NEWS OF THE DAY.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 25, 1869.

Fashionable Millinery.—It is as well to be out of the world as out of the fashion, at least all the ladies think so, those of Kingston not excepted. Mrs. Anglin, the Fashionable Milliner of this good city, has just returned from Europe, having visited the cities of Paris and London to purchase her Winter Stock of pretty things. She has opened her Show Rooms (see advertisement), and has for inspection quantities of everything that the ladies like, and which she is most happy and most willing to show to her old friends, as well as her new friends.

St. James' Church.—The services of St. James' Church, which have been suspended during repairs, will be resumed (D.V.) on Sunday (to-morrow), the 26th inst.

The Storm.—The great storm of Monday last was felt far and near, in the same violence it visited Kingston. At Quebec a house and barn were struck by lightning, the latter being burnt to the ground. At Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, the house of Mr. Job. Hamilton was struck by lightning. Hamilton and his wife were instantly killed, the house set on fire, and a bed-ridden daughter perished in the flames. Two breaks of the lightning here escaped our notice among the many reported. A thick copper wire empl yed to connect the line at the Cataraqui drawbridge was melted in two, and an instrument in the city telegraph office exploded, and was destroyed.

Steamer.—The Express Line of steamers will be discontinued for the season from this date. The str. Abyssinian does not make her trip to-day, and on Tuesday next will pay us a visit, prior to proceeding to Charlotte to lie up until the spring of 1870. The Athenian, as already well known, was laid up last week, and the Abyssinian was announced to maintain a tri-weekly line. This arrangement, however, has been abandoned, and communication with Oswego by water will now depend on the Rochester.

The Early Rose.—This potatoe is making a charming debut. N. B. Howard of Lot No. 7, Lansdowne, has furnished another flattering evidence of its productiveness. He bought in Brockville one half lb. of Early Rose potatoes, for which he paid fifty cents, and planted about the first of May on good rich soil. He dug up on the 25th of August and weighed the increase, and had 65 pounds from the half pound planted; and many of the potatoes weighed a pound a piece.

The addition of numerous suits of rooms to the American House, Boston, renders it more than ever a deserved favorite with families travelling. Its central position and large airy rooms are unsurpassed.

Summary Trial.—On Thursday the prisoner John Cochrane, committed for trial at the Police Court on a charge of stealing four cheeses, of the value of $8, from the premises of Mrs. Mary Howie, near Cataraqui, which he sold to Mr. R. Carson, of Princess street, was tried in Chambers before His Honor Judge Burrows, under the act for the speedy trial of prisoners. The same evidence was produced as was heard in the Police Court, the second trial being a mere repetition of the first, and the case was taken en delibere by His Honor. Yesterday morning the prisoner being convicted, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary, a sentence none too heavy to top off a career such as his has been. It was only a few months ago he made his debut here, and since that time he has been arrested six times. On one occasion, it will be recollected, he was found guilty of robbing Dr. Yates' residence in Pittsburg, and at the solicitation of the gentleman he had wronged, received only the light sentence of one month in gaol. Again he was concerned in the breaking in of Mr. Hutton's Inn at Barriefield, and received another month in gaol for the offence.

The prisoner committed from the Police Court yesterday, would also be tried summarily, it was understood. All the petty cases sent up from the Police Court since the act came in force have been promptly disposed of.

Police Court, Friday.—John Campbell and Johanna Murphy were both on a spree yesterday, if the charge sheet and the policemen's evidence tell truely. Both were discharged, though, Johanna giving a solemn promise not to get drunk again and annoy her neighbors. Charles Smy and William Assum were arrested for assaulting Mrs. Mary Wright, but as the case was settled between the parties, Mr. Creighton did not interpose his authority. Anson Topliff was charged by George Burley with larceny, and at the conclusion of the case was committed for trial

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY
For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthama, Influenza, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchit's, Predisposition to Consumption, &c., &c.
This great remedy is too well known and is performing so much good to make it necessary to go into an elaborate discussion of its merits. Suffice it to say that it still maintains its supremacy in curing diseases of the most obstinate character, and that all who suffer from the above complaints, after having tested this remedy, seldom have occasioned to resort to other appliances to insure a perfect restoration to health.
Testimony of Mr. Peter Shaw.
West Winfield, N.Y., Dec. 10, 1860.
Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Son, Boston.
Gentlemen,—During the winter of 1858 I was very much out of health afflicted with a severe Cough, Pain in the side and Lungs and a general depression of health to such an extent as greatly to alarm myself and friends as to the result. During this time I tried several highly recommended remedies, with little or no good result, and had concluded to try the effect of a Southern climate upon my health; but, before carrying this resolution into effect I was induced by the urgent solicitation of your agent, Mr. Huntley, to give Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a trial. I did so, and, to my great joy found immediate and permanent relief by the use of only one bottle, and I am now in as good health as ever. I believe your Balsam one of the best remedies for Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases, now in use, and conscientiously recommend it as such.
Yours truly,
PETER SHAW.
Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont St., Boston, and for sale by Druggists generally.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.
We are constantly hearing favorable reports from those who have tried this remedy. Amy Anthony, wife of Mark Anthony, of this city, and living at No. 6 Locust Street, afflicted with a felon on the finger, was recently induced to make a trial of the Salve. Almost instantly she experienced a relief from the pain, which had been almost unendurable. Every other remedy but this proved unavailing. Those who have tried it once are satisfied of its merits, and nothing will induce them to be without a supply.—Fall River News.
