FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 26, 1869.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—A lecture will be given by Mr. Woods this evening, in the Hall. The subject—Paul before the Areopagus—is interesting and instructive, and will afford a wide field for review and illustration. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

THE OLDEST INHABITANT.—A French Canadian of the name of Le Page, who sometimes sells wood in winter time, is probably the oldest inhabitant of Kingston, for altho' he was not born in the city, yet he came to it in 17 9.

NEVER SAY DIE.—Altho' the Counsel for the County, Mr. Snook, was defeated in his action against the City, and the Bonnifoys, an action for a great many thousands of dollars, yet he won't stay beat. Backed by the Frontenac County Committee, he is at the City again, and a day or two ago, moved the Court above for leave to amend his Declaration—taken under deliberation. We admire Mr. Snook's pluck, and we admire the Committee that prompts him to go ahead. What matters who wins? Both the County and City have long purses, and why should they not both fork out some of their surplus funds in law costs?

POLICE COURT, Wednesday.—Eliza Sloan admitted the soft impeachment of having been drunk, and of existing as a vagrant, and entreated to be let go out to service in the country. She is now rusticating. Wm. Bowman, vagrant, is a prospective passenger for the str. Watertown, to the Cape. Yesterday Jas. Mills preferred a charge of assault against Jas. McCarthy, but did not appear to prosecute; case dismissed. But this morning the order is reversed—Jas. McCarthy has Jas. Mills up. This time the case was heard and adjourned, and justice to all parties is vouchsafed.

The Stone Giant.

There seems reason to believe that the so-called human petrifaction, or statue recently found near Syracuse, N. Y., will turn out to be a sell. A recent examination shows that although not solid it weighs some hundred pounds more than a solid stone statue of the size would do, and has a clear metallic ring. The latest theory of outsiders is that the statue is of cast iron covered with cement, and that it was planted where found by one of the owners, a cousin of the proprietor of the land, and a well-known travelling showman.

Another theory is that the statue formerly belonged to the collection of Artemus Ward, who, in his veracious chronicles recorded the loss of one of his statues in that neighborhood as follows:

In the fall of 1856 I showed my show in Utiky, a truly great city in the State of New York.

The people gave me a cordyal reception, the press was loud in her praises. I day as I was giving a description of my Beests and Snaiks, in my usual flowery style, what was my scorn and disgust to see a big burly feller walk up to the cage containin my wax figger of the Lord's Last Supper, and cease Judas Iscariot by the feet and drag him out on the ground. He then commenced fur to pound him as hard as he could.

"What under the son are you about?" cried I.

Sez he, "What did you bring this pusaylanermus cuss here fur?" and he hit the wax figger a tremenjis blow on hed.

Sez I, "You egrojus ass, that air's a wax figger—a representashun of the false 'postle."

Sez he, "That's very well fur you to say, but I tell you, old man, that Judas Iscariot can't show hisself in Utiky with impunerty by a darn site," with which he caved in Judassis hed. The man belonged to 1 of the fust families of Utiky. I sued him, and the jowry brawt in a verdick of arson in the 3rd degree.

It is stated that as a consequence of the death of Chancellor VanKoughnet, V. C. Spragge will be raised to the vacant post, Mr. Justice Gwynne becoming Vice Chancellor; and Speaker Cockburn succeeding Justice Gwynne. In the latter case a vacancy will be created in West Northumberland.

Another escape from Cornwall Gaol. The two horse-thieves, who lately managed to escape from Cornwall gaol, but were recaptured as it was asserted, by the "extreme vigilance" of the gaoler, have again given that worthy the slip, and this time effectually. A strange kind of "watch and ward" must be kept to permit of prisoners playing such serious practical jokes upon the gaoler.

The press in the Province of Quebec is said to be so indifferent to the proceedings of the Local Legislature that the Montreal papers will not even send reporters into the gallery during the session. A debating assembly without the stimulus given to its members, by published reports of their speeches is pretty sure to deteriorate rather than improve.

Twinkle, Twinkle.

Like the merry bells,
Sleigh driving flirtations are all in order.
Now is the winter of our discontent.
Who is Kingston's oldest inhabitant? Will some one answer?
Unhappy Quebec is in the agonies of Local Parliament.
Prince Edward is going in heavy on cider making apples are cheap.
To be seen for nothing—The play of the features. Those of the T. H. G. are very prominent and worth a full admission price. This is not to be paid for as a puff.
The London Free Press has a good paragraph. Crop as a crumb.
Seasonable jokes—what sort of ladies resemble Pocahontas? Polka-hunters.
The Hamilton Times speaks of "the Townsend Family of this city." We thought they hailed from Kingston. Ambitious Hamilton.
Picton ladies are dying for a visit from Prince Arthur. But the dear little fellow cannot see them before next summer. Hope deferred, &c.
Paper cuffs—The assaults of the Globe and the Leader on each other.
The Oswego Times says that George Price, arrested and held for robbery, hails from Kingston. Your's another. Its a malicious slander.
The St. Catharines Times has some capital bon mots. Their best merit is not originality.
Upper Canada maple is worth $7 per cord in Montreal. Ottawa pays $5 for its wood. Pile on the price, and God help the poor.

The following Remedies are all old and well established and thousands have been benefited by their use. They are for sale by druggists generally.

The Peruvian Syrup,

Grace's Celebrated Salve.

From Mr. James Corbin, of Amesbury Mass.

"I was afflicted with a severe felon on one of my fingers, and tried many remedies without relief. My friends induced me to apply your Salve. In two days it entirely acted the inflammation from my finger so as to enable me to resume my work. I can almost say that the Salve worked like magic, for it effected a cure without leaving a scar. I unhesitatingly pronounce GRACE'S SALVE an excellent remedy and do not doubt it will be appreciated throughout the land.

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne!
THE NEW PAIN RELIEVER,
IS THE MOST RELIABLE REMEDY for all Pain, of whatever kind, whether internal or external. It is a certain cure for
NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATORY SORE THROAT, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, DYSENTERY, CRAMPS, COLDS, DYSPEPSIA, FLATULENCE,
And all Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels.
It is not a weak or untried Medicine, rashly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in this immediate vicinity, as well as elsewhere through Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. Dr. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.
No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A. the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely banished after a few applications. Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that when taken it gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne.
If you suffer from NEURALGIA, use A. A. A.
If you are a martyr to TOOTHACHE, use A. A. A.
