The Great Boat Race.

By telegram from London the people of Kingston were told that the Great Four-Oared Boat Race between the Universities of Oxford and Harvard, was decided in favor of Oxford by four lengths. The race was a 4¼ miles' round from Putney to Mortlake on the River Thames, and was round in 23 minutes 6 seconds. Not so fast as the Eight-Oared Race between Oxford and Cambridge, but nearly so.

P. W. O. Rifle Association.

SECOND DAY.

On Thursday afternoon the Battalion Match commenced. The weather, although not as calm as desired, was, nevertheless, more favorable for shooting than on the previous day. Nearly fifty entries were made in this Match. Twenty-three prizes were offered, open to competition by every member of the Battalion. The ranges were 200, 400 and 700 yards, 5 rounds at each range. Private Urquhart, No. 4 Company, had the honor of carrying off the highest prize, namely $10 and the Battalion Medal. The shooting throughout was remarkably steady, and somewhat surprised those who had hitherto considered themselves the crack shots in the Battalion. The following is the list of the winners of prizes in the order of merit:—

Name.	Company.	Points.
1, Private Urquhart,	No. 4	44
2, " Tweed,	" 2	38
3, " Hume,	" 5	38
4, Capt. Reed, Adjutant,		38

22, Color-Sergt. Dunn,	" 4	26

In consequence of the late hour at which the Battalion Match was finished, the Committee of Management determined on postponing the All Comers' Match until Friday afternoon, and to allow the Military Match to be proceeded with, which was accordingly done, and the Match was in progress at 6:30 o'clock p.m.

With the exception of officers belonging to other branches of the Volunteer Service, few visitors appeared on the grounds. This may, perhaps, be accounted for by the extreme heat of the weather and the distance from the city to the ranges.

PUBLIC OFFICER OF 41 YEARS DISMISSED.—Of all men in the public service Mr. Andrew Russel, Assistant Commissioner of Crown Lands, has been most noted for faithfulness in discharge of his duty and unbending integrity. No one in the whole Dominion can compare with him in knowledge of the Crown Lands and in qualifications for his post. Under all the changes of administration, whether Whig or Tory, Mr. Russel has always retained his situation, being considered indispensable to the office. Mr. Russel has also been active in every good work for the benefit of humanity. He has been proverbial for faithfulness in the public service, and has enjoyed the esteem and respect of all who knew him. After forty years of service, he is now dismissed from the public service to make way for some political favorite. We hope some member of the Ontario Legislature will move for inquiry into the circumstances of Mr. Russel's dismissal.—Montreal Witness.

 The Globe first made the howl about the retirement of Mr. Russell, and all the Grits have echoed it. Mr. Russell has not been dismissed. He is an old man, and finding retirement necessary, he did so voluntarily, receiving one and a half year's pay as a gratuity, and an appointment to a local Crown Lands Agency!

A. Y. B.

Van Amburg and Co.'s Great Exhibition.

On Wednesday, Sept. 8th, Kingston will be again visited by the greatest travelling menagerie in the world. Eight years ago the renowned I. A. Van Amburg, in person, exhibited his far-famed zoological collection in this city, when 4,500 people stood under the canvas that afternoon; and a similar number in the evening of the same day. Our readers will bear in mind that it is no ordinary treat which is in store for them; it is not a vulgar mountebank exhibition of acrobats, at which the clownish jest and "ground and lofty tumbling" comprise the chief attractions. When it is remembered that our illustrious Queen visited Mr. Van Amburgh's exhibition, during his tour in England, thirty years ago; that it was the centre of attraction to all classes, from the Sovereign to the peasant—we may justly conclude that the attraction must have been extraordinary. During Van Amburgh's stay in London, Queen Victoria visited his exhibition six times, and honored him with a personal interview. Since the last visit of Van Amburgh's menagerie to Kingston, there have been numerous valuable and rare additions made to the collection, many of which have never been seen by our citizens. We copy a flattering notice of it from the Toronto Globe, in which city it lately exhibited:—

