☞ Sir Francis Hincks has written to Mr. Morrison, Editor of the Telegraph, apologizing for insulting personal language used during his canvas in North Renfrew.

☞ Belleville is in danger of becoming a one-horse town. A correspondent writes:—

"Do not those that are opposed to the road see that if Kingston gets the railway that that will be the first step towards a separation of the County, whereby Madoc would then become the County Town of the North, and Belleville would lose enough trade in five years to build two such railways. If this separation should take place, Belleville would then become the County Town of only three or four Townships, while Madoc would be the County Town of some ten or twelve townships. Is it not, therefore, the duty of every tax-payer and land owner in the Town, to do all in their power towards having the railway between Belleville and Madoc built as soon as possible."

The Pantin Murder.

The France du Nord publishes a statement which leads to the opinion that nine persons in all have been the victims of Traupmann, the Pantin murderer. It says:—

The painful impression caused by the disappearance of a young man of Boulogne, named Dubourquoy, employed at M. Pinart's foundry at Marquise, cannot have been forgotten. We now learn that he fell a victim to the infamous Traupmann, and was drowned by that monster in human form. It will be remembered that the murderer of the Kincks boasted on one occasion that he had thrown a man into the water, and on the 2nd of July last the body of an individual, afterwards identified as that of Dubourquoy, who had disappeared when returning from Lille, and from whom a sum of 200f. had been taken, had been discovered. A small portmanteau, which had belonged to the victim, has been found in the possession of Traupmann.

It is gratifying to learn that Horace Greeley, who has been such a persistent hater of everything British, who wished the American fishermen to go to the Nova Scotian coast, and did all he could to encourage the Fenians in their designs upon this country, has been beaten in the elections for the State of New York. He deserves defeat. Some one talks, however, of nominating him for the Governorship.

A Reverend Peeping Tom.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

The amphitheatre at the fair grounds of the Campbell County Agricultural Society, near Alexandria, Ky., is so constructed that a person on the outside may if he wishes, walk underneath the promenade and the circular rows of benches, though this is positively forbidden by the rules of the society. Why the directors never had the space under the promenade boarded up is more than we can tell. Their negligence in this respect is certainly most culpable, as the facts we are about to relate show. During the last fair at Alexandria, which was held about the middle of September, several young men of sensual proclivities were caught underneath the promenade by the police employed by the society, and were summarily expelled from the grounds. One person, however, it was observed by many managed to elude the vigilance of the police. He watched their coming so closely that he succeeded in enjoying the rare privilege of holding a good position under the seats and promenade at various times on the first three days of the fair, seeing, of course, all that was to be seen with a good pair of upturned eyes. On the last day, however, he came to grief. One of the policemen, in making his customary round, nabbed the gentleman while he was enjoying a fragrant cigar and admiring the beautiful limbs of the lovely females above him. It was a no less personage than Mr. F. T. Johns, the beloved pastor of Asbury Chapel, six miles back of Newport, on the Alexandria pike. He is also the Minister of the Methodist Church of Alexandria, and of the Morris Chapel, two miles south of this place. The Sunday following the expulsion from the Fair Grounds, Mr. Johns repaired to Asbury Chapel for the purpose of preaching, but he found the doors closed against him. The indignation of the members of the church was aroused, and they were not in the humor to listen, on that day, to the gospel as expounded by their former favorite, but now disgraced pastor. Shortly after this Mr. Joseph C. Horner, one of the officers of the church, at present residing in Covington, drew up in a formal manner, "charges and specifications" against Mr. Johns, a copy of which was furnished the accused, and he was cited to appear before Rev. J. C. Harrison, the Presiding Elder of the district, and a board of seven preachers, for examination. The board met at the Union Methodist Episcopal Church, in Covington, last Wednesday. The Presiding Elder appointed the Rev. Granville Moody, of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Newport, to defend Mr. Johns. The charges which were that he had acted in an "indecent and scandalous manner," were then read to him, whereupon he pleaded guilty, but solemnly declared having been incited by any improper motive in conducting himself as he did. He said that he knew it was wrong, and very unbecoming a minister, but he did not view it in that light at the time. He expressed great penitence, and by his remarks enlisted the sympathies of many present in his behalf. Mr. Johns has been a preacher for, we understand, nineteen years. He was was appointed to his present by the last conference, which met at Harrodsburg. The board, after maturely considering the cases concluded to suspend Mr. Johns from exercising the functions of his office until the next Conference, which meets at Maysville, Kentucky, in February, 1870, when he will be formally tried.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, MISHLER' BITTERS, RICHARDSON'S BITTERS, PLANTATION BITTERS, &c.

