergy and other members of the Established Church. 4. That it will directly strengthen in this country the power of the Church of Rome, whose doctrines and teachings are subversive of liberty and of loyalty to a Protestant monarch. We feel bound to testify to your Majesty, in all loyalty and respect, our deliberate conviction that the abandonment of its religious obligations by the State, involved in the personal measure, added to the support and encouragement of falsehood, is calculated to call down the judgment of God upon our land.

'May it please your Majesty,—Living as we do in all parts of the country, and mixing with all classes of our countrymen, we are enabled to testify to the fact, which it would be disloyal to withhold, that the attempt now being made to disestablish and disendow the Irish branch of the United Church is alienating very many from their attachment to the legislative connexion of Ireland with Great Britain, although not to your Majesty's sovereignty, which they will cherish and maintain; and should that Article of the Union which declares 'that the continuance and preservation of the 'said United Church as the Established Church of England and Ireland shall be deemed and taken to be an essential and fundamental part of the Union' be violated, it is likely to be viewed as a total disannulling of that national compact, the dangerous consequences of which to the British empire none can foresee. In conclusion, we have humbly to pray that your Most Gracious Majesty will favorably receive this address; and we earnestly beseech the Almighty, who rules and governs all things, that He will bestow upon your Majesty a wise and understanding mind to direct, and strength to support you in this great crisis of our country's fate. That your Majesty may long continue to reign over us in peace and happiness, and that truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us throughout your reign and for ever, is our solemn prayer.

Signed on behalf of the Orangemen of Ireland,

'Enniskillen, Grand Master.

The following is a copy of the reply received to the above :—

'Whitehall, May 13th, 1869.

'Sir,—I am directed by Mr. Secretary Bruce to acknowledge the receipt of your letter on the 8th inst., and to inform you that he has had the honour to lay before the Queen the address of the members of the Loyal Orange Institution of Ireland on the subject of disestablishment and disendowment of the Irish branch of the United Church.

'I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

'A. F. O. Liddell.

'Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon. H. A. Cole, 97, Mount-street, Grosvenor-square.'

AGITATION IN PARIS.

Paris, June 11.

Gen. Clausret has been expelled from France.

A Great crowd of people still continue in the streets in Montmartre and other quarters of Paris, and the agitation and excitement are abated. The Emperor and Empress, however, passed through the streets again this evening in an open carriage with one of the usual number of attendants.

SPANISH AFFAIRS.

Madrid, June 11.

The Cortes is discussing the proposition for regency. The republicans have offered many amendments limiting the powers of the regent.

A conference of the Republican party was held at Cordova to-day. The attendance was immense, and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested.

Gen. ArJoda has sailed for Cuba.

Cordova, Spain, June 11.

A great meeting of the Republican party was held to-day for the purpose of protesting against a return to a monarchy. Deputies were present from every Southern province, and speeches of a revolutionary character were made. During the proceedings the Spanish flag was entwined in that of United States, and the assemblage shouted for America and for Gen. Grant. About fifty thousand persons were present. While the meeting was in session the military and civil guard interfered, creating a panic. Many women and children were trampled down and several lives lost. The crowd then barricaded the streets, and there is danger of a serious affray.

Paris, June 12.

The tumults in the streets continue. The cavalry paraded all last night again, but met with no resistance. Many arrests continue. The streets became more tranquil after midnight, but a strong detachment of military were posted in convenient places to prevent any outbreak. When the Emperor and Empress drove though Montmartre they were entirely unmolested.

The following is officially promulgated "To-day the recent disorders approach a termination, owing to the strength and energy of public opinion."

Ismael Pasha arrived here to-day.

Londonderry, June 12.

The Steamship North American from Quebec, June 1st, arrived to-day.

LATEST.

The Alabama Claims.

London, June 13.

A cabinet meeting was held yesterday. It is rumored, though the report cannot be authenticated, that an official communication from Mr. Motley was presented by Lord Clarendon. The report states that in his communication Mr. Motley informs Her Majesty's Government of the rejection by the United States Senate of the Alabama claims treaty. He represented that the grounds for the rejection were the insufficiency of the treaty as a full settlement of the question in dispute between the two countries. He intimates that the present administration concurs in the reasons which led the Senate to decline to ratify the treaty and says that he is instructed to express the earnest desire of the American government for a speedy and friendly removal of the matters in difference by a treaty which will do justice to all parties, leaving no question open for future misunderstanding or complications. He announces his readiness to receive and consider with liberality any proposition Her Majesty's government may make for a full settlement of the important international questions at issue, as well as of the claims of individual citizens growing out of the action of either government during the late war of rebellion.

La Crosse.—The Pittsburg and Butchers' La Crosse Clubs have been invited to go up to Picton on the 1st of July next, and play an exhibition game in the Agricultural Show Grounds there, and they have accepted the invitation.