"The great menagerie has come and gone. No exhibition was ever announced in Toronto, in regard to which such high expectations were raised, and none has ever gone away, leaving behind it a better impression, winning more praise, or giving a greater degree of satisfaction among all classes of its patrons. The procession in the streets excelled anything of the sort ever seen here, and created a perfect furore among the thousands who witnessed it, leading all to anticipate an inside exhibition parallel with it. This anticipation was more than realized, and not even chronic growlers and grumblers were able to find any "loop or hinge to hang a fault upon." Van Amburg & Co. have evidently succeeded in solving that puzzling problem—how to please everybody, and consequently their praise is "great in months of wisest censure." Every animal advertised was to be seen, and all were surprised and gratified at the number of novelties which met their view at every step. The lordly Eland commanded universal attention and admiration. He is one of the noblest and most beautifully formed creatures we have ever seen. The Rhinoceros is a noble specimen of his kind, and the Impoons, Quadads, Bless-boks, Spring-boks—none of which we ever saw before—are models of symmetry and gracefulness. The management throughout is excellent, everything which can conduce to the pleasure or comfort of the audience has been thoughtfully provided, and the very best order is maintained. The attendants are civil and courteous, and the management is liberal and just in all respects, and has won friends in every quarter.

"The lecture upon natural history, given at each exhibition, is a very interesting feature, and seemed to give entire satisfaction to all who listened to it, and was remarkable for being entirely devoid of the usual showman's manner and matter.

"The attendance at all the exhibitions was beyond anything ever seen in Toronto, we should judge that over 25,000 persons were present during the two days, and we hear no word of dissatisfaction expressed by any one. Van Amburgh & Co. have every reason to be gratified by their visit, and we are sure the public will be gratified whenever they see fit to retire."

THE PROSPECTS.

New York, Aug. 26.

The Tribune's special correspondent telegraphs from London that the style of the Oxford crew is unquestionably the better of the two. Their crew is heavier, and their pace is extraordinary. The Harvard crew is in superb condition, and perfectly confident. It is not at all unlikely that the race will be a very close one.

London, Aug. 25.

The Harvard and Oxford crews were out to-day, but only made short trips up and down the river. The Harvards today have been practising starts. They have decided to use Elliott's boat for the race. Walter Brown, who recently arrived here with Tyler, will assist at the start. Helley confidently asserts that Harvard must win, and thinks the match will be virtually finished before the boats reach Hammersmith Bridge. Brown also declares his belief that the Americans will come in first to-night. The betting stands two to one on Oxford. The arrangements for preserving order on and about the river on the day of the race are all that could be desired. The commissioners of police have detailed 800 men to guard the river banks during the race.

LATER.

University Boat Race.

OXFORD THE WINNER BY THREE LENGTHS.

London, Aug. 25.

The Harvard and Oxford crews have only practised starts to-day. The Elliott boat, in which the Harvards have decided to row the match to-morrow, is 44 feet, 21 inches long, depth forward 7 inches and depth aft 6½ inches. She was built on a draft and model brought from New York, and is of purely American construction, even her frame work having been brought over with the crew. The oars to be used were made by Ayling.

Mr. Gulston, Captain of the London Rowing Club, will be the umpire of the Harvard, and Mr. Chitty will probably act in that capacity for the Oxonians. Mr. Blakie has been chosen starter, and Sir A. Pott will probably be agreed upon as judge. The Oxford men are confident of winning, but the Americans are hopeful. Simmons is again slightly indisposed to-day.

Mr. Blakie has written a letter to the Times for publication on Saturday, protesting against the comments of the English press in regard to the Harvard style of rowing, and against the assertion respecting an alteration in style. He declares that their style now differs in no respect from that which they always practised at home.