There is no form in which distilled spirits or diluted alcohol is presented to the public more likely to create confirmed habits of tippling, and a final and fatal slavery to the cup, than in the forms suggested by the heading of this article. These compound are nothing more nor less than whiskey or rum, disguised by the addition of some bitter barks, woods and roots, of which a man with a tolerable acquaintance with botany might gather a cart load in almost any patch of woodland in our country. * * * These bitter makers are building fortunes out of the sale of bittered whiskey, and out of the credulity and unconscientiousness of thousands in whose impaired nervous systems there is a demand for stimulants or narcotics, and who have yet too much regard for an improved public sentiment, and too much conscience to drink whiskey raw from a whiskey saloon or a bar-room. In a future number of the Advocate I propose to unmask with an unsparing hand of smooth hypocrisy, mock philanthropy and affected sympathy for suffering humanity with which this colored whiskey business is so artfully gilded. In the meantime, let all friends of temperance and lovers of their country and race beware of the whiskey devil disguised as medicine.—Charles Jewett.

"Look here, upon this picture, and on this"—SHAKESPEARE.

Corr.

Laboratory of Department of Agriculture.
Washington, Dec. 28, 1869.

A. M. F. Gianelli's (of Montreal) "Wine Bitters," tested in this Laboratory, yielded the following results: "Royal Italian Bitters" (2 bottles examined) specific gravity, 1.0009.

Mean of several determinations

Alcohol (by weight)	15.2 00	per cent.
Sugar (cane)	3.37	do.
Do. (fruit)	63	do.

The extraction was abundant, and contained several aromatic odors. Upon evaporation, precipitation and re-precipitation with the usual re-agents, it yielded a substance having the reaction "Quanthine" of Faure. Tartaric acid was separable in appreciable quantity and easily detected.

Solution of Nitrate of Silver was not reduced by the liquid ("Bitters") nor was there any other evidence of the presence of Fusil Oil.

This analysis shows that the ethereal principle of Wine (Oenanthine) is present in considerable amount—that the peculiar acid of Sherry Wine is also present, and that no traces of Fusil Oil can be detected.

From these reactions it is evident that Wine has been used in the manufacture of the "Italian Wine Bitters," and that no whiskey—as this latter is usually sold (i.e., without high rectification), has been used in the manufacture.

The greater portion of the alcohol found, certainly belonged to Wine present in the Bitters, and not to whiskey. (Signed)

THOS. ANTICELL, M.D.,
Chief Chemist U. S. Dept. Agriculture.

To A. M. F. GIANELLI, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—After a fair trial, I take pleasure in recommending your Royal Bitters. It is a very excellent stimulating tonic, aiding digestion and giving tone to the digestive organs. In your note you informed me of the ingredients. I think it is a most admirable combination; a pleasant, useful, and reliable tonic.

Yours truly,
R. T. COOKE, M. D.,
New York City.

MR. GIANELLI.

From the World-renowned Tragedienne,
MADAME RISTORI.

(TRANSLATION.)

PARIS, BOULEVARD DES MALESHERBES, No. 48, 4th July, 1867.

Al Signor Angelo M. F. Gianelli,
Montreal, Canada:

Gentilissimo Signore:

Fearing that a former letter which I addressed you, and sent by a gentleman who was going to Montreal, might not have reached you, I beg to—in effect—duplicate it. On my arrival here I opened the two cases of "Tonico Reale" which I purchased from you when in Montreal, and had many opportunities of submitting it to the judgment of very many distinguished persons who have honored me with their attentions during my sojourn here.

I have very great pleasure in acquainting you that the Tonico meets with universal approval, both among Ladies and Gentlemen, and for myself I must say that I have derived great benefit from its use.

An eminent chemist of this city says that you committed a grave error in omitting to send a sample to this great Exposition, feeling assured that it would have received distinguished honors.

As many of my friends are now almost habituated to it, I will thank you to forward by the first steamer, through your agent in New York, five cases, together with the bill for the same, on receipt of which I will immediately remit the amount.

With best wishes of success,

I remain, truly yours,
ADELAIDE RISTORI DEL GRILLO.

In adducing the foregoing unimpeachable testimonials to the salutary properties of my "Royal Italian Bitters," I would earnestly protest against the imputation of being a promoter of the improper use of intoxicating drinks. I believe, indeed, that Wine, as one of the Creator's gifts to man, is good in itself, and its temperate use allowable to all; and, therefore, have no hesitation in admitting it to be an ingredient in my preparation, with as much of the alcoholic principle as is inseparable from its nature. But I am no apologist for drunkenness or drunkards, and believe that those who have not sufficient self-control to avoid running into excess had better abstain altogether from its use.

Kept by the principal Wine Merchants, Druggists and Grocers. Retail price 75c. per bottle.

Sole Manufacturer and Proprietor.
