Wh ggings.

Coal is scarce.

Fog in Kingston.

Skating in New York.

Good sleighing at Boston.

The last vestige of snow gone. Peculiar weather generally.

Not classed among calamities—when a paper is "run over" with advertisements. Such calamities are not frequent in Kingston.

It is, perhaps, not worth while after all, but we make bare mention of the fact, that a very large bear hung in front of Mr. Hobart's drug store on Saturday. Bruno met his fate at the hands of a farmer last week. People will know for a while where to get genuine bear's grease.

The Kingston correspondent of the Buffalo Express has been instructing the readers of that journal on Canadian matters. He is a sensible fellow. But who is he, anyway?

"Lightning Oil" is played out, or rather the proprietor is, and pedlers cry themselves hoarse for the "Thunder and Lightning Liniment."

"Shoo, Fly!" has become so popular in the States that a man sung it when having his foot amputated.

We hear that Dr. Fenwick is about to oppose Mr. Wm. P. Phillips in Cataraqui Ward for School Trustee for 1870 and '71. Don't do it, doctor.

An ice, and some people say, a nice velocipede, with both wheels and runners is interesting Montreal.

The other day we mentioned that John Smith was in town. Several gentlemen have called since to learn if we intended it as personal. We subside.

The latest things out are paper pails, washtubs, and spittoons.

Henderson, of the City News Depot, you know, advertizes "All the poets, in rash bin lings." Byron would be useful just now, and if not secured, we will take him.

Hair nets in gold wire are new and pretty. They are becoming to both blonde and brunette.

Teacher—Who was David? Boy—The son of Jesse. Teacher—And who was Jesse? Boy—The flower of Dunblane.

New fashioned visiting cards contain the names of both mother and unmarried daughters. Economical and suggestive.

Aldermanic Elections—Ald. Brophy is going straight in for Ou-tare-i-o Ward, while it is not so sure that Ald. Livingston will Ridea-ver Mr. McCrae in the other quarter. In Cat-a-rat-que Ward, Ald. Dillon is having a run all to himself.

One of the young doctors in town tells us with some little disregard for Lindley Murray, that "patients is a virtue."

Our Iron (ing) Roads.—Motto for some of our railways—"Mangling done here."

The Christian Journal opens the religious discussion of its last issue with an article on "salaries." Significant.

Flirtation is like cricket—one has to be bowled to play it.

A Paris doctor proposes to bleach rum-blossomed noses by electricity.

According to a recent decision, boarding-house keepers who serve hash are obliged to take out a license as manufacturers.

The Globe's Kingston correspondent says that Ald. Tompkins' chances for the Mayoralty are uncertain. Are they indeed? How many think so?

Buckskin undergarments are the newest novelties in gentlemen's clothing. They are warmer than barnskin drawers.

Chignons are reaching a frightful size in Paris, and, oh horror, the ladies are to use neck supporters.

Prentice advises, if time passes tediously with you, provoke some big fellow to knock you into the middle of next week.

Washawfampantoreumpoo, a chief of the Arizona Indians, is dead. Poor Washawfampantoreumpoo! There are no Washawfampantoreumpos left who possessed the good heart of this Washawfampantoreumpoo.

An injured husband caught his wife just on the point of eloping with a handsome man. He took a terrible vengeance by locking up all her good clothes, and then telling her to go.

Be careful in what you say. A young woman went into a store and asked for "feline intestines for lyrical purposes." The clerk told her he was out of them, but had some mighty good cat-gut fiddle-strings. She fainted and had to be carried out on a Bill stamp. Such is life.

It is advertised in the London Times:—"To Proprietors of Haunted Houses.—A few gentlemen wish to have the opportunity of visiting a house said to be haunted situate in or near London, for the purpose of scientific observation." If report speaks true gentlemen of like scientific inclination can be accommodated with a genuine subject in Kingston, not a hundred miles from Gore street.

A very young mother divested herself of some divine afflatus on "baby" a short time since. Here is one pathetic verse:

"Doxery doodle-um dinkle-um dum,
Tum to its muzzery muzzery mum;
Tizzery izzery bozzery boo,
No baby so sweet and so pitty as you.

Here is a physician is reported to have said about a little boy:—"Why, it's only a corrosticified exogenic antispasmodically emanating from the germ of the animal refrigerator, producing a prolific of irritibility in the peripernal epidermis of the mental profundity." "Ah!" retorted the mother, "that's what I told Betsy; but she 'lowed it was worrum."

WHO FOR?

Let me kiss you for your mother—
For your sister—cousin—aunt;
Or for somebody or other
Whom I long to kiss but can't.
I could wish my love beside me,
As I've you beside me now:
But the pleasure is denied me,
So I'll kiss you anyhow.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT. — The Ladies of L'Hotel Dieu Hospital acknowledge with many thanks the receipt of twenty dollars from the Members of No. 1 Fire Company for the benefit of the sick and orphans of the institution.

Police Court, Saturday.

There were four cases on the docket this morning, viz., three "drunks" and a case of larceny. John Cummins was charged with feloniously appropriating a sum of money, the property of Mr. A. McCormack, to his own use. Mr. McCormack was going to the Bank yesterday to deposit some money. He carried his bank-book in his hand, and the cover of the book having slipped off, a number of the bills fell out and were scattered along the sidewalk. The prisoner, as alleged, picked up two of the bills, viz., a $10 and a $5, and ran off with them. When applied to for the money, he denied all knowledge of it. He was then arrested, and taken to the Station house. It was proved that the prisoner found the money, and that he changed one of them, a $5, at Mr. McRae's store. The Magistrate remanded the prisoner until Monday to give him a chance to produce the money, and the witness, Michael Collins, was bound over to give evidence. Eliza Sloan, a young lady from the country, was charged with being drunk and disorderly. She was sent up for the usual period of 60 days. A large quantity of beef was seized and confiscated by the Clerk of the Market as being unfit for use.

BREAKFAST.— EPP'S COCOA.— GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"The very agreeable character of this preparation has rendered it a general favorite. The Civil Service Gazette remarks:—"The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homœopathic preparation of cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills." Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold by the Trade only in ½lb., ¼lb., tined packets, labelled—JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœpathic Chemists, London.