The Pall Mall Gazette this morning says if the Harvards are beaten it will be by the best crew ever seen on the Thames, one which would make short work of the fastest Henry crew. There need be no fear but that the race will be rowed entirely on its merits.

London, Aug. 26.

The crews have done little work to day, both resting for to-morrow's struggle. The referee question has been settled, Mr. Hughes remaining in that position, while Mr. Chitty consents to serve as umpire for Oxford, and Mr. Gulston, of the London Rowing Club, acts in the same capacity for Harvard. The choice is a good one. All preliminaries have now been arranged, and the Harvard crew have carried all the points upon which they insisted. To-day they look perhaps a little overtrained on account of the extremely hot weather. There is every prospect of a clear day for the race, and smooth water. The police arrangements are perfect, and everyone is determined that there shall be a fair race, and that the best men shall win.

London, Aug. 27, 5:48 p.m.

The race between Oxford and Harvard crews was won by Oxford by three lengths. Harvard six seconds behind.

London, Aug. 27.

The Harvard crew won the toss, and chose the Middlesex side, the outside of the semicircle. Both boats started at 5 o'clock 14 minutes 6½ seconds. Oxford arrived at the Ship first, three lengths ahead, five o'clock 36 minutes 47 seconds. Time of race, 22 minutes 40½ seconds. The weather was fine and hot. There was some wind, but the water was in good condition. Before the race the excitement was intense. The river banks had been lined with spectators since morning. The trains were almost unable to carry the crowds waiting at the railway stations.

BRITISH COLONIES.

The ship Agamemon from Hong Kong, June 9th, has arrived with the first cargo of the season.

New Zealand.

A GREAT CRISIS—WHERE WILL IT END?

A great crisis has arisen in the Colony of New Zealand. Lord Granville's despatch announcing that the Colonists must suppress the Maori rebellion without any aid from British troops, has greatly agitated the Colony. As is usual in all such cases, there is an extreme party and a moderate party. The moderates are in favor of making a last appeal to the Home Government, but as the latter has thoroughly made up its mind, such a course would only involve a further loss of time and aggravate the dispute. The extreme politicians propose to cut off the Governor's salary. Certainly the British nation does not much care whether poor Sir George Bowen gets his salary or not; but this is the least important part of the matter. Such an act on the part of the General Assembly of New Zealand would produce a dead lock in the relations of the Colony with the Mother Country, and if persisted in must be followed by a Declaration of Independence. There are those who profess to believe that even if New Zealand is not ripe for independence, she is ready to throw herself into the arms of Prussia or the United States. It is singular that while a British Colony is thus disaffected, and is drifting Heaven knows where, some of the Dutch Colonies in the East are clamouring for British protection.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—A woman living in Watertown, whose husband was lately run over by the cars and killed, and who has ever since been partially insane, was discovered one day last week lying upon the railroad track, with the evident intention of meeting the fate of her husband. Several men rushed to the spot, and with great difficulty, for her maniacal strength seemed superhuman, they succeeded in dragging her from the track just in time to prevent her being run over. She expressed much anger at their interference, and made frantic endeavors to break from their grasp and again throw herself upon the track. The poor woman has since been conveyed to a lunatic asylum hopelessly insane.

BRITISH COLONIAL STEAMSHIP COMPANY.—The affairs of this Company are being wound up voluntarily. Stockholders have received £36 2s. per share, and £3 10s. additional will, we understand, be paid at an early day.

Notes and Comments.

It is stated that the Bank of Commerce has offered to buy up the Gore Bank and that the offer has been accepted by the latter and only waits satisfaction by the shareholders of both banks.

It is understood at Ottawa that the Hon. William McDougall has accepted the Governorship of the Northwest Territory. If he have, a vacancy will occur in the representation of the North Riding of Lanark.

A gentleman near Rio, reports in an excavation at the foot of a cliff, being removed on the line of the Intercolonial, ice was discovered, and he believes it has never been thawed in that spot since the discovery of America by the Icelanders.