Taylor.—Mr. James Taylor, the English comique, is certainly the most versatile artist in his peculiar line who has ever visited Toronto, and whenever he returns he is sure of a hearty welcome. It is his intention to visit the several provincial towns of Canada, in connection with Messrs. Speckman and Barton—the acting and stage managers of the Toronto Lyceum. They have selected a good company, and we wish them success.

The 14th Battalion.—We are pleased to learn that the Princess of Wales' Own Volunteer Rifles are preparing to send a team of Riflemen to the Provincial Match, which will take place at Toronto on the 22nd inst. We also observe that Capt. Werner, of No. 5 Company, has got up a match amongst the men of his own Company, to take place to-morrow, on the Government Ranges, Barriefield. In this match a number of valuable prizes will be competed for. A noticeable feature of this match is an All Comers' Match with Revolvers, at 40 and 70 yards. There is also an All Comers' Match with Rifles. This is as it should be, and will doubtless have a happy effect in exciting a spirit of emulation among the amateurs of shooting generally. We would also mention that rifles and ammunition will be supplied for those desiring to test their skill who are not connected with the Volunteers.

The Band.—The Band of the R. C. Rifles will play in the City Park this afternoon. The following is the programme :—

Overture—Les Dragons de Villars...Maillart.
Quadrille—Le Mardi Gras aux Enfers...(Schubert.
Reminiscences of Weber....F. Godfrey.
Valse—Sylvia.....F. Godfrey.
Selection—Guillaume Tell.....Rossini.
Galop—Jongleur.....Zikoff.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

The Steamer Rochester.—We are informed that the str. Rochester will not for the present run to Oswego as stated in the paragraph copied into this paper yesterday, but that she will connect at this port with the Mail Line steamers which commence their trips to Oswego daily on the 28th inst. Leaving Kingston every afternoon at six o'clock.

The high praise emanating from people in all parts of the world that have derived benefit from the use of RADWAY'S REMEDIES, prove their title to confidence. There is no pain so severe no disease so malignant or swift in its destruction of life, but that the Ready Relief will stop the pain and arrest it in its progress. Every one has heard of it, if not tried it. Let those who have not used it, if sick, give it a trial. A few minutes will prove its power of stopping pain. See Dr. Radway's Almanac for 1868.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where this article is known it is a work of supererogation to say one word in its favor, so well is it established as an unfailing remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, as well as that most dreaded of all diseases, Consumption, with high medical authority has pronounced to be an incurable disease, those who have used this remedy know its value; those who have not, have just to make a single trial to be satisfied that of all others it is the remedy.

The Rev. Jacob Sechler, well known and much represented among the German population of this country, writes as follows :

Hanover, Pa., Feb. 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Son, Boston.

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago, one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of it there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry throughout the country.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP

Is prescribed by the first physicians in every city and town where it has been introduced, and it is a thoroughly orthodox preparation. Fellows' Compound Syrup is free from all nauseating drugs, such as Antimony, Ipepcac, Squills, &c., and from sedatives such as Opium. It is really an resistant to nature—creating an appetite, causing the food to assimilate, promoting easy expectoration, and imparting strength to all the bodily functions.

Sold by Apothecaries—price $1.50 per bottle or 6 for $7.50.

JAMES I. FELLOWS, Chemist, St. John, N. B.

Would it not be better to give our youth strong constitutions, and allow the body to grow in proportion to the brain? Children whose brain development is unusually large in comparison with the body, notwithstanding the care judicious parents can bestow, are those who are frequently singled out for a premature final resting place. Why is this? Simply because the functions of the body are too frail to supply the waste going on in the brain, consequent upon active intelligence. Fellows' Compound Syrup is so prepared that it imparts the vital principle directly to the brain, while it assists in developing a vigorous and robust body.

Sold by Apothecaries—price $1.50 per bottle or 6 for $7.50.

Grace's Celebrated Salve.

From Mr. James Caring Mass.

'I was affected with a severe felon on one of my fingers, and tried many remedies without relief. My friends induced me to apply your Salve. In two days it extricated the inflammation from my finger so as to enable me to resume my work. I can almost say that the Salve worked like magic, for it effected a cure without leaving a scar. I unhesitatingly pronounce Grace's Salve an excellent remedy and do not doubt it will be appreciated throughout the land.'

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne.

A correspondent of the Brampton Times thus writes to that journal: "Some time ago I was attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism in both limbs and feet, and confined to the house for several weeks. Hearing of Arnot's Arnica Anodyne, I got a bottle, and after using it a few times obtained the greatest relief. It took all the soreness out of my feet, and I am now able to walk nearly as well as ever. I will always recommend it as the best thing I ever used for that disease."
