FIRE.—On Monday evening between seven and eight o'clock, a fire started in the lower portion of the frame building owned by Mr. Thos. Keys, and situated on the corner of Wellington and Queen streets. The building is rough cast, almost new, divided into two compartments, and was lately occupied by the owner and a tenant, who kept a snuff shop. Recently it was vacated for the purpose of finishing the interior work, and was empty at the time of the fire.

The flames were first seen in the north end of the building, in the portion lately occupied by the tenant, and before many minutes the flames assumed a complete mastery. The alarm was speedily given, and speedily followed by the arrival of the fire brigade. At this point there was a poor prospect of confining the flames to the building, and saving other property. The water supply was a little more encouraging to this end than usual, and after about half an hour's hard work, the firemen had the satisfaction of seeing the success of their efforts. The flames, which at one time seemed to envelope one-half of the building, were suppressed, and it stood almost unaltered to outward appearances, but with one-half of the interior completely gutted. The southern portion of the building occupied by Keys has suffered from the effects of water.

The origin of the fire is a mystery, which it is not in our province to explain. Once before the lot was the scene of a conflagration through which Mr. Keys was a sufferer, which denotes a certain fatality. There is, we are informed, an insurance of $700 upon the whole property in the Mutual of Toronto. Mr. Keys with his family, was boarding at the Rob Roy Inn, and the alarm was the first intimation he had of the fire. He estimated his loss, exclusive of the damage to the building, at $1,000 in grocery stock, and $132 in cash, for, though the building was vacant, it is claimed to have been stocked

☞ A VERY COMMON COMPLAINT.—Letters mailed in the Home Dominion marked 'Canada Steamer,' and properly stamped, are often sent by the Cunard Steamer, and the postage paid at Home lost; for the full postage of 15 cents is demanded in Canada. There is no redress except by complaint made to the Postmaster General in London.

The procession was fully half-a-mile in length.

Religious Fanaticism.

HORRIBLE ATROCITIES OF THE SKOPTZI.

The fanatical sect of Russia are still exciting the attention of Europe. A Russian paper gives an account of one of their recent exploits. One day last month a party of four hundred of these fanatics left the town of Balaschow, and proceeded to a neighboring wood to pray. The scene witnessed on their return was horrible. A mad man named Wasiloff declared that he was the Son of God, and after choosing twelve apostles from the party he called for a human sacrifice. Five victims were at once selected, placed on a number of wagons which had been piled up for the purpose, and burned alive. A woman who had distinguished herself by the violence of her religious paroxysms, seized the shaft of the cart and beat two young girls to death, while another female was trodden under foot and then literally torn to pieces by the fanatical crowd. Other details are given of the horrors enacted, which are utterly unfit for publication. The Governor of the town heard of the facts and sent a company of soldiers to the spot, where the whole party was arrested and placed under confinement, thus stopping further excesses. It is hardly to be wondered at, that the Russian authorities are in perplexity how to deal with the members of this sect. The infliction of physical pains and penalties has no terrors, but the contrary.