Prince Pierre Bonaparte (a son of Prince Lucien, and a nephew of the first Napoleon) was married ten years ago, in Belgium, to the daughter of a workman in the Faubourg St. Antoine. The marriage has just been publicly acknowledged, thus rendering justice to the two children who are the issue of the marriage.

The English Astronomer Royal is making arrangements for observing the transit of Venus, which will take place in the year 1874. This event is one of considerable interest, and value to scientific men, as affording the only data for measuring the exact distance of the sun from the earth. The British Admiralty has set down the expense of these observations at £10,500.

It is announced that the Chinese authorities at Pekin have officially announced to Sir Rutherford Alcock that the Duke of Edinburgh cannot be received by the Royal family of China on a footing of equality. If this be true, then it is to be presumed that the Duke of Edinburgh will be too proud and have too much self-respect to obtrude himself into the presence of the Royal family of China.

A NEW TELEGRAPH LINE.—The Ottawa Times says:—The "People's Telegraph Line" opened for business yesterday from Montreal to Ottawa. The line is being rapidly extended East and West, and will soon give the public the advantage of a healthy competition. The press and the public will be largely benefitted by this new telegraph enterprise. Monopolies are not generally for the public advantage, and though several attempts have been made in Canada to break down that of telegraphing, they have hitherto been unsuccessful. We have every reason for believing that the "People's Line" Company is a strong one, and determined to win its way to a share of public patronage. It is the intention of the Company to push forward to Toronto without delay, where a connection will be formed with American lines.

Important Decision.

The application of the prisoners charged with scuttling the Garry Owen on Lake Erie for their discharge has failed, and they have been remanded to the Police Court for an investigation of the charges against them.

The decision involves a point of great importance to our inland marine. The ground on which the counsel for the prisoners asked their release was, that the offence had been committed in a place where our local Courts of Queen's Bench, &c., had no jurisdiction in fact, in American waters. Had this view been taken by the Judge, the prisoners would have been discharged, as the Police Magistrate would have had no power to investigate the charge or to commit them for trial. His Lordship, however, decided on the authority of an English case that the Court of Admiralty has full control over crimes committed on Lake Erie; that, in effect, Lake Erie forms part of the High Seas. An Imperial Statute expressly gives the Colonial Courts power to try offences committed within the waters adjoining its limits which are within the Admiralty jurisdiction. It followed from this that the prisoners discharge had to be refused. The effect of this decision will be very salutary, as it will bring over one connected with shipping under the control of the ordinary courts. From the trouble of deciding exactly whether a vessel was within the boundaries of a certain county or province or not, and the distance and difficulty in reaching the Admiralty Courts no doubt many crimes which will now be reached have been allowed to go unnoticed.

SURRENDER OF INSURGENTS.

FELONIOUS STABBING.

Toronto, Tuesday, Aug. 26.

George Albert Mason was brought up charged with having on the 28th April last wilfully and feloniously stabbed one Robert Nicoll. Mr. John McNab, and Mr. John Bell, Q. C., appeared for the prosecution, and Mr R A Harrison, Q C, for the defence. Robert Nicoll, the first witness who was examined, gave evidence as to the wounds inflicted upon him, and his long confinement to a sick-bed. He stated honestly that, owing to his intoxicated condition at the time of the occurrence, he could not swear that it was Mason who stabbed him, and had but a very confused and indistinct remembrance of all the circumstances. The other witnesses examined were Messrs John Westhead, John C Gray, and R Greig. The testimony was the same as that given before the police magistrate, and already published at full length in The Leader. They completely brought home the guilt to Mason. Two other witnesses were called by the Crown. The first was Mr. Francis Whitemore of the Gas-office, whose evidence was rather favorable to Mason. He stated that at the time of the affray the whole crowd seemed to be running towards Mason; that he believed Mason used the knife to keep back the crowd and protect himself; and that when he was driven to the wall and got his back to it, he yelled murder two or three times before he made the thrusts with the knife. He also swore that Nicoll again attempted to attack Mason when he was in the hands of the police, and that he (Nicoll), after he had been stabbed, walked into the fire station without assistance or help from any one.

