Michaelmas Term.

OTTAR VS. MCCORMICK, STEAMBOAT DEPARTMENT.—This case was argued last week, and stands for judgment. Mr. Justice Morrison is strong in favor of the plaintiff, and Mr. Justice Wilson is equally strong the other way. There being only two Judges at present in this Court, Chief Justice Richards being absent, we have, as a result, we fear, that the relief obtained by the defendant, will be no larger than, if even, K. McKenzie, Q.C., and Mr. P. O'Reilly, Jr., for the plaintiffs; Mr. S. A. Harrison, Q.C., for defendant.

SLEEPING IN CHURCH.—This habit is indulged largely in by some of our citizens, and in the place of worship we attended recently we observed a loss than eight persons enjoying "nature's calm restorer." We see that a Yankee inventor has patented a head rest attachment for church pews, intended to support the head of the worshipper when so inclined. The contrivance can be detached at pleasure. When the agent of the new invention comes to this city, no doubt he will obtain many orders. Dull preachers, if there are any, will receive the new aid to piety with just alarm. The spectacle of shelf after shelf going up, and sleepy head after sleepy head going down, in the middle of choice passages in the discourse, might well appal the stoutest heart, and freeze the most eloquent tongue.

A ROUGH OPENING.—Winter is beginning a most arbitrary reign. On Saturday—how is it this day is so peculiarly unfortunate in regard to weather?—the wind blew, and the disagreeable drift-snow flew, and—well that's enough of poetry—it was cold and disagreable generally. It was a regular sneezer, so every one said.

The ice in the upper harbor has been nearly all broken up by the wind.

☞ The Navigation at Quebec outwards, is closing up suddenly. Two vessel had to return to Indian Cove, in consequence of the Traverse being ice-bound.

☞ The Boston Line of steamers to Liverpool, the "Erie" and "Ontario," one of which had only run a short time, and the other, though complete, had not run at all, have been sold by auction, for about one third of their cost, to a New York firm.

☞ The City Council (could it not be more dignified and quite proper to call it Board of Aldermen) meets this evening in the Mechanics' Institute Reading Room, its own chamber being now at the mercy of plasterers and painters.

POLICE COURT, Saturday.—There was nothing before the Magistrate today, except an empty bucket, and the ever-present and venerable Chick.

EUROPE.

By Atlantic Cable.

LONDON, Dec. 3.

The cotton mills of Lancashire are again running in full time.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Dec. 3.

A sitting of the Corps Legislatif was prayed Henri Rochefort rose and demanded that a national guard be ordered to glorify the fall of the Corps Legislatif, in future, for the protection of the members. Rochefort took the Chamber by surprise, and created an extraordinary sensation. Expressions of astonishment were heard on all parts of the hall—cheers, laughs, which soon succeeded, were by cries of order on all sides. The opposition members took no part in applause, but the majority joined in the demand and the demonstration made in its favor.

The fête of disorders yesterday, on the occasion of the anniversary of the barricades of 1851, and of the death of Baudin, have been realized. The city has been tranquil.

TROUBLE IN THE GREAT COUNCIL.

LONDON, Dec. 3.

Despatches from Rome announce that a pre-Synodal Conference was held yesterday, when a papal allocution was delivered and not a word whispered to the officers of the Ecumenical Council.

The London Times writes:—

"Things at Rome are suffering in the Council. Infallibility is triumphant. The Austrian and German bishops demur to the dogma of infallibility, and discord is apprehended among the Ultramans. Antonelli shakes his head at a performance in which he never felt sympathy. It will be some time before it can become clear whether the Council will bring the church peace or a sword?"

DESERTER CAUGHT.—A deserter from the Royal Artillery, Montreal, "reported" himself at Clifton on Saturday last. He had reached the United States, but on arriving at Suspension Bridge, N.Y., imagined that he was on the wrong side of the river, and crossed into Canada. On arriving on this side he enquired of a hack-driver if he was not in "York State?" The driver gave an affirmative answer, when the man snapped his fingers and shouted in great joy, and then enquired if it was possible for him to get work either as a driver or hostler. The hackman agreed to employ him at $12 per month, but as soon as he had lured the man up now he handed him over to the tender mercies of the look-out party.—St. Catharines Journal.

GRATIS ADVERTISING.—We suppose that there are few persons who are expected to do so much work for nothing as newspaper proprietors. Bores of the heaviest calibre will occupy the attention of an editor by the half hour at a time, while a whole room full of compositors are making extra hours waiting for copy, about some absurd crochet or subject of mere personal interest, and without even thanks for the pains bestowed upon him. A lawyer, notary, or doctor would charge dollars and pounds for the same consumption of time. Then, every man with a grievance expects to have his complaints set forth at the expense of any newspaper proprietor he knows, without even payment for the cost of setting; and above all every one who has a charitable project or fund expects the advertising to be done for nothing, or next to nothing. No one supposes that the music, or the decorations, or the gas, or room rent, is to be had gratuitously; but the printer is, as a matter of course, to give for nothing that which he lives by, as other men live by the profits of their trades. We set ourselves against this mode of proceedings. Voluntary contributions should come from newspaper proprietors on the same terms as from other people according to their ability and their will. But business should be treated on business principles. It is very rare that public objects do not derive much advantage from newspaper assistance in those columns where matter appears without charge. It is too much to expect more from them.

Dr. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.

Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that when taken it gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne.

If you suffer from NEURALGIA, use A. A. A.
If you are a martyr to TOOTHACHE, use A. A. A.