Alderman Boulton also gave rather favorable testimony towards Mason. A warrant was issued to secure the attendance of Dr. Dale Buchanan and Dr Newcombe, who, it was understood, refused to attend, because they would not be paid. The case is adjourned till 2 o'clock to-morrow. Several new, and it is said important witnesses, will be produced on the part of the crown, and Mason has issued subpœnas for over so many on his own behalf, the case will likely occupy the best part of to-morrow.

Quebec.

SUICIDE OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN.

Quebec, August 25.—The body of Mr. Knight, merchant tailor of this city, was found this morning floating in the river. He left his home last Friday evening with the intention of taking a walk, as was his custom, but before going out he removed his watch and scarf pin from his person, which aroused the suspicions of his family, and an active search has been going on since. A gentleman says he saw and spoke to Mr. Knight on Friday night on the pontoon of Finlay market, where the Point Levis ferryboats land, and it is now supposed he committed suicide a short time afterwards by drowning. Mr. Knight has been unsuccessful, it appears, in his business transactions during the past twelve months, which affected his mind. Mr. Knight was always considered an upright, honest citizen, and universally liked and respected, notwithstanding his business misfortunes, which was not attributable to any neglect or want of attention on his part.

Sharp and Connor, now in custody on a charge of scuttling the schooner Garryowen, were brought before Judge Wilson yesterday in habeas corpus. Their counsel contended that, as Lake Erie is in the States or forms part of some Township in Canada, the committing magistrate should be that one nearest to where the offence was committed; or, if it was considered to have been done on the high seas, then the Admiralty Court was the proper tribunal. The prisoners were remanded and judgment reserved.

NEARLY A SERIOUS CONFLAGRATION.—Last night while Mr. Stewart, of the firm of J. H. BREAKFAST.—EPP'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—The very agreeable character of this preparation has rendered it a general favourite. ANOTHER ENOCH ARDEN.—Ancient Enoch Ardens are turning up all over the country. The latest is Samuel Eastman, who left Concord, New Hampshire, in 1819, to 'better himself' in Massachusetts. He has just been fifty years in the bettering business, during which time he has married a second 'better half' and raised a crop of supplementary olive branches, and, moreover, has been on several whaling voyages. 'Better half' No 2 dying, Samuel Eastman suddenly appears to Mr. Eastman No. 1 in Concord, when the following conundrum were propounded: 'Is this Samuel Eastman my husband?' and 'Is this my long-lost wife?' Whereupon, according to a local narrative, 'they rushed into each other's arms and kissed him with all the ardour of sweet sixteen.' The hilarity of the occasion was heightened by the gratifying announcement of old Mr. Eastman that, although his eyesight was defective, he could still throw a harpoon as well as ever, and Rev. T. B. Eastman, Samuel Eastman's son by Mrs. Eastman No. 1, offered a prayer of thank-giving over the happy reunion.

God Save the Queen.

[Sung at Halifax at the Reception of Prince Arthur.]

God Save Our Gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God Save the Queen:
Monarch of people free,
Proudly we claim to be
Sprung from her kingdom three,
God Save the Queen.

God bless her Royal son,
Her children every one,
God bless them all;
Not for themselves alone,
But for the Crown and Throne
And Britain's weal we own,
On Heaven we call.

God keep our mother land,
May Britain ever stand,
Pride of the world;
Her flag on land and sea,
Symbol still let it be
Of might and majesty,
Where'er unfurled.

Welcome young Prince to thee,
True to the Empire we,
Have ever been;
The changes time may bring,
Far from our thoughts we fling,
Join we this day to sing,
God save the Queen.
